VÁSQUEZ CAMPAIGN

Muster Roll of James H. Gillespie's Co. of Volunteers

The above title heads a single sheet found by Mrs. J. B. Golden in the Texas State Archives. The paper contains three columns of names, all written by the same hand. Before seven of the 85 names are checkmarks, and the notation "v&w" follows 20. What may be "J&v" was written after Jonathan Burleson, and the note after James Barber is partially marked through. An explanation will be attempted later on.

Piecing together bits from several sources (see bibliography), I reached the conclusion that this incident would be more aptly called the Vásquez Alarm than Campaign or Expedition.

Early in 1842, having assumed power in Mexico, Antonio López de Santa Anna ordered a Centralist general, Rafael Vásquez, to conduct a "guerrilla-like raid" into Texas. With a force of 500-1400 men (spies' estimates varied), Vásquez marched across the Rio Grande toward San Antonio, sending detachments to raise the Mexican flag over Goliad and Victoria. At the approach of the overwhelming force, Texans in San Antonio decided (in a close vote) to withdraw, destroying such matériel as they could.

Vásquez occupied San Antonio on the 5th of March and withdrew on the 7th, a gesture to indicate that Mexico intended to renew her claim to Texas which the inhabitants thought they had extinguished on 21 April 1836 with the defeat of Santa Anna. Thus, six years later, he broke his promise to recognize the Republic of Texas.

This insult and threat naturally aroused the Texans, especially the war hawks, who demanded an invasion of Mexico to teach Santa Anna a lesson he would not forget. Volunteer companies sprang up in various parts of the new nation, men rallying to whatever leader they had confidence in, usually a neighbor.

Such a man was James H. Gillespie, probably the James Gillespie who in 1838 had received a Bounty Warrant from the Secretary of War for service in the Texas Army from 28 Feb to 29 May 1836 (Miller's Bounty and Donation Land Grants). He was County Clerk of Bastrop 1840-50, and served in the Civil War either as a captain of cavalry or as a private in Co. D, 3rd Battalion of mounted reserves, C.S.A. (judging from Moore's History of Bastrop pp. 78 and 85; the latter J. H. could be his son). A picture of an 1895 reunion of Civil War veterans includes a "Judge Gillespie," which could be an honorary title for a long-time county clerk.

As soon as he heard of the incursion by Vásquez, Vice-President Edward Burleson, without seeking approval from anyone, led three companies from Austin to San Antonio. (Since General Burleson had been one of the leading citizens of the Bastrop area for ten years, Gillespie's may well have been one of the companies.) President Sam Houston reacted by ordering Gen. Alexander Somervell to assume command of any troops that reached Bexar Co, and to take charge of any military reprisal on the retreating Mexican forces that might be deemed necessary.

The volunteers clung to their time-honored prerogative of electing their own commander, and some threatened not to follow anyone but Burleson (a doughty Indian fighter, experienced militia-man from Tennessee, and a leader in the Texas Revolution). He and Houston had clashed over military policy before, but he decided against an open break with the commander-in-chief on this matter. After two weeks of uncertainty about whether the men would accept Somervell as their commander, during which time the volunteer camp was "shrinking daily," Burleson returned to the capitol in Austin. As the excitable Tom Green put it, he "retired," leaving the command to Somervell, and "most of the citizen soldiers also retired ... to go home and prepare themselves for a campaign the following June." Actually, it was October, after San Antonio had again been invaded by Mexico and prisoners had been carried off by Gen. Adrian Woll (see AGS Quarterly, XV, 105-07) before the Somervell Expedition was even organized to attempt a punitive raid into Mexico.

John Henry Brown (Vol. II, pp. 214-16) describes some of the activities of volunteer groups formed in response to the Vasquez threat, and the flight of the families similar to the Runaway Scrape. The troops under Burleson apparently never went far from San Antonio; others camped on the Colorado River.

Of course, there was no money in the Texas treasury to equip troops to invade Mexico at that time, which must have become apparent to even the hottest-headed of the citizen-soldiers. So, satisfied that "the enemy had fled before them" across the Rio Grande, Burleson "disbanded the volunteers on the second of April," according to Brown.

Now back to the mysterious marks on this list of the volunteers in the company of James H. Gillespie: all those with checkmarks were citizens of Bastrop Co except Isaac Allen (probably from nearby Guadalupe Co); however, the majority lived in Bastrop County at some time (Travis, Fayette & Lee were taken from it).

But even the experts at Texas State Archives could not decide what "v & w" might mean. Some of the possibilities that occurred to us:

Volunteered & Went Volunteered & Waited Volunteered & Wounded (but this company did not meet the enemy) Volunteered & Withdrew (left before being discharged) Voted & Withdrew Voucher & Warrant [issued] (but none known of) Verified & Witnessed Vasquez & Woll (i.e., also later pursued Woll as a member of the Somervell Expedition)

I am not satisfied with any of these possible interpretations, and would welcome enlightenment.

The names on this list were searched for in several books, such as the recently reprinted history of Bastrop County (page numbers preceded by Moore); the second volume of J. H. Brown's history of Texas (pages denoted "Brown"); Sowell's Indian Fighters ("Sowell"; too many references to Edward Burleson to list); and The Handbook of Texas. A thoughtful gift from AGS member Jean Halden Walker proved extremely helpful: the index that she and her family made for Lewis Publishing Company's history of the counties around Bastrop.

Since these citizen soldiers were so quick to volunteer, it may be assumed that they had some military experience. For instance, many of the names on this list may be found in Miller's compilation of bounty warrants and donation certificates awarded for service in the Texas Revolution. HOWEVER, it is seldom possible to be certain that the same "George Allen," for example, is referred to in both cases, so citations to Miller should not be taken as proven but as clues to follow up.

Finally, if I could find an entry in the 1850 census of Texas that seemed to be one of James H. Gillespie's volunteers or their families, I have abstracted the data. For the reader's convenience, the names were re-arranged in alphabetical order, but the original sequence is indicated by the preceding numbers.

Next day, warned by their surrendered fellow soldiers after the Battle of Mier, the 42-man guard "retreated into Texas" on the best horses and thus escaped capture. -- Not found on 1850 census index.

81. ANDERSON, Franklin. No data found.

20. AVANT, John -- No certain data found. Sowell (188-194) tells of a John Avant who rescued a girl from Indians in 1876.

16. BARBER, James v&w- [sic]- Green (437) says he was a resident of Bastrop, native of MA, who fought in Battle of Mier 25-26 Dec 1842, but does not mention his fate. -- 1850 census of Gonzales Co (325 Peach Creek #4) shows J. A. Barber 32 $300 LA; Elizabeth 18 LA; Amasa 2 TX; Adiram 1m TX.

52. BLAKEY, Everett -- Lewis Index shows Everett C. on pp. 653, 655. -- Moore shows 5 Blakeys in index, including Nancy, mother-in-law of Noah Smithwick, who recorded (Evolution of a State, 266-67) that in the 1840s she already "had given two sons to die in the defense of the country" [Lemuel at San Jacinto and Edward in the battle with the Indians at Brushy Creek]. -- On 1850 census of Bastrop Co (179 #269) Nancy was 68, had property valued at $12,376, born VA; John 30 Farm hand $1600 KY. -- Lewis stated that Everett C. was related to Burlesons and was "dead by 1893."

84. BOYCE, J. W. -- Lewis Index p. 419 -- Moore (255) shows a Jephtha Boyce got a land certificate from Bastrop Board of Land Commissioners by virtue of having been in Texas in 1833; in 1839 (pp. 270-71) he was a juror in an important proceeding. In 1850 there was a James Boyce in Travis Co (census p. 143 #147) age 50, Farmer from Tennessee.

49. BRITE, John -- Miller shows a John Bright who received a bounty warrant for service and a donation certificate for participation in the Siege of Bexar. -- Nothing else found for this man by Brite or Bright. -- Index to 1850 census shows a John Briton on page 396 of Medina Co.

12. BRITE, Thos. v&w -- 1850 census of Caldwell Co (477 #173) shows Thomas Brite 25 Farmer, born Missouri.

11. BURKE, Nicholas -- No N. Burk, Burke or Burks found. See David N. Burke in Handbook. A bare possibility is on p. 401 of 1850 census of Medina Co: Nicholas Burkeley 24 - 3rd Sgt - born England; listed under Capt. Jerome B. McCowen, captain of a ranging company. Note in margin: "Texas Volunteer Ranging Company Stationed on the Medina River 10 miles - - - Castroville near the Water tank [?]."

34. BURLESON, John -- Miller shows he received a bounty warrant for 320 acres for service in Texas Army. -- Lewis Index (pp. 298, 321, 653-56, 661 [several Johns]). Page 321 reveals that he came to Bastrop in 1830; m. Rebecca Bell in TN; fought "in Indian and Mexican wars" with his brother Edward; farmed near Bastrop; died in 1884 ae. 73; wife died 1849. Children: Bell, Elizabeth, Martha (b. 1835), Edward, Mary and John. -- Moore's Bastrop p. 29 shows title to his Little Colony league issued in 1832. Primitive Baptist Church met in his home in 1834 (103n). In 1836 he got a second class certificate for 1280 acres (p. 262).

18. BURLESON, Jonathan J&v [?] -- Miller shows that he received a bounty warrant for 320 acres for serving in the Texas Army July to October 1836. -- There is a short biography in Lewis pp. 653-655. -- Moore (31, 38, 201, 256-57) says he was a brother of Gen. Edward Burleson; born TN in 1808; to Texas 1832; in Siege of Bexar [but Miller did not find a donation certificate for him corroborating that]; was a baggage guard at San Jacinto [ditto]; married Nancy B. Blakey (not the widow) in 1833; in several Indian fights; died 1879 near Bastrop. -- 1850 census of Bastrop (172 #217): Jonathan Burleson 33 Farmer $3025 TN; Nancy 33 KY; Edward 11 TX; John 9 TX; Aaron 2 TX; Eliza A. DOVER 17 AL; Jacob BURLESON 11 TX [nephew?].

17. BURNETT, D. D. -- On 1850 census, Bastrop Co (180 #274) is a David Burnet 36 Farmer $1960 KY; Rebecca 37 SC; Minerva J. 3 TX; Sarah E. 8/12 TX.

30. CANNON, Wm. R. v&w -- Miller shows a William and a William J. Cannon, the latter having been at San Jacinto. -- Moore (p. 254) shows that the Land Commissioners of Bastrop issued a certificate for one labor to William Cannon by virtue of his immigration to Texas in 1835, and (260) he was administrator of Chas. M. Cannon's 1/3 league in 1836 (?). -- The Handbook states that Cannonville in west central Hays Co was named for Wm. R. Cannon who had owned the land prior to 1859. -- This 1850 census listing seems too young to be the veteran: Hays Co (118 #10)-- Wm. Cannon 25 Farmer $2,000 TN; Susan 22 TN; Robert 4 and Jane 2 TX. 1850 Bastrop census (154 #179) shows a Wm. 55 No occupation $25,000 Ireland.

56. CLEMENTS, Nathan -- Could not find anything near this name on 1850 census or my source books. The Handbook has a Lewis Chapman Clemons/Clements who joined the 1842 Somervell Expedition [must have turned back with him, as not in list of participants in the Battle of Mier], and that he farmed near Brenham [Washington Co] until his death in 1892. He may have been in his father's household on the 1850 census of Washington Co (299 #221): James Clemmons 58 Farmer $1,000 MD; Nancy 47 VA; Lewis 30 KY; Jane 20 KY; Frances 19 KY; J. G. 14m KY; Jane 12 KY; Charles 18 TN. -- Miller shows that a Lewis C. Clements received a bounty warrant for 320 acres for military service March to May 1836.

53. CLIFTON, Josiah -- 1850 Williamson Co census (344 #217) has Josiah Clifton 25 Carpenter $400 KY under Mathias WILBARGER 42 Surveyor $5,400 KY; Sarah M. 32 VA, and children, the first born in Texas being 10 years old.

50. COFFMAN, E. G. v&w -- Miller shows Elkins G. Coffman got a donation certificate for being in the Battle of San Jacinto. -- Brown (250) says "E. G. KAUGHMAN" died while in the Mexican prison with the others captured by General Woll. -- Green (440, 445) shows E. G. Kaughman (resident of Bastrop Co, native of TN) fought in the Battle of Mier 25-26 Dec 1842, and "died from Suffering and Starvation in Mexico."

55. CONLEE, Preston v&w -- Miller shows that Preston Conley received a bounty warrant (320 acres) for service 28 Feb to 1 June 1836, and Preston Conlee was awarded 640 acres for being in Battle of San Jacinto. -- Moore (pp. 42, 56, 255, 271) lists Preston Conley as a private in Co. C under Col. Edward Burleson in 1st Regiment of Texan Volunteers at San Jacinto. Preston Conlie was sheriff of Bastrop Co 1839-1848, 1856-1858. His certificate for 1/3 league issued by Bastrop Land Commissioners cites his presence in Texas in 1835. -- The 1850 census of that county (152 #59) shows Preston Conley 45 Deputy Sheriff $3,000 TN, apparently a lodger in a rooming house.

58. CONLEE, S. B. -- Moore's Bastrop (p. 262) shows #40 Solomon B. Conley received a second class land certificate (640 acres) for being in Texas in 1836; (260) was assignee of Francis R. Whitney in 1836--1/3 league. -- In 1850 census index, nearest found was in DeWitt Co (121 #98): CONOLLY, S. B. 38 Farmer $6,000 MS; Mariah C. 19 TX; Thomas 1 TX.

54. COULTER, M. W. -- Only Coulter/Colter entries found in index to 1850 census were Henson and Sampson (San Augustine Co, pp. 337 and 336, respectively). No other data.

43. DALRYMPLE, W. C. -- Miller shows a bounty warrant (640 acres) for William C. -- service Apr to Oct 1836. -- Handbook states that William Cornelius Dalrymple was born 1814 in NC; in 1839 was a guard for the builders of government cabins at Austin; in 1840 married Elizabeth Wilbarger. "In 1842 served under Gen. Edward Burleson in repelling the Rafael Vázquez invasion." Dalrymple died 1898 in Williamson Co TX. -- Lewis Index (698-99, 813). -- Brown (253) says John Dalrymple was one of the "San Antonio Court Prisoners" (i.e., men who were in San Antonio to attend a session of district court and were captured by General Woll who seized the town at daybreak Sunday 11 Sep 1842). Brown shows that he escaped from the Perote fortress in Vera Cruz on 22 Jly 1843. -- Green

(447) says John Dalrymple was one of five who escaped "from the Castle of Perote, July 2d, 1842" and "succeeded in reaching Texas." [Year is obviously wrong, as they were captured in September 1842. Whether 2 or 22 needs research. John may be error for William, or different man.] -- Moore (58) records that W. C. Dalrymple was a justice of the peace in Bastrop 27 Feb 1845. -- Handbook says he moved to Williamson Co in 1848. -- 1850 census of latter county lists him as 35 Farmer $3,000 NC; Elisabeth 39 KY; Genetta 8f TX, Sally 7 TX, James 5 TX, William 3 TX; Sally WILBARGER 44 KY; William CLIFTON 18 Labourer MO; Andrew J. McKAY 22 Trader NY. Ericson's Judges of the Republic of Texas, 82.

47. DAVIS, Jonathan -- Lewis Index (685): widow was Mary Eagleston. -- 1850 census of Bastrop Co (166 #168) shows Jonathan Davis 32 Farmer $500 TN; Mary A. 23 NC; Martin V. 5, Parmelia 3 & James B. 1, all TX; Freeman BAYSMORE 28 Day Labourer NC; Squire JACKSON 30 TN.

48. DUNBAR, Wm. -- Miller shows that he received a bounty warrant and a donation certificate (San Jacinto). -- Brown (252) includes him in "List of Other Prisoners" --presumably did not know his fate. --- Green (438) shows he was "of Bastrop, from Tennessee" and fought in the Battle of Mier 25-26 Dec 1842; (476) was released 16 Sep 1844 and sailed to New Orleans on the Creole. -- Moore (56) shows Wm. Dunbar was county clerk of Bastrop 1850-56, succeeding James H. Gillespie. -- 1850 census of Bastrop (151 #49) lists him as 31 Clerk of County Court $2,000 TN; A. 20f KY; John S. 1 TX.

46. FENTRESS, Lemuel -- On 1850 census of Caldwell Co (453 #11) he was 31 Carpenter VA, under Wm. Hardiman of TN.

45. FORT, W. D. -- Moore (56) shows an A. W. Fort as the sheriff of Bastrop Co in 1868. -- A Wiley D. Fort may be found on 1850 census of Travis Co (138 #74) under CRAFT.

38. GAGE, Shirley -- Moore's index shows seven Gages but no Shirley. One is Burleson Gage, probably son of Abigail Burleson who migrated to TX from NC. -- 1850 census of Bastrop Co (163 #144) shows Shirley Gage 27m Farmer $1,000 TN; Martha 15 AL; George W. 6/12 TX.

61. GAMBLE, George A. v&w -- He was a first lieutenant under Capt. Samuel Highsmith in the Mexican War (Barton, p. 101). -- Lewis Index has a reference on p. 285. -- Moore (206) says he was killed 9 Jly 1856 in a gunfight at Bastrop by Goodlow Miller and Cornelius Hemphill. -- 1850 census of Travis Co (160 #422) shows he then was 26 Merchant AL; sharing his dwelling was Augus Clinglehafer 18 Labourer from Germany.

42. GAMMELL, Wm. -- Miller shows a William Gammel who was in Battle of San Jacinto. -- A W. T. GAMBLE was treasurer of Bastrop Co in 1846 (Moore, p. 57). -- [The b was sometimes silent, like the p in Campbell.] -- 1850 census of Bastrop shows (166 #165) Wm. T. Gamble 48 Merchant TN; George 25 Clerk AL; Maria 20 AL (in household of Jacob C. HIGGINS, Farmer).

59. ✓ GARRETT, W. H. -- Lewis Index cites a Wm. H. on 655. -- Moore (58, 59, 85) records William Garrett was a Bastrop Co justice of the peace in 1845, William H. same in 1850. W. H. Garrett was #22 on the Muster Roll of Co. D of 3rd Battalion of Mounted Reserves, C.S.A., in 1865. -- On 1850 census, Bastrop Co (181 #287) are Wm. H. Garrett 35 Wagon maker VA; Evelena 22 KY; Ann E. 5, Spilsberry 3 and Robert 1, all KY. -- Ericson's Judges of the Republic, p. 113.

GILLESPIE, James H. -- His name is not included in the three columns of volunteers in his company, nor could I find it in the index to 1850 census of Texas in Bastrop unless his middle name was Hiram (p. 148 #21-22): Hiram Gillespie 32 Merchant $1,700 TN; E. MORGAN 18f TN; Hiram S. MORGAN 15 Clerk TN, etc. In Houston Co (173 #459) a James H. Gillespie 31 Clerk $1,000 SC was in the household of James N. and Amanda C. HALL of MD and AL.

37. GLASSCOCK, Thos. -- Barton's Texas Volunteers (p. 92) shows that he was a lieutenant in the Mexican War, being elected at San Antonio in April 1847, under Capt. Ben F. Hill just before marching to Mexico. -- 1850 census of Travis Co (136 #49) has a Thomas Glasscock who seems too young: 22 Farmer $2,500 VA; Eliza 18 FL; John RICHARDSON 26 TN; Aprilla STRATTON (or Isabella KRUTTON?) 40f AL; Josephine DUNCAN 17 AL.

31. HALDERMAN, A. S. v&w [interpreted Holderman in some references]. -- Brown (25) includes Allen Halderman in his list of those who died in the prison, Castle Perote. -- Moore's index has Halderman crossreferenced to Holderman, but no A. S. -- Green (439, 444) lists "Allen Holderman residence Bastrop, nativity Kentucky" among the Texians who fought in the Battle of Mier 25-26 Dec 1842. Later, he was one of the 35 who "died from Suffering and Starvation in Mexico." Book is not indexed, but well worth reading by descendants of these brave (albeit foolhardy) men. "Holderman" is mentioned on p. 165 that I noticed.

25. HANCOCK, L. S. -- Lewis (p. 671) says he married Elizabeth (daughter of Col. G. W. Jones) who died in 1867. -- Moore (261) shows that a second class certificate was issued to him by Bastrop Land Commissioners, indicating that he was a single man who came to Texas between 3 Mch 1835 and 1 Oct 1837. -- 1850 census of Bastrop (160 #125) lists a Lewis Hancock 30 Farmer $1,450 AL and Elizabeth 24 AL.

4 & 5. HEMPHILL -- This appears twice on the list, with no first name. Maybe someone corroborated that two Hemphills were in the company, but no one could remember their first names. According to the Handbook, John Hemphill "participated in the campaign against Rafael Vázquez and was adjutant general of the Somervell Expedition." He was born 1803 in SC; died unmarried 1862 in VA; remains interred in State Cemetery at Austin. In January 1842 he became chief justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, and had the same honor when it became a state. -- Hemphill County was named for John (Lewis p. 207). -- Brown (216-217) notes that after Burleson disbanded the troops who had volunteered to repel Vázquez (on 2 Apr 1842), Capt. John C. Hays remained in the country to the west of San Antonio, and in his company were Chief Justice John Hemphill, John Henry Brown, C. Rufus Perry, and 40/50 others. -- No clue to who the other Hemphill was, and could not find John on 1850 census, but in Bastrop Co there were (p. 146 #9): William A[ugustus] 32 Farmer $2,000 GA; (p. 179 #271) Cornelius M[urphy] 40 Farmer GA; Ambrose B[aber] 25 Tax Collector GA; (#272) Zeno J[ackson] 36 Farmer GA; (#273) [Marcus] Lafayette 35 Farmer GA. [Middle names are from Moore's Bastrop, wherein there are many Hemphill references, as there are in Lewis also. -- Ericson's Judges of the Republic, pp. 139-40.

24. HERRON, John -- Miller shows a John Herring was at San Jacinto. -- Moore (258) lists a John H. Herron who received a certificate for 1/3 league from the Land Commissioners of Bastrop for being in Texas in 1835. In 1865 (85) a J. Herron was 5th sergeant in Co. D, 3rd Battalion of Mounted Reserves, Confederate States Army, stationed at Camp Scott. -- The only John Herron I found on 1850 census was in Bowie Co (345 #52): John C. Herron 51 Farmer NC; Elizabeth 50 VA; Elizabeth W. 13 TX etc. A John A. Herring was on page 16 of Harris Co.

29. HIGHSMITH, Samuel v&w -- Handbook: b. 1804 KY; m. 1826 Teresa (Williams) Turner; five children; d. 1849 in San Antonio. In 1842 was captain of a company at Battle of Salado [18 Sep] which "defeated Rafael Vásquez" [should read Adrian Woll, not Vásquez]. He served with Texas Rangers in 1840 and under Jack Hays in Mexican War. -- Moore (260) shows that Bastrop Land Commissioners issued him a certificate for a labor for being in Texas in 1827; he was administrator of Richard Highsmith who had 1/3 league for immigrating in 1831. -- Barton (Texas Volunteers 67, 101, 105) gives details of the ranging companies he enrolled in May of 1846, 1847 and 1848 to protect the frontier from Indians. -- In Lewis (685) Samuel High Smith [Tip: look in lists of Smiths!] is called captain of a company of Texas rangers. -- 1850 census of Travis Co (134 #18) shows his widow Terica [Teresa] 41f $1,000 TN; Malkijah [Benjamin "Kige"] 21 Farmer TX; Sarah 18, Amanda 15, [Henry] Albert 7, Edwin 5--TX.

23. HILL, A. W. v&w -- Miller shows A. W./Abram W. Hill served in Texas Army and was at San Jacinto. -- Lewis (675, 715, Abram Wiley, Wiley) indicates he was brother of Thomas B. J. and M. M. Hill. -- Moore (Bastrop, 85) shows A. W. Hill was "2nd Jr. Lieut." in 1865 on muster roll of Co. D, 3rd Battalion, Mounted Reserves, Army of the Confederate States of America. Abraham Wiley Hill (p. 210) came to Texas in 1835 in a volunteer company from Montgomery AL with brothers Thomas and Middleton to fight in the Revolution. A. W. married Evaline Hubbard in 1837 in Georgia, and died in 1887 in Bastrop Co. -- 1850 census of Bastrop (192 #366) shows Willie [Gov. Willie Blount of TN was pronounced Wiley] Hill 34 Farmer $14,925 GA; Eveline 31 GA; Mary 12, Sarah 10, Robert 8, Augustus 4, Francis 1m, all born TX.

26. HILL, W. P. -- The Handbook states that William Pinckney Hill was mayor of Bastrop in 1839. An attorney, he was district judge there during the Confederacy. -- Moore (270): William Pinkney Hill was the court-appointed curator for all defendants in an 1839 proceeding to establish the "Seat of Govt" near the Town of Waterloo, then in Bastrop Co. In 1840 (p. 163) the court authorized Thomas H. Mays to purchase a building to use as a court house; at May Term he reported that he had bought one on Main Street from Mr. Pinkney Hill. -- Most likely listing found for him on 1850 census was in Harrison Co (74 #351): Wm. P. Hill 34 Lawyer $2,720 GA; M. B. 26f AL; G. L. 14m CT?; P. E. 12m, A. H. 10f, E. 5m, L. 3f & J. 1/4 or 1/12f--all TX. [Perhaps I should have looked for him as Pinckney Hill also, but this Wm. could have moved away and then back to Bastrop during Civil War.]

10. HOLTON, W. S. v&w -- Miller: William S. Holton received a bounty warrant for 1,280 acres for service in Texas Army 1 Oct 1836 to 27 Dec 1837. -- Green (446) says he was on Somervell Expedition, in Capt. Wm. M. Eastland's Company, and on 24 Dec 1842 was detailed as Camp Guard to remain on east side of Rio Grande. The guard "retreated into Texas" when their defeated comrades warned them to take the best horses before the Mexicans could seize them. -- On 1850 census of Bastrop (186 #322): William S. Holton 45 Farmer $2,640 PA; Elizabeth 44 GA; George J. WIER 22 Farm hand GA; Bunell (?) 18 Farm hand GA; Martha F. 15 AL; Mary A. 11 AL; Mortimer T. HOLTON 4 TX; Pennsylvania 7/12 TX; John B. SLACK 35 Farm hand KY.

B. v&w -- Moore (263): Marcus Huling was in Texas in 1836, so Land Commissioners of Bastrop issued him a second class certificate for 1,280 acres. -- 1850 census of Travis Co (137 #39) shows Marcus Huling 50 Farmer $1,476 VA; Sharlott 36f MA; Orlena 10f, Amanda 7, John 5 & Marcella 2 -- all TX.

2. ✓ JENKINS, John -- Handbook: John Holland Jenkins b. 1822 AL; m. 1845 Mary Jane Foster; 7 children; d. 1890 Bastrop. "In 1842 he joined the volunteer forces to repel the invasions by Rafael Vázquez and Adrian Woll" [yet no v&w after name on this list, so Vázquez and Woll does not seem to apply to the notation]. -- Lewis Index shows J. H. 584, John H. 725. -- Miller says in 1873 he received a bounty warrant for 1,280 acres by special act of Texas Legislature--service not given [Could it be for assisting families on the Runaway Scrape? See his Recollections of Early Texas edited in 1958 by John H. Jenkins III; specifically, the excerpt quoted on pp. 44-45 of Moore's Bastrop.] -- Other references in Moore are on pages 9, 46-47, 68-71 [re Indians], 210: he joined volunteer groups from the time he was 14, serving in the battles of Brushy Creek and Plum Creek, 1839 and 1840. -- 1850 census of Bastrop (191 #356): John H. 19. PACE, Robert v&w -- Lewis: Robert J. on p. 721. -- Moore (44): John H. Jenkins mentions Bob Pace as a neighbor in Bastrop Co in 1836. May be same as James R[obert?] Pace who was a private under Edward Burleson at San Jacinto (43); tax assessor 1839-46 (57); and was granted 1/3 league for being in Texas in 1828 (p. 257). -- Miller shows J. R. Pace and James R. Pace--latter was at San Jacinto. -- Not found in 1850 census index; I didn't think of James Robert then.

Later was in Hays's Texas Rangers, etc. Died in 1898 at Johnson City [Blanco Co]. -- Brown (217) confirms service of C. Rufus Perry with John C. Hays in spring 1842. -- Sowell relates many interesting anecdotes about Rufus (148-54; 272-74; 844). -- Green does not list him as participant in the Battle of Mier or as a prisoner. -- Regrettably I did not know about his first name when I searched census index; those interested can look for C. R. and Cicero Rufus Perry.

77. PHILIPS, Cornelius -- Searched books and census index from Phelps to Phillips in vain.

78. PHILLIPS, Henry -- Moore (262): Henry S. Phillips got a second class certificate for 640 acres from Bastrop Land Commissioners for being in Texas in 1836. -- 1850 census of Bastrop (147 #14) lists Henry S. CHAMBERLAIN ASSOCIATION REACTIVATED:
DESCENDANTS OF 17th-C. IMMIGRANTS SOUGHT

The Chamberlain Association (variant spellings included) was formed in 1897 to identify descendants of five men of that name who were early settlers in New England: Henry of Hingham - 1638, Richard of Braintree - 1642, Thomas of Woburn - 1644, Edmund of Roxbury - 1646, and William of Woburn - 1648.

During World War II the Association became inactive, and 40 containers of records were put in storage. Last year they were removed to the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society, where the Papers are being minutely indexed. When that staggering job is completed, the information will be available to Association members.

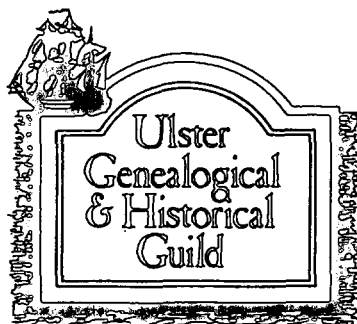

Since the Papers have been in storage 39 years, two generations may have been added, so they are asking members to fill in generation forms which are sent when dues are received. A newsletter for queries and a "family gathering" are projected.

Memberships are: Active $10, Contributing $25, Sustaining $50 annually. Address: The Chamberlain Association of America, 131 East 78th Street-E, New York NY 10021.

"Maxi" for Everyone 23 August

Austin Genealogical Society will sponsor a free beginners' workshop for the general public in the 4th-floor auditorium of Central Library, 800 Guadalupe, on Saturday, 19 July, from nine to one o'clock. The chairman, Mrs. Pauline B. Cooney, urges AGS members to attend so that novices in genealogical research may have individualized attention and instruction.

Our annual grand workshop will take place on Saturday, 23 August, 9-4, at Quality Inn South, 2200 S. Interregional Hwy. 35, Oltorf Exit. The registration fee (includes Buffet Lunch) is $13.50 if received on or before 15 August by Mr. H. L. Lemburg, 6008 Belfast, Austin TX 78723. (Make checks payable to Austin Genealogical Society. Try to get registration blank from flyer, for drawing. After the 15th, and at the door, price is $16.50.

The featured speaker is Bill R. Linder, Director of Central reference, National Archives and Records Service in Washington. Mr. Linder, a native Texan and UT graduate, has been on the Archives staff over ten years, Director of the Institute on Genealogy 1972-77. He is the author of How To Trace Your Family History, and conductor of annual genealogical tours based in London and Edinburgh. An affable man, he is well qualified to discuss "An Overview of Records in the National Archives" and "Organizing To Produce."

Local speakers include SaraKay Jordan ("The 1900 Texas Census") and Sister Dolores Kasner, O.P. ("The Catholic Archives of Texas").

Workshop Chairman Edith Macdonald announces that there will be door prizes, genealogical forms and books for sale, exhibits and handouts, genealogical and otherwise. [I'm sick of the word "Freebies".] AGS membership at half price will be available for those who want only the remaining two quarterlies of 1980.

NEW DIRECTOR SELECTED FOR NATIONAL ARCHIVES

Dr. David B. Gracy II, Texas State Archivist well known to the genealogical community, took pleasure in informing your editor that Robert M. Warner, Ph.D., has been chosen as the new director of the National Archives. Dr. Warner is highly regarded by archivists across the land, having held every elective office in the Society of American Archivists. Presently director of the Bentley Historical Collection at the University of Michigan, he has published various articles and books, including a reader in Michigan history and Modern Manuscript Library.

Dr. Gracy characterizes Dr. Warner as a thoughtful, energetic and efficient man who, it is expected, will exert his influence to avert the dispersal of vast quantities of archival material from Washington into regional depositories. The threat of such a scattering of records has been a matter of deep concern to all researchers, including ancestor seekers, so this is good news, indeed.

COUNTY ABBREVIATION CONFUSION

Some Quirks of the Texas 1850 Census on Microfilm

In using the computerized index to the 1850 Texas census (compiled by Jackson, Teeple, and Schaefermeyer), one may be confused and frustrated by their abbreviation scheme. Two counties are referred to as "Harr," two as "Braz," and two as "San."

Why they could not make the latter SANA and SANP is beyond me, since they use four letters elsewhere. To distinguish Harrison from Harris I would have used HARN; Brazoria could have been BRZA.

But they didn't ask me; so I outfoxed them and found a way to tell the counties apart without having to put the roll on the reader: If the page number is between 373 and 406, your person is in Brazoria Co (Brazos is 407-420). Harris is 1-48; Harrison 49-117; San Augustine is 331-355; San Patricio 356-359. (San Saba was not organized until after 1850.)

Fortunately, in 1850 there was only one Texas county whose name started with Mc -- McLennan. And MONT could mean only Montgomery, for Montague was not formed until later. The same applies to And - Anderson, Bur - Burleson, Cam - Cameron, Cas - Cass, Coll - Collin, Coma - Comal, Dall - Dallas, Gray - Grayson, Jack - Jackson, Lam - Lamar, Rob - Robertson, Up - Upshur, Wal - Walker, and Wil - Williamson.

Probably because both Tarrant and Ellis counties had been created in 1849 out of Navarro, the Tarrant census was placed right after the Ellis Co one. Another misplaced county is Guadalupe--it will be found immediately following Galveston; whoever arranged the census report forms for the microfilmer must have thought it was spelled G-a-u!

BOOK REVIEWS

ABSTRACTS OF THE WILLS AND ESTATES RECORDS OF ROWAN COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, 1753 - 1805 and ROWAN COUNTY TAX LISTS OF 1759 and 1778 by Jo White Linn, C.G. 8½ x 11, casebound, gold stamping, complete index with slave index, 220 pp. $25 postpaid. Order from Mrs. Stahle Linn, Jr., Box 1948, Salisbury NC 28144.

Because 27 counties in NC and all of TN have been taken out of the original Rowan Co, access to these earliest extant court records is extremely important to thousands of ancestor seekers. Mrs. Linn has done a fine, public-spirited job of publishing this and some ten other books: records of Rowan, Davie and Surry counties plus several family histories.

Since her 1970 edition of Rowan Co wills for 1753-1805, Jo White Linn has re-read every one, double-checking and amplifying her abstracts. In this handsome volume she has included Tax Lists of 1759 and 1778, plus lists of people for whom she found Unrecorded Wills, loose Estates Papers, and Inventories & Accounts of Sales (dated 1785-87). In each case she gives the year and complete instructions for ordering copies-- quite a boon to readers.

The book is beautifully typed with ample but not extravagant spacing. The fine index (I have not found one error to date) has cross references to variant spellings and includes place names and some subject headings (Planters, Mills, occupations such as Blacksmiths, Coopers, etc.). In addition, there is a valuable Slave Index in which slaves are listed under their masters' full names. (Here there are some understandable discrepancies in format--typing the index is usually a rush-rush chore.)

The author, the prestigious authority on this area, tells us that the percentage of adults in Rowan Co who died testate before 1805 was then about what it is now: one in twenty male heads of household. She also states that the 1778 Rowan Tax List is assumed to be "complete for everyone who didn't hide from the enumerator"! And, like most of us, she deplores ancestors who "lacked the grace to depart this wicked world leaving a will that named all the children".

We get these glimpses of Mrs. Linn's twinkling sense of humor in the book's preface, which she exalts with the Greek title "Prolegomenon." It may be that same spirit which inspires her to use "censi" as the plural form of "census." Perhaps it's a trick, to see how many will notice!

Well, Jo, I take up the gauntlet: The Latin word census is not one of your regular -us-i-o-um-i-o; plural -i-orum-is-os-i-is nouns. According to my Latin dictionary, the plural is spelled the same as the singular, but the u is made long by the insertion of a macron over it. In English, say Webster and New Century, the plural is formed only by the addition of es. (Please pardon my tendency toward excursions -- or do you hold out for excursi?)

JUDGES OF THE REPUBLIC OF TEXAS, 1836-1846, A Biographical Directory, compiled and copyrighted by Joe Ellis Ericson, 1980. (Printed by Taylor Publishing Co, Dallas) Hard cover, ca 350 pp, maps, photographs, appendix, bibliography, index; ca 6 x 9. Regular Edition $20 (plus $1 sales tax for Texans; $1.05 postage); Deluxe Numbered Edition $27.50 (+$1.38; 1.05). Order from the author at 1614 Redbud Street, Nacogdoches TX 75961.

Judges of the Republic of Texas is a godsend for those who are searching for men of that time period whom the editors of The Handbook of Texas did not consider newsworthy enough to rate a full sketch. Since the book covers justices of the peace as well as judges on the Supreme Court of Texas, many relatively obscure men are at least located geographically for the researcher.

The author's sources for these 1500 men were the Executive Record Books of 1836-42 and 1842-46, marriage record books (for names of J.P.'s who performed ceremonies), censuses, county histories, and family histories. We ancestor seekers are indebted, beyond doubt, to Dr. Ericson's wife Carolyn, the well-known genealogist and curator, for the inclusion of genealogical data (such as names of children) whenever it was obtainable. Many descendants of the men listed herein lent the results of their personal research.

The Introduction encompasses a descriptive analysis of the court system of the Republic, a table of Texas counties (including five Judicial Counties that existed only a year), and three maps that are supposed to show the boundaries of the judicial districts in 1836, 1838, and 1840, but I must confess I could not see the differences.

In the Biographical Directory the names (in alphabetical order) are in bold caps, making it easy to locate the name being sought. The sketches vary from a line to half a page--considerable information, for the type is condensed. Sources are given for each sketch. There are over 50 portraits, but, regrettably, there is no list of illustrations to locate them for the reader.

The Appendix contains valuable rosters of judges and justices by office and by county--perhaps a quicker place to see if a man held such an office than the Index, for the latter is by surname only.

There are a few technical defects that I trust will be remedied in future editions--such things as page numbering, inconsistency of style in the Bibliography, and spelling of proper names (e.g., Col-lingsworth, Burnett, Farquier (VA), Dickinson (TN), Rosenberg (Library), Lampassas). Reference to a cannon court suggests that it dispensed martial law!

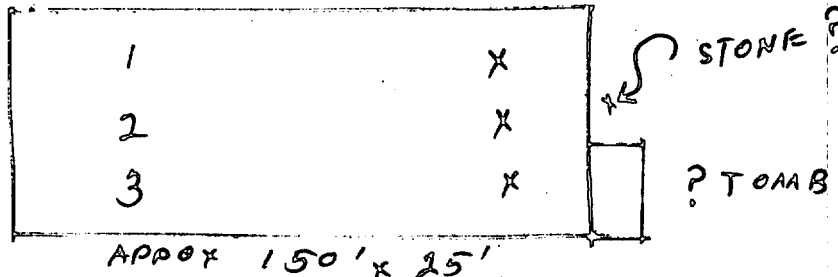

But these flaws are minor in comparison with the value of the book as a whole for historians as well as genealogists. Certainly every public and school library should have a copy.

Now for the icing on the cake: The end papers consist of a facsimile reproduction of the commission of a Chief Justice signed by Sam Houston and S. F. Austin. And the handsome maroon leather-like cover has the book's title embossed in enduring raised letters on the spine as well as the front, where it lies just below the classical figure of the Roman goddess Justitia in brass-colored bas-relief -- a truly stunning effect that will distinguish this book from all other volumes of Texana whose ranks it so worthily joins.

BAGGETT FAMILY

I have been working on Baggett's for almost two years now without much luck. Anyone with data on any of these names please contact me. I have information on Baggett's - I just haven't been able to figure out if they are my husband's line or not. I just do not know enough.

My father-in-law, Joa Byron Baggett, b. 1906, married Robbie Adrian; they are now living in Longview, Texas. His father, David Jesse Baggett died when my father-in-law was quite young and he does not know much of the family history. The story they all tell is that during the Civil War, his grandfather Baggett died of some disease and the mother, 3 sons, and a daughter left La. and went to Texas trying to keep their slaves late in the war. A family named Casey came with them. Not long ago, someone told me the mother and the daughter married Caseys and that they lived around Waco. I found a Casey family in Axtell, Texas - wife Sarah, b. 1859 La., husband - Uriah Casey. I am sure this is Aunt Sarah, sister of David Jesse Baggett, b. 1856 in Monroe La.

The first I have on David Jesse Baggett is in 1880 - at least I believe it is him. There is a marriage license in Ellis Co., Texas for D. J. Baggett and M. A. Hawley. In 1887 he married Lettie Udora Mathews in Navarro Co., Texas. In 1902 he married Fannie Lucinda Petty in Limestone Co., Texas - they are the parents of my father-in-law.

Taken from the Baggett Family Bible - written by Fannie Petty Baggett:

CHILDREN OF DAVID JESSE BAGGETT AND LETTIE UDORA MATHEWS:

1. Lewis Midelton (could be Milton) - born 1889
2. David Lenard - born 1890
3. Myrtle May - born 1892
4. Beulah Elis - born 1894
5. Ada Bell - born 1896

CHILDREN OF DAVID JESSE BAGGETT & FANNIE LUCINDA PETTY:

1. Jesse Elisha - born 1902
2. Fannie - born 1904
3. Joa Byron - born 1906
4. Mary Ann Jane - born 1907
5. Ophelia Fay - born 1911, died 1913.

PERRYMAN, RHODES, MOORE. Mrs. L. M. Igo, 8906 Covey Court, Austin, TX 78758. Information received from Joseph T. Maddox in GA said JOHN PERRYMAN m AMY MOORE in Columbia Co., GA, 6 Nov. 1797 and that John Moore's will in Columbia Co., probated July 9, 1811 names his wife, SARAH, and among others was his son-in-law, John Perryman. My gg grandmother, AMY PERRYMAN m. DAVID NEWTON RHODES (no dates). Their daughter, MARTHA PERKINS RODES was b. 8 Jan. 1832 in AL. Amy Moore would have been very young when she married John Perryman if she was the mother of my Amy Perryman. Does anyone have more information?

IGO/IGOE/IGOE. L. M. Igo, 8906 Covey Court, Austin, TX 78758. Where could I find records of Quakers in Maryland in the early 1730's? REISTER'S DESIRE, by Lillian Bayly Marks, (pp. 128-129) says that LEWIS IGO(IGOW) acquired a warrant for 100 acres of land from Walter Dallas, July 21, 1737, Baltimore Co. which he named "Friends Discovery." It was located five miles southeast of what is now Reistertown. WILLIAM IGOE'S name is on the 1763 Tax List of Soldier's Deilght Hundred. In 1794, he patented a 7½ acre grant, "Igou's String," in Baltimore (Carroll) Co. William died bet. 1794 and 1805. The land was sold by 1821 after his widow, Elizabeth Igo died. I would appreciate information about Quaker records for Maryland.

BARNETT, AVANTS. Mrs. L. M. Igo, 8906 Covey Court, Austin, TX 78758 needs to know how to check records for possible Indian ancestor. My grandmother said that her father was half Indian. His parents were NATHANIEL E. BARNETT, said to be an Englishman, and MARY ANN AVANTS. They married in 1856 in McLennan Co., TX and lived in Bosque Co., though I cannot find them on the 1860 or 1870 census. They are on the tax lists during that time. The 1880 census shows that JOHN E. BARNETT'S father was b. in KY and his mother was b in MO. How could I find AVANTS in Indian records?

RHODES, PERRYMAN, JONES. Mrs. L. M. Igo, 8906 Covey Court, Austin, TX 78758 would like to hear from any RHODES descendants from the Butler Co., AL area. David N. Rhodes was said to have fought in the Mexican War and in some Indian Wars. The National Archives has no records for a Rhodes by that given name nor does the Alabama State Archives. The name "Newton" has been passed down to some related males. I wonder if his first name was David? There was a Benjamin Rhodes in that area. Who was he?

DANIEL BAKER

One family source records Daniel Baker as being born in 1779 in New York. Yet Daniel is listed as being 59 years old on the 1850 Texas State Archives, Census Index 3 Mar. 1962 p. 57 D 235. This would show his birth year as 1791. This source also lists his occupation as stone mason. Family records say he was also a missionary of the Presbyterian Church. Daniel's wife, Margaret Miller (Mueller) was born in Ohio and so was the couple's first 4 children. Margaret is not listed on the above Census Index in 1850 but their last two children were born in Texas in 1838 and 1840. Daniel died in 1878 and he and his wife, according to family history are buried near Round Top (Fayette Co.) Texas.

Daniel and Margaret's children:

|-------------------|-----------------|---------|
| Eliza Baker | born 6 May 1831 | in Ohio |
| Daniel Baker, Jr. | 1833 | Ohio |
| Edward Baker | 1835 | Ohio |
| Harriet J. | 1836 | Ohio |
| Joel Baker | 1838 | Texas |
| Stephen Baker | 1840 | Texas |

The oldest daughter married on 23 June 1844 in her father's home near Round Top, Texas to James Carrel Bell born 1 Mar. 1820 Wayne County Kentucky. He was the son of Silas Bell and Lucretia Walker. He came to Texas around 1834 and was a young soldier in Texas war for independence. He died 5 August 1880 and his wife, Eliza Baker Bell died 26 October 1906 and they along with one son are buried in Muldoon, (Fayette Co.) Texas. The Texas Historical Society has placed a historical marker at his grave. In the 1860 Census record of Fayette County his occupation is listed as "waggon maker". James and Eliza had 15 children all were born in Fayette County. The names of their children are: Lucretia, John Miller, Susannah, Margaret Frances, Mattie Jane, Mary Elizabeth, William Carrel, Sarah Amanda, Andrew, Ellen Josephine, Phalesus, Anna Tilda, Isaac Robert, James Walker, Silas Daniel.

I will appreciate hearing from anyone interested in these families.

[Editor's Note: Two Daniel Bakers are confused in the first paragraph above. See Handbook of Texas (I:98-99) for biography of Daniel Baker (1791-1857) the Presbyterian minister who married Elizabeth McRoberts and did not live in Ohio.]

In this form, the father of any number is twice that number; the mother, twice plus one. Thus 50 and 51 are the parents of 25. Help is needed on the missing numbers.

Who were "Uncle Pinkney" and "Aunt Nancy" Anderson?

My mother was Lota Campbell (Renick), born and died Waco, Texas, 1873-1963.

Quoting her in a conversation recorded during one of our last visits together: "One of my earliest memories--I was being lifted up in an older person's arms to view a tiny figure in a coffin. The little figure looked like one of my own wax dolls. They told me: 'That is Aunt Nancy, Uncle Pinkney's wife. Uncle Pinkney must have died at some previous time, but I remember quite vividly two of their children who were present at that funeral, a red-haired young lady called Marjorie, just like my Aunt Marjorie, and a young man called Channing. Children do not estimate the ages of older boys and girls. They looked quite grown-up to me. I do not know where the funeral was, near Waco?'"

My mother's mother was Mary Queen Anderson (Campbell), b Crotena, Jasper County, Texas, 23 July 1842. She had but two brothers, both much older than she was, Tandy Key Witcher Anderson named for his maternal grandfather, and Samuel P. Anderson, named for the paternal grandfather. Both came from Jackson County, Tenn with their parents in 1837. By 1850 both young men were boarding with a Mexican family in Cameron County, Texas, their parents still in East Texas.

Tandy Key Witcher Anderson married a Mexican girl, George Benevitus. He was postmaster in Laredo in 1871, and died in South Texas in 1877.

Samuel P. Anderson evidently returned to East Texas, for an entry in his mother's Bible states that he died in Sabine County, date not given.

Was his full name Samuel PINKNEY Anderson? Was his widow the little "Aunt Nancy" whose funeral my mother recalled?

Or should I look further back for a connection? After all "Aunt" and "Uncle" were often given to other than near relatives. Bailey Anderson, at China Springs (PO Sardis) had a Pinkney Anderson but data on the two Pinkneys does not match. Still China Springs is within funeral-traveling distance from Waco. Both are in McLennan County.

For the edification of my children and other near relatives I am publishing an ancestral chart in memory of both my parents, Lota Campbell (Renick) and Samuel McKenney Renick. It is copyrighted under the title "LEAVES". It couldn't be called "ROOTS", as that title has been pre-empted by another teller of tall tales. The chart will be off the press about June 1. There will be a few copies for libraries, including the genealogical section of the Texas State Library.

Among the names included are Anderson, Baber, Barmer, Baldock, Burton, Campbell, Daugherty, DeLoach, Dugan, Embrey, Griffith, Hall, Key, King, Lytton, Logan, Moor, Pettit, Rapalie, Renick, Sanders, Shackelford, Vandever (with various spellings including Vanderford), Witcher.

It represents forty-four years of eastern seaboard searching with New York City as a base of operation-- in courthouses, libraries, and state archives. It represents many a climb through poison-ivy guarded ^{paths} to forgotten graveyards in Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri, and Texas and Alabama. All of my ancestors were living south of the Mason and Dixon line by the time of the American Revolution, although many of the families entered through Pennsylvania, and followed the fertile valleys of the Appalachian mountains ^{southward} and two at least are connected with the earliest history of New York. Texas counties mentioned are McLennan, Burnet, Travis, Jasper and Anderson.
