Gifts and bequests are tax-deductible.

Membership is open to all upon payment of annual dues of $5.00. Family memberships are available to members of an immediate family in the same household for $7.50. No special rate for libraries. DUES ARE PAYABLE JANUARY FIRST.

Meetings are held in the Howson Branch Public Library, 2500 Exposition Boulevard, at 7:30 p.m. on the 4th Tuesday of each month with the exception of December. Visitors are welcome.

The Society's Quarterly is published in March, June, September and December and is sent free to members. Additional single issues and indexes are available. "Proofs of Heirship" in Travis County Deed Books

By Lucie C. Price and Marguerite Warren

Proofs of Heirship, as evidenced by affidavits or statements of persons living and/or by descendents of persons deceased, yield valuable and interesting genealogical information.

Usually there was some property in Travis County involved which was to be divided between the heirs or sold. The deeds do not always follow the affidavit but can probably be found elsewhere. Sometimes, however, the reason for the statement or affidavit is unclear, but something prompted the declaration.

The Proofs have not been copied in full, except in a few cases, but the vital information has been given. The marriages shown at the end of some "Heirships" do not extend past 1882, so anyone seeking further information regarding Travis Co. marriages should consult the Marriage Index books.

Deed Book 128, Page 301, Travis Co., Texas.

Travis Co., Texas:

Joseph Schuber, resident of Austin for 41 years. Related by marriage to Kate Springer, whose maiden name was Kate Steussy. "I knew her from 1850 to time of her death. She resided in Austin from 1850 until she removed to Europe in 1866. Said Kate married Charles Springer about 30 Aug. 1857, a resident of Austin until he removed to Germany in 1862. Said Charles died about 1880 and Kate in 1889. In 1862 Charles Springer abandoned Texas, going directly to Germany where he died. Prior to 1863 he instructed his wife to dispose of the home on Lot 3 Block 43, fronting on Congress Ave. Kate sold the lot to Caspar Steussy about Feb. 11, 1863." (Affiant related to Caspar Steussy by marriage.) Caspar Steussy sold the lot to Antone Blomeke on May 26, 1866. Frank Brown purchased house and north one-half lot in 1869, and 23 Dec. 1884, A. Blomeke and wife sold to Ira H. Evans the south one-half of Lot 3, Block 43.

MANY THANKS!

Austin Genealogical Society (and many other genealogists) wishes to express its gratitude to Rep. Don Cavness for his valiant efforts to procure from the Texas Legislature a budget allotment which would allow Texas State Library and Archives to be open 8-5 Saturdays. At this time the budget has not been finally approved, but we have high hopes.

We owe a vote of thanks to Mrs. Pauline B. Cooney who spearheaded our drive toward this goal, and to others who wrote to legislators on the subject.

We thank Mrs. Ruth Monkhouse and Mrs. J. M. Pinckney Jr. for making attractive rain bonnets, wind kerchiefs, and book covers, the sale of which at last AGS meeting netted a tidy sum for our treasury. Place your orders with these generous ladies now!

AGS editor thanks Mrs. Lelon Winsborough for helping to card ancestor listings, Miss Louise Kirk for typing, and Mrs. P. B. Price for supplying the interesting "Proofs of Heirship" material which is being run serially.

We are grateful to Miss Marcia Hoskins for providing interesting programs, and to our admirable speakers:

*Dr. Frances Nesmith who, at the February meeting, discussed different ways of immigration into Texas and the meaning of a cultural pluralism, leading to search for identity thru genealogy--

*Mr. Seth Breeding, Mrs. Virgil Snell, and Mrs. E. G. Jordan, the panel at our April meeting who so ably fielded genealogical questions tossed at them from the floor--

*Mrs. Virginia Taylor who in May gave us an informative resume' of genealogical data to be found in General Land Office, and capped it off with a surprise: some recently discovered vouchers which can reveal additional facts about early settlers in Texas.

CLIPS AND QUIPS

Due to lack of space, your editor has the heartbreaking task of reducing to two pages the 25 pages of notes she took from our exchange quarterlies this time. You'll just have to read them all!

Our Heritage (San Antonio, TX) XIV,2, prints the 1867-69 Registration of Voters of Bexar Co., showing those former Confederates who had been granted amnesty by US. These were copied at State Archives by our own Jean Halden Walker who has given us so much.

Wisconsin State Genealogical Society Newsletter, 19,4, reports that a member has had good luck in overseas research by writing to "Action Line," c/o Chicago Tribune, 435 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL 60611....Inside back cover is an outline map of WI showing burial places of 43 Revolutionary War veterans, mostly from New England. Amazing that so many got that far west. Hopefully each state will publish such a map for the Bicentennial.

Pennsylvania Genealogy Magazine, Mch 1973, lists three $25 rewards offered for genealogical aid; has many comprehensive book reviews.

Deep South Genealogical Quarterly, X,1, posts a $250 reward for information on one Asa Chadick.

In the Dec 1972 issue of Seattle Genealogical Society's quarterly is an excellent, in-depth exposition of Welsh genealogical research by Wilmetta Bauguess, including two pages of addresses that one may write to in that country.

Four States Genealogist is resuming publication after a 2-year lapse due to editor's illness. Vol. 3 # 3&4 have excellent Indian data, the Guion Miller Cherokee Roll Reports of Claimants.

BOOK REVIEWS

TRAVIS COUNTY, TEXAS, MARRIAGE RECORDS 1840-1882--Compiled by Lucie Clift Price (2527 Harris Blvd., Austin, TX 78703). Hardback, 8½ x 11, 234 pp; $12.50 + 63¢ tax for Texas residents.

This handsome book contains over 5,000 marriages arranged with grooms in alphabetical order, date, name of officiant, and page in the record book. There is a 24-page index of brides' names and 14 pages indexing the officiant, each with his religious affiliation or legal capacity, whenever Mrs. Price's diligent research could discover it. Thumbnail biographical sketches of many of these men add interest.

In the preface, a table of Record Books 1-5 shows the respective years covered in each, but these years refer to the time the license was returned and recorded, which might be as much as a year after the marriage was performed.

In 1840 Travis County covered territory which later became all or parts of Blanco, Brown, Burnet, Callahan, Coleman, Comal, Eastland, Gillespie, Hays, Lampasas, Mills, Runnels, and Taylor counties, so this volume is obviously of great value to those interested in a wider area than present Travis County.

Mrs. Price meticulously compared the recorded licenses against the originals and found many that had not been recorded. As a service to future researchers, she arranged to have such originals Xeroxed and the copies pasted in Book 3, then properly indexed.

Readers will find this excellent work, compiled by one of the most active members of AGS, not only invaluable as a reference, but fascinating just to browse in--"So that's who Sam Houston's daughter married!" or, "I always wondered just how the Bremonds and Robinsons were connected!"

Used in conjunction with the two volumes of Early Texas Birth Records, 1838-1878, by AGS members Gracy, Sumner and Gentry, Travis County Marriage Records will, in many cases, reveal whole families.

This book contains over 5,000 romances--we hope they all lived happily ever after!

LEE (and variant spellings)--Index to Notebooks of Mrs. Edward B. Lee, 2116 Lomina Av, Long Beach, CA 90815. 25 pp; $1.75. 1970

This legibly typed index refers to pages in Mrs. Lee's notebooks, and the entries contain enough information to give the researcher a clue to which John Lee is referred to. For example, "p. 373, John Lee of Guilford, CT, descendants of, New Eng. Register 53:53."; or, "p. 306, John C. Lee m. Margaret Ledbetter 1829--Shelby Co, IL."

No covering letter reached your reviewer, so we don't know if Mrs. Lee will copy a specific note for an inquirer, or on what terms, but I think it would be worth a letter if one found an item of interest. Examine the Index at Texas State Library.

Mrs. Lee sets an admirable example by indexing her notebooks so comprehensively, and we are grateful to her for sharing.

THOMAS TAYLOR AND BENJAMIN BRANCH OF NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, AND RELATED FAMILIES--Mrs. Ethel Taylor Ford, 3329 NE 20th, Amarillo, TX 79107. Spiral Bound, Offset. 204 pp + 10 pp Surname Index. No price shown.

The related families include Allen, Bradford, Brooks, Brown, Davis, Jackson, Jarratt, Johnson, Jones, King, Lewis, Manier, Miller, Patterson, Puckett, Smith, Thompson, White, and Williams. There are 10 pages of photographs.

At the end of most family sections is a References feature listing persons and books from which data was obtained. Families are arranged alphabetically, with a paragraph or so about certain ones. The lists of children have (see later) or (see Patterson) after those to be followed. There are many little anecdotes and traditions.

Unfortunately the index does not include first names, which makes for laborious searching for a specific name, but on the whole this is an attractive and well-rounded book.

KISSIN' KUZZINS, Vol. III--Mrs. Joe Ericson, 1614 Redbud St, Nacogdoches, TX 75961. $4.00

This is an offset compendium of Mrs. Ericson's genealogical column printed in the Nacogdoches and other East Texas newspapers. It consists of not only queries but interesting sidelights on Texas history and genealogical tips. The book is fully indexed; really good.

Besides being active in genealogical and journalistic pursuits, and keeping her husband and children happy, this energetic young woman is curator of the Old Stone Fort Museum!

FEDERAL LAND SERIES, Vol. 2: Revolutionary War Bounty-Land Warrants of the Federal Government--Clifford Neal Smith. $20 from American Library Association, 50 East Huron St, Chicago, IL 60611.

No review copy of this volume has been sent to us, but because the first volume was so fine, we deviate from our rule just to mention briefly that this book is advertised to give evidence of Revolutionary War service antedating by 20 years that found in the pension files. These warrants pertain to land in Ohio. Fully indexed.

CLIPS AND QUIPS from p. 27

The Reflector (Amarillo, TX) 15,1, gives a good description of data obtainable from each of the censuses 1790-1880--good tips.

WHY EDITORS TURN GRAY!--In the really fine Seattle Quarterly Bulletin, 23,3, we noticed this typographical error that slipped by: "The names on the early church roosters..." Those pioneers were really "early birds," weren't they? One wonders if those flocks were guided by the flap of an apron instead of a shepherd's crook!

Great news for SMITH researchers: Send queries to coordinator of "Smith Family Project," Mrs. L.W. Stevens, 146 34th Ave., East, Seattle, WA 98102. Subscription: $5, Box 549, Seattle, WA 98111.

Also found in this publication is a good article with bibliography on American church records and one on KY Pioneer Baptists.

NATURALIZATION RECORDS are treated in two quarterlies: Bulletin of Southern CA Genealogical Society (Feb 1973) gives address from which to order Form # N 585: US Dept of Justice, Immigration & Naturalization Service, 119 D St. NE, Washington, DC. If your people are not found there, try records of State Legislature or the courts that could grant naturalization: Federal, District, State, County--usually the Superior Court--or Municipal.

Central IL Genealogical Quarterly, IX,1, after several pages of Macon Co. naturalization records, has informative resume' of procedure for obtaining such records. This data was abstracted from Guide to Genealogical REcords in National Archives (currently 65¢ from National Archives & Records Service, Washington, DC 20408). Also recommended from same source is List of National Archives Microfilm Publication, as ship arrival lists are on microfilm, even if the naturalization record is not.

Black Hills Nuggets (Rapid City, SD) VI,1, has an interesting article on origins of Lawrence Co. place names. (Ed. note: Why don't some AGS members do the same for Travis Co.?) Their cover has an amusing sketch of types of early-day residents. There is a revealing article about early freighters and Indian fighters; and an index of SD history with offer of copies (@25¢) of biographical sketches in it.

Editor Wm. A. Yates of The Ozark Quarterly and The Ridge Runners has 3,000 cards filed on Missouri families which he will research for a fee. Send your names to him at Sparta, MO 65753.

Mt. Hood Genealogical Forum (Box 208, Oregon City, OR 97045) The Tracker, 12, Special Index No., offers a transcript of a lecture by Vincent L. Jones on a systematic plan for recording, filing and preserving genealogical data--$1.45.

Thanks to somebody (This got separated from its source--sorry!) A post card to Office of Adjutant General, Jefferson City, MO 65101 may get you a free photocopy of his enlistment record if your ancestor served in the Civil War from MO.

DO-IT-YOURSELF ANCESTOR LISTING

Many AGS members have expressed a desire to present their lineages in compact, chart form, rather than scattered alphabetically as on the foregoing pages. At a recent meeting it was decided to have an issue of AGS Quarterly composed of such 8½" x 11", five-generation charts submitted by members, as soon as enough accumulate.

So, if you will turn in to the editor one or more (at $4.50 per page) charts typed well enough to photograph, it will ease our aching budget (and your editor's back and stumbling fingers).

You may use your own charts, or buy them at AGS meetings.

HAPPY HUNTING GROUND

APOLOGIES to David WHITMAN, Room 227A, Simkins Hall, University of Texas, Austin, TX 78712. When he was a new member of AGS he handed me a query, which was printed on page 13 of our last issue. There was no name or address on it, so I looked in the phone book and selected a name and address in the University area that seemed likely, since his query was about a John Wittman! I hope David found a new kinsman through my wrong guess.

CORRECTION: In our Vol. XIII #4 p. 96, we stated that Copper State Bulletin publishes queries from non-members free. We should have added "pertaining to Arizona and its inhabitants"--sorry, TD.
