INVENTORY OF ESTATE OF LITTLEBURY HARDYMAN, 1771

(Charles City County, Virginia, Deeds & Wills 1766-1774)

While searching for the parentage of Elizabeth Harwood who married John Colgin in Charles City County (reputedly in 1775), I noticed an inventory rather typical of a well-to-do man of that era. His possessions were not on the scale of William Byrd's or Benjamin Harrison's, whose records are frequently seen on this film, but I believe the listing will be interesting and informative to many of our readers.

The name Hardyman suffered a spelling change when part of the line sojourned in Tennessee, and appears in the early history of Texas as Hardeman. In The Hardeman Impact on Early Texas History by Francis W. Wilson, M.D., page 90 contains a skeleton outline of a branch of the family (showing Littlebury to be a son of Francis and Henrietta Maria (Taylor) Hardyman), and refers to "A paper dated 1771 - Sales of the estate of Capt. Littlebury Hardeman conducted under the authority of Susanna Hardeman, executrix of the will of her husband". Their children and spouses are listed, but no clue to their ages at the time the following inventory was taken. Susanna's maiden name was thought to be Lightfoot.

To Ascertain Valuations: Figuring 20 shillings to the pound, take an easy example: 8 Young Hogs @ 4 shillings each = 32 shillings = 1 pound 12 shillings.

There were 12 pence to the shilling - I'll leave that to your pocket calculator! I believe their penny was the equivalent of 2¢ American. 2/6 (called "two and six") refers to shillings and pence, not pounds.

This reckoning and the following editorial suggestions are based on my self-educated guesses. PLEASE point out any errors I make so I can disabuse the minds of our readership when I have misled them. I'd really like to know myself!

LETTER FROM GREEN FRANKLIN DANNELLEY

This letter was submitted by Karen R. Thompson (7203 S. Ute Trail, Austin TX 78729 - 512 258-5688), who transcribed it verbatim and comments: "His writing is very good as is the spelling. The Dannelley children are said to have been taught at home by a tutor."

Addressed to Mrs. S. E. [Ellen] Dannelley, Dayton Polk Co. Texas.

Brazoria Co. January the 24, 1864

Dear wife, I set myself this morning to drop you a few lines to let you know where I am and how I am. I am well and I hope when these lines comes to hand they will find you well. One Regiment is about 20 miles from hear at the mouth of Old Cany. Perry [his brother] is staying at a mans house by the name of Sweeneys, he has been verry sick with the prneumonia but he is now geting well. he has had a bad spell of it. he has been sick hear for about ten days. he is now out of danger. me and him will stay hear for several days yet. I would of wrote before now but I have been waiting for him to get beter before I wrote. about one hundred and fifty yankes landed at the mout[h] of old cany the day before yesterday, and our troops got after them and the[y] got to their boats and left. we are sorter expecting a fight about hear soon. Ellen dear, I would like the best in the world to come home but I can't get off now. If we don't have no fight soon I think we will get furloughs. I will write again soon. I haven't received a letter from you since man [Mr.?] Sprodt [?] was at camp.

G. F. Dannelley

Ellen dear, I would write a great deal more but this is all of the paper I have. My paper is in camp and I have no envelope either. this man where we are staying is verry much of a gentleman. when I go to camps I will write you a long letter, we have been moving about from place to place ever since we left Galveston. we don't [get?] to [stay more?] than 8 or ten days at a time at a place. direct your letter to Debrays Regt. you need not direct them to no peticular place.

G. F. Dannelley

San Jacinto Veterans Indebted to King David

DO YOU KNOW WHY the Republic of Texas awarded the same amount of land to soldiers who had guarded the sick and the baggage at Harrisburg as to those who had actually participated in the Battle of San Jacinto? Read I Samuel 30:21-25.

JAMES H. WEATHERBEE'S MEDAL

Mildred A. Jones of 706 West La Plata Drive, Farmington NM 87401, sent what she calls a "very rough sketch" of a medal in her possession. She wrote that on the back is engraved "James H. Weatherbee" and "5 Texas Cavalry."

Mrs. Jones believes it to be solid silver and says it is very ornate and in perfect shape except that the fasteners are gone off the back. She states that she would be glad to return it to anyone proving to be a direct descendant of the original owner. It would be interesting to know where and how it came into her possession.

If any of our readers prove to be descendants of Lt. Weatherbee, we hope you will send us a follow-up story. And if anyone can explain the three words at the top of the medal please enlighten us (at 2202 W. 10, Austin TX 78703) so we can pass it on.

The following background information was found on page 90 of Texas Volunteers in the Mexican War by Henry W. Barton:

"After the departure of the undersized battalion [mid-March 1847], two other companies were enrolled at San Antonio for the duration of the war. On March 20, fifty-five men organized and elected James B. Reed captain and James H. Weatherbee, James D. Cochran, and James M. Hardaway lieutenants. ...at Monterrey on May 14, the company was mustered in [as] Company D of the battalion ..."

Texas State Library Vertical File Contents: EANES - FARNSWORTH

Since June 1988 there have been articles in AGSQ about the contents of the Vertical File in TSL's GENEalogy Collection. Thanks to Barbara and Jerry Goudreau, the family data folders are being examined and a summary printed by their computer. This valuable ongoing feature continues on the facing page.

For more information about these files, address Genealogy Collection, Texas State Library, Box 12927, Austin TX 78711. They can make a limited numbers of photocopies for you, and can send you a list of private researchers who can select the pages pertaining to the people you are seeking. Your ancestor may be mentioned only once in an 82-page file, so you may not want all 82 pages!

We are sorry, but Austin Genealogical Society does not have a research committee to perform this laborious service for you.

BOOK REVIEWS

N.B. Someone sent a clipping about the sale of Lee County cemetery books. AGSQ has a policy against advertising per se, but does furnish information for the purchase of a book when a copy is sent us to be reviewed.

DEFENDERS OF THE REPUBLIC OF TEXAS, Volume I, Texas Army, © 1989, Daughters of the Republic of Texas, Inc. Published by Laurel House Press, Box 27667, Austin TX 78755. Paper, 8½ x 11", 320 pages, illustrations, full-name index. Price $16.95 plus $2 for shipping & handling; Texas residents add $1.19 tax.

Texas Army is the first volume of a trilogy, the other two (pertaining to the Texas Militia) to be available in the Summer of 1989. The product of painstaking abstracting and computer composition by Mary Lou Mitchell and Janet M. Shannon, with Karen R. Thompson as Managing Editor, this book is an extremely valuable contribution to Texans and Texophiles.

Volume I details the military service of more than 1100 soldiers in the Volunteer Army of the Republic of Texas between 1836 and 1841 as seen in records found in Texas State Archives. These include 133 Texas Army muster rolls and payroll records never before published, revealing names and ranks of enlisted men and noncommissioned officers, date and place of enlistment, duty assignments, promotions, desertions, and deaths.

The Introduction, "Army of the Republic of Texas" by Dr. Thomas W. Cutrer of Texas State Historical Association, is an extremely informative exposition of the factors governing the army and the part it played in the history of the Republic. It explains the reasons for changing the makeup of the army from time to time; disciplinary and maintenance problems; difficulties in recruiting; rivalry among the leaders; and, finally, the financial troubles that led to the disbanding of the army. Like the Program Notes on a theater program, this article sets the scene, while the bulk of the book is like an elaborate "Cast of Characters" in the drama whose run ended so long ago.

Archivist Tony Black of the Archives Division of Texas State Library describes legislation pertaining to the formation and maintenance of the Army; the provenance of records set forth in this book, and the relief awarded to each honorably discharged soldier when the army was disbanded late in 1841.

An interesting map drawn by Barbara Whitehead locates forts, camps, posts, stations and towns mentioned in the records, while drawings by Betsy Warren depict weapons and other articles of a soldier's "equipment." Also scattered throughout are reproductions of some of the military forms that were used (as well as broadsides, etc.), which are interesting to examine. Their page numbers appear at the end of the Table of Contents, which is commendably detailed.

Consideration for the reader's convenience is evidenced by sections entitled "Getting the Most Out of This Book" and "Quick Page Reference Guide," both of which explain the material the researchers had to abstract from and how they set up their summaries of the records.

The format used is a marvel of neat condensation of material from frequently differing forms - most ingenious! The compilers boast that they nobly refrained from using the ditto marks of the original records, but it seems a waste of time to spell out a long sentence 14 times per page, when one announcement would have sufficed. They also standardized date styles, choosing the form 12/24/1839. That's fine if you have a 13 or higher number involved, but 12/10 is open to misinterpretation, for some writers prefer month first and others the opposite. I believe the modern army uses the sequence day-month-year, as do most genealogical forms (printed). A three-letter abbreviation (24 Dec 1839) requires only one more stroke, and averts errors on the part of those who forget just which is the eighth month!

The general appearance of Texas Army is very pleasing, with generous margins, off-white paper, and legible (though rather small) typeface. However, I'm a bit dubious about the durability of the cover when subjected to frequent use and copying, as in a library.

But the only major criticism this reviewer wishes to register about this really fine piece of work is of the index. In many instances, names are out of alphabetical order, and frequently there are multiple listings of the same name. Perhaps the compilers are trying to tell us that they think there were three David Davises, but I feel that such a decision should be made by the reader. In the present form, a reader might well overlook the redundant entries; all page numbers should follow the original listing of the name.

The composer of the index rendered service "above and beyond" in furnishing variant spellings in italics, but not infrequently the spelling she/he gave precedence to is not the one most often seen in previous books about early Texans. It is hoped that the compilers of the succeeding indexes will have time to do more comparative research in this area.

These minor annoyances notwithstanding, this reviewer whole-heartedly recommends Texas Army (subtitled Muster Rolls, Receipt Rolls and Other Rolls, 1836-1841) to those who are seeking ancestors who were in Texas during this period, to military buffs, and to those who are interested in Texas history in general. A great many of these men became prominent in the affairs of the State of Texas in later years.

ABSTRACTS OF PARKER COUNTY, TEXAS, PRE-EMPTION LAND RECORDS, 1850-1858, compiled by Jerry Wright Jordan, 1988. 212 pp., maps, full-name index, paper, $15. Order # J355 from Heritage Books, 1540-E Pointer Ridge Place, Suite 300, Bowie MD 20716. Shipping: $2.50 per order.

Abstracts of Parker County, Texas, Pre-emption Land Records, 1850-1858 opens with a brief history of the formation of the county, supplemented with a petition therefor (Appendix I) and the 1855 Act creating it (Appendix II). That history is followed by a succinct and, it appears to this reviewer, accurate account of the chronology and nature of land grants in Texas. The different classes of headrights, bounty warrants, donation and pre-emption grants are defined, as well as the requirements for each category, which should be beneficial to almost anyone studying early Texas land records.

[It might be mentioned that Jerry Jordan overlooked one group eligible for donation grants: Men who served under Fannin at or near Goliad, about 60 of whom escaped massacre; heirs of the others were awarded donation certificates.]

Mr. [Ms? One never knows with a name like Jerry!] Jordan establishes credibility for the book with a thorough description of the records being abstracted from, which are currently housed in a regional branch of Texas State Archives at Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Texas. Five exceptionally clear maps of Parker County and its surroundings enhance the value of the book.

But in the Introduction, the compiler affects a device that is, to me, at least, rather annoying: inserting an accent mark pointing towards the x of the word "Bexar." This reviewer feels that it would have been better to spell the name phonetically at its first appearance, then stick to the normal "Bexar" or "Bejar" thereafter.

We can be grateful to the author for mercifully sparing us the tedious distances cited in these pre-emption records (except those pertaining to a nearby town), and for including waterways, neighbors, chain bearers, and witnesses.

The abstracts themselves show meticulous attention to the original instrument as far as proper names are concerned, but he/she did not impede the reader's research by slavishly copying all the misspelled words, which serve as red flags to some of us readers.

Human names are in all caps (a true boon to the researcher) and variations in spelling are underlined. In the Index, variations are placed in alphabetical sequence in one entry, as "JAMESON/JAMISON/JEMASON/JIMISON." If I may insert an opinion [Who can stop me?], I submit that "J.H. Csop" on page 185 was the same man as J.H. Crop and J.H. Cross--that old double s that looks like a p or f. I advise readers to examine the index line by line and check the data for such probable variations as Burrip, E. and Burris, Elias; Cancliffe and Cuncliff, Wm. H.; Dodions and Dodson; Dyche and Dyeke, A.J.; Edwards and Ewards, Jas. C.; Harris and Horris, Edward M.; Ladgsdon, Lodgson and Logsdon; Magers and Mayors, Seton; Wilson and Wison, Wm. P. In fact, examination of the index leads one to the conclusion that the clerk was as weak in orthography as he was in calligraphy!

Abbreviations are virtually consistent and appropriate throughout.

Interpretation problems notwithstanding, this book of Parker County land records is a really fine source for those interested in survey records pertaining to said county in the 1850s, namely the Land Districts of Milam, Robertson and Denton. The names of 225 legal voters of Tarrant County are an unexpected dividend. Legibility is another factor that inclines your reviewer to recommend this worthy book to your attention.

LYNN/LINN LINEAGE QUARTERLY, Phyllis J. Bauer, Editor, 3312 W. Fairway Dr., McHenry IL 60050. 8½ x 11", ca 30 pages per issue, $18 per calendar year in the US, Canada & Mexico. Back issues $5 each, postpaid. Queries free to subscribers.

The pearl-gray cover of this quarterly boasts an extremely attractive device never before seen by this reviewer. A stylized tree (artistically drawn by the editor's brother, Lee Werhan) changes its appearance with the seasons: first delicately leaved for the Spring issue, in full leaf for Summer, surrounded by drifting and fallen leaves for Fall, it consists only of exquisitely branched bare limbs and twigs in the Winter, but retains the identical oval-topped outline throughout the year. Besides delighting the eye, this clever format enables the reader to select the desired issue at a glance.

Mrs. Bauer sent us the four numbers issued in 1987 to be reviewed. They contain a wide variety of material: Lynn/Linn Revolutionary War Pension Claims [How fortunate she is to have Jo White Linn as an interested contributor!]; Lynns in Ayrshire; individual family groups in Virginia, North Carolina, Maryland, Illinois, Ohio, etc.; Quaker Lynn/Linns; census records; War of 1812 records; bounty land records, and so on. Every conceivable variant spelling of the name is included in the records that are presented: Lin, Lind, Lines, Linnes, Lyne, Lynde, ad infinitum!

There are book reviews, queries, and lengthy, informal accounts of family traditions. In the first issue the editor set an example for her readers by printing her own Ahnentafel and Family Group Sheets. This feature proved so popular that she decided not to publish them in the regular magazine but save them for a Special Issue. She now offers over 100 pages of Lynn/Linn group and pedigree charts at $12 for non-subscribers and $10 for subscribers.

The publication is on good heavy paper, neatly typed or computed, although some pages have so many names in all caps that it makes your head swim to glance at them. When any device employed for emphasis is overused, nothing stands out on the page.

The index, in the Number 4 issue each year, is disappointing in that only the Lynn/Linn section includes first names, but there are only seven Smiths, for example, so most index searchers have few blind alleys to go down.

Lynn/Linn Lineage Quarterly is far above most one-name publications this reviewer has seen, and I only wish someone would do as well by each surname now being researched....especially mine! After a short stay on the New Books shelf, these quarterlies will be placed in the Vertical File in the Genealogy Collection of Texas State Library.

FAMILIES OF WYOMING CO., WV edited by Sally Williams, Ancestor Seminars Libr, 418 Hwy. 110 North, Whitehouse TX 75791. Soft cover, stapled, ca 30 pages per issue, 8½ x 11", $10 per volume, published February, May, August and November.

Devoting a publication to the families of a certain county makes it seem so much more personal! Many serials are dedicated to the records of a particular area and that is probably more helpful than limiting it to one surname "anywhere." In this way, the researcher gets more information about the families of spouses. All queries are free, but MUST pertain to Wyoming County, West Virginia.

It is not our policy to give publicity to books without a review copy, or to serials without a year's run, but your editor wants to encourage the publication of records (especially personal) pertaining to a specific area with input from subscribers. Family records from Bibles, diaries, personal correspondence and so on are seldom found in books but may clear up a long line for others.

The issue at hand (Volume 3 Issue 3, February 1989) contains ancestor charts, index to marriages, the complete 1900 census of a town, cemeteries, history of a church, photographs, advertising. And, wonder of wonders, there is a full-name index in each issue! What a tremendous investment of time! Now if the editor will just learn that there is no such word as "zerex," I can recommend this quarterly unreservedly to those who have interests in this region.

[P.S. A delightful blooper noticed in this issue occurs in a letter to the editor which she apparently did not retype, so can hardly be blamed for. The writer refers to her "material great-grandparents." Does she also have immaterial ancestors?]

A DELIGHTFUL GLIMPSE OF THE
CATHOLIC ARCHIVES OF TEXAS

On Saturday afternoon, 29 April 1989, members of AGS were treated to a conducted tour of the Roman Catholic Chancery building at 1600 North Congress Avenue in Austin. Our generous and witty guide, Michael E. Zilligen, showered us with information about the vast store of material in the Archives, and entertained us with glimpses of artifacts such as home communion sets; beautiful bishops' robes and accouterments (ranging from croziers to antiquated red silk stockings and gold shoes); and photographs and letters from prominent men.

One very interesting display consists of 24 identical dolls, each dressed in a miniature replica of a different order of nuns that at some time has had sisters devoting their lives to good works in Texas, such as conducting schools and hospitals. In 1982, this collection of rare dolls and meticulously detailed habits provided Pearl R. Casne with the subject for her Master of Arts thesis at UT-Austin.

Archivist Zilligen stated that 57 bishops have served Texas, and the Archives include a more or less voluminous file for each. Files on priests, usually including birth and death dates, show where they served when, enabling a searcher to track down a family tradition that "Father Murphy baptized the whole family, but we don't know where."

Michael Zilligen reiterated the statement he made at AGS meeting in February, that they are expecting to have records from all 14 dioceses on microfilm here in about five years. These will include records pertaining to Baptism, Confirmation, Marriage, reception of Holy Communion, and Death or Extreme Unction (the sacrament of the sick).

Already filmed are records of the Diocese of Austin (stretching from Mason County east to Brazos, from Hamilton south to Caldwell and Austin counties), and the Diocese of Brownsville (Cameron, Willacy, Hidalgo and Starr counties). It is expected that by midsummer the Diocese of Victoria will be completed (DeWitt and Goliad on the west, Matagorda farthest east, parts of Fayette and Colorado to the north, Calhoun on the south).

No church rites except Roman Catholic were permitted to early settlers while Texas was under the sovereignty of Spain, France and Mexico, so genealogical researchers sometimes find marriage and burial records of their erstwhile Protestant ancestors in these archives. We are grateful to the Chancery for allowing non-Catholics to use them.

Call (512) 476-4888 to ask Michael about appropriate times to avail yourself of this great source for research.

[Incidentally, Mr. Zilligen is among the elite few who pronounce the word "dioceses" with ease. It never ceases to amaze me that, I suppose because we tend to say "diosis", even some high church dignitaries call it "dioseize" -- presumably following the format of "thesis - theses".]

We welcome Archivist Zilligen to the Board of Directors of Austin Genealogical Society, and hail the return of Wilena Young, who was recently honored with a life membership in appreciation of her faithful service as editor of the AGS Newsletter.

BURIALS IN BASTROP COUNTY

AGS member Evelyn Farris Wolf informs us that there is a computerized index of 15,000 persons buried in Bastrop County. The cemetery survey committee, consisting of Audrey Rother, Evelyn Wolf, Clyde Reynolds and Clifford Zearfoss, has surveyed some 80% of the burial sites in the county to date.

The master name index and the cemetery surveys may be found in two places: (1) the County Clerk's Office, Attention County Cemetery Surveys, Bastrop TX 78602 (copies $1 per page); or (2) the Bastrop City Library, where visitors can make copies at a reduced price.

German Research: Evelyn also sent a tip for those desiring research done in the Eastern Bloc countries, where American Express money orders are not acceptable. She writes that when she sent cash to a person in East Germany, her letters were not delivered. It seems that incoming mail is x-rayed and cash is detected, but that when she wrapped the bills in carbon paper, her letters were received by the person who had done the research.

WHO ?

This is a copy of a tintype found in the SCHLAMMUS family records.

Austin, Texas.

Virginia P. Baker
1302 Harriet Court, Austin TX 78756

I was born in Noxubee Co. Ms. on the 20th day of May, 1843. My father moved to Newton Co. Ms. in 1853. I was in my 17th year when mustered in the Service at Corinth, Ms. about the last of April or first of May 1861 don't remember the exact dates. I belonged to Co. I 20th Ms. Regiment, never belonged to but one Co (Company) and Regiment, was placed in Gen. Floyd's Brigade in North West Virginia. Gen. R. E. Lee, Commander of that department all fall, was at Abbigton Court House. Christmas day the Brigade was ordered to reinforce the Western Army, then later part of Jan. 62 got to Fort Donaldson, Tn. on the 12th of Feb. 62 and was surrendered the 16th. Was only there three days was wounded in left side on morning of the 16th in the second charge but did not stop from going, was surrendered that night about 12. Oct. the coldest time that any lot of boys experienced. Got to Camp Donlas, Chicage, Il. the morning of the 22 about 2 'Oclock was turned loose behind the walls like a lot of horses, the snow was about knee deep, was several days before they got us quarters, was exchanged at Vixburg(Vicksburg, Ms) on the 8th day of Sept. 1862, sent to payrol (parole) camp for ten days; was put in Tightman's Brigade which was composed of the 6th, 14th, 15th, 20th and 26th Ms. Regiments and placed in W. W. Loving's Division, "Uncle Bille" as we boys called him. This human was killed at Baker's Creek. * Loving's Division cut its way out & fell back to Jackson, Ms. there John C. Adams took Com. (command) of Brigade and did not go in to Vixburg with Pemberton. Gen. Joe E. Johnson was sent there with more troops, thought they could relieve Pemberton out of Vixburg. I was promoted to Sargent on that campaign for outrunning a company of cavalry. Some was promoted for bravery but I was promoted for running. The winding of that campaign was forced back to Demopolis, Al. went from there to Dalton, Ga. was with Gen. Jos. E. Johnson in all the fights down to Atlanta, then he was relieved and Gen. John B. Hood placed in command, went with Hood back to Dalton, across North Georgia & Alabama to Tuscombia, Al. from there up into Tn. was wounded at Franklin, Tn. I thought it was good-bye John that time but I soon got over it. General Adams was killed at Franklin, he & horse falling over in the works, a braver man never lived. General Lannerry (?) commanded brigade until close of war, was surrendered at Greenbriar N.C. on the 26th day of April 65. Came home with Gen. Lannery brought my gun, cartridge box and 1000 rounds amunition; got home on the 17th day of June 65 demoralized, I am ---- and badly -----. Went to work with nothing, country all torn up but that did not keep boys and girls from marrying. Married Nov. 7, 1866 came to Texas in the Fall of 69, lived in Bastrop two years moved to Travis in 72. I am a Babist(Baptist) in faith and a Mason. I commenced the dairy business at Austin in 1879, sold out four years ago (1913). We raised three sons and three daughters all grown. My wife and self are here for some purpose, I know not what for, we are east Austin and Travis.

Signed J. S. Pannell

This 31st day of July 1917.

* Editor's Note: From his biography (#35) in Military Records of General Officers of the Confederate States of America, I believe this was Gen. William Wing LORING. "This human" must refer to someone else, as Loring died in New York City in 1886. ... Camp Douglas was a Union prisoner-of-war camp near Chicago. ... Gen. John Clifford Pemberton - Gen. Joseph Eggleston Johnston. ... If I could see the handwriting, I think I could identify other words and names in this letter, such as Lanerry, Tightman, etc.

This member used a blind embosser to indicate her name and address, but that is not likely to be legible when photocopied. It is hard to read at best. She also submitted 3 sheets on a $12 membership, so unless someone sends in too few (so I can match them up for 4 pages), her third page must wait for 1990.

Your editor is pleased to note that, while about 18 pages in this Ancestor Listing Section display wrong (obsolete) state abbreviations, only ONE bears the risky figures-for-months style. Let's break that record next year!

PURPOSE: Austin Genealogical Society was organized in 1960 as a non-profit corporation chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect and preserve genealogical and historical information about the people of Texas, particularly pertaining to the City of Austin and to Travis and surrounding counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records of genealogical interest. Gifts and bequests to AGS are tax-deductible.

MEMBERSHIP is open to all upon payment of annual dues: $12 per individual, or family membership at $14 for two in same household, entitling them to one copy of each Quarterly and Newsletter, as well as two pages apiece (a total of four pages for $14 whether one or two persons submit listings) in the Ancestor Listing Issue (June).

DUES ARE PAYABLE on or before JANUARY FIRST for the ensuing year. If dues are not received by February First, the name must be dropped from mailing list. If membership is reinstated later and quarterlies & newsletters have to be mailed individually, postage must be charged. (Back quarterlies supplied IF available - very few extras are printed. Send payments to AGS Treasurer, Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507.

MISSING COPIES. If your Quarterly does not reach you by the 10th of April, July, October or December, notify the Society at Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507 (but Exchange Quarterly Chairmen should use TEXAS STATE LIBRARY address given on inside front cover). Members who fail to give AGS sufficient advance notice of address changes will be responsible for the postal fee for returned copies and for remailing the copy at individual rather than bulk mailing rates.

MEETINGS of the general membership begin at 7:30 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month except August and December. HOWEVER, members are encouraged to come at 6:30 to socialize with each other. The Board of Directors meets at 6:30 in a separate room. MEETING PLACE: Room 12, First Baptist Church, 901 Trinity. Enter on the east side - Neches Street. Free parking in the lot south of the church, 9th & Trinity. VISITORS ARE WELCOME.

AGS QUARTERLY is issued about the middle of March, June, September and November. Contributions are welcome, subject to editing to conform to our style. Contributor is responsible for accuracy and any copyright infringement. Send directly to Editor.

BOOK REVIEW POLICY. Books cannot be reviewed in AGSQ on the basis of advertising alone. If a Review Copy is received by the Editor at 2202 W. 10, Austin TX 78703 by the First of February, May, August or October, it will be reviewed in the next Quarterly (provided it is on an appropriate subject). It will then be placed in the Genealogy Collection of Texas State Library, available to all patrons.

ANCESTOR LISTING PAGES must reach Editor at above address by the TENTH OF MAY. They must be BLACK and LEGIBLE, whether typed, hand-printed, computer printout, or in superior calligraphy. Months must be SPELLED or abbreviated, NOT figures. Preferred form for dates: day, month, year. Allow space for binding at inner margins of facing pages; i.e., your first page will be a left-hand page. Carefully check horizontal pages (reading in the 11-inch direction). Otherwise, the Editor has to position some upside down to prevent loss of data in the punching-stapling process. NO 8½x14 sheets!

You may submit Lineage or Family Group charts, Ahnentafel, narratives, cemetery inscriptions, Bible records, census data, queries, or a combination of forms, just so it is not under copyright. Be sure to proofread your material for accuracy and clarity so we won't be guilty of disseminating faulty data. Put name & address on each page in legible form (NOT blind embossed). Consult a recent issue of AGSQ for suggestions.

REMEMBER: $12 membership entitles you to two facing pages in Ancestor Issue;
$14 membership (one person or two) gives you four facing pages.

DEADLINES for everything except book reviews : 10th of February, May, August and October. Material sent to AGS P.O. box may or may not reach Editor in time.
