NEW ROOM AT LIBRARY

Mrs. Robin Rader, Librarian of the Genealogy Collection at the Texas State Library, has set up a new room, called the Texas Collection, for the benefit of library patrons. It is located in the room where smoking formerly was permitted, but now is prohibited by State law--not the malicious whim of the librarian!

The Texas Collection consists of county, town and community histories; biographies of Texas heroes (and villains!); studies of such topics as Rangers, outlaws, pioneers, preachers, buildings (e.g. missions, courthouses, forts, battles); and historical novels. Thus, if a genealogical researcher brings a friend who is not interested in ancestral records per se, he or she can find plenty of other reading material--the lighter side of historical records, we might say.

Another delightful advantage to these books is that they, in contrast to genealogical books generally, can be checked out for as long as four weeks to local patrons who obtain a borrower's card. "Local" is defined as Travis, Williamson and Hays counties, by library policy. More distant patrons can get them on inter-library loan for two weeks, if their home libraries participate. Cards for these particular books are interfiled in the card catalog, and bear the designation TEX rather than GEN.

Incidentally, new book shelves in the Texas Collection left no space for the Vertical Files, so they have been moved to Xerox Room.

Other changes have been made in the Genealogy Collection which promise to make book location easier as soon as we get accustomed to them. The basic principle of the change was to shelve the books consecutively around the room by their Dewey Decimal System call numbers. Heretofore they have been rather scattered.

Starting on the wall which separates the 17 microfilm readers from the books, the census indexes are found first (convenient for those who are using the readers). Then the D.A.R. lineage books, which are numbered in the 300s. Next come American Genealogical Biographical Index, etc., the "How To" books, and Family Histories in alphabetical order.

Dewey assigned numbers to states grouped by geographical location; such books are now shelved nearly as they were, except that New England books immediately precede other geographical sections instead of being off to themselves. Mrs. Rader has wisely allowed as much space as possible for additions to the Texas and Southern States books, which are of paramount interest to most local patrons.

The library staff realize that it is unsettling for long-time researchers to find their favorite books moved, but this change is thought to be in the interest of the greatest number of those who patronize the library. They will gladly give orientation tours to any who would like to become familiar with the more professional arrangement.

It should be remembered that in 1844 the County of Robertson included all the land between the Brazos & Trinity Rivers, from the area of Hearne to the present sites of Dallas & Ft. Worth.

The Tax Accessor, James McMurry, states at the end of the document "1135 total amount of white population in the County of Robertson with the Exception of what there is in the Colony & along below there on the Trinity River so sparsely settled & out of reach that it was inconvenient to get them tho there is at least one hundred & fifty in all." An 1840-45 map prepared by a German named Roemer shows the designation "Colony" on the east bank of the Trinity River, but further north than the present site of "Tennessee Colony".

"Negroes Over Ten" and "Negroes Under Ten" were inventoried along with the other taxable items.

NEW SOURCE FOR LOCATING
OLD FAMILIES IN TEXAS

Part 3

In Vol. XXIV No. 4 of AGS Quarterly is a full explanation of the source of these names. Briefly, "In 1974 the Texas Department of Agriculture inaugurated the Family Land Heritage Program to register farms and ranches in Texas that have been owned and operated by the same families for a century or more."

Now we begin Volume 2 of the Texas Family Land Heritage Registry, which in most cases reveals interesting data about the early generations of land owners, arranged by counties. This volume includes a map showing the Texas counties in which Heritage properties had been proven to date. The "east to west movement followed by colonists in their settlement of Texas is clearly visible in their location." Another section lists by founding date all the "Texas Family Land Heritage Honorees" through the year of publication (1975).

But only the present-day owners are indexed in each Registry, so we have undertaken to remedy that deficiency by listing the earlier ones in our Quarterly, in their respective counties. There are only a couple of pages per county, so it might be well to Xerox all of the county that interests you in order to learn about your ancestor's neighbors. The Genealogy Collection of Texas State Library has a complete set of these books.

Maiden names herein are in parentheses when determinable (or three dots if not); nicknames are in quotation marks, and editorial suggestions are in brackets. The abbreviation "pic" means picture.

100 years in the same place sounds fantastic to young people today!

THERE ARE MOVERS

AND THERE ARE STAYERS

THIS LANGUAGE WE'VE INHERITED

The phrase "mother tongue" evokes a warm feeling of patriotism and familial pride in most of us. Perhaps we get a little exasperated when a spelling or usage trips us up--breaks the normal pattern (if there is a norm in our polyglot heritage!), but we excuse it as we do the minor naughtinesses of our children. The important thing is that they know right from wrong; if we observe the basic principles of English grammar, then colloquialisms add acceptable spice to our language.

But a similar term, "mother-in-law's tongue," immediately calls to mind a caricature of a critical, scolding busybody. The plant so named is sharp, stark, and gloomy in color. This is a gross injustice to most mothers-in-law. What can we do to improve this image? Perhaps we should learn and disseminate the botanical name of that sadly maligned plant.

Which Indefinite Article with H?

One day not long ago I found myself pondering the subject of why we have two indefinite articles, a and an. [Musings of such earth-shaking importance can be depended upon to postpone humdrum, absolutely essential work for hours at a time.]

The conclusion I reached is that it is basically a matter of pronunciation: If you try to say "a ape" it comes out "a yape"--"a yegg," "a yi [eye]," "a yoke [oak]," or whatever.

Therefore, when a word begins with a vowel or a silent h, we have learned to precede it with an: "an ape"; "an honest mistake." Some words, such as history, hotel, and humble, apparently had silent h's at one time but now have aspirate ones.

The people in England who were most prone to drop the initial h sound were the Cockneys, who "lived within the sound of Bow bells," [St. Mary-le-Bow Church in East End] a section of London not famed for its high level of education.

So when a person with a Ph.D. in History terms himself "an historian," a silent chuckle is in order.

Here's another bit of sound trivia, but this one I did not make up--I found it in the dictionary: Elision (carrying final consonant sound over to the next word if it begins with a vowel) is characteristic of French, not English, we know. But the word "apron" evolved from the erroneous transfer of the article from "a napron" to "an apron."

Should We Add -ly or -ally?

Misspelled words are seen in print with deplorably increasing frequency. Many such errors reveal that the writer does not pronounce all the syllables, so - naturally [natchurly] - he/she does not write them all.

Outstanding examples of this oversight are "accidently" and "incidently." The applicable rule here is that if a noun (accident) adds -al to become an adjective (accidental), it must add another l plus y to become an adverb. If you skip that second stage, you will spell and pronounce the adverb wrong.

Informationally, we will list some words that follow this pattern: abysmally, alphabetically, biblically, eventually, logically, personally, principally, scripturally, territorially, totally.

On the other hand, the -al is sometimes inserted erroneously, as in public[al]ly and consequent[al]ly. [Public and consequent are already adjectives.] BUT consequently is correct--a slight difference in meaning.

Although characteristic is an adjective, there is a nearly obsolete form ending in -al; hence, characteristically.

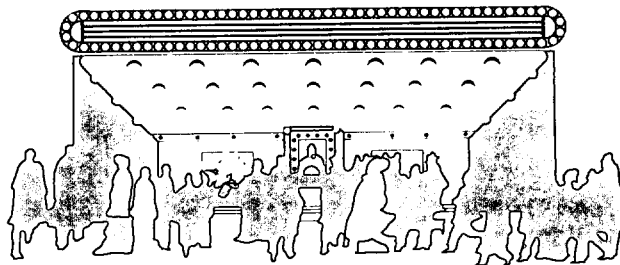

Derived from the French genealogique, the adjectival form of the name of our hobby (be it art, science, or avocation) is permissibly genealogic, but genealogical seems more euphonious, so let us use the -ally when we are GENEALOGICALLY SPEAKING!

That Superfluous S

I wonder if it is unconscious greediness for more that motivates some people to put an extraneous s on singular nouns. The official day is extended one hour and many people bemoan "Daylight Savings Time." Merchants reduce a price for one day and stridently proclaim that the lucky purchaser will get "a great savings." One indigestion tablet is called "a Tums," a diaper is "a Luvs" [What a comedown for the romantic Goddess of Love!], and so on, ad infinitum, ad nauseam.

You may well ask what place this complaint has in a genealogical publication. Well, like Dorothy Parker's maid and the alligators in the bathtub, I had hoped the subject would not come up, that this untutored trend would not invade our field, but it seems to be creeping in: I just received a letter which spoke of his "grandfather's offsprings."

The word offspring is both singular and plural--means child or children, according to Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Let us conspire together to stifle this offsprings at birth!

TEXAS VOLUNTEER UNITS IN THE MEXICAN WAR 1846-48

Part 19

1st Regiment, Texas Foot Riflemen

(Microcopy #278, Roll #6, A-R, produced by National Archives; read at Texas State Library, Genealogy Collection)

Explanatory remarks (history of the regiment) have been made in previous issues of AGS Quarterly. This is the first time your editor has examined the film, since the service records were heretofore transcribed by AGS member Podie Ligon.

It seems that for most soldiers, three dates and places were recorded: (1) the "Muster-in Roll"; (2) "Joined for Duty and Enrolled"; and (3) the "Muster-out Roll." The date of the second item was prior to the Muster-in date.

Very few had anything under "Remarks," and nearly all were mustered out at or near Camargo, Mexico. (I dropped the "near.") Fort Polk was at Point Isabel, Texas.

The companies of this regiment were recruited by their respective captains in the areas shown, mustered in on the dates given, and were assigned letters according to the following table:

OOPS! WRONG WAR!

A Stray from War of 1812 Found
Among Service Records of 1846-48

A record for HENRY MOSS was found while reading Reel #6 of Microcopy #278, "Compiled Service Records of Volunteer Soldiers During Mexican War from Texas." Between soldiers numbered 355 and 356, 1st Foot Riflemen, A-R, appears the following:

When discharged...March 13, 1815

Company Pay Roll for Jany 3 to March 13, 1815

[Let us hope that this reaches the eyes of someone who has been searching for proof of the War of 1812 service of HENRY MOSS.]

Book Reviews

THREADGILLS, BOOK II, compiled by Janis Heidenreich Miller; collaborator: Wordna Threadgill Wicker. Published 1983 by Gateway Press Inc. at Baltimore MD. Cloth-bound; 6x9"; ca 330 pp. Full-name Index; Addenda; maps & charts. $35 (postage paid) from compiler at Box 2245, Hudson OH 44236.

Believed to descend from Deodatus Threlkeld (will dated 1728), in whose wife's will the spelling was changed to Threadgall, this line of Threadgills is extensively traced in this neat book. Author and collaborator have done a fine job of research in census, probate, land grant and deed records, military pensions and D.A.R. applications, cemetery and church records. Apropos of the last, baptismal names such as John Wesley, Francis Asbury and Lorenzo Dow show that many Threadgills were Methodists.

The three-column Index is admirably economical of space, but at the expense of visibility of surnames (too little indention). Addenda pages contain (after late additions to the text were acquired) lists of Threadgills who fought in the American Revolution, the War of 1812, and the "War Between the States"--in both Union and Confederate forces, with the latter listed by states, an excellent idea.

Just before the Index appear pages for the owner to record Births, Marriages and Deaths, each adorned with an appropriate old-time drawing, which will personalize the book.

An outstanding feature of Threadgills, Book II is the number of wills which are quoted--in script type to distinguish them from the body of the book which is in small typewriter sans serif type. Thankfully, few words were set in all capitals in the script type, and Mesdames Miller and Wicker refrained from degrading the book by using a "mail-order" coat of arms that could not be proven authentic for these Threadgills.

The numbering system is New England Historical and Genealogical Register style, with lower-case roman numerals for each child. When enough data was available to extend the line, that child was assigned a consecutive arabic numeral and his biography given where that number came up. That's a fine system except that the last number assigned (574) falls far short of the number of people who are named, so one would have to go back and actually count in order to advertise "2000 Threadgills named," or whatever it comes to.

In the Addenda, late-received data for, say, child x under (4) is set forth under the heading "From Page 24 under (4)," and on page 24 a helpful cross-reference to the Addenda was inserted. Thus a problem that plagues the long-term compiler was neatly handled.

Although there is no Bibliography per se, sources of most documents are given. Frequently Mrs. Miller furnishes name and address of the person who contributed a batch of records. And, to her everlasting credit, she seems to have included every known family tradition, even down to "a son born out of wedlock" and "where he deserted his family."

A few points of style might have been improved: no hyphen was used with "great-grandmother"; many county names were misspelled ... for a 12-year endeavor, the purchase of a postal guide or an atlas would have been a worthwhile investment.

Some typos are rather serious: 1751 for 1571, case for cause, read for ready, years for heirs. The first example was a real shocker! On page 22, "John had in his possession the family prayer book which was set forth under the reign of Queen Elizabeth in the year 1751." (Elizabeth I died in 1603.) Next is stated that the book was in the possession of George Threadgill in 1837. Reading the source, the 1837 deposition, leads me to wonder if George Threadgill meant that the form of the prayer book was settled upon during the reign of Queen Elizabeth, not that the copy in question was printed in 1571. He made no mention of its ownership before his father; one would expect him to boast of it if the book had been in the family two and a half centuries. Also, he plainly stated that the prayer book was in his mother's possession, not his. A small discrepancy, but accuracy of detail is "of the essence" in history and genealogy.

The author does not state if she examined the actual will she printed on pp. 20-21, which she concludes was in William's own handwriting because the body and signature appear to be in the same hand. If she found the will in a book (not a loose paper), I submit that it had been copied there by a clerk, including signature.

On page 87 is a reference to "Egypt, Montgomery County, Texas." If there ever was an Egypt in that county, it is not even mentioned as a ghost town in The Handbook of Texas. Egypt in Wharton County has a population of about 200, and is described therein.

Great pains have been taken to identify each Threadgill who is sketched: if his biography is carried forward to another page, his number, such as (62), is repeated there. And each page has a running head such as FIFTH GENERATION.

All in all, we highly recommend Threadgills, Book II as a role model for future genealogical historians.

TRACKING BAREFOOT RUNYAN by Marie Runyan Wright. Baltimore: Gateway Press, Inc. © 1980 by author. Hardbound; typewriter type; ca 6x9"; pp. xiii + 292. Full-name Index (ca 19 pp.); photographs; Bibliography; the respective sources consulted follow each section. Price $26.25; order from Verbie or Marie Wright, Route 1, Box 7, Bonnerdale AR 71933.

This book should delight the descendants of Isaac Barefoot Runyan, whose path led "from the Shenandoah Valley through Tennessee and Alabama on their Journey Westward." Furthermore, a note advises that a supplement is being prepared, so the reader may be able to get his particular line included next time.

The pages are well typed and spaced, and the family photographs depict people from the present back to the early 1800s. There are three pages of charts which are not too hard to figure out if the text is consulted.

The name Runyon/Runyan is believed to be derived from the French Rongnion/Roygnon/Rougnon/Regnon etc., and the immigrant to America is generally accepted as being Vincent Runyon.

The author is to be commended for refraining from claiming the coat of arms of the Marquis Regnon de Chaligny, although she does quote at length from an attempt to blazon it and a gushy tribute to Vincent Runyon, with whom no connection is made in this book. Unfortunately, no parents or siblings have been found for Isaac Barefoot Runyan (ca 1750-1867). The first tangible record found for him seems to be of his marriage to Margaret Rambo in 1777 in Rockingham Co, VA. An undated newspaper clipping implies that he died in Talladega Co, AL at the age of 117.

Mrs. Wright has done a thorough job of identifying six children of Isaac and Margaret (Rambo) Runyan. Included are land deeds, Civil War records, church records, interesting letters from Tennessee officials about the massacre of Isaac's son Tavenor, etc.

Relatively recent descendants of Isaac Barefoot Runyan occupy the bulk of the book; statistics on an amazing number of them have been amassed. Many family photographs make this genealogy even more appealing to the interested reader.

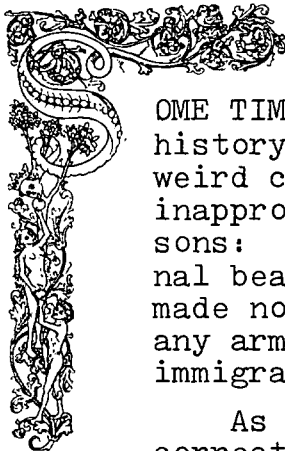

Considering that this is Mrs. Wright's first genealogical publication, it is unusually error free (assuming that variant spellings such as Napolean, Francis [for females], Minervia, Pricilla, Marcus [for Marquis de Lafayette], Neomi, Phillip, Semeon, Shelia, Chloie, Betheany etc. are as she found them and not her own idiosyncrasies as the frequency of appearance suggests).

Very likely she has learned by now that there was no 1785 Federal Census of Virginia, but that the published substitute for the destroyed 1790 Census was compiled from state enumerations and tax records dated 1782-85 for various counties.

Growing familiarity with old handwritings and the forms of 19th-century legal documents will no doubt in future prevent errors like those on pages 1, 14 and 23, wherein she refers to a deed as a will, misinterpreting the word well in the correlative phrases "as will [should be well] for and in consideration of the ...love... as for the sum of one Dollar". On page 23 an intrusive as again obscured the meaning: "as well as for and in consideration...".

This reviewer was a bit disappointed not to find the American author Alfred Damon Runyon (1880-1946) in this family tree, but even without his humorous touch, it is a really good sourcebook for Runyan researchers.

ANOTHER PROTEST AGAINST THE PROMISCUOUS
USE OF COATS OF ARMS

OME TIME AGO, this writer had occasion to study a family history that bears on its cover a huge coat of arms in weird colors. In this case, such a depiction is utterly inappropriate--I might say ridiculous--for several reasons: (a) the compiler did not even identify the original bearer of these arms, nor did he blazon them; (b) he made no attempt to connect the immigrant to America with any armigerous man of the same name; and (c) the Colonial immigrant was a Quaker!

As an authority on the subject wrote me: "You are correct that a consistent Friend would not use a coat of arms. Friends would have regarded it as not only a violation of their testimony on simplicity but also as an infringement on the peace testimony, since arms were of course of martial origin."

I wonder -- if the Reverend Jesse Jackson is elected President, will Jacksons all over the world rush out and order stationery with the presidential seal embossed on it?

Bartholomew Stovall Tricentennial Gathering

Perhaps the largest and most elaborate family gathering ever will occur when descendants of Bartholomew Stovall assemble at Richmond, Virginia on August 17th for a three-day celebration of the 300th anniversary of the arrival of their ancestor in this country. They will have a choice of two all-day tours on Saturday: of Williamsburg or of Historic Richmond.

On Sunday they will be transported to a spot in Powhatan County, the land which was granted to Bartholomew Stovall on 16 August 1715. At the all-day picnic barbecue, the principal speaker will be Robert H. Stovall, vice-president of Dean Witter Reynolds.

A 24-page booklet will be given to each registering family member, some of whom are expected from as far away as Japan. Nearly 900 motel rooms have been reserved in the Richmond area.

For complete details, write or call Rollo P. Stovall, 3357 Espanola Drive, Sarasota FL 33579; phone (813) 924-8769.

POLLEY-PORTER. Help wanted in identifying writer and verifying facts for an article for September AGS Quarterly. Some rather suspect notes were penciled on a typescript entitled "Historical Reminiscences - A Review of Times That Are Past But Live in History. Prepared by J.B. Polley, Floresville, Texas." The notes read:

"Elijah [Porter] drew a white bean and was to be released [one of the prisoners of Perote, 1842], but a friend there drew a black bean & was to be shot. This friend had a family at home & Elijah was a single man so they traded beans & Elijah was killed. The other man [name?] was released, but their physical condition was so poor they could hardly travel. Only one man [125--Ed.] survived to return to the U.S.A. & bring their story." [N.B. I have Green's Mier Expedition; what I want is someone who knows how this tradition re Elijah's sacrifice started. He died of illness and starvation.]

"This Newton Porter that was killed while working stock was typical of this age. The Mexicans stole some 7 million dollars worth of cattle from the white settlers [time span? area?]. Thomas Jefferson [tradition says it was John Thomas] Porter had some million dollars worth of stock stolen, but finally settled for $125,000. The last payment on this debt was made 2 yrs. ago. (1956)" [Seeking name of this writer and corroboration of the theft and repayment story.]

"Native Texians of the Republic". Need information about this association, thought to be in existence ca 1908. Did it have a publication? Texas Veterans Association was dissolved in 1907--was this suggested to take its place? Perhaps the Daughters of the Republic of Texas (and later the Sons) won out in the competition for members. Any information would be welcomed by Mrs. H.H. Rugeley, 2202 W. 10, Austin TX 78703.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS

Following are various short items of varying importance. You will have to read them all to make sure you don't miss a vital one!

Some of the following topics will appear as space permits before the "Ancestor Listings" Section: Revision of AGS Bylaws; New Cus-todian of our Quarterly; Sesquicentennial Projects; Old Folks' Homes....

BIRTHDATE FORMULA

Thanks to Oak Leaves of Matagorda County Genealogical Society for permission to reprint this helpful formula contributed by Jean W. Richardson.

In a case where you have the death date of a person (from a Bible, newspaper or other source) and his gravestone shows only his age at death, you can find his birthdate in this manner:

In this order, put down year, month, and day date of death. Beneath that put down number of years, months and days of his age at death, and subtract to get birthdate.

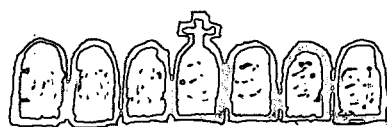

Example; John Doe died 11 November 1900, aged 97 years, 7 months and 6 days.

1900	11	11
97	7	6
1803	4	5

= 5 April 1803

If the number of the death month is smaller than the age in months, you will have to borrow a year (12 months) from the death year, thus:

Date died	1984	5	19
Age	- 72	- 11	- 0
	1984-1=1983	5+12=17	19
Birthdate	1911	6	19 = 19 June 1911

Another "Old Folks' Home" - In the March 1984 issue of AGS Quarterly (pp. 27-28) we described several institutions where our ancestors may have ended their days. Mrs. H.R. Gentry called to inform us that in the 1930s the Woodmen's Circle established a home for men, women and orphans at Sherman, Texas. [Same as Woodmen of the World?]

She also passed along a tip that Merle Ganier (editor of Knight Letter and other publications) has an extensive list of family name associations and addresses.

Change of AGS Quarterly Custodian - Mrs. Robert C. McAnelly (Betty) has relieved your editor of the chore of storing back issues of our Quarterly, bless her! Thanks to kind members who have contributed copies recently, we now have one almost complete set (24 years' worth) available for $125--quite a bargain!

If you need to fill out your own set, call Betty at 477-9304 or write her at 2504 Quarry Road, Austin TX 78703. She can consult her inventory to see if we have the issue(s) you want, and the price(s).

New AGS Membership List - Thanks to Mr. Tommy L. Miles, we now have a handy booklet containing our Society's Officers, Bylaws, and Membership List. The half-page size makes it handy to keep by your phone or to carry about. [And it relieves your editor from typing it for this issue of the Quarterly!]

Inevitably, some people joined AGS after the deadline for the list, but there are several spots where you can write in names. New members will be listed in the next newsletter. For ready reference, it is suggested that you add our new mailing address on the cover of the booklet: Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507.

Sesquicentennial Projects for AGS are still being considered, but we now have an energetic chairman, Tommy Miles, so we can expect action soon. It behooves us as a Society to produce something useful.

AGS Bylaws are currently being revised. As he typed them for the roster booklet, Tommy noticed how out-of-date they were, listing committees that have not been used for years, defining some duties too loosely, lax financial practices, etc. After the membership has voted on the proposed changes, the approved version will be published.

News of Bygone Austinites - We have guilt feelings about neglecting the main purpose of AGS lately, viz., to "investigate, collect, record, publish ... genealogical materials ... pertaining to the City of Austin ...". Therefore we are gratefully indebted to one of our most dedicated members, Mrs. H.R. Gentry, for submitting many interesting items culled from old newspapers on microfilm. We may use short paragraphs as fillers from time to time.

She found the following in the Barker Texas History Center Newspaper Collection (University of Texas at Austin) on Reel 33903, Austin, Texas papers. The first paper she abstracted from was named EVERY SATURDAY, Vol. 1 #34, dated 14 June 1884, page 4:

Report of City Sexton for week ending 7 June 1884:

EVERINGHAM

Since the time of the American Revolution, it has been the custom in my family to pass knowledge of our first ancestor known to immigrate from England, by word of mouth.

Our family records were destroyed by the Loyalists, at the time of the American Revolution. No doubt, this family tradition occurred to secure the knowledge of the family.

So I was taught, "William Everingham came from the East Riding of Yorkshire, went to London, then to New Jersey, circa 1703."

Later, I sent for the immigration record of William Everingham and learned that it had been destroyed during a bombing in the last World War.

During the time that we lived in England, I went to Yorkshire and attended the same church that an ancestor was baptised in during 1666. It was even the same font!

In England, during the same era, I've located three ancestors with the same first name. Each one has a different father and I learned that one man died in England.

A huge book used to record taxes does list the name of a William Everingham as he was taxed for being a bachelor, in 1695. It is uncertain if he is the ancestor that I am seeking or if the one in Yorkshire left it and went to London. On the other hand, the other man may have originally, been from Yorkshire. (The book is in the British Museum.)

If anyone can give me information that I do not have, I would be most grateful. I will exchange information with anyone who is interested.

DR. SAMUEL WILSON MONTGOMERY

Dr. ~~M~~ontgomery was one of the early practitioners in Van Zandt county and like many others of his day he was a native of Tennessee, born there on 23 Apr 1827 in the town of Ramer Station in Mc Nairy county. The town of Ramer was named after the father-in-law of his sister Mary, who married John Ramer. John and Mary Ramer had at least four sons, Roark, Thomas, Samuel and Felix who later became a Doctor.

In addition to his sister Mary, Samuel had at least five brothers. James M., Marion, Roark, John M., Jeff and a second sister Margaret. James M. Montgomery also became a doctor and practiced in Smith county just across the county line in Jamestown. James was the father of George W., Agnes and Mary Elizabeth (Mollie) who later married Rufus B. Spears, an early settler of Van Zandt county. Mrs. M. J. (Maudie) Spears is still a resident of Grand Saline, Tx. Another brother John M. became a physician and practiced in Mississippi and Yell county Arkansas.

Samuel Wilson first married Malissa E. Strickland 9 Jan 1848. They lived in Tippah county Mississippi where he was a farmer. There is no record of any children and she apparently died early in their marriage. On 9 Sep 1857 Dr. Samuel married Caroline E. (Thomas) Ashford, born 30 Oct 1830 in N. C. They lived in Yalobusha County Miss. where Samuel was a Protestant Methodist Minister. They had two children Margaret and Morrison. Sometime in the early 1860's Samuel apparently went to Eclectic Medical school because he was a part-time doctor in the Civil War. About 1867, after Caroline had died 17 Jul 1864, Dr. Montgomery and his two children Maggie and Morrison left Mississippi. They traveled by boat down the Mississippi river and back up the Red River to Jefferson, Tx. They then came to Grand Saline by train and wagon and settled nearby at Creagleville. On 25 May 1870 Dr. Montgomery married Lucinda (Bottoms) Mc Elroy. Lucinda was the ninth child of Zachariah Bottoms and Elizabeth Taylor and was born in Cherokee county Jan 1850. Lucinda and Samuel had at least nine children. Desda born 18 Jul 1871, died Sep 1873; son F. Marion born 17 Aug 1873, died 14 Aug 1955; dau. Maude born 1876/77; dau. Nora born 4 May 1880; son Robert Emmet born 12 Jan 1882, died 20 June 1957; dau. Sue born 31 Aug 1886, died 24 Aug 1919; one other daughter Bertha and two other sons, Wm Jefferson and James Lee. Maude married Joe Howard. Nora married Willie Lockhart. Sue married 1st Carl Mc Carter, 2nd John W. Gossett. Dr. Montgomery was on the Van Zandt county tax rolls for the 1870's and 1880's under the H. Creagle, J. J. Kuykendall, Joseph Cox and Wm. Daniel headrights. The Doctor and his family lived near the old Creagleville Cemetary where he and Lucinda as well as two children are buried. Lucinda died about 1889 and he died 16 Jan 1892, one day before his brother Dr. James M. Montgomery. Submitted by Sam W. Montgomery-5903 Shoalwood-Austin, Tx. 78757.

REBECCA ANDREWS

Where did all their children go? I have been working on this family for several years and haven't found much information about the children of George and Rebecca Andrews Byerly.

George and Rebecca were the parents of ten children, Martin, William F. "Bill", Gabriel, Stephen John, his twin Nancy C., Robert, James "Jim", Margaret A. "Margery", Sarah, and Georgeanna.

We believe the whole family moved to Fayette County in the early 1850s. George was dead by 1855. His children were mentioned in George's father's estate papers of 1855. George's father was Martin Byerly of Jasper County Texas. George was in Jasper County on the 1840 tax list. He is found on the 1850 Walker County Census. Rebecca and some of her children are found on the Fayette County 1860 Census.

The oldest child of George and Rebecca was a son, Martin Byerly and he was born in Amite County Mississippi. In 1855 Martin would have been around 21 years of age. We do not find him on the 1860 Fayette County Census. We wonder if he ever left Walker County Texas. We are very anxious to find out something about this first child of the George Byerly Family.

The second child of George and Rebecca was William "Bill" Byerly. Bill was also born in Amite County Mississippi on 13th of October 1836. He was married on the 31st of May 1865 in Rutersville, Fayette County Texas to a Mrs. Clementine Moore Ingram (Mrs. William Henderson Ingram). Mrs. Ingram was the mother of two sons by Ingram. The sons were William Alexander Ingram and Samuel Norvall Ingram.

Bill and Clementine Byerly were the parents of five Byerly children. The names of these children were Altie, sometimes called Alice. Altie Rebecca Byerly was born in 1866. She married Paul Rabb and they were the parents of two children. The second child of Bill and Clementine was George, born 1868 in Round Top Texas. The third child was Elizabeth, sometimes called Mary, born 1870 also at Round Top. She married Lee S. Rabb on the 4th of September 1889. The fourth child of Bill and Clementine Byerly was John Stephen, may have been called Jack, born in 1872 in Round Top. The fifth child of Bill and Clementine was Andrew Byerly, born in 1876 and died in 1882.

William F. "Bill" Byerly died the 31st of December 1892. His wife, Clementine, died on the 18th of August 1880. We don't know where they are buried.

Jean Byerly Hufnall
Rt. 1. Box 600
La Grange, Texas 78945

The third child of George and Rebecca Byerly was Gabriel also born in Amite County Mississippi around 1837. Gabriel wasn't listed in his mother's household in the 1860 Fayette County Census, but he was listed on that census in another household and was living with a S. E. F. Baker. Their occupation was listed as waggoner.

The fourth and fifth children of George and Rebecca were twins. They were Stephen John and Nancy C. and they were born in Texas around 1840.

Stephen John Byerly married on the 14th of June 1874 to Margaret Frances Bell, daughter of James C. Bell and Eliza Baker Bell of Fayette County Texas. Stephen and Margaret had eleven children. The names of these children were John Thomas, Olivia "Libby" Lucretia, William Bird, Viena Magdelene "Maude", Benjamin Franklin, Sallie Anna, Eliza Josephine, Estella died very young, wonder where she is buried; Jessie Valentine, James Martin, and Mary Samuel. Mary Samuel died when she was about grown. Would also like to know where she is buried.

Nancy C., twin to Stephen John, married Albert W. Baker on the 22nd of February 1860. We know that Albert Baker served in the Civil War for the South. He was a carpenter.

Robert was the sixth child of George and Rebecca. He was born in Texas around 1842. He may have been R. B. Byerly. There is a death date for a R. B. Byerly listed in Margaret Byerly's Bible.

James called "Jim" is the seventh child of George and Rebecca and he was born in Texas around 1843. The only thing we have about Jim is written by a nephew Samuel Ingram son of Margaret. He wrote, "I don't know much about him (Jim). He built lots of underground cisterns. He was considered a good mechanic in his day."

The eighth child was Margaret A., called "Maggie" and "Margery". She was born in Texas around 1845. She married William A. Ingram and they were the parents of one child, Samuel Ingram.

The ninth child of George and Rebecca was Sarah, born in Texas around 1848.

The tenth child, Georgeanna, called "Georgee" was born in Texas about 1852. She married Aus Baker.

Stephen John, mentioned above also served with the confederate states in the Civil War.

ANNUAL WORKSHOP OF AUSTIN GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Saturday 18 August 1984 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

La Mansión Hotel Empresario Room North

6505 IH 35 North

$\frac{1}{4}$ mile north of junction of I-35 and Highway 290
East; take St. John's Avenue Exit.

Our distinguished speaker will be Brent Howard Holcomb, editor and publisher of the South Carolina Magazine of Ancestral Research. Author of over fifty books on the Carolinas, Mr. Holcomb will give us "An Overview of South Carolina Records" in the morning and discuss "Records of North Carolina and Virginia," as the latter state affected records in the Carolinas, in the afternoon.

The public is cordially invited to take advantage of this opportunity to learn what resources are available in these areas. A good selection of books written or edited by Mr. Holcomb will be offered for sale, as well as genealogical forms, notebooks, and books from other publishers.

Coffee will be available, and some free materials will be offered for your future edification.

The pre-registration fee of $22 includes lunch in the beautiful Empresario Room Central, near the meeting room. This must be received by August 10th to assure your having a lunch reservation, although every effort will be made to provide for those who are unable to make advance reservations. After August 10th and at the door, the admission fee will be $25. Checks should be made out to Austin Genealogical Society and sent to the Treasurer, Mrs. Julia Vinson, 3106 Skylark Drive, Austin TX 78757.

On the registration form below, each person may PRINT not more than SIX surnames being researched. Since attendees presumably will be interested in the Carolinas and Virginia, there's a good chance of finding other researchers on the same line if you list surnames from those states. If the slip is received by the Treasurer in time, those names will be displayed on the attendee's name tag.

Each slip must show only one registrant, as they will be used in drawing for door prizes. You MUST be present when your name is drawn in order to win.

REGISTRATION (including lunch) $22 by 10th August; $25 thereafter.

Make check payable to Austin Genealogical Society and mail to Mrs. Julia Vinson, 3106 Skylark Dr, Austin TX 78757.

PURPOSE: Austin Genealogical Society was organized in 1960 as a non-profit corporation chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect and preserve genealogical and historical information about the people of Texas, particularly pertaining to the City of Austin and to Travis and surrounding counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records of genealogical interest. Gifts and bequests to AGS are tax-deductible.

MEMBERSHIP is open to all upon payment of annual dues: $9, or Family Memberships $10 for two in same household, entitling them to one copy of each Quarterly, and two pages apiece (total of four) in the annual Ancestor Listings issue (June). ... DUES FOR ENSUING YEAR ARE PAYABLE on or before the FIRST DAY OF JANUARY each year. The March Quarterly will not be mailed to those whose dues have not reached the Treasurer by FEBRUARY FIFTEENTH. On meeting nights, members and guests may park free across the street east of the library in the parking lot of Hirshfeld House, after 5:30 p.m. We are grateful to the management for this courtesy.
