The Society was organized in 1960 as a non-profit organization chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect and preserve genealogical and historical information of Texas, particularly that which pertains to the city of Austin, Travis County, and adjoining counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records. Gifts and bequests are tax-deductible.

Membership is open to all upon payment of annual dues of $5.00. Family memberships are available to members of an immediate family in the same household for $7.50. No special rate for libraries. DUES ARE PAYABLE JANUARY FIRST.

Meetings are held in the Howson Branch Public Library, 2500 Exposition Boulevard, at 7:30 p.m. on the 4th Tuesday of each month with the exception of December. Visitors are welcome.

The Society's Quarterly is published in March, June, September and December and is sent free to members. Additional single issues and indexes are available. Members are urged to submit genealogical information and queries directly to the Editor (address above). Contributions will be accepted at the discretion of the Editor, and neither she nor the Society can be responsible for the accuracy of material so submitted.

STATE LIBRARY CLOSED SATURDAYS

Teachers, students and working people who are interested in history and genealogy were sadly disappointed that the Texas State Library and Archives failed to open Saturday the first of September. Austin Genealogical Society's Library Lobby Committee, led by Mrs. Pauline Cooney, had succeeded in getting a bill passed by the Legislature which permitted the facilities to be open 8 to 5 Saturdays starting the first of September, and appropriated $17,000 for the extra staffing. We are grateful to Representative Don Cavness and others for their efforts in pushing this bill through the Legislature.

BUT--the bill had the proviso "within the discretion of the Texas Library and Historical Commission." Dr. Dorman Winfrey, Librarian, and the commission saw fit to exercise this option on the grounds of the current "energy crisis," although the building is air-conditioned throughout the weekend and the consumption of electricity for lighting the first floor on Saturdays would be very small.

In view of the drive underway to attract tourists (many of whom would like to use the library facilities), and the many state buildings now under construction (which will use vast quantities of electricity), it seems illogical to deny library users this modest consumption of available power.

Petitions to reconsider their decision are being sent to the Texas Library and Historical Commission via the chairman, Mr. Frank P. Horlock, 959 Tenneco Bldg, Houston, TX 77002.

If you feel a little guilty about being disorganized, you're in good company. Paris's National Library has rooms stacked with books and manuscripts which have been awaiting cataloguing for more than a hundred years!

SUCCESSFUL WORKSHOP

On Saturday 25 August Austin Genealogical Society sponsored an informal workshop open to all who are interested in genealogy. Of the 145 attending, 30 were from outside Austin--from as far as Massachusetts, California, El Paso and Stamford, Texas, though we don't claim they came to Austin just for the workshop!

The most popular feature for more experienced attendants was the excellent copying machine furnished by courtesy of The Copy Shop, 3207 Red River Street. There was a constant stream of people bringing material to be copied from three long tables of books, quarterlies, and other genealogical material lent by members of AGS. We are grateful to Mr. Dean for lending the machine and operator.

After the opening talk on "How To Get Started in Genealogical Research" was given to the entire assemblage, Mrs. James P. Hart addressed the group on the subject of genealogical resources in the

"Proofs of Heirship" in Travis County Deed Books

By Lucie C. Price and Marguerite Warren

Proofs of Heirship, as evidenced by affidavits or statements of persons living and/or by descendants of persons deceased, yield valuable and interesting genealogical information.

Usually there was some property in Travis County involved which was to be divided between the heirs or sold. The deeds do not always follow the affidavit but can probably be found elsewhere. Sometimes, however, the reason for the statement or affidavit is unclear, but something prompted the declaration.

The Proofs have not been copied in full, except in a few cases, but the vital information has been given. The marriages shown at the end of some "Heirships" do not extend past 1882, so anyone seeking further information regarding Travis Co. marriages should consult the Marriage Index books.

Estate - O. Fisher and wife, Heirs of

Deed Book 142, Page 24, Travis Co., Texas.

Travis Co., Texas:

I, Orceneth Fisher, make statement of facts in regard to my property so no misunderstanding or disturbance may arise. When my first wife and I were married we had no real estate and very little personal property. At time of her death in 1847 we had a home in Washington Co. on lands bought of Capt. Chrisman and Jno. Brown.

The improvements I made myself, a dwelling house, some out-buildings and a few acres of land in cultivation. This was later exchanged for 1476 acres of land in Comanche Co., Texas. This land was divided between her first 3 children, viz. Mary S. Wells, Electra C. Allen Hancock and Orceneth Asbury.

Our headright of 640 acres had not been located. Subsequently this was done and divided equally between her two youngest daughters, Mrs. S. E. B. Brocket and Anna A. Reid. We had 5 town lots in the City of Brenham. These were set aside for the education of her two youngest children, Sterling and Anna, and put in the hands of J. D. Giddings, as agent for that purpose. He reports the order carried out in good faith and money paid over to H. H. Allen, Esq. who had the care of the children.

In May 15, 1848, I married my present wife. The distribution to my first wife's children left us without a home and almost without means. It was the earnest desire of my second wife that all the property of my first wife should be given to her children.

This was done to cut off all ground of complaint hereafter and thus to settle forever the property questions among my children. All the property since acquired properly belongs to my present wife and her children. My son Sterling got no land out of his mother's estate, I have therefore given him in lieu thereof 500 acres in Coryell Co.

Travis Co., Texas:

James Phillips and John Stelfox made affidavit 23 Sept., 1880 regarding Richard Payne and heirs recorded in Book 47, Page 594, Sept. 27, 1880. It appeared from said record that M. A. Payne, Mary M. Payne, Emma A. Payne, Charlotte J. Collins formerly Payne, and Laura R. Payne were the wife and daughters of Richard Payne surviving at his death. -- whereas there was a mistake in said affidavit in giving the name of Laura R. Payne instead of Louisa R. Affidavit of L. Griswold

Deed Book 144, Page 146, Travis Co., Texas.

Gonzales Co., Texas:

L. Griswold -- says that: "I am well and personally acquainted with Lyman J. Bailey, formerly Lyman J. McClellan, "Bailey" being his adopted name. I knew his father Lyman D. McClellan and his mother now Mrs. S. P. Bailey. His father Lyman D. McClellan was in the Confederate service, served in my Regiment ... 1st Georgia as an independent volunteer. Sometime before the close of the war I was sent on detached service across the Mississippi with headquarters in Louisiana where I was discharged. I was well acquainted with his mother formerly Mrs. S. P. Watson. When I knew her as Mrs. Watson she was a widow and had been such for many years. She had three children, William, Sam and Pink living and two girls dead. I was an intimate friend of his father, Lyman D. McClellan, after the war and up to the time of his death in 1869. We met in New Orleans after the war and later went to Baton Rouge, Louisiana. At this place his father met his mother then Mrs. S. P. Watson and married her about the 1st of June 1869. I was present at the marriage, together with a few other friends at the request of both parties. Mr. McClellan had been teaching school (a private school) before his marriage and was to teach again in the following fall, but he was taken ill and died suddenly the 22 Oct. 1869. Heart trouble was the cause of his death. I superintended the funeral arrangements Mrs. McClellan being prostrated by the shock. He was buried at Baton Rouge, Louisiana. So far as I know no mark of any kind has ever been put on his grave. His widow was in straightened circumstances and I was myself or I should have marked the grave with something more durable than the usual headboard. Mrs. McClellan moved away from Baton Rouge for 3 or 4 months but returned in February or March 1870, during which absence her son William Watson died; and sometime in April 1870 she gave birth to a son, whom after consulting with me, she named Lyman after his father. He was named "John" I think, after an uncle.

After this I saw little of the family as I was away teaching school most of the time that they remained in Louisiana. In the latter part of 1870 or early 1871 the family moved to Texas by water from New Orleans, since which time I have not seen any of the family except Lyman J. Bailey or McClellan as I knew him. A year or two after they left New Orleans I heard that Mrs. McClellan had married again, this time to a Mr. Bailey, I then lost track of the family for several years. But about 1888 Lyman J. Bailey and I began correspondence about school matters and since then we have met on different occasions. When I was led by the name to make inquiries about him and his parents by which I learned that Bailey was only his adopted name, McClellan being his real name; and that beyond a doubt he was the son of my old friend, Lyman D. McClellan. There being no possible doubt as to the truth of this fact and being a comrade in arms with and a friend till death to his father, Lyman D. McClellan; as a favor to and at the request of Mr. Bailey, he having no record of his father's service in the army, I make this sworn statement 7 Feb. 1897."

W. H. Ferrell Affiant

County of Live Oak, Texas

---- appeared W. H. Ferrell - well acquainted with Mrs. S. P. Bailey and Lyman J. Bailey of Austin, Texas, P. O. Watson of Comstock, Texas, and Sam J. Watson of this county and have known them each and all for many years, and was acquainted with them in Louisiana before they came to Texas. He knew Mrs. S. P. Bailey, quite awhile before her marriage with Wm. M. Bailey at Lagarto, Texas, while she was the widow McClelland. He first met Mrs. S. P. McClelland in New Orleans, Louisiana, and traveled on the same boat with her and her three children from New Orleans to Texas in 1870. He never knew Mr. L. D. McClelland as he was dead when affiant became acquainted with Mrs. McClelland, having died about a year before that.

When affiant first met Mrs. McClellan she had three children Sam J. & Pink O. Watson and Lyman J. McClelland, a baby about six months old. After her marriage to Mr. Bailey, Mr. Bailey adopted the baby who has ever since been known as Lyman J. Bailey and who is now a resident of Austin, Texas. He has known the above named boys, now men, and Mrs. McClelland, now Mrs. S. P. Bailey, personally and well continuously since he first met the family in New Orleans, Louisiana - over 25 years ago.

BOOK REVIEWS

Federal Bounty-Land Warrants of the American Revolution, volume 2 of the Federal Land Series, documents federal land patents for military service in the American Revolution, from manuscript registers in the National Archives and the Illinois Historical Society. These patents were in the 4000-square-mile U.S. Military District in the central portion of eastern Ohio, covering present counties of Coshocton, Delaware, Franklin, Guernsey, Holmes, Knox, Licking, Marion, Morrow, Muskingum and Tuscarawas. Although the original grants were to veterans for military service, the patents are also in the names of heirs or assignees, the latter in many instances being land speculators who purchased the bounty-land warrants from the veterans or their heirs. The 17-page Introduction is not only an explanation of the material in the book, but is also an excellent discussion of the use of all land grant records in genealogical research. There is a complete name index, with cross references to variations in spelling, and a tract index, to obtain grant information on tracts whose locations are known. This is the reference book for research in the bounty-land grants in this area of Ohio. (Clifford Neal Smith's book reviewed by D.C. Nogues)

The Augustan, journal of The Augustan Society, Inc., distributed to 3,000 readers, is a handsome 150-page volume, combining four previously separate publications:

The Colonial Genealogist, featuring colonial lineages in full, research tools, in-depth research problems, queries, books wanted, and news and notes;

Forebears, containing articles on international heraldry, histories of chivalric orders and knighthood, genealogies of royalty, and queries;

The Spanish American Genealogical Helper, including articles on history relating to Spanish heritage, queries, and original source material such as census records;

Coat-Armour, primarily concerned with heraldry, including a Roll of Colonial Coats of Arms, blazoned and illustrated.

The Augustan Society maintains a free lending library for subscribers. Additional information may be obtained from the Executive Secretary, 945 2nd St, Hermosa Beach, CA 90254.

LDS STAKE LIBRARY HERE SOON

Sweet music to the ears of AGS members was the announcement at our August meeting, made by Mr. James Smith, that Austin will soon have an LDS Stake Library. This will house microfilm of the card catalog of the holdings of The Genealogical Society of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Located on Parker Lane at the corner of Oltorf and IH 35, the facilities of course will be primarily for the use of members of the church, but outsiders are welcome to use them when available, Mr. Smith said. It is expected that the library will grow and perhaps later be moved to larger accommodations.

Mr. Smith, who is working on his doctorate at the University as well as teaching courses in genealogy, presented an interesting program of factual and anecdotal material.

At our July meeting, Mrs. Al Sprague (known to her friends as Connie), U.S. Documents Librarian at Texas State Library, gave us some valuable insights into the historical, genealogical, and geographical resources in her department. We are indebted to Mrs. Sprague for her interesting program and for contributing some surplus topographical maps of Louisiana for our workshop. The "leftovers" will be available free at meetings.

Last (since we are reporting our meetings in reverse order) but far from least comes the account of the June meeting, at which our favorite ex-librarian, Mrs. Joe B. Golden, displayed copies of many interesting items from Texas State Archives. She amusingly stated that, now that she is a patron and not an employee of the library system, she can stamp her foot and insist that buried files be brought to light--those "Miscellaneous" items that few of us have time to explore.

GOLD IS FOUND IN THE BETHEL CEMETERY
Sexton Discovers Rocks Which Glistened with the Precious Metal.

A discovery of what there seems to be not a particle of doubt is gold has been made in Bethel cemetery (colored) situated three miles from the Eastern Terminus of Twelfth Street. The discovery was made by J.M. Holland, the sexton, while engaged in digging a grave several days ago.....He said that he found the rock close to the surface of the ground.....Holland took one of the rocks to the university of Texas where an examination was made...pronounced to be genuine gold quartz, but doubtful whether there was gold in paying quantities....

PETITION--CITIZENS OF LAMPASAS COUNTY

in Favor of the Exemption of Drafted Citizens of Coryell
County--August 1863

(Mrs. J.B. Golden, invaluable member of AGS, has submitted this document from Texas State Archives. Some of the signatures were utterly indecipherable, and some may have been interpreted wrong. A sputtery pen was used, and there were many blots, besides the usual number of crabbed signatures.)

Lampasas County, Texas

(To His Excellency)
(Gov F. R. Lubbock)

Your Excellency having ordered a draft of the Militia from Coryelle County, the undersigned Citizens of the said county of Lampasas, would most respectfully Represent to you, that we believe the county has furnished according to her population, as many men for the C S Service as any county in the state, besides she has furnished her full quota, if not more, for the frontier Regiment, that there are not now sufficient men in the county to take care of and garner the abundant harvest with which they have been blessed, or prepare for the next years crop, there being but few slaves in the county, the farming has to be carried on by white labor, above all they are greatly exposed to Indian depredations, horses having been stolen by them, monthly for some time past and in April Mr Will Simson /?/ was killed by the Indians in that county, and Mr Griffith a few miles over the county line in Hamilton County, We hope that your Excellency in consideration of the above facts will exempt our Sister County from the Draft your Excellency has ordered was the son of my old friend, Lyman D. McClellan. There being no possible doubt as to the truth of this fact and being a comrade in arms with and a friend till death to his father, Lyman D. McClellan; as a favor to and at the request of Mr. Bailey, he having no record of his father's service in the army, I make this sworn statement 7 Feb. 1897."

Cheapside, Gonzales Co.

L. A. Preston, Notary Public for Gonzales Co., Texas.

W. H. Ferrell Affiant

County of Live Oak, Texas

---- appeared W. H. Ferrell - well acquainted with Mrs. S. P. Bailey and Lyman J. Bailey of Austin, Texas, P. O. Watson of Comstock, Texas, and Sam J. Watson of this county and have known them each and all for many years, and was acquainted with them in Louisiana before they came to Texas. He knew Mrs. S. P. Bailey, quite awhile before her marriage with Wm. M. Bailey at Lagarto, Texas, while she was the widow McClelland. He first met Mrs. S. P. McClelland in New Orleans, Louisiana, and traveled on the same boat with her and her three children from New Orleans to Texas in 1870. He never knew Mr. L. D. McClelland as he was dead when affiant became acquainted with Mrs. McClelland, having died about a year before that.

When affiant first met Mrs. McClellan she had three children Sam J. & Pink O. Watson and Lyman J. McClelland, a baby about six months old. After her marriage to Mr. Bailey, Mr. Bailey adopted the baby who has ever since been known as Lyman J. Bailey and who is now a resident of Austin, Texas. He has known the above named boys, now men, and Mrs. McClelland, now Mrs. S. P. Bailey, personally and well continuously since he first met the family in New Orleans, Louisiana - over 25 years ago.

BOOK REVIEWS

Federal Bounty-Land Warrants of the American Revolution, volume 2 of the Federal Land Series, documents federal land patents for military service in the American Revolution, from manuscript registers in the National Archives and the Illinois Historical Society. These patents were in the 4000-square-mile U. S. Military District in the central portion of eastern Ohio, covering present counties of Coshocton, Delaware, Franklin, Guernsey, Holmes, Knox, Licking, Marion, Morrow, Muskingum and Tuscarawas. Although the original grants were to veterans for military service, the patents are also in the names of heirs or assignees, the latter in many instances being land speculators who purchased the bounty-land warrants from the veterans or their heirs. The 17-page Introduction is not only an explanation of the material in the book, but is also an excellent discussion of the use of all land grant records in genealogical research. There is a complete name index, with cross references to variations in spelling, and a tract index, to obtain grant information on tracts whose locations are known. This is the reference book for research in the bounty-land grants in this area of Ohio. (Clifford Neal Smith's book reviewed by D.C. Nogues)

The Augustan, journal of The Augustan Society, Inc., distributed to 3,000 readers, is a handsome 150-page volume, combining four previously separate publications:

The Colonial Genealogist, featuring colonial lineages in full, research tools, in-depth research problems, queries, books wanted, and news and notes;

Forebears, containing articles on international heraldry, histories of chivalric orders and knighthood, genealogies of royalty, and queries;

The Spanish American Genealogical Helper, including articles on history relating to Spanish heritage, queries, and original source material such as census records;

Coat-Armour, primarily concerned with heraldry, including a Roll of Colonial Coats of Arms, blazoned and illustrated.

The Augustan Society maintains a free lending library for subscribers. Additional information may be obtained from the Executive Secretary, 945 2nd St, Hermosa Beach, CA 90254.

(WORKSHOP from p. 44)

LDS STAKE LIBRARY HERE SOON

Sweet music to the ears of AGS members was the announcement at our August meeting, made by Mr. James Smith, that Austin will soon have an LDS Stake Library. This will house microfilm of the card catalog of the holdings of The Genealogical Society of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Located on Parker Lane at the corner of Oltorf and IH 35, the facilities of course will be primarily for the use of members of the church, but outsiders are welcome to use them when available, Mr. Smith said. It is expected that the library will grow and perhaps later be moved to larger accommodations.

Mr. Smith, who is working on his doctorate at the University as well as teaching courses in genealogy, presented an interesting program of factual and anecdotal material.

At our July meeting, Mrs. Al Sprague (known to her friends as Connie), U.S. Documents Librarian at Texas State Library, gave us some valuable insights into the historical, genealogical, and geographical resources in her department. We are indebted to Mrs. Sprague for her interesting program and for contributing some surplus topographical maps of Louisiana for our workshop. The "leftovers" will be available free at meetings.

Last (since we are reporting our meetings in reverse order) but far from least comes the account of the June meeting, at which our favorite ex-librarian, Mrs. Joe B. Golden, displayed copies of many interesting items from Texas State Archives. She amusingly stated that, now that she is a patron and not an employee of the library system, she can stamp her foot and insist that buried files be brought to light--those "Miscellaneous" items that few of us have time to explore.

GOLD IS FOUND IN THE BETHEL CEMETERY
Sexton Discovers Rocks Which Glistened with the Precious Metal.

A discovery of what there seems to be not a particle of doubt is gold has been made in Bethel cemetery (colored) situated three miles from the Eastern Terminus of Twelfth Street. The discovery was made by J.M. Holland, the sexton, while engaged in digging a grave several days ago.....He said that he found the rock close to the surface of the ground.....Holland took one of the rocks to the university of Texas where an examination was made...pronounced to be genuine gold quartz, but doubtful whether there was gold in paying quantities....

PETITION--CITIZENS OF LAMPASAS COUNTY

in Favor of the Exemption of Drafted Citizens of Coryell
County--August 1863

(Mrs. J.B. Golden, invaluable member of AGS, has submitted this document from Texas State Archives. Some of the signatures were utterly indecipherable, and some may have been interpreted wrong. A sputtery pen was used, and there were many blots, besides the usual number of crabbed signatures.)

Lampasas County, Texas

(To His Excellency)
(Gov F. R. Lubbock)

Your Excellency having ordered a draft of the Militia from Coryelle County, the undersigned Citizens of the said county of Lampasas, would most respectfully Represent to you, that we believe the county has furnished according to her population, as many men for the C S Service as any county in the state, besides she has furnished her full quota, if not more, for the frontier Regiment, that there are not now sufficient men in the county to take care of and garner the abundant harvest with which they have been blessed, or prepare for the next years crop, there being but few slaves in the county, the farming has to be carried on by white labor, above all they are greatly exposed to Indian depredations, horses having been stolen by them, monthly for some time past and in April Mr Will Simson /?/ was killed by the Indians in that county, and Mr Griffith a few miles over the county line in Hamilton County, We hope that your Excellency in consideration of the above facts will exempt our Sister County from the Draft your Excellency has ordered
