Published by AUSTIN GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY at Austin, Travis County, Texas, a nonprofit organization chartered by the State of Texas to investigate, collect, record and deposit in libraries and archives the genealogical and historical materials of Texas, especially those items pertaining to the City of Austin, Travis County, and the adjoining counties, and to educate members in the use of these and other materials in preparing and publishing genealogical material and family lineages.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

1968 is drawing to a close rapidly - November 26th will be the last meeting for this year. Yet, there is much to be done before the New Year can be welcomed.

These two Quarterlies are late, late and another must be done before the year is really finished. Doing a Quarterly could be such fun if more members would join in the production. I am certain that, without exception, our members now have at their finger tips at least one good contribution, or could get one by half trying. Do let us resolve to make our Quarterlies a mutual undertaking.

What do you hope for or expect when you pay your dues to AUSTIN GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY? I wish that you would write down these ideas and hand the paper to one of your Board Members. When we must make a decision, set a policy or plan the future it is almost like shooting in the dark. We do not know what you like, wish for or would enjoy. I often have a feeling that we must look like CHIEFS (the Indian kind) and then I wish that each member would turn into BRAVES and let us all dance together.

Our Society operates on a calender - therefore January 1st, 1969 will begin a new year. Plan to send in your membership dues as soon as possible. As a member you will be entitled to submit twenty Family Data Sheets for the Spring Quarterly. These are due on or before December 31st, 1968. Many sheets have been received and are already processed - this cooperation is much appreciated. Do remember to enclose a self-addressed envelope with sufficient postage for their return. You will need your sheets for your files. Please check page 20 of the 1968 Spring Quarterly for special instructions.

Sincerely,

/s/ Annie T. Giles
President

ABSTRACTS FROM THE TEXAS SENTINEL

(published in Austin in 1840)

Copied from microfilm at the Texas State Archives by Mrs. Herbert R. Gentry

Saturday, Sept. 26, 1840 p. 3, col. 2

Died - In this city, on the 10th inst., of congestive fever, Mrs. Margaret Laughlin, consort of David Laughlin, Esq.

Her loss to her family is irreparable, and society is deprived of an unpretending but kind hearted and useful member. So far as her humble ability would permit, she needed no other prompter than her heart, to deeds of charity and benevolence; and the blessing of many an unfortunate stranger, who has experienced her kindness and attention in sickness and affliction, follows her to her grave.

- The Lawrenceburg (Indiana) papers will confer a favor by copying the above. City Gazette.

Saturday, Oct. 3, 1840 p. 3., col. 2

Married - In this city on Thursday evening last, by Hon. J. W. Smith, Musgrove Evans, esq. to Mrs. Richardson.

For Sale - A small tract of land, lying on Cedar Creek, a few miles above Esquire Patton's. The tract contains 115 acres, and is admirably adapted for a stock farm. About one half the land is creek bottom, nearly the whole timbered. There is a small cabin and some cedar rails on the place. Any person wishing as small a tract, would do well to examine this. It will be sold very low for Texas Treasury notes. For further particulars, see A. A. Anderson, Esq., city of Austin, or the subscriber, twelve miles below Austin, on southwest bank Colorado River. Title indisputable. T. H. Duggan

Saturday, Oct. 10, 1840 p. 2, col. 2

Capt. Wiehl, in company with Mr. Lindsey, surveyor, started on Thursday last, from this city, to lay off a road to the San Marcos spring. At that place there is to be a regular post kept up; it will be for the present under the command of Capt. Wiehl. It is about the halfway ground between this city and San Antonio.

Capt. Skerrett will leave on Monday, with one company of the regular infantry, to join Col. Cooke, who is running the Military Road to Red River.

Sixty dollars reward - For John O'Maley and Edward Fitzgerald, deserters from Austin Arsenal, Oct. 5, 1840.

Description - John J. O'Maley, age 24, height 5 feet 8 inches, complexion fair, eyes blue, hair red; he carried with him a short (sic) gun, wore a blue cap and grey fatigue jacket, born in Ireland.

Edward Fitzgerald, height 5 feet 7 inches, age 21, complexion fair, eyes dark, hair dark, born in N. York, of Irish descent, supposed to have taken with him a Colt's patent rifle.

One of the most interesting and well arranged rural parties we have ever attended, was given by Mr. and Mrs. Combs, on last Wednesday evening. The beautiful grove in front of their house was completely illuminated, and everything was so brilliant that it had very much the appearance of having been touched by a fairy's wand.

The refreshments provided for the occasion, were the choicest and most delicate kind; and nothing was wanting to make the festivities of the evening complete.

We understand Mr. and Mrs. C. are shortly to leave for Cincinnati. They will carry with them the best wishes of their fellow citizens of the city of Austin - and should they ever wish to return to the mountain city, they will meet with a hearty welcome from its inhabitants.

Saturday, Oct. 17, 1840 p. 2, col. 3 (con't.)

Major Samuel Whiting, publisher of the City Gazette, left this place sometime since. We have heard by a letter from Houston that he is circulating a report in the lower country that the Sentinel is shortly to be discontinued. We envy not the prosperity of the man who would seek to advance his own interest by an act of such consummate meanness.
