

AUSTIN GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY QUARTERLY

Vol III, No. 4

Nov., 1962

Published by AGS of Austin, Travis County, Texas

A.G.S. is a non-profit organization chartered by the State of Texas & dedicated to creating and maintaining a society for the study of genealogical history and records & depositing & preserving such records in libraries & archives for the benefit of historians & genealogists. Meetings are scheduled for the fourth Tuesday of each month or as set by the Board of Directors.

The November meeting is at 7:30 pm, Tuesday, 27 Nov. 1962 in the downstairs auditorium of the Austin Public Library, 9th & Guadalupe. We heard talk of asking a gentleman to speak on GHOST TOWNS, but rumor persists that he just disappeared! AGS does have to elect our 20 New Board members this month, but the program is still a deep, dark secret. Anyway, it's all in the family.

Nominees for AGS Board of Directors announced at our Sept. meeting were:

For 1 year: Mrs. C. W. Balch, Mrs. Wm. T. Barron, Mr. Lewis H. Carstarphen, Miss Miriam Dozier, Mrs. Herbert R. Gentry, Mrs. David C. Gracy, Mr. DeWitt C. Nogues, Mrs. Helen H. Rugeley, Mrs. Claude B. Tate, Mrs. Charles A. Walker.

For 2 years: Mrs. Ralph A. Bickler, Col. J. R. Darnall, Mrs. Joseph B. Golden, Miss Marcia M. Hoskins, Mrs. Roy H. Morris, Col. Ralph E. Pearson, Mrs. E. H. Pettibon, Mrs. Doris D. Powell, Gen. Dean F. Winn, Mrs. R. P. Woods.

Mr. P. C. Wilson, Jr. of Galveston has given AGS a booklet, HISTORY OF THE GEORGE WASHINGTON BOWMAN & FISER FAMILIES OF MOOREVILLE, FALLS CO., TEXAS, compiled by Leila Bowman A. Page & edited & published by Mr. Wilson.

Mr. C. Leon Walker of Collins, Miss. has sent over 60 pages of data on WALKERS OF TOAPING CASTLE, MARYLAND & descendants, for AGS to file & offer to Texas Archives for copying. Walker Co, Texas is named for a descendant.

DeWitt C. Nogues obtained & gave to AGS a fine, antique addressograph which we hope to use on next year's mailings.

The rest of the St. David's Episcopal Church records being prepared by our Mrs. David C. Gracy are to be printed in May & Sept, 1963 AGS quarterlies.

AGS meetings in 1962---Jan: Constitution & By-laws presented by MRS. J. F. SPRINGFIELD & problems of pedigree charts & cards by your Editor. Feb: MR & MRS J. LEE STAMBAUGH, "Some Interesting Experiences in Writing A Local History" (on Collin Co. & Rio Grande Valley). Mar: ROY A MULHOLLAND, "Westward Ho! The Migrations of the Scots & Irish to the U.S." and Co-pres. GARLAND BARCUS, "Short Discussion of Evidence in Relationship to Genealogy". Apr: DEWITT C. NOGUES, "Available Microfilm Census Schedules" and Co-Pres. BARCUS on "Dewey's Decimals". May: JUDGE ROY C. ARCHER, "Genealogical Research in Travis County", a seminar. June: CHESTER V. KIELMAN, "The Barker Library & The Genealogist". July: MRS. PEARL CHORMLEY explained LDS genealogy research & their huge library in Salt Lake City; genealogy is a part of their religious work. Aug: Meeting cancelled because of heat, vacations & transfer of the presidency from the Barcuses (who were moving to Pakistan) to Lewis H. Carstarphen; committee, staff & Board meetings held instead. Sept: New Pres. LEWIS H. CARSTARPHEN on "Immigration into Texas" (the 1830-1880 periods; chiefly from U.S.). Oct: MISS JANE SUMNER, "Early Austin Families" & what you can find in old deed records. Nov: Program has not yet been announced. Dec: No regular meeting; Board meets to elect officers.

GENEALOGICAL INFORMATION

Texas State Genealogical Society is holding its Annual Meeting 23-24 Nov. 1962 at Baker Hotel, Dallas, Texas. Friday Registration ($1.00) at 8 am. Exhibits 8 am to 11 pm. Fred R. Cotten, Pres. of Texas State Hist. Assn. speaks on TSHA at Friday's Luncheon ($2.75). Banquet (honoring Dr. Winfrey) features James M. Day, "The Citizens of the Republic of Texas" ($3.75). Saturday Registration at 8 am. Exhibits 8 am to 4 pm. 3 afternoon Workshops as described in our Sept. issue. Luncheon ($2.75) with speaker John Plath Green, "The Advantages & Disadvantages in A Society's Cooperating with A Public Library". A 2:30 tour of DeGolyer Rare Book Room at SMU ends the conference. Mrs. Opal Bricker, 5807 Vanderbilt, Dallas 6, Texas; Telephone TAYlor 6-4052, was handling ticket sales --$10.25 for both days. Members arrange their own hotel reservations.

THE AUSTIN-STATESMAN printed 2 articles 25-26 Oct 1962--FAMILY TREE STUDY CALLED "GRANDAD ON-THE-BRAIN" (AP, New York) & 20TH CENTURY GALAHADS DIGGING TO DISCOVER THE FAMILY'S CREST (UPI, Los Angeles). We hope to have samples at Nov. meeting. 13 Nov 1962, Carol McMurtry had a front-page article GATHERING OF THE CLANS COLORFUL ONE (Salado, Tex, Sun, 11th). About 1,000 people attended this 2nd Gathering. Now is the right time to drop a note to Dick Brown at the STATESMAN about these articles & our desire for a regular genealogical column.

In the UT Main Library, Humanities Reference Room (East Room), Cases 7, 8, 9 & 10 are volume indices, a Catalogue of printed cards in the Library of Congress. Beginning in 1953, it is called the National Union Catalogue & includes not only the listings of the Library of Congress but the listings sent in to the Library of Congress from other libraries. (A "Thank you" to Mrs. H. R. Gentry).

Texas Highway Dept, Motor Vehicle Division at Jackson & West 40th Street, Austin (P. O. Box 5051, West Austin Station), sells county maps at 35¢ a sheet (about 18 x 25 in, on a scale of 1 in. to 2 mi.). Travis Co. is one sheet; W'mson Co. & Burnet Co. are 2 sheets, etc. Black & white, these show towns, creeks, highways & other landmarks by name & location of cemeteries, roads, railroads, air-fields, & buildings. AGS could add a few cemeteries, but most are shown.

Expected Dec, 1962, publication of TEXAS WOMEN OF DISTINCTION, edited by member Mrs. Ina McAdams, 1425 Preston Ave, Austin 3, Tex. Deadline for pre-publication orders ($15) was 15 Nov. About 450 pp, about 1000 biographies of contemporary women--giving occupations, memberships, children, grandchildren, 2 lineages to immigrant ancestors to U.S. (if known) & mention of other lineages.

Geological Survey, Federal Center, Denver, Colorado will send on request a free Index to Topographic Mapping of your chosen state--gives U. S. Geological Survey quadrangle sheets available & price. The Austin office at 807 Brazos, Room 209, says topographical maps cost about 30¢ a sheet; Austin has an index & price list but no maps for sale. Paul C. Wilson, Jr. of Galveston says maps are 1/24,000 or 1/25,000 in scale & show some detail--might help in locating cemeteries, etc. They show rivers, hills, landmarks, highways, schools, churches, towns & some cemeteries. AGS members can help by searching & identifying these by name.

Travis Co. Collection, Austin Public Library, has a set, ABSTRACTS OF LAND TITLES OF TEXAS, chronological by volumes & somewhat alphabetized by counties.

SOUTHWESTERN HISTORICAL QUARTERLY, Oct, 1962, has articles on "Foreigners in the Principal Towns of Ante-Bellum Texas" and "Texas Bounty Land Grants, 1835-1888". See copies at Austin Public Library, Barker or Texas Archives--or join T.S.H.A. Lists & descriptions of Texas State Archives' Map Collection ran in 1962 issues.

GENEALOGICAL INFORMATION

New Mexico Gene. Soc. is 2 years old & planned their first bulletin this fall 1962, according to Sec-Treas, Mrs. Carl J. Nissen, 629 Alvarado Dr, SE, Albuquerque, New Mexico. AGS sent them our Apr, 1962 issue.

Mrs. Sterling Robertson of Salado reported a genealogical study group there. Lufkin Gene. Society was organized 13 Sept. 1962 by Mrs. Carl Garner. An "Ancestry Researcher's Club" formed in Anahuac. President is Mrs. Jack V. Silva, Box 157, Anahuac, Texas. Genealogy is really growing in Texas.

East Tenn. Hist. Society, Lawson McGhee Library, Knoxville, Tenn. lists in Oct, 1962 ECHOES the contents of 34 issues of their annual PUBLICATIONS volume. AGS members with East Tenn. ancestors should be interested. See AGS May '62 issue, page 107, for further details. AGS exchanges with ECHOES.

S. P. Shepard, Corr. Sec. of Colorado Gene. Soc., 3386 W. 34th Ave., Denver 11, Colorado, reported, "We have a complete card file of all those names which have appeared in our periodical. Married women are filed under both married & maiden names whenever possible. We would be most happy to check out any names you would care to send." This service is for both non-members & members. They also publish queries from non-members "as space permits". Remember--a stamped, self-addressed envelope should be sent with ALL requests for information.

A list of GERMAN RECORDS IN TEXAS will appear in the Nov. issue, Fort Worth Gene. Soc. Bulletin. Oct. issue describes types of German records in Texas.

Fall, 1962, GENEALOGICAL NEWSLETTER lists "Newly Published Family Histories."

Birmingham Gene. Soc., 4320 Sixth Ave., South Birmingham, Ala. publishes a quarterly called PIONEERS.

Genealogical Book Co., 521-23 St. Paul Place, Baltimore 2, Md., sent Catalogue #202 this summer, on FAMILY HISTORIES. Catalogue #203 is BRITISH LOCAL HISTORY & GENEALOGICAL RECORDS. Abstracts, indices, parish registers, inventories, histories, etc. are indexed by English counties & Ireland, Scotland & Wales. The Heraldry, Peerage, Surnames, etc. section is separate.

Want to know where to write for vital statistics? Order booklets from U. S. Govt. Printing Office, Division of Public Documents, Washington 25, D.C.:

Birth & Death Records, U.S. & Outlying Areas, No. FS 2.102.M34 - 10¢.

Marriage Records, No. FS 2.202.M34 - 5¢.

Divorce Records, No. FS 2.102.D64 - 10¢.

The Oct, 1962 issue of OUR HERITAGE, publ. by San Antonio Gene. & Hist. Society, has more Navarro Co. marriage records (1846-57) by Mrs. Suzanne Calhoun George; & Mrs. Estha Hole Scoggins is continuing the Index to Probate Cases of W'mson Co. (1848-1900) & added tombstones of Easley Cemetery. Both are AGS members.

In case you wonder if there really are many genealogists in this country, the GENEALOGICAL HELPER published by Everton in Logan, Utah, mailed about 8,500 issues of their June '62 to paid subscribers & printed 10,000 of their Sept. '62 Exchange Edition of 228 pages--almost all queries. Until you have checked the GH each fall for cousins, you haven't done half of your searching during a year. Genealogists are listed by name, under surnames & in county & state. You might locate someone in that little town of 1,000 your people moved away from away-back-yonder. At least borrow a copy; you need not buy one!

In cases where the names in the Index Book do not seem to agree with the names in the Marriage Book, we would be most interested in hearing from persons having a personal knowledge of the correct names. The present Index does not seem to have been taken from the Marriage Books--rather from an older Index, perhaps.

INDEX #1, CONFEDERATE PENSIONERS OF TEXAS

This list was copied by Mrs. E. H. Pettibon from Index Book #1, Confederate Pensioners, pp. 13-18, on file at Texas State Archives, Austin, Texas. These veterans & widows were then resident in Texas but not always born or serving in Texas. There are several other index books running A through Z, also. The original applications are stored in the Archives & may give date & place of birth, service record, residence, signatures, partial physical description, associates, proof of marriage (by widows) & sometimes names of relatives. Papers vary as to the data given. Sometimes mortuary claims are attached, showing place & time of death & burial. The remark "Dead" on the Index was probably written when the office received notice of death. Some pensioners moved into the Confederate Home.

Following these names come BAS-- names on page 19. The applications on file at Archives are sometimes difficult to study & usually consist of several papers. If a person cannot go to the Archives to search, it might prove very expensive to have all papers reproduced for study. In some cases, it would be easier & less expensive to hire a genealogist to examine the applications needed or desired to see if there is anything which would be useful. Because of the laws which were passed from time to time in Texas, the various applications are not alike in the material filed or the blanks filled. It should be mentioned that there are also books & files on rejected applications. Some of the Index Books are on WIDOWS. Copying the indices will take quite a long time.

FILING FAMILY RECORDS

First, get out your April AGS quarterlies & your workcharts provided earlier this year. And don't put anything in ink until you've been all through the examples & instructions & your own records. Print or type (if your machine has small type).

On page 153 is a sample pedigree chart showing 1962 paid members how to file your ancestors for publication in our first 1963 AGS quarterly. This chart was filed in 1961 & amended in 1962; the listings can be seen in Apr, 1961 & 1962 issues. 1963 listings will look like 1962 listings. Where #1 on the chart is a member, no dates & details on #1 & spouse are needed; we won't print them unless a member wishes it. In filling out charts, see 1962 listings for examples of abbreviations & forms. Use no date, name or place you cannot prove. Mark guesses with a question mark & probabilities & possibilities with "prob" & "poss". Write estimates with "ca" (about) or "pre 1810" or "post 1730" or "1850-60" or "1686/7". Death dates are often indicated by "will 1733-37" or "bur. 1825". When birthdates are unavailable, christening dates are often used. Women are filed under their maiden name, when known. See on pp. 40-41 the various blanks where a given name or maiden name was unknown. THIS is how we must alphabetize names in the quarterly, but #9 on the sample chart shows how to write a grandmother with unknown maiden name. On page 41 H-8 is a widow, _____ GREY, listed as marrying Wm. POLK. See page 36 M-2 listing & page 39 M-2 for examples of an unproved but suspected given name or surname. Other wives & husbands may be listed & marked as 1st, 2nd, etc. On page 40 is a W-1 PELOT listing showing blanks for a wife whose death was recorded but not her name. Always give what little is known, but do not write a lengthy description or travelogue not suitable for these listings.

We very definitely prefer that members file a chart instead of cards. It is far easier for the Staff to type listing cards for ancestors from a chart & double-check & proof-read. Those filing a 2nd or 3rd chart (old 1960 & 1961 members) should begin with an ancestor from a chart already filed. Cards (3 x 5) used in early 1962 looked like this:

Yancey, Mattie Lee
 parents - William Thomas Yancey & Mary Louise DeWitt born - 29 Aug 1863
 place - Texana (P.O.), Jackson Co, Tex.
 married - 9 Nov 1879
 place - Round Rock, W'mson Co, Tex.
 died - 3 Mch 1953
 place - University Park, Dallas Co, Tex.
 spouse - Claude Somerville Snow (b. 1856 Mo.)
 child - Harriet Cleo Snow (b. 1890 Tex.)

Mrs. Chas. A. Walker.

There are 5 ancestors on the above card; for each of these not previously filed, a separate card should be filed with data enough for a listing. File cards only if you cannot fill more than 10-15 numbers on a chart. Not more than 30 new ancestors may be filed for one membership. Additions & corrections to data in listings of Apr, 1961 or 1962 do not count among the 30 names allowed. We will not reprint a 1961-62 listing without added data. If a member seeks more data on an ancestor already filed (or anyone not an ancestor), we recommend that a query be filed for publication. Plenty of 1961 & 1962 quarterlies are now in circulation, & we still have some for sale, so repeated listings serve little purpose. They would merely increase the size & cost of our big April quarterlies. Also, if we try to get all our ancestors printed in one year, we over-burden the AGS budget for that year, especially with the rising cost of postage.

FAMILY GENEALOGY

This poem is an extract from a most unusual genealogy owned by Brig. Gen Dean F. Winn of Austin. "Written for Mrs. E.S.L. Jones, with the love of her Granddaughter, Bessie Anderson, Cuthbert, Randolph Co, Ga, July, 1869." Mrs. E.S.L. Jones is said to be buried in an unmarked grave in Cuthbert, Ga. She had 14 children.

"Grandmother's Drawer"

"Grandmother," I said, on a bright sunny day,
As I brushed all the specks, all the dark spots away,
From an ancient drawer against the wall that stood,
Old fashioned and large, of mahogany wood.

"This drawer, dear Grandmother, so bright and so old, Throw open today and its secrets unfold."

Mrs. E.S.L.J. was born Feb. 25, 1801,
& died Apr. 7, 1807.

.....
"That yellow box bring from the dark corner here,
And, darling, draw close to my old rocking chair."
My low seat I placed very near to her side,
And quietly the box lid was thrown open wide.
"Ah! Nothing but hair," and I looked into her eyes.
Though tear-dimmed and failing, they saw my surprise
"No! Nothing but hair," her gentle voice said,
"The hair of loved ones, the loving, the dead."
Then drawing a lock from the thick masses there,
In soft tones she whispered, "My dear Mother's hair,"
Grandmother's mother; with a start I compare
The long wavy tress with her silvery hair.
"Yes, Darling, oh yes; then her brown eye shone bright,
Like swift bounding deer, was her footstep so light,
And her spirit was glad, nor the song of the bird
Was sweeter than whisperings of love that were heard,
When gathered around her, the dear Ones all stood;
In the first gentle bloom of her young womanhood.
"Alas," that all eyes be clouded with sorrow,
O'er each of us hangs some dread fated morrow,
When affection first feels the withering blight
That comes in bereavement's deep, black'ning night.
"And sorrow soon came, 'twas a heart-crushing blow,
The husband, the father, the strong was laid low.
See, this is his hair, this light auburn curl--
One tress from the cold pallid forehead they stole,
My Mother arose from this hard-stunning stroke,
Widowed and stricken and almost heart-broke;
Dread poverty came, but bravely she toiled,
By wealth and by joy and by love, all unspoiled,
But age stealing in, left its withering trace,
On hair and on eye, on step and on face,
The hair grew white and older and thin;
And the light of the dark brown eye grew dim.
See! here is a lock, it can vie with mine,
So silvery white in the glad sunshine."
Grandmother 'gain paused, while her tremulous hands,
Selected a tress from those thick wavy strands.
"This brown hair, my child, once hung o'er the brow,
Of him who received at the altar my vow,
.....

Mrs. Pruitt also has photocopies from an 1802 King James Bible printed in Philadelphia. This Bible contains a long printed list of Subscribers' Names, including that of "Hugh Neilson"; it originally belonged to Hugh Douglas NEILSON of Greeneville, Green Co, Tenn. & lists his children. The Bible is now owned by Rear Adm. Francis P. McCorkle of Washington, D.C., 2nd greatgrandson of William Douglas NEILSON. Mrs. Pruitt is a 2nd greatgranddaughter of Joseph Hale NEILSON, brother to Wm. Douglas. We would like to publish the data from this Bible at a later date; it has not yet been completely deciphered but contains births as early as 1781 in the NEILSON family.

SURNAMES OF AGS 1962 NEW MEMBERS

Below are listed more surnames for AGS members new in 1962. Each new member was entitled to file 6 surnames in which he or she is most interested. This service is intended to introduce new members' lines to old members and publish some for them during the year before they are eligible to file pedigree charts for our big April dictionary of ancestors. We hope some of you can trade with them.

BAITS, Mrs. J. W., Jr., P. O. Box 507, Bryan, Texas.

ADAMS, OGLESBY, COSTILOW-COSTELLO.

LIDWIN, Mrs. Virginia P., 307 East Crockett St., Crystal City, Texas.
(No names filed; paid for 1963 also).

LIGHTFOOT, Mrs. Jack, Fairview Drive, Mt. Pleasant, Tennessee.

BOBBITT, DAIMWOOD, FORTUNE, GASKILL, HIGHT, McKNIGHT.

McLAURIN, Mr. Banks, Jr., 5843 Royal Crest, Dallas 30, Texas.

PRICE, Mrs. May LaPrelle, 3901 Pete's Path, Austin 3, Texas.

BURNETT, ELLINGTON, LA PRELLE, LYONS, RUCKER, TALBOT.

We welcome old Bible records, cemeteries in this area, etc. for publication here.

QUERIES

In publishing our first queries, AGS announces tentative rules & regulations:

1. We will print FREE queries from members & subscribers only, at present.
 2. They will be printed in the order received (if acceptable); only one query to a member in one year, unless no other queries are on file.
 3. They need not concern Texas families or locations.
 4. Type or print on 8½ x 11 paper (for our files); double-space lines (for legibility & editing); print only one query on a page. Illegible queries will be returned for recopying & lose their place on the waiting-list.
 5. File only 50 words; use no abbreviations of words or names. Confusing queries will be returned for explanations. Don't ask too many questions or include a long list of people; you won't get as many answers if you do!
 6. Carefully print or type your full name & address underneath your query; these do NOT count in the 50 words allowed.
 7. AGS will edit all queries requiring it, using abbreviations usual in this quarterly, cutting out unneeded words or improving form, for your own benefit. If you make entirely clear what you mean, your query will be more successful.
 8. Naturally members are expected to answer letters & trade data courteously (unless it is a case of buying information). Remember to use stamped and self-addressed envelopes when requesting information.

Easton Publishing Co., Inc., Easton, Md, has announced the Nov. publication of JOSEPH NICHOLS & THE NICHOLITES, by Dr. Kenneth L. Carroll (116 pp, $3.75). AGS has a leaflet, listing quite a number of family names to be found in the records in this book. The Society of Nicholites began about 1760 along the Delaware-Maryland border & soon spread into Caroline & Dorchester Counties, Maryland & in Kent & Sussex Counties, Delaware. About 1776, many migrated to set up communities in Guilford Co, N.C., and at "Gum Swamp near Little Pee Dee" in S.C. They were also called "New Quakers;" forty years later, they were absorbed by the Society of Friends quietly. This book has an Appendix of Nicholite birth records, marriages, wills & activities of the members. Some AGS members might do well to investigate their own backgrounds to see if their records might be found here.

According to our understanding of the problem, the United States Post Office will not deliver third class mail which is not addressed to a particular Box number or house number, etc. Will those AGS members who do not have on file with us your complete address please notify the Treasurer or the Editor right away. The Post Office will not use directory service for 3rd class mail incompletely addressed or return it to sender (unless postage is guaranteed); they will throw away or destroy such mail. Our meeting notices & your quarterly go 3rd class, so do not neglect to give us your correct address for next year.

We understand also that a large number of Austin telephone numbers have been recently changed. When you mail in your 1963 dues, you might provide your new phone number for the Treasurer--it would take a long time to check the Directory after a new one comes out.

Membership in AGS is by application & is open to any person interested in the aims & purposes of this Society & acceptable to the Membership Committee. Dues are currently $3.00 per year, payable in advance for the calendar year beginning 1 January. Members failing to pay dues by 1 March are dropped from the rolls & will not receive the April quarterly. New members may apply at any time during the year, & dues are applied to the current calendar year, that year's quarterlies being mailed. Applications & dues are mailed to the Treasurer, 2509 Harris Boulevard, Austin 3, Texas; she notified anyone else concerned. Inquiries concerning the Quarterly or material for publication goes to the Editor, 6301 Treadwell Blvd, Austin 3, Tex. Exchanges go to Exchange Editor, AGS, 2312 Enfield Rd, Austin 3, Texas. All back issues of the Quarterly are still available. Single back issues are $1.00; 4 issues at once sell for $3.00. April issues are for our dictionary of ancestors; others are source material of the Austin area.
