The Society was organized in 1960 as a non-profit organization chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect and preserve genealogical and historical information about Texas, particularly that pertaining to the city of Austin, Travis, and surrounding counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records. Gifts and bequests are tax-deductible.

Membership is open to all upon payment of annual dues of $5.00. Family memberships are available to members of an immediate family in the same household for $7.50. No special rate for libraries. DUES ARE PAYABLE JANUARY FIRST.

Meetings are held in the Howson Branch Public Library, 2500 Exposition Boulevard, at 7:30 p.m. on the 4th Tuesday of each month except December. Visitors are welcome.

The Society's Quarterly is published in March, June, September and December and is sent free to members. Additional single issues and indexes are available. Members are urged to submit genealogical information and queries directly to the Editor (address above). Contributions are accepted at the discretion of the Editor, and neither she nor the Society can be held responsible for the accuracy of material so submitted.

LIST OF LAND CERTIFICATES
ON FILE IN THE OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT SURVEYOR OF TRAVIS DISTRICT

Over 120 years ago H.L. Upshur, District Surveyor, at Austin on 18 Jan 1854 published the above entitled list, found by Mrs. J.B. Golden in the Texas State Archives. This list of course does not include every man who received a land grant from the Republic or the State of Texas.

A brief explanation of the terms used seems in order. (See "Land Grants" in The Handbook of Texas for fuller explanation.)

In the "Size" column, L&L stands for a league and a labor, which most heads of families received. The labor (a Spanish word with accent on the last syllable) was granted for farming, while the league was awarded for stock raising, so most men stated that they intended to engage in both. Single men 17 or older got only a third of a league, but if two men teamed up they were classed as a family unit. These amounts of land varied as time went on. Figures in this column indicate number of acres.

In the "Where Issued" column, GLO is the abbreviation of General Land Office. Donation Certificates for 640 acres were issued to those who had taken part in the Battle of San Jacinto, while Bounty Warrants were granted to men who had participated in the campaigns of Bexar, Goliad, or the Alamo. "do" means ditto.

Under "Remarks," where certificates are listed as Conditional it refers to the provision that the holder had to remain in Texas three years and make certain improvements on his land before his title would be clear. If the certificate was still listed as Conditional in 1854, the holder must not have located his land yet.

An Augmentation was an additional grant made to a man who had married (and thus become eligible for more) since he received his initial grant of land.

Oh, yes! In the first column, "by ass" is not casting aspersions on the holder, but merely stating that he got the certificate by assignment from the original owner.

The list starts on the reverse of this page, as it had to be typed in the other direction to include all columns. Since an editor abhors a blank space as Nature abhors a vacuum, the following data, furnished by Mrs. Virginia Cate Jahn, are most welcome.

LAND MEASUREMENTS

1 knot = 6080.2 ft      1 arpent = 191.83 ft      1 vara = 2.777 ft
1 chain = 66 ft = 100 links
1 labor = 1,000 square varas = 177.17 acres
1 league = 6,000 square varas = 4,428.4 acres
1 acre = 43,560 square feet = 5,645.376 square varas
1 acre = 208.71 feet square = 75.136 square varas

BOOK REVIEWS

Anyone who has a genealogy-related book which he would like reviewed here may send a copy directly to Mrs. H.H. Rugeley, 2202 W. 10, Austin 78703. After being reviewed, books are donated to public libraries, and thus are tax-deductible for the author.

SEARCH AND RESEARCH, Noel C. Stevenson. Salt Lake City: Deseret Book Co., 1959. Fifth Printing, 1973. Hardback; 361 pp. + 4 pp. index. $3.50.

The author of Search and Research, being a member of the State Bar of California and a Fellow of the American Society of Genealogists, is certainly well qualified to write a book subtitled "The Researcher's Handbook--a Guide to Official Records and Library Sources for Investigators, Historians, Genealogists, Lawyers and Librarians."

This clearly printed book lives up to that comprehensive claim very well, but falls down on the next line, "Revised Edition," by about ten years in some places (zone numbers instead of ZIP codes, Texas State Archives said to be at Camp Hubbard instead of in the downtown Library and Archives Building, etc.).

Inside the attractive cover, where the title is cleverly arranged to emphasize the RE of the last word, are sections on: Analyzing Research Problems; Sources for Research; Age and Legal Capacity; Microfacsimiles, Microfilms, Microcards, and Microxerobooks; Research Through Correspondence; Research in Official Records and Original Sources; Research in the National Archives; The U.S. Census; Mortality Schedules; Church Records; Research in Newspaper Files; Research in Libraries; General Reference Books and Sources; New England Reference Books; Military REGisters and Records; Bibliographies of Family Histories; Pre-American Ancestry; Genealogical Periodicals; Historical Societies; Foreign Libraries and Archives; Heraldry; Historical Geography; Palaeography; Names and Nicknames. In addition to all these general topics, there is a section devoted to specific resources in each state and territory of the U.S., in each province of Canada, and in each unit of Great Britain.

All types of records that may be searched are well outlined, and many addresses are given. The bibliographies seem to be adequate for the beginning researcher. There are numerous helpful suggestions for the experienced records searcher as well as the novice, however, and Search and Research is interesting to read straight through.

On the whole, this is a well-rounded cyclopedia of genealogical information and instruction. AGS is grateful to Deseret Book Co. for sending a review copy, which we will deposit in the Howson Branch of Austin Public Library as a token of our appreciation for the use of its meeting room.

BLACK STUDIES. Washington: National Archives and Records Service, General Services Administration, 1973. Paperback; 8 x 10½"; 71 pp. Library of Congress Catalog Card No. 73-600189

As the Introduction states, this catalog "is designed to acquaint researchers with the more important material available within the National Archives and Records Service microfilm publications program relating to the history of American blacks." It does not claim to be a comprehensive listing, but does mention other relevant catalogs, published and in preparation. However, the material described herein would occupy a researcher for many a day.

Austin Genealogical Society does not happen to have any black members at present, but this publication is pertinent because it locates many sources where slave owners may be found. Not only does it reveal virtually unknown sources for research into the history and identification of blacks, but also it sets forth records of whites who served in the administration of the Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands (generally known as the Freedmen's Bureau). Some records have been separated by states (Alabama, District of Columbia, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee).

Restoration of Property. In South Carolina, a great deal of land was confiscated during the Civil War, but in 1865, pardoned Confederates were allowed to petition for the restoration of their property. This appears to be a promising field for those who had ancestors there during that period, since descriptions of the property and proof of ownership are included in the applications.

Black Military Records. It is conceivable that hard-digging (and lucky!) black genealogists may discover Revolutionary War ancestors: one roll of microfilm, prepared by the Adjutant General's Department in 1888, contains military records relating to Negroes from 1639 to 1862; others of this series, through 1886.

Another series covers the monthly returns of Infantry and cavalry regiments that are known to have had black troops, described in this catalog by name of fort (about 25 were in Texas), state, and dates included.

The Index to Compiled Service Records of Volunteer Union Soldiers Who Served with U.S. Colored Troops roll begins with a typical example of what may be found in the envelopes indexed therein. The first roll contains index cards of names A-Alk, which gives one an idea of the magnitude of this index.

Black Studies is exciting just to browse through and speculate on how these microfilm publications could aid one's search for Southern ancestors and for those who served in the Union Army. It would take a week to read it carefully, for the compilers describe the kinds of records in minute detail, besides giving the number and price of each roll. It is obvious that this "catalog" was written by archivists, not hucksters!

HAPPY HUNTING GROUND

Queries are free, and may pertain to any area. The editor reserves the right to edit them to a reasonable length and the style used in this quarterly. Be sure to include at least one date and place for each family. Put all surnames contained in your query in capital letters in alphabetical order to begin it, and end with your name and address with ZIP code. Use 2-letter state abbreviations (all caps and no period). Type your dates "3 Dec 1821" for clarity--"3-12-21" could be interpreted several ways.

Ancestor Hunters, proofread your queries! Here is an actual example of what can happen otherwise (only the names have been changed to protect the innocent who wrote it): "Looking for John Doe, who was my great-great-grandfather. He came to the United States" /Did not exist then/ "before the Revolution, with four brothers; fought in the Revolution. Did he marry?" /Let's hope so--DAR and SAR require proof of legitimacy for membership!--Ed./ "Did he have any children?" /You said he was your g-g-grf./ "He came here about 1675-75." /sic. That's narrowing it down pretty fine, but I'd say he arrived in plenty of time for the Revolution.--Ed./

If you will read your query aloud, you will probably catch any such ridiculous errors. Check your dates against your latest and best worksheet before you send your queries to: AGS Editor, 2202 West 10th St, Austin, TX 78703.

CARROLL SHARPE. Would like to know who were the parents of John Sharpe who came to Texas in 1883 from northern MS. He married Mary Julia Carroll, and settled in Red River Co, TX.--Mrs. Catherine Sharpe Turner, 1457 Milner Crescent, Birmingham, AL 35205

BROWN_FLEMING_HOCKADAY_LANE_PATTON. Looking for Milton (or Martin?) Miles Lane, b. ca 1813 TN (per 1850 Census, Maury Co, TN). He m. ca 1837 Esther Elizabeth King Brown, b. 18 Mch 1816 to Col. Joseph and Sarah (Thomas) Brown, in Maury Co.

Lane children in 1850 census were: Joseph (ae 13); Martha/Mattie (ae 11); John (ae 10); Joshua (ae 8); Francis (ae 6); and William (ae 2); a girl was born in Jan 1858, according to a letter from Lizzie to her father. (With all those beautiful names, she was called Lizzie!)

In Feb 1858 the family were living at Ben Franklin, Delta Co, TX. In 1860 they wrote that Mr. Hockaday was their teacher and old Mr. Patton the Cumberland Presbyterian preacher.

Two or three sons were in the Confederate Army under Gen. Ben McCulloch; then we lose track of them. Any information would be a welcome addition to the book I am writing on the descendants of William and Margaret/Peggy (Fleming) Brown.--Mrs. H. H. Rugeley, 2202 W. 10, Austin, TX 78703

ALBERT R. AND LUCY E. PARSONS

It would be interesting to know more about the people listed in the 1872-73 Austin City Directory, or other residents of Travis County. Biographies of a few of them are in The Handbook of Texas, Volumes 1 and 2 (Texas State Historical Association, 1952); others may be in the forthcoming third volume.

For instance, how many people know anything about "A. R. Parsons, Assistant Assessor U.S. Internal Revenue, ofc. Brazos between Bois d'Arc & Pecan; bds. Raymond House"? He was a younger brother of William H. Parsons, who was prominent during the Civil War as the leader of "Parsons' Brigade." Albert R. Parsons was born in Montgomery, AL, and is shown as age 5 in the 1850 census of Montgomery Co., with his father Samuel Parsons. Albert's "Autobiography" relates that he came to Texas soon after 1850 and lived in Central Texas with his brother W.H. Parsons, and his sister, Mrs. Boyd. Albert R. eventually was associated with the radical labor movement and was hanged, along with others, after the Chicago Haymarket bombing of May 4, 1886.

In his "Autobiography" he professes to have married Lucy E. Gonzales (?) in Austin in 1872, but no record of that marriage is found. She accompanied him to Chicago and bore two children by him. After Albert's death she made speeches and wrote and sold pamphlets dealing with labor matters.

Albert R. and Lucy E. Parsons are the subjects of a forthcoming book by Carolyn Ashbaugh who is working at the Newberry Library in Chicago, as the recipient of a "Korngold Memorial Fellowship" grant. Miss Ashbaugh has been doing extensive research in Texas for background material. The book should be of interest to us who otherwise would see Albert R. Parsons as only a name in the Austin Directory of 1872-73.

We would welcome material on other persons who lived in Travis County at some period, whether or not they were your ancestors.

--Lucie C. Price

AGS PUBLICATIONS FOR SALE

We have for sale copies of AGS Quarterly, Vol. XIV No. 4, consisting of most of the Austin City Directory 1872-73; 40 pages, $1.50.

Also available at $2 each are indexes of our quarterly. The Subject Index of Volumes I-VI covers 40 cemeteries in Travis and surrounding counties, records from 52 Bibles, Confederate Prisoners of Texas, Probate Records of Travis Co. 1835-90, queries, records of St. David's Episcopal Church of Austin, and newspaper excerpts, plus a 110-page Surname Index.

The Subject Index for Volumes VII-XI lists 40 Bible records, 25 cemeteries, the 1834-35 Census of Nacogdoches County, many Travis County records, records of many churches (including the marriage records of St. Mary's Catholic, Austin), queries, newspaper excerpts, and various interesting articles. The Surname Index covers almost sixty pages.

In preparation is the full-name index for Volumes XII-XIV. This will be free to members, $2 for non-members. The editor hopes to furnish an annual index with the last quarterly of each calendar year from now on.

We also have copies of almost all back issues at $1. (Some are better bargains than others, but it's too hard to decide which should cost more than others on size alone!) We can Xerox any issue you might want that we are out of, of course. Any of these may be ordered from Seth D. Breeding, 2202 Greenlee, Austin, TX 78703.

"THIS OFFER GOOD FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY!"

Since we are abandoning our former style of alphabetized ancestor listing in favor of self-typed charts at $4.50 per page, we have on hand a supply of printed family listing sheets which sold for 1¢ apiece. Now we will GIVE them to you so you can type (or write plainly in BLACK ink) them yourselves and submit by 20 May for the June issue of AGS Quarterly. Send them to 2202 W. 10, Austin, TX 78703.

These Family Data Sheets give full statistics of husband and wife, names of parents of each, and children of the subject couple with the submitter's ancestor underlined.

Each AGS member may submit six (6) sheets, which will be run consecutively. Your name will be on each of your sheets, and there will be a roster of AGS members' names and addresses in the quarterly.

Sheets will be available at AGS meetings, or the editor will send you six for 25¢. If these forms are not submitted in time for the Ancestor Listing Issue, they can still be printed at any time--for $4.50 per page, like the lineage charts.

CLIPS AND QUIPS

"History supplies the forest--genealogy supplies the trees," says Arthur Robinson in Black Hills Nuggets (SD) Vol. VI No. 4.

Volume 9 No. 3 of the quarterly of Mesquite (TX) Genealogical Society contains a detailed report on the genealogical and cartographic holdings of Samford University Library, Birmingham, AL 35209. This library probably has more Baptist records than any other, and is actively seeking additions.

*****

In a certain genealogical quarterly (which shall be nameless) I encountered such a severe case of lacerated Latin that it probably should be reported to the AMA! Someone used CENSI as the plural of census, no doubt thinking it was analogous to locus. However, census is not a Latin noun but an English word derived from the verb censere, so it takes the normal plural censuses.

Is That Lineage Right? was published by the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution to lay down guide lines for evaluating genealogical sources and evidence. For example, vital records take precedence /accent on second syllable, since it comes from the verb precede, as distinguished from the noun PRECedents/ over Bible records that may have been written from memory long after the event. This book should be on every Recommended Reading List for genealogists.

*****

Maine Genealogical Inquirer Vol. 5 No. 1 has a four-page "Bulletin Board" listing genealogies and local histories in process. Notices are printed bi-monthly for two years--an admirable policy! If you are preparing such a book, send details to Maine Genealogical Inquirer, Box 253, Oakland 04963.

*****

Say "Happy Easter" or "Happy Birthday" to your friends who are interested in the history of Austin by sending them its city directory of a hundred years ago. They'll enjoy reading about the old timers in our abstract published in AGS Quarterly Vol. XIV No. 4. Order them at $1.50 each from Mr. Seth D. Breeding, 2202 Greenlee Drive, Austin, TX 78703.

GENEALOGICAL WORKSHOP

Lufkin Genealogical and Historical Society announces that its 1974 workshop will be conducted by the renowned Mrs. Virginia Pope Livingston of Virginia, on the subject of genealogical records concerning Maryland, Virginia and parts of North Carolina. This will be held 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Saturday 30 March at Angelina College, Hwy 59, three miles south of Lufkin. Send registration fee of $10 (includes Noon Buffet) to Mrs. Wanda Defoyd, 1716 Copeland, Lufkin, TX 75901.

NOTE: Kansas Genealogical Society published Mrs. Livingston's list of recommended books on Virginia, and we found that Texas State Library has all but two or three!
