(Address direct: 2202 W. 10, Austin TX 78703)

The Society was organized in 1960 as a non-profit organization chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect & preserve genealogical and historical information about Texas, particularly that pertaining to City of Austin, Travis and surrounding counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records. Gifts and bequests are tax-deductible.

Membership is open to all upon payment of annual dues of $6.00. Family memberships are available to immediate members of a family in the same household for $9.00. No special rate for libraries. Membership is for the calendar year. DUES ARE PAYABLE JANUARY FIRST.

Meetings are held in the Howson Branch Public Library, 2500 Exposition Boulevard, at 7:30 p.m. on the 4th Tuesday of each month except December. Visitors are welcome.

The Society's Quarterly is published in March, June, September, and December and is sent free to members. Some single issues and indexes are available--contact Sales Chairman at left. Members are urged to submit genealogical material and queries directly to the Editor (address above) to save time and postage. Contributions are accepted at the discretion of the Editor, and neither she nor the Society can be held responsible for the accuracy of such material.

NEW COVER DESIGN

Our new cover design is peculiarly appropriate for the quarterly of Austin Genealogical Society because, aside from the obvious suggestion of a "family tree," it is based on the well-known "Treaty Oak" in a small city park on Baylor between 5th and 6th streets in Austin.

Treaty Oak was the site of numerous treaties between the early settlers and the Indians, as well as many public assemblies and celebrations.

The drawing, made by Mrs. Maydell McDerment, is of the iron work in front of a niche in the south foyer of the Capitol, in which reposes a copy of the Texas Declaration of Independence. There were originally five hand-written copies, one of which was taken to Washington DC by William H. Wharton and filed in the Department of State on 28 May 1836. The copy marked "the original," the only one with 59 signatures, was returned to Texas in 1896.

Mrs. A.N. McCallum (nee Jane Yelvington), Texas's secretary of state 1927-33, found the historic document "mouldering away in an old file and caused it to be restored for future Texans to see." The original has been deposited in the State Archives, but the photostatic copy now in the niche (which formerly housed a drinking fountain) can be seen in its entirety by turning a handle at the side.

Besides the tree, the protective design, conceived by Fortunat Weigl, includes the Texas Lone Star motif and scrollwork, all hand made with the simplest of tools by the late Mr. Weigl and his sons Herbert and F. Lee Weigl, at a cost of approximately $400. Its value has of course multiplied tremendously since the day of the official unveiling, 2 March 1929, which is, appropriately, Texas Independence Day.

We are deeply indebted to Mrs. McDerment for realizing how fitting it would be for AGS to display this beautiful bit of art on the cover of its publication, and for making a drawing of it to be so used.

Mrs. McDerment (nee Maydell Blackmon) is the daughter of Thomas Lawson and Blanche (Collins) Blackmon, born in Texas and Tennessee respectively. She herself was born 21 Jan 1897 on the N-Bar-N Ranch near Pearmond MT, but she is nearly a native Texan because the family returned here when she was only six years old.

They lived in Ellis County 1903-09, then moved to San Antonio. After graduating from Main Avenue High School, Maydell attended Alamo Business School, worked in offices 1913-21, and was a student at Chicago Art Institute 1921-23.

Returning to San Antonio, she worked at Fort Sam Houston for Gen. Billy Mitchell. In 1925 she was present at General Mitchell's court-martial, then accompanied him on a three-month lecture tour across the United States.

For ten years Maydell was General Mitchell's secretary at Middleburg VA. After his death in 1936, she worked for Senator Millard E. Tydings in Washington DC. In 1937 she married an Army officer in that city. When Senator Tydings was defeated in 1950, Mrs. McDerment assisted him in his law practice until 1953. At that time she took a position in the Capitol office of Texas Senator Price Daniel, a newcomer to Washington.

Again returning to Texas, Maydell served as secretary to Governor Daniel during his three terms and in his private law office 1962-66. From 1967 until her retirement in August 1974, Mrs. McDerment worked for the Texas Legislature, in both the House and the Senate.

Now residing at Garrett in Ellis County, Mrs. McDerment is busily enjoying her hobbies of flower painting, quilting (a LeMoyne Star pattern is her current project), gardening, and restoring furniture.

Although she has never been a commercial artist, her talent is obvious in the drawing she made for our cover, and we are grateful to Maydell for giving AGS this attractive ink sketch.

DEADLINE FOR ANCESTOR LISTING

Our June issue in recent years has been the one in which AGS members list their ancestors. The original format was exceedingly tedious to type and to index, and, as it did not present families as a group, it was felt that it would be more advantageous to members for them to submit family group sheets, lineage charts, or a narrative format, as they chose.

The present policy is to permit members to submit camera-ready copy (legibly typed or written in black ink) that can be photocopied. Each member will be allowed the same number of pages. This may be two or four or more, depending on the number received by the editor at 2202 W. 10, Austin TX 78703, by MAY 15th. You may send in as many as you like and they will be equitably used as space (determined by the treasury) allows.

The June issue also will contain an alphabetical roster of our members with addresses and phone numbers, so be sure to include that information on your sheets. The code key formerly used will not be necessary since your name and address will be on each page you submit.

People who send in a great number of sheets should arrange them in the order of their preference, in case we cannot print them all.

It is more expensive to I-Tek the pages (as is) than for your editor to peck them out on mats, but it is more accurate. We hope you agree that this is preferable. See last year's June issue for tips on how you can present the most material on a page. We do not have any more Family Data Sheets, but you can type your own if you like, or use any printed form you have.

In view of all the controversy about getting the 1900 Census opened to the public, it behooves us to start writing to our U.S. Senators and Representatives to ask that all future censuses be made available without undue delay.

DEDICATION: RALPH A. BICKLER

This issue is dedicated to the memory of Mr. Ralph Adolph Bickler, 1891-1974, who was a member of Austin Genealogical Society from the date of its organization until his death. He was the eighth child of Professor Jacob and Martha (Lungkwitz) Bickler, who were living in Galveston, Texas, at the time of his birth. They returned to Austin to live on Ralph's first birthday, and for the remainder of his life he lived within a few blocks of the Capitol and the University. Of German parentage, he spoke and read the German language, his early education being in his father's home and the preparatory school of Miss Jennie Bickler for the Texas German and English Academy which was under the direction of Jacob Bickler. After his father's death in 1902, young Ralph attended Wooldridge Elementary School, Stephen F. Austin High School, and the Austin College of Business.

Mr. Bickler was married on June 24, 1946, to Miss Mazie Beatrice Mayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Coke Mayes of Austin. She is a member of AGS and lives at 1404 West Avenue in Austin.

The fine influence of Mr. Bickler on our community cannot be measured, for his work was quietly accomplished in organizations and committees, while he held positions with the Austin National Bank, the Internal Revenue Service, and the State's Attorney; for 33 years before his retirement in 1966 he was a clerical employee of the Supreme Court of Texas. He published The Texas Syllabi 1954-1974.

A grandson of early Texas landscape painter Adolph Lungkwitz, Mr. Bickler had a deep interest in preserving and exhibiting early Texas art.

His research included Texas history, and his conversation sparkled with true stories he recalled from the many years he had lived in Austin and associated with those who helped to make its history. Elisabet Ney was "Tante" Ney to him; Governor James Stephen Hogg and his family were neighbors and friends; and there was a close association with the professors on the faculty of The University of Texas.

A veteran of World War I, Mr. Bickler was a member of The American Legion, Travis Post No. 76, and was honored by them by being elected their first Buddy First Class. As scoutmaster of the Boy Scout Troop sponsored by Post 76, he was privileged to teach Boy Scout principles to many boys who are today's teachers, businessmen and officials.

Ever alert to preserving Austin's history, Mr. Bickler arranged for a flag pole (given by the next-door property owner) to be moved by volunteers to The Old Bakery site. He also brought about the installation of the "Athol Stone" in the O. Henry House. It was in the window of the Smith home when the famous writer carved the name of his sweetheart, Athol Estes, in it with his penknife.

Many years earlier, he had arranged for a stone from the Alamo to be placed in the facade of the Chicago Tribune Tower. Having noticed that many notable buildings were represented by stones there, he asked the building manager if he would like one from the Alamo. Upon receiving enthusiastic acceptance, Mr. Bickler obtained permission from Miss Emma Burleson to send them half of a stone which she had transported from the grounds of the Shrine of Texas to the Daughters of the Republic of Texas Museum in Austin. Texas was represented at the dedication by a descendant of a hero of the Alamo.

In the field of natural history, Mr. Bickler served the Travis Audubon Society as president and editor of its Signal Smoke. He was chairman of the Audubon Wildlife Films for a number of years, amassing funds to buy a wildlife sanctuary which he helped to select.

He had an intense love of trees, as evidenced by his growing a ten-foot wild pistachio tree from a Burbank seedling. When the Ralph Bickler home and grounds at 809 West 16th Street were converted to use by the City of Austin, many of his beloved trees and native shrubs were bulldozed, but the pistachio was accepted by The University of Texas and transplanted to the campus opposite the entrance to Hogg Auditorium.

In addition to the organizations already mentioned, Mr. Bickler was an active member of the Congregational Church of Austin, the Lungkwitz-Klappenbach Family Association, Texas Ornithological Society, Men's Garden Club of Austin and of America, Scottish Society of Texas, Scots of Austin, and Texas State Genealogical Society.

PROFESSOR JACOB BICKLER

Published in this issue are the records of The Texas German and English Academy which was founded in Austin by Jacob Bickler in 1876, and directed by him until his death in 1902, with the exception of five years when he served as Superintendent of the Public Schools of Galveston. A dedicated and able educator, he spent the summers conducting "normal schools" for teachers in Fredericksburg and Mason.

Jacob Bickler was born on November 20, 1849, in Sobernheim, near Bingen, Province of the Rhine, Germany, and at the age of fourteen was brought to Milwaukee by his father. He graduated from Milwaukee Military Academy, and, ambitious to teach, entered the University of Wisconsin at Madison; awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1870, he accepted a position as principal of the public schools in LaCrosse. He resigned that position in 1872 and came to Austin to teach in the school established by his uncle, Philip Bickler, located at Red River and Eleventh streets, which school was later moved to Brenham and grew into Blinn College.

Mr. Bickler was employed as a calculator in the General Land Office of Texas, where he was associated with the early Texas landscape painter and map maker, Herman Lungkwitz, and his daughter Martha who assisted her father. On January 24, 1874, Jacob Bickler and Martha Lungkwitz were married. To them were born nine children, seven of whom lived to maturity.

Fortunate were the students to whom the learned Professor Bickler and his faculty of teachers taught a complete curriculum of the sciences, mathematics, literature, history, Greek, Latin, German, French, and Italian. Preparation was given for the entrance examinations to institutions of higher learning, and a school library containing hundreds of volumes of reference and classical works was maintained. Elocution, singing, and athletics were included in the school's activities, and the Academy's baseball team played other local teams, such as that of St. Edward's College. For the younger students, there was basic instruction in reading, arithmetic, English, singing, and elocution.

Elaborate commencement exercises were held annually in Millett Opera House or Turner's Hall, and school picnics were events to be enjoyed in the open at Hyde Park or on Shoal Creek.

Tuition accounts were carefully kept, cash being paid for most of the students, but sometimes tuition was paid in kind, such as merchandise from a haberdashery; in groceries, farm produce, or furniture; and one student's schooling and board were paid for with a deed to land in a distant Texas county. For the two sons of a prominent minister, the ledger records: "For love, affection and gifts."

Historic medallions mark many of the buildings where the Bickler school was conducted. One of the early buildings used was the Texas Military Academy building at 1111 West 11th Street; others were at 203 West 13th Street, 208 West 14th Street, and the church building at 13th and Colorado which was replaced by the new Supreme Court building.

The Texas German and English Academy was discontinued after the death of Professor Bickler on April 30, 1902, but the thorough education and high ideals he had given to his students (many of whom became prominent citizens) had a profound influence in the state of Texas, particularly in the Austin community. As a leader in the field of education, Professor Bickler was appointed to the committee to establish the University of Texas. An elementary school at East Avenue and 11th Street was named for him by the Austin School Board, later being renamed The Bickler Administration Building.

His former students provided funds to mark his grave in Oakwood Cemetery with a tall obelisk of gray granite on which appears the inscription written by his former student, Tom Gregory: "He lifted us further from the dust and gave us a wider view."

THE TEXAS GERMAN AND ENGLISH ACADEMY, 1876-1902

Among the ten volumes of records of this school which have been preserved by the Bickler family are Ledgers (of accounts), Teacher's Daily Registers (of attendance), and Model Roll Books (of attendance and grades). Although the beautiful handwriting is usually quite legible, the fact that some lists of pupils have surnames first and some last made transcription in alphabetical order difficult. Sometimes, toward the end of a list, the style changed so that, in the absence of a comma, it is hard to determine whether a boy's name was, for example, Grizzard Brown or Brown Grizzard. No effort was made by the inscribers to keep letters together, or even students with the same surname.

Some ledger sheets seem to be headed by the name of the parent or guardian, some by the name of the pupil. I hope I have correctly classified pupils and parents by comparing lists of different years, but if I show some pupils as the parents of their fathers, please excuse it! Any corrections submitted will be gladly printed later.

In some instances it was necessary to estimate a student's age when he first entered school, because the age was not given until the third time he was shown on the rolls. In that case, I subtracted three, which might be too much, depending on when his birthday was.

Often a pupil attended only part of a year. When one left the academy, his name was scratched out and another written above it, making it difficult to decide whose father and age were written to the right of the name. Some books have entries skipping from, say, 1883 to 1897, with the intervening years found in other volumes.

The spelling of names varied from list to list; I used the one appearing most often or obviously corrected by the marking out of a letter, etc. I have used the two vowels where only one was used with an umlaut (e.g., ue for u). This style prevailed as the years went along.

Many of the fathers and guardians, their occupations and residences can be found in the 1872-73 city directory of Austin, which appeared in Vol. XIV No. 4 (December 1973) of AGS Quarterly. (See inside cover to order).

In some of the volumes Professor Bickler wrote revealing comments. In 1876 his landlord apparently was George Stolley. A notation reads: "May 1-16. Mr. Stolley off in the mountains hunting for gold." Since Professor and Mrs. Bickler found room in their home (among their nine children) to accommodate students from out of town, it is readily understandable that "New mattress" and "Mattress repair" are often noted.

In the fall of 1895 the school attended the Barnum and Bailey Circus; in 1898 it was Ringling. Each spring a picnic was held (pupils contributed 15-25¢ each), only one of which was marred by rain. The usual notation was "Annual Picnic at Hyde Park. Fine weather. Success." In May 1895 the pupils were treated to an Ice Cream Party.

Comments

1893: 22 Sep--"J. B. unwell" 20 Oct--"Field Day at Hyde Park. Fine Day and Much Enjoyment." 9 Nov--"Fire broke out at about 4.30 P.M. Thursday afternoon while the First Nine was playing a match game with the St Edwards Nine in Horst's Grove. Roof of Church partly burned; some damage to school." 23 Nov--"Match Games by First and Sec. Nines with St Edwards Boys on their grounds. Ours lost. St Edwards furnished umpires!!!" 24 Nov--"Miss Carter broke her hip." 6 Dec--"Alvah Thrasher died of typhoid fever. Aged 14" 11-15 Dec--"Sick with the Grippe" (presumably Professor Bickler)

1894: 15 June--"Closing Exercises at Millett's Opera House" Oct--"Picnic at Hart's Pasture"

1895: 8 Feb--"No School on account of cold weather" 14-15 Feb--"Heavy Snows and very cold" 21 Apr--"San Jacinto Day Lake Excursion"

1896: 22 Feb--"Celebrated Washington's Birthday at Musical Union Hall in temporary Capitol Building" Dec--Christmas entertainment at Turner Hall (date uncertain)

1897: Last weekend in March--"Walk to the woods on upper Shoal Creek. Fine weather. Much fun" 21 Apr--"Picnic at Barton's Creek" 1 Oct--"Moved School to residence, 1904 San Antonio St."

1898: "Annual Picnic in Pease's Park. Fine weather. Frank Brown and Dudley Smythe, cavalymen, present." 9 Dec--"Snow, Sleet & Ice"

1899: 12-13 Feb--"3 degrees below zero" March--"Went to hear William J. Bryan speak in the University Auditorium...a fine speech." 3 May--"Confederate Reunion" 27 Oct--"School children's Day at Travis County Fair (a rainy day)"

1900: 22 Feb--"Washington's Birthday and Mamma's" 7 Apr--"Bursting of Dam and Cave-in of Power House" 8 May--"23rd State Saengerfest held at Austin" 19 Oct--"Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show"

There seems to have been a State fund in 1878 to supplement the education of children, which Professor credited to their accounts by the notation "apportionment from State School fund." That same year, so many pupils were charged 35¢ for broken window panes that the suggestion of a rock-throwing escapade arises.

Discipline

Professor Bickler did not indulge in the pussyfooting circumlocutions that modern "educationists" employ for fear of offending. Entered in his journals are the following terse comments:

"Disappeared (Took French leave)" "Dismissed on account of stealing books" "Out chasing the almighty dollar!" (a student who left school to go to work) "Expelled for disgraceful conduct" "Dismissed on account of general worthlessness--incapable of speaking the truth--played 'hookey' &c." "Lacks staying qualities" "... is neither obedient, truthful nor studious. He has grossly violated Rule 8, and hence will not be received into this school again"

(Rule 8: "Students who EVADE the rules or whose deportment is such as to render it evident that their influence is pernicious, will not be allowed to remain in the school.")

"Expelled. Entered the school house by stealth, late in the evening, and stole my new mattress on Oct. 20. His own mother informed me of the fact, which he at first stoically denied, but afterwards admitted. Was received back on trial, after expressing great sorrow and promising good behavior. Did not keep his word, played truant, lied about it and was expelled"

Teachers

Teachers at Professor Bickler's academy were paid from $25 to $45 per month. Names noted in various places were, in 1876, Therese Adams and Laura Martin; in 1878: Frank Colby, Karl Guse, H. Lungkwitz, Thomas Pilgrim,* Morgan Springer, Edwin H. Kuehn, --- Matter, --- Gould, Therese Adams, W. Ziller, James R. Shepherd, Ralph J. Kuechler, Julia Palm (or perhaps an adult student); in 1879: Kate Carothers, Annie Fisher, Gustav A. Heilig; in 1880: Gustav A. Heilig, John A. Green Jr., L. B. Kuhn, C. H. Earnest; in 1881: Charles A. Burchard, Ernst L. Retsch, John A. Green Jr.; 1881-82: Burchard, Lewis, Lungkwitz, Besserer, Richard Heilig; in 1882: Wm. Besserer, Yancey Lewis, Adolph Heinrich, James L. Shepherd; in 1883: Edwin B. Smith, R. N. Reichelt (seems to have moved to Rochester NY), Yancey Lewis; in 1884: B. K. Benson, Edwin B. Smith, M. Menger; in 1885: Henry Oliver, M. Menger; in 1900: Jennie Bickler.

These names were gleaned from receipts and passing references; there were no lists of teachers regularly entered.

* This was the son of the noted Baptist missionary and teacher, Thomas J. Pilgrim, who started the first Sunday School in Texas in 1829, in conjunction with a boys' school which he set up at San Felipe de Austin. Thomas J. Pilgrim Jr., under the pen name of Arthur Morecamp, wrote a series of books for boys entitled Live Boys in the Black Hills, Live Boys in . . . (various places), published by Lee & Shephard of New York. If any of our readers have any of these books for sale, please notify the editor at 2202 W. 10, Austin TX 78703.

STATUS OF BACK ISSUES OF QUARTERLIES OF AUSTIN GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Austin Genealogical Society was created in 1960. Only one publication, Vol. I No. 1, was issued that year, but four have been issued each year since then. The Society has for sale copies of most of these numbers, the price varying from $1 to $2 according to the size of the issue. The average price is $1.50 per copy.

The Society has published name and/or subject indexes for all quarterlies to date. The first index (covering 1960-65) was issued as the quarterly Vol. VI No. 4, Winter 1965, 117 pages, and is now out of print. We can supply Xerox copies at $6 each locally, $7 by mail.

The second index (Covering 1966-70) was printed separately. We have only four (4) copies on hand as of 14 March 1975, for sale at $3 if it is picked up, $3.50 by mail.

The third index (covering 1971-73) is also a separate publication for sale at $3, or $3.50 by mail. Beginning with 1974, the last quarterly of the year contains the index for that year.

AGS has only one complete set of quarterlies for sale. This includes all the indexes and is priced at $100.

OUT-OF-PRINT QUARTERLIES: Vol. III No. 1, Apr 1962; Vol. VI No. 4 Winter 1965 (Index for 1960-65); Vol. VII Nos. 2, 3, and 4; Vol. VIII No. 1, Mch 1967; Vol. XI Nos. 2 and 3; Vol. XV Nos. 1 and 2.

Others may be ordered from Mr. Seth D. Breeding, 2205 Greenlee Drive, Austin TX 78703.

SCOTTISH "CEILIDH" PROGRAM PLANNED FOR AGS

On 27 May an evening of Scottish film and music will be offered to AGS members and interested Scots of Austin. A 37-minute color film with sound describing the restoration of Kisimul Castle on the Island of Barra will be shown, which should be of interest to all of Scottish descent (especially Macneils) and others who care about the preservation and restoration of ancient structures.

To climax the entertainment, Mr. Nicholas Classen has graciously consented to thrill us with music on the bagpipes. Those who wish to show their loyalty to their Scottish ancestors are invited to add to the festive air by wearing any Scottish attire they may possess.

Since it is not the policy of AGS to spend money on programs (because of budgetary restrictions), a donation of $1 is solicited to help defray the considerable cost of renting the film.

The spacious Parish Hall of the Episcopal Church of The Good Shepherd (Exposition and Windsor) has been reserved, with ample parking space west of the service station just north of the church.

To assure that enough chairs will be set up, those who plan to attend are asked to notify Mrs. H.H. Rugeley at 2202 W. 10, by card, please. Just picture my plight if 200 people called me--I'd never get caught up on the everyday chores that I have neglected in the countless hours I have spent studying the Bickler school records, making cards for all the pupils, and typing the data for this quarterly!

HAPPY HUNTING GROUND

Send queries to Mrs. H.H. Rugeley, 2202 W. 10, Austin TX 78703. Please include at least one date and place with each one. Use names or abbreviations of months; proofread copy. Queries are free.

CLEMENTS_CLEMONS. Aaron Clemons (Clements) left wife & family in Blount Co, AL ca 1868. Took another woman who used his wife's name, Catherine. Aaron (b. 1812/13) and she (b. 1844) found on Franklin Co, TN census with children: Aaron Jr. (b. AL 1872), George (Washington, b. AL 1874), Hilda (b. TN 1876), & Mary Ann (b. TN 1880). In 1890s, Aaron Sr. & George W. returned to Blount Co. Aaron Sr. died 1901. George W. left 1905/06. Was he the aged man who came to Blount Co ca May 1971 & asked my brother to show him our grandfather's home place? Said he had lived there 65 years before & had worked in Grandfather's store in Oneonta. He spelled his name Clemons (as had Aaron Sr. when he went away) & had 3 young men with him in a car bearing TX license plates. Was he half-brother of my grf Peter Clements? I will answer all letters and pay for info identifying George W. Clemons or his close relatives.--Mrs. Ethel Scharrel, 2734 Polk St., Hollywood FL 33020

Will exchange information on the following families:

Particularly interested in parents of John H. Duke & Mary W. Simms. Will pay for photocopies of Bible records.--Jonnie Adams Sisler, 6382 E. Dakota, Fresno CA 93727

NOTE: In my book, the slash as used above means "or" and the hyphen means "between." The slash also means "per" as in 25¢/dozen; and, when you are dealing with Old Style dates, 3 Feb 1630/31 means that it was 1630 at that time, but since New Year's Day was changed from 25 March to 1 January in 1752, that year was 1631 as we figure now.

I had to laugh at the young broadcasters' comments on TV in regard to celebrating Washington's birthday on the 17th instead of the 22nd this year. What's so sacred about the 22nd? George was actually born 11 Feb 1732, but when he was 20, eleven days were dropped out of September to make the old Julian and the new Gregorian calendars agree, so his birthday was changed from the 11th to the 22nd during his lifetime and he survived the shock!

DILLARD_FORESTER_FORRESTER. Seeking information on Robert Forester b. 1778, Farnham Parish, Richmond Co, VA; d. after 1856. He and wife Rebecca had: William (d. in war against Indians? ca 1836), James? (wife Sarah in DeKalb Co, TN in 1850), Richard (b. 1828; wife Nancy m. 2nd Dan Dillard in 1856?), Robert E. (b. 1813/18; wife Mary), Elizabeth (b. 1818), Rachel (b. 1820; in Sutherland Springs, Bexar, now Wilson, Co, TX in 1856), and Francis?

Would like more data on two Forrester families on 1880 Census of Gonzales Co, TX: (1) John B. (57), wife Sarah (Lucinda?), children Robert H., Mary, Lula P., Charles J., Jonne, Richard, John B., & George H. AND (2) Henry (38), wife Emeline, children Nancy, Richard, Emeline, Henry, Maria, Charles, & Willie.--Mrs. William M. Cummings, 6158 Calle Vera Cruz, La Jolla CA 92037.
