The Society was organized in 1960 as a non-profit organization chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect & preserve genealogical and historical information about Texas, particularly that pertaining to City of Austin, Travis and surrounding counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records. Gifts and bequests are tax-deductible.

Membership is open to all upon payment of annual dues of $6.00. Family memberships are available to immediate members of a family in the same household for $9.00. No special rate for libraries. Membership is for the calendar year. DUES ARE PAYABLE JANUARY FIRST.

Meetings are held in the Howson Branch Public Library, 2500 Exposition Boulevard, at 7:30 p.m. on the 4th Tuesday of each month except December. Visitors are welcome.

The Society's Quarterly is published in March, June, September, and December and is sent free to members. Some single issues and indexes are available--contact Sales Chairman at left. Members are urged to submit genealogical material and queries directly to the Editor (address above) to save time and postage. Contributions are accepted at the discretion of the Editor, and neither she nor the Society can be held responsible for the accuracy of such material.

Interested readers are grateful to the Charles Alborn Walker family and Mrs. Omer L. Grelle for copying the data in this cemetery, and the editor is doubly indebted to Jean Halden Walker for typing the information. More than that, she typed it over, omitting verses on the stones, when it became apparent that our quarterly would not have space for such inscriptions. Many thanks, Jean! Having been an assiduous editor yourself, you realized how much I would appreciate assistance at index-typing time!

BOOK REVIEWS

WOMEN IN EARLY TEXAS. Edited by Evelyn M. Carrington, Ph.D. Jenkins Publishing Co. (Box 2085, Austin TX 78767), 1975. Pp. x+296. Illustrations. Cloth. $12.50 (Texas residents add 63¢ tax).

Sponsored and copyrighted by the American Association of University Women, Austin Branch, Women in Early Texas is a tangible celebration of International Women's Year and the American Revolution Bicentennial. The book consists of biographies of 50 notable women representing many of the ethnic cultures which contributed to the composition of Texas, 50 stones in the mosaic of our Texas heritage.

Most of the sketches were written (with Dr. Carrington as mentor and AGS member Lois Stoneham as editorial advisor) by descendants of the subjects and include hitherto unpublished data from family records. Although few citations to sources are given, many delightful family traditions and anecdotes enliven the basic facts.

Nearly every sketch is accompanied by photographs or drawings which enhance the value as well as the appearance of this attractively designed volume.

Since these women played significant roles in forming the cultural, historical, and social atmosphere of Texas, this book will be of interest to all who cherish the Lone Star State, and especially to those with a particular concern for one or more of the subjects:

Nancy Millar Alley, Thankful Hannah McClure Allis, Maria Bachman Atkinson, Harriet Bachman Jourdan, Elizabeth Thomas Davis Bagley, Sarah Ann McClure Braches, Angela Salvaggio Cangelosi, Maria Gertrudis Perez Cordero Cassiano, Fannie Baker Darden, Hannah Elizabeth Denny, Susanna Wilkerson Dickinson, Annie Dunlavy Dorbandt, Marie Fargeix Gentilz, Harriet Newell Gray, Margaret Leatherberry Hallet, Dilue Rose Harris, Magdalena Hornberger Henninger, Minerva Frances Vernon Hill, Amanda Burnam Holman, Anna Raguet Irion, Sister M. Josephine (Ernestine Potard), Sophie Tolle Koester, Mollie Jane Wilson Lay, Rozalie Dusek Lesikar, Elizabeth Gaertner Levy, Mildred Satterwhite Littlefield, Elizabeth McDonald Lockwood, Sarah Ellen Eaton McCallister, Martha White McWhirter, Juana Navarro de Alsbury, Anna Hurd Palm, Auguste Mentzel Raven, Rebecca Kilgore Stuart Red, Tecla Rzeppa, Anna Salazar de Esparza, Emilie Ploeger Schumann, Louise Ormsby Stanuell, Eva Catherine Rosine Ruff Sterne, Eveline Greenwood Stoneham, Sissie Thompson Sylestine, Nancy Tevis, Margaret O'Bryant Thompson, Helen Mary Kirkpatrick Finnin, Elise Amalie Tvede Waerenskjold, Kerenhappuch Sophronia Buie Webb, Louise Klingelhoef Wehmeyer, Mary Burleson Whitehead, Rachel Whitfield, Rebecca Raworth Williams, and Adina de Zavala.

THE FAMILY SEARCH OF CLARENCE RICE OWENS. Compiled from his Notes by Katharine Bruce Jones. Baltimore: Gateway Press, Inc. 1975. Pp. viii + 349. Cloth. $12.50 (California residents add tax).

Published by California Genealogical Society (2099 Pacific Ave., San Francisco 94109), The Family Search of Clarence Rice Owens bears the enlightening subtitle: /Search/ "for Owens and Chambers in MD, NC, IN, NB, KS, CO; Rice and Colton in MA, NY, WI, MN, CA; Patterson in MA, NY, WI, MN, KS, NB; Farnam in New England, Canada, NB, KS, WA; Sly and Wiltse in Canada" (underlining and abbreviations ours). About 1150 other family names are mentioned, an alphabetized list of which can be obtained from Mrs. Joyce Borden, librarian of CGS (address above).

Publishing this book is certainly a commendable project of CGS, and is a pilot for future ventures. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rice Owens were long-time members of the Society, and left funds in their wills toward the publication of family data collected over a period of 25 years. Miss Jones, an experienced redactor, generously donated the full year of her time spent in editing the large mass of material, so that any profits will go to the treasury of CGS.

The book is divided into sections for the principal surnames that are treated, with a prefatory chart showing interrelationships. Although adequately explained, Mr. Owens's numbering system in this genealogy seems rather cumbersome; while it does show which son of which son John was, this reviewer deplores his arbitrary assignment when the order of birth is unknown. The entire subsequent numbering will be invalidated, it seems to me, when later researchers discover that John was the third instead of the second son.

The index contains some 6700 entries--what a monumental task it was to compile that! Beautiful typing and logical arrangement make this an easily-read book, with good paper and binding to boot.

The first few generations of Owens/Owings are treated in some depth, with quotations from records and correspondence. Katharine B. Jones's ability to summarize the vast quantity of records pertaining to families unrelated to her is truly exemplary.

If I may add one more to an overworked quotation: HAPPINESS IS . . . having one's genealogical material molded into this good a book!

JULIA LEE SINKS AND THE CHRONICLES OF FAYETTE

"What can you tell me about your folks?" This simple question asked of AGS charter member Seth Darnaby Breeding about 25 years ago has resulted, in a circuitous way, in an extraordinary Bicentennial story, one which cannot have its equal in many other states.

Let us go back to the spring of 1840 when Julia Lee, aged 23, with two brothers and a sister, set out from Cincinnati, Ohio, for Austin, Texas. The party went down the Mississippi to New Orleans and there boarded a steamer for Galveston. Julia, being endowed with a natural appreciation of history, must have been excited and somewhat awed to find as fellow-passengers to Galveston the Texas hero General Sam Houston and his new wife, Margaret Lea Houston. Years later Julia wrote and published an account of her journey from Ohio to Texas including an account of her contacts with the Houstons.

In Austin in 1841, Julia Lee married George W. Sinks, chief clerk of the Post Office Department of the Republic. They became parents of six children. After a few years in Austin the Sinkses moved to La Grange, where they lived many years. Julia Lee Sinks was active in historical matters and became a writer of historical articles of considerable renown.

Mrs. Sinks's well-known qualities as historian led the Fayette County Centennial Committee of 1876 to ask her to "gather together such items of the early history of this County and the territory from which it was taken as might be of interest for compilation and publication, to be preserved as a permanent record among the Archives of the County." This Julia Lee Sinks did, producing a 160-page pen-and-ink manuscript of valuable historical data, official records, interviews with pioneer settlers, and correspondence with persons she could not visit. Mrs. Sinks titled her manuscript "Chronicles of Fayette," but, strangely, 99 years were to pass before it would be published.

Julia Lee Sinks was one of the founders of the Texas State Historical Association. She was a contributor to, a vice-president, a fellow, and an honorary life member of that organization. Soon after its founding in 1897, Mrs. Sinks presented to it her collection of valuable historical papers including her manuscript "Chronicles of Fayette." Julia Lee Sinks died October 24, 1904.

Walter P. Freytag, a former teacher, Fayette County Superintendent of Schools, newspaper owner, chairman of Fayette County Historical Commission, former mayor and long-time postmaster at LaGrange, and always a grassroots historian, has spent much of his busy life collecting information on the early settlers of Fayette County. Knowing that Seth Breeding's ancestors were early residents of the county, he asked him, "What can you tell me about your folks?"

Mr. Breeding was compelled to answer, "Not very much." But for him that answer was not good enough, and thus began his searching in old Texas records. By chance he noted a page set aside as a memorial to a Mrs. Julia Lee Sinks in The Quarterly of the Texas State Historical Association, Vol. VIII, No. 2, October 1904. By further chance, he noted a marriage of a George W. Sinks to Julia Lee, October 13, 1841, among the Original Marriage Licenses, 1840-1850, Travis County Clerk's Office, in AGS Quarterly, Vol. XI, No. 4, December 1970, contributed for publication by AGS member Lucie C. Price.

These chance encounters with traces of Julia Lee Sinks stimulated Mr. Breeding to research. He learned in The Handbook of Texas that Mrs. Sinks's papers were in the Barker Archives at the University of Texas at Austin, and that they contained "original letters concerning the John H. Moore campaigns against the Indians and other incidents of Texas history." As Mr. Breeding knew that his grandfather had served in that 1840 campaign, he hurried to the archives to examine Mrs. Sinks's papers, which he found to contain many valuable historical items. Most important of all was the manuscript "Chronicles of Fayette," lying where it had been safely "lost" for 95 years (in 1971). Mr. Breeding got a Xerox copy of Mrs. Sinks's manuscript, took it to Mr. Freytag, and urged its publication, a financial impossibility when first completed.

Now for the happy ending: Whereas the 1876 Fayette County Centennial Committee commissioned the writing of the Chronicles of Fayette, the 1975 La Grange Bicentennial Commission has sponsored its publication. Walter P. Freytag very ably edited the manuscript, enhancing the interest and value of the final production by including Mrs. Sinks's account of her trip from Cincinnati to Austin in 1840 and brief biographical sketches of forty early settlers of Fayette County.

INDEX TO AGS QUARTERLY FOR 1975

No titles are used in this index except Mrs., and that only when necessary to show feminine gender. When a person is named for a state, the current two-letter abbreviation is used. Abbreviations are placed as if spelled out (e.g., Geo (George) before GA (Georgia)).

Since Professor Bickler (page 5 ff.) often used merely v. for names sometimes prefixed by Von, we have alphabetized such names by the main component (Boeckmann, Homeyer, Koenneritz, Rosenberg, etc.).

Names of funeral directors on pp. 95-120 were not indexed.

The editor is grateful to Mrs. John M. Pinckney Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas E. Jourdan for assistance in indexing.
