FAMILY HISTORY LIBRARY

OF THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

NEW YORK GENEALOGICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD

Thanks to the generosity of AGS member Elizabeth Mayland, the Austin branch L.D.S. library has a number of indefinite loan microfilms relating to New York genealogy. The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record is a publication of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society which was organized in February 1869. This publication contains articles about individual and family histories, about cemetery and church records, about county and town histories, etc. Three of the microfilms on indefinite loan are the surname indexes for some of the Record.

Vols. 1-20	A-K	film 0599160	item 1
Vols. 1-20	L-Z	film 0599161
Vols. 21-40		film 0962872	items 1 & 2

A subject index of the Record was compiled by Florence Evelyn Pratt Youngs. This is a book (974.7, B2n, Index) that is not available at the Austin L.D.S. library.

Volume 1 of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record starts with the April 1870 issue. The indefinite loan collection in Austin runs from Vol. 1 through Vol. 85, with a few volumes missing after 1900. Vol. 85 put the Record into the 1850's. There is a supplement that was published in 1894 for the 25th anniversary of the Society. This supplement is on film 0982472, item 3.

If you do not live near the Austin branch L.D.S. library, you can access these films by using the locality Catalog microfiche and looking at NEW YORK, GENEALOGY, PERIODICALS (NYGBS).

FAMILY HISTORY LIBRARY

NEW YORK CITY DIRECTORY/ COMMERCIAL REGISTRY

The second set of indefinite loan microfilms is the New York City Directory/ Commercial Registry. The first film is for 1861. There are seven rolls of film in this collection, with 1881 being the last year covered.

The preface of the 1861 directory contains an interesting account of the history of the directory and of the enormous task of canvassing the residences to obtain the information. The 1861 directory contains 150,303 names! Also bogus canvassers often preceded the official canvassers and took money from residents for the promise of a special listing in the directory.

Some issues have good maps of New York City. All issues contain advertisements. It is interesting to note the types of ads in the 1860's versus the 1880's. There was an index to the commercial registry. For example, if you needed "bird cages" in 1861, you checked page 5, "mourning goods", page 41 and "pickles", page 48.

These microfilms can be accessed by using the Locality Catalog microfiche and looking for NEW YORK, NEW YORK, (CITY), DIRECTORY.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES

1. When you visit the Austin branch L.D.S. library to view the previously mentioned New York films, remember to look at the indefinite loan microfiche for New York. We are building a good collection of New York material on microfiche.

2. In the previous Quarterly (Vol. XXXII, No. 1, p. 4), I mentioned the St. Mary's Infirmary indefinite loan film. This film covers from May 1899-December 1903. Each entry contains a case number, name, age, occupation, nativity, residence, class, disease, admitted, discharged, died and physician. The patients were from all around the east, northeast and southeast Texas area, not just from the Galveston area. This record is on film 1398717.

3. The Austin branch L.D.S. library recently received a letter from David M. Mayfield, director of the Family History Library in Salt Lake City. Mr. Mayfield reported that station KBYU-TV and author Alex Haley are working on a new public television program called ANCESTORS. The program will feature the dramas researched and documented by family history researchers. If you have a family story that you think would be interesting for this series, you can send a summary to: KBYU-TV

FAMILY LAND HERITAGE PROGRAM

Each year since 1974 the Texas Department of Agriculture has recognized families who have operated a farm or ranch on the same land continuously for at least a hundred years. Brief histories of the award-winning families, naming the successive land owners and their children and grouped under the respective county name, are published annually.

Since the attractive volumes (which include many heirloom pictures) have the names of only the current land owners in their indexes, AGS Quarterly is attempting to remedy that deficiency, as space permits. Instead of page numbers, we group the names by their counties (which cover only a few pages each, and are in alphabetical order), assuming that researchers will want to read all about their ancestors' neighboring relatives and friends.

Apologies are offered if some surnames are wrong - sometimes the narratives are hard to interpret as to generations - whether Tom, Dick and Mary are the children of the founder or of his daughter. And, since these books use parentheses to indicate maiden name, nickname, previous married name, or future married name it is sometimes impossible to determine just what is meant.

In AGS Quarterly, the usual genealogical practice is followed: Maiden names in parentheses. If a maiden name is unknown, we put three dots in parentheses; nicknames are in quotation marks; editorial suggestions in brackets; "pic" indicates that there is a picture of family members or buildings on the given page.

Since Volume 10 covers two years, on page 99 the county names start over for 1985. To save space, we have alphabetized together the honorees with the same surname in both years, so if you don't find your ancestors in the first section of Hamilton County, look in the later one, when consulting the book.

This continuing feature started in AGS Quarterly Vol. XXIV No. 4, Nov. 1983.

MUSINGS ABOUT NAMES

How Many Variant Spellings?

On one of the Ancestor Listing entries in this issue the name Tuberville [sic] caught my eye. This is, in all probability, one of a host of names derived from a family brought into the limelight by Thomas Hardy's novel, Tess of the D'Urbervilles, published in 1891.

George Turberville/Turbervile (1540-1610) was an English poet.

The heirs of W.S. Turberville received a bounty warrant and a donation certificate for his service in the Texas Revolution (awarded in 1851).

Turberville, Turbeville and Turbyfill are in the 1991 Austin telephone directory. Turbefield, Turberville and Turbyville are in the forthcoming consolidated index of AGS Quarterly.

I fully expected to find a Derbyville somewhere! What other variants have you seen? Please write to the editor so we can publish them.

Dot Your t's and Cross Your i's!

In a printed list of slaves in Alabama in 1831 appeared a name new to me: Chartolle. It was among ordinary names - Annie, Mose, Phyllis and so on - so I speculated about its origin. Was it perhaps a French surname?

As I copied the name by hand I wrote it straight through before crossing the t. Then it struck me: If I crossed the double l instead of the t, it would be Charlotte! And that's what I think happened on the original.

This small, absent-minded error could make Barttell out of Bartlett, Mallet out of Mattel, Hitton of Hilton, Hulton of Hutton, Colton of Cotton, Witton of Wilton, Caslon of Caston, and so on. Failure to cross the t's entirely turns Annette into Annelle, Jeanette into Jeanelle, Lynette into Lynelle . . .

And beware of rounded, backhand scrawls that make i's look like e's. When the i is only faintly dotted, Milton can be interpreted as Melton. Or the beginning letter may make it appear to be Wilton.

Names scrawled in old family Bibles need careful scrutiny with a magnifying glass. Did Nellie/Nettie marry a Biltmore or Belmore or Bettmore?

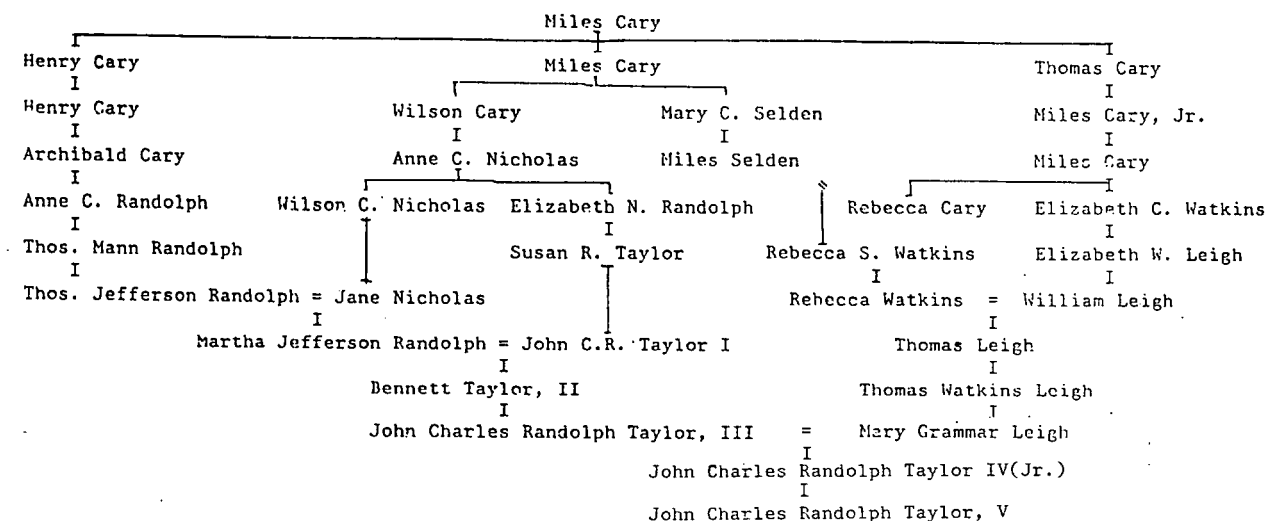

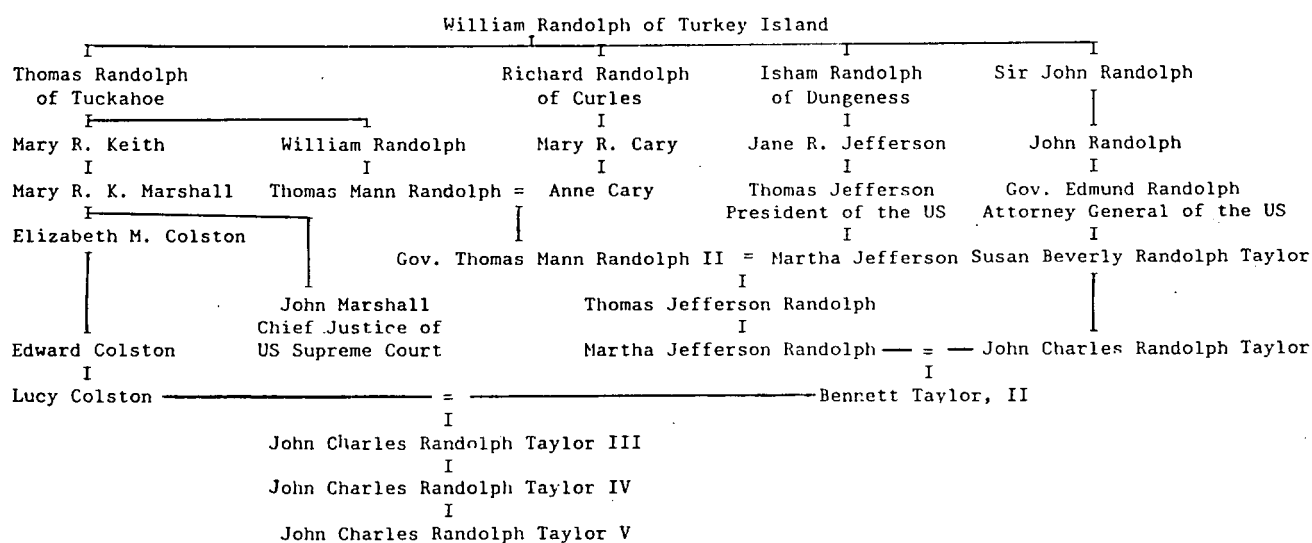

From the preceding Family Land Heritage Program: Have you noticed how German families favor names starting with A for their sons?

One family had children named Lilly, Tilly and Piccidilly. What, no Milly?

Descendants reported that they had an aunt named Maggie Nolia. I suspect they did her an injustice and that she was named Magnolia for the beautiful blossoms of that fine old tree indigenous to the South.

From the forthcoming consolidated AGSQ Index: I think I noticed three people named Missouri Oregon something. Might they have been born on the trail from Missouri to Oregon?

THE RANDOLPH & CARY ANCESTRY
OF JOHN C.R. TAYLOR V

The Randolphs of Virginia. By Robert Isham Randolph of Chicago
(Privately printed, ca.1930 Pp.404. Introduction, index)

The Virginia Carys by Fairfax Harrison
(The DeVinne Press, 1919. Pp. XXX +194. Introduction, illus., index, supplements)

Earlier this century, exceptional genealogies were compiled on the Randolphs and Carys, two of the more dynastic families of Virginia if not the United States. These families numbered in their ranks some of the most noteworthy 18th & 19th century Americans, among them Thomas Jefferson, Robert Edward Lee, Edmund & John Randolph and John Marshall, as well as persons of more modest accomplishments and the expected number of rascals.

Virginia genealogy may be somewhat bewildering, even to the seasoned genealogist. The Randolphs (surname pronounced "RANduff") and the Carys tended to marry among themselves, each other, and a select number of other patrician Virginia families. Marriages among cousins were quite common, and names were frequently reused. The Randolph & Cary books are quite helpful in untieing the Gordian Knot of Virginia's first families.

The two books, now well over half a century old, are still quite useful. The works take somewhat different approaches. The Randolphs of Virginia follows basically just the pedigree - births, marriages and deaths - of descendents of William Randolph of Turkey Island (1651- 1711) in both the male and female lines. One yearns for further biographical and bibliographical data. Many male family members, for instance, were known almost universally by their plantation or city of residence, such as John Randolph of Roanoke. The omission of the geographic portion of their monikers is particularly regrettable and rather surprising, as the author pointedly calls himself Richard Isham Randolph of Chicago. But perhaps such information is unrealistic, considering the staggering number of family members referenced.

The Virginia Carys is a more traditional family history, charting the accomplishments, genealogical basics, and residences of the descendents in the male line of Miles Cary (1622-1667) of Windmill Point. Photographs of family portraits are of interest, although maps are not in evidence. Author Harrison, the son and husband of Carys, chides as pure larceny by printed assertion those descended from unrelated Carys who suggest kinship with Miles; yet his own hint of a relationship between his clan and the Viscounts Falkland and the Lord Hunsdon who married Mary Boleyn is curiously undocumented.

Both books are helpful and accurate as far as they go, but, as expected when attempting to document thousands of descendents, whole lines may be uncharted, particularly in the instances of who left the Old Dominion for the provinces. Photocopies of both books are now on file at the Texas State Library Genealogy Library.

RECORDS OF IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH, Wiedeville, Washington County, Texas. Volume II. Translated and Published by Dr. Edward C. Breitenkamp and Dr. Jack Autrey Dabbs, at Bryan and Austin, Texas, 1991. Hardbound, ca 8½ x 11"; iv + 260 pp; full-name index; table of contents.

This second volume of the records of Immanuel Lutheran Church translated by Dr. Breitenkamp and Dr. Dabbs (a valued member of Austin Genealogical Society) contains the minutes of Congregational Meetings 1881-1936, followed by records of the Women's Aid Society 1910-1945 and many lists of names in various categories.

Also included are such activities of the church as the 1903 Congregational Constitution, the Sunday School, Home Missions Union, subscribers to church papers, congregational pledges, lists of communicants (some with the number of children), lists of those who performed their duty of excavating graves, etc.

In this beautifully typed book with generous margins, the composers have rendered further assistance to the reader by setting in boldface all proper names occurring in the minutes of the congregational meetings.

The sternly just character of these pioneer members of Immanuel Lutheran Church at Wiedeville is revealed in a resolution they passed in 1880: "... such members who refuse to contribute to the [new] building costs and therefore withdraw or resign, are not to be accepted again elsewhere unless, as restitution, they contribute subsequently twice as much as the other members to the building costs, according to their status (farm owners or renters)."

A three-page "Memorandum" synthesizes the history of this congregation from late 1869 to November 1881. In 1869, "the congregation consisted of the following members: 1 Christian Wiede, 2 Heinrich Wiede, 3 Fr. Kremer, 4 H. Harnes, 5 Joh. Geick, 6 Friedr. Wiese, 7 Friedr. Schulze, 8 Aug. Franke, 9 Friedr. Martins, 10 F. Redecker, 11 Joh. Wiede." [No mention of wives or children] The admission of new members (male) was reported in the minutes.

This book reveals interesting details pertaining to running the school (taught by the pastor), tolling the bell for deceased persons (non-members to pay a dollar for this service), drilling a water well, calling new pastors (which happened frequently), withdrawing from the Texas Synod, digging graves ("each member shall dig by turns"), and the fining of any member who failed to deliver a cartload of wood for use in the church, the parsonage, or the schollhouse.

In 1891 the congregation voted for the pastor to teach the school in English 4½ months and in German 1½ months. There was some disagreement about the language to be used in the church service and the sermon, from time to time.

In the early 1900s the church fell on hard times: financial deficits, congregational meetings adjourned for lack of a quorum, failure of members to show up on congregational workdays, default on their pledges by some members, the need for repairs on the church's property. In 1911 their schoolhouse was sold for $150 to the Wiedeville School District. In 1912 this congregation joined with that of Gay Hill, sharing the pastor's salary.

In 1903 these hard-working, pious people formulated a new constitution, adopting the name "Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran Congregation in Wiedeville." There were 68 communicants (men and women listed separately) named in 1914. In that year, three years before the United States declared war on Germany, the congregation took up collections for the following significant causes: For invalids, widows, and orphans: $5.60; Church building fund: $6.20; District: $10.95; German Russians: $7.60; Youth League: $8.90; Reformation: $8.10; Red Cross for Germany: $37.00.

Several newspaper articles about the 50th anniversary of Immanuel Lutheran Church in 1921 are quoted. Of special interest to genealogists are four pages setting forth the names of members who signed on the first of January 1903, showing when they joined the congregation and when they left. Afterwards, there is less information about each signer, but there are many tables of names elsewhere.

The minutes of the Women's Aid Society are also interesting, especially the meticulously detailed expenditures: 26 cents for two cans of stove polish; $1.65 postage for a box of clothing to New Guinea; $5 (donated by six people) for the "Round Rock electric iron"; $1 for cleaning velvet [church hangings]; $1.28 for 16 dozen paper plates.

In March 1937 the secretary recorded: "And since there was no business to transact, Pastor Hartman gave a talk on (Christ's) passion." Minutes for 29 April 1942 reveal that the Women's Aid Society of College Station had to cancel plans for a joint meeting because of the tire shortage.

Many lists of the members of the Society should be of great interest to genealogists. In the Foreword of this volume and in its predecessor, the translators explain the variations in the spelling of the German names.

As may be inferred from the length of the above, this disinterested reviewer found the book a fascinating chronicle of a small rural community, characteristic of an ethnic settlement which became increasingly American. The translators have donated a copy to the Genealogy Collection of Texas State Library.

THE STORY OF THE EARLY SETTLERS OF STAMFORD, CONNECTICUT, 1641-1700, by Jeanne Majdalany; including Genealogies of Stamford Families of the 17th Century by author and Edith M. Wicks, (c) 1991 by Majdalany. Paper; 5½ x 8½; pp. xi +211; maps, illustrations, appendix, footnotes, bibliography and index. $17.50 + $3 s&h; order #M031 from Heritage Books, Inc., 1540-E Pointer Ridge Place, Suite 300, Bowie MD 20716.

The history of this settlement begins in 1641 when 29 men left Wethersfield, Connecticut to found a village some 75 miles to the southwest on land purchased from the New Haven Colony. They soon changed the Indian names of the area to Stamford, suggesting Lincolnshire or Yorkshire origins for the majority of the men.

Interesting details of the day-to-day tasks of building the village, the dangers and hardships they endured, and their courage are drawn from Stamford Town Meeting Records and a few earlier histories. The effects of events in England and Europe, wars with the Indians, witchcraft trials elsewhere in New England, and other occurrences are clearly visible in the chronicles of Stamford. Careful reading of this book gives one an insight into the early history of almost any New England town.

Each chapter covers about a decade: beginning 1641 to 1649 and ending 1690 to 1700. Nearly all the active men of each period are identified, and the destinations of many who moved away are mentioned. Unlike many histories which name only the officials of the government and wealthiest land owners, this one refers to ~~any~~ in humble stations. The 1701 Tax List includes men taxed for property from four pounds to 148 pounds.

An admirable feature of the index is that it "references all names found in the historical text, as well as buried names found in the genealogies." Thus one can locate all given names under the surname in capital letters with ease.

There are several photographs and sketches of old houses which are identified in the List of Illustrations in the Preface. A truly outstanding feature of this book is a fold-out sheet which contains three plat maps of Stamford at three stages: 1641-1660, 1661-1680 and 1681-1700. Each homelot is numbered and its owner is names. When a lot has had multiple owners in the time period, the successive owners and dates of recording the acquisition are given.

The genealogies of early Stamford families cover about 60 pages and are well documented. The co-author, Edith M. Wicks, is currently president of the Stamford Genealogical Society, and the happy collaboration of historian and genealogist produced a short but detailed biography of the progenitor preceding the condensed statistics of his descendants. Fortunate indeed is the reader who finds ancestors in this book.

Many different spellings of some names, as seen in the original records, are revealed in these genealogies. Anyone with New England ancestors is likely to find collateral relatives in The Early Settlers of Stamford, or at least some vignettes of the kind of life they all shared.

Written in a lively, almost conversational style, the book is heartily recommended by this reviewer.

MORE MUSINGS ABOUT NAMES

Did you ever wonder what ghastly tragedy inspired the name Kilbride? And why would a family want to perpetuate the memory of such an occurrence by assuming the name Kilbride?

Well, take heart, all ye who bear the name Kilbride, Kilpatrick, or the like. It has nothing to do with murder.

The noun kil/kill (pronounced kill) is from the Gaelic cill, derived from the Latin cella, meaning cell. (In Latin, c was pronounced like k. That is why scholars continue to say Keltic although millions of sports-minded people worship "the Seltics." When you hear a choir sing "Gloria in excelsis," they are harking back only to the Italian, not the Latin pronunciation.)

Back to the cell, which may be defined as a small room (as in a monastery or prison) OR as a group of people dedicated to a cause. Just as there have been Communist cells, there were cells of people dedicated to a particular saint, such as St. Patrick or St. Bridget. St. Bride (a variant form), a patron saint of Ireland, chose to remain a virgin and finally went into seclusion in a cell built under a large oak in County Kildare. The name Kilbride was assumed by those who were deeply impressed by her saintly behavior and teachings.

The Oxford Dictionary of English Christian Names says "The cult of St. Brigid (453-523) was very popular in England as well as in Ireland." Modern nicknames include Bridey and Biddy.

"Mr. Hamlet Clowne II was the operator of a ferriferous, mono-controlled excavator in a public works project to provide permanent housing for the worthy citizens of the community."

BAD NEWS!

Postage has gone up on all classes of mail, it seems. Be advised that the US Postal Service will not deliver a 9x12" envelope for 29¢ now. But you don't need a large envelope to send your material for AGS Quarterly. Letter-size pages folded to fit a 9½-inch by 4-inch, 29-cent envelope do not show creases when reproduced in our publication.

Rena by Bess Ferris

Grandmother's house was the first in Oak Cliff to have electric wiring. This achievement was due to her foresight and sense of adventure.

In the early days of electricity, certain homes in neighborhoods were chosen to be demonstrators. My grandmother read in the newspaper that her section of Dallas was next for this advanced technology, and volunteers were asked to call the office to make arrangements for their homes to be supplied with the proper wiring. Grandmother was among the first in line, and the first in Oak Cliff, so she got her wish.

The one room which was chosen by the electric company was the front room of the house, which was also Grandmother's and Granddaddy's bedroom. Streams of gaping people came at all hours of the evening to see this marvelous contraption hanging from a single string in the middle of the room. We children were fascinated, and fought for the pleasure of pulling the chain that turned a light bulb into a light. Grandmother was the enthusiastic saleslady who gave lectures on the advantages of owning an electric light.

But there were problems. No one could go to bed until the last visitor left. Granddaddy wasn't too happy over the situation, but solved the problem by taking a mattress out to the back porch, and there he slept for the duration of the six weeks period of sales.

Grandmother later had the entire house wired for electricity.

The author is my aunt and this section is excerpted from an essay she sent to me.

Grandmother was Mary Irene Reaves, called Rena, born 7 August 1878 in Milam County, TX. She married William Sylvanus Ross 22 December 1895. She died in San Angelo, Tom Green, TX 29 August 1975 and is buried in Arlington, TX (Parkdale).

A compiled descendant chart is in the Vertical Files of the Texas State Library under her parent's names, Joseph Allen Reaves and Samantha Caldonia Johnson.

I have been fortunate recently to enjoy these remembrances of earlier times. Here they are for you, too.

Milam County, c 1913
by Carlton Norris

We all lived such very simple lives in those days. We tilled the soil with horses and mules; we had no telephones; no way to get around except by horse or foot or train. The church building doubled as the school house.

My father got very little schooling in the woods of Tennessee. Back in those days, they only had school about three months out of the year, and people didn't think it was all that important to get an education. He was self-educated from reading, and was well-versed in the Bible.

We lived in the Little River bottom of Milam County, near Davilla, raising hogs and cattle and crops. When I was going on five, there was a flood. The water got up 26 inches deep on the bottom floor of our house. We had an upstairs and plenty of groceries. I remember my dad and Uncle Quint wading around in the water, trying to tend to the stock.

Great Grandma Johnson was about the calmest person there. She would crack pecans for us kids and tell us stories. She said the Good Lord would take care of us, and He did! There were no casualties. They took us out of there in a boat, from the window, to high ground. My two older brothers, Claude and Albert left first, with two men, but their boat took on water, and they had to get up in a tree for a time. They weren't too far from Aunt Lillie's house, and saw the door wash open, and some things floated out. She later chided them for not getting down and shutting the door.

We went to Aunt Lizzie and Uncle Rufe's house because it was at the top of a hill. Water was all around, like an island. I went to sleep on the way there and don't remember getting out of the boat, nor do I remember how long the flood lasted.

We had some very enjoyable times back there. I really enjoyed all those years we were there.

Carleton Norris was born 11 Feb 1909, and lives in Houston.. He is one of my Reaves kin. His father was James Albert Norris, and mother was Samantha Ann Reaves.

Part I: A BROCKWAY ODYSSEY FROM VERMONT TO TEXAS

Born in St. Johnsbury, Vermont in August 1822, William Brockway was the second son of Harris and Sally Gary Brockway. Growing up on the family's small farm, he probably helped with the chores and perhaps attended school. When he became a young man in his twenties, it appears that William decided to leave home and seek to make a livelihood elsewhere.

By 1854, William was in Gold Hill, North Carolina, and on November 7 was married to Mary Ann McDaniel. A daughter born to them in June, 1856, was named "Charlotte Augusta," the names of William's two sisters back in St. Johnsbury.

The census of 1860 shows William and his family living on a farm in Iuka, Mississippi (Tishomingo Co.) The household now included a son named George, the mother-in-law (Mrs. McDaniel), and several hired hands. Three other children were born during the years in Mississippi.

After the Civil War, the family migrated further west and settled near Dallas in Rockwall Co., Texas, where my grandfather, Horace Texas Brockway, was born in September, 1869.

At the time of the 1880 census, the family was living in Sulphur Springs in nearby Hopkins Co. on a dairy farm with six children at home. The oldest daughter, "Gustie," was now married and had a 4 year old son, Julius Holt. Both parents died a few years later, William in May, 1886, at the age of 64; and Mary Ann in July, 1885, at age 45. They are buried in Heath Cemetery, Rockwall Co., Texas.

The main legacy of that one Brockway has been the scores of descendants down through the ensuing years, many of whom bear the Brockway name.

ADDITIONAL NOTE; Another son of Harris Brockway who left Vermont was Charles, who in 1880 was living in Nashville, TN, (Davidson Co.) with wife Anna and children Augusta, Rebecca, and Charles.

* I would be interested in hearing from other descendants of Harris Brockway of St. Johnsbury, 1793-1870.

Part II: AN ODYSSEY TO TRACE MY BROCKWAY ROOTS
by Ghita Brockway Carter

I am a great-gr granddaughter of William Brockway who came to Texas about 1869. Horace, the first child born in Texas, was my grandfather. "Papa" used to tell me that his father came to Texas from "Iukey, Mississippi," and before that had come from North Carolina. Evidently, Horace did not know that his father originally left from Vermont.

My interest in knowing more about my Brockway roots began in college in 1949 when a professor assigned a project to compile a simple family tree, listing names, dates, and origins of our various ancestors.

Down through the years, I continued to puzzle over how the unusual name of Brockway arrived in Texas. In the 1970's, I began to do research at the Clayton Genealogical Library in Houston, but was never able to bridge the gap between my name and the early Brockways in Connecticut.

In 1978, our daughter, Julie, while attending Boston University, visited the New England Genealogical Society Library and discovered the Brockway Family Genealogy, compiled by Florence Brockway. Among the myriad of "William Brockways," Julie found one with an August, 1822 birthdate corresponding to that of my ancestor. This William was a son of Harris Brockway of St. Johnsbury, Vt., a 6th generation descendant of Wolston. In June, 1978, my husband, Julie, and I, armed with that small clue, drove to St. Johnsbury. We began our search at the public library where a morning of effort proved fruitless. On the way to lunch, we happened to pass the Town Clerk's office and decided to stop there. I was immediately allowed access to a treasure trove of small drawers, filled with wonderful files of numerous records. In a very short while, I discovered that when Harris Brockway's will was probated, his son William Brockway of Rockwall, Texas, received a share of his estate. At last, the link had been made!

On the outskirts of town in the St. Johnsbury Center Cemetery, we found a Brockway family plot where many family members are buried: Harris and Sally (William's parents); William W. and Abiah (5th generation--Harris' parents who came from Surry, N.H.); Harris, Jr., Romeo, and Horace E. (brothers of my William); plus several other relatives.

At the Caledonia County Courthouse, we were able to personally examine the will of Harris Brockway, which was made shortly before his death on Nov. 12, 1870. There were a total of 14 documents in the file with the will. One interesting item was for charges at "C.B. Weeks & Co.," including such staples as matches, maple sugar, flannel, and "1 Botl. Pain Killer, .25". Those two days of discovery in St. Johnsbury were the most exciting and productive ones I've spent in many years of tracing my heritage.

In 1984, I made another pilgrimage, this time to Old Lyme to visit many of the local cemeteries and to see first-hand the area where Wolston and his descendants first lived.

Part III: MY ODYSSEY CONTINUES, 1991
by Ghita Brockway Carter (9th generation descendant of Wolston Brockway)

In the fall of 1990, my sister, Ruthanne Brockway, happened to pick up a copy of "Yankee Magazine" and spotted an ad concerning descendants of Wolston Brockway and a possible reunion. She contacted John Brockway of Pawling, N.Y., who set this nationwide reunion for April 6, 1991, in Lyme, CT, where our original ancestor settled in 1663.

After Ruthanne and my husband and I made plans to attend, a cousin from San Diego, Pat Byrd, who is also an avid genealogist, decided to join us. We wanted to make this a week of exploration by retracing other areas where our ancestors migrated. After our flights converged in Hartford, CT, we drove to St. Johnsbury, VT, where we visited cemeteries, delved into Municipal Office records, and at the Caledonia Co. Courthouse, got copies of the wills of William Brockway who died in 1818 and Harris Brockway, 1870. Going back even earlier, we next drove to Keene, NH, where in the Cheshire Co. Courthouse, we examined with awe the fragile 1789 will of our 3rd generation Wolston. Nearby, in the tiny village of Surry, we found the ancient slate gravestone of this Wolston, 1711-1789.

By April 6th, we had arrived in Lyme for this first ever reunion of descendants of the Wolston who arrived in 1663 to settle in the New World. John Brockway had planned well with a packet of information, displays of pictures and other data, and many ways to share during the day. Speakers included a Lyme resident who lives at Brockway's Ferry and a local historian/author. Special order T-shirts were available and we posed for a group photo at the end of the day. About 75-80 people were able to attend with many more sending responses and showing interest. That evening, in Old Saybrooke, the group had dinner at the "Dock and Dine" Restaurant on the shore of the Connecticut River, continuing to share our mutual heritage.

On Sunday, we attended services at the First Congregational Church and enjoyed meeting local residents. That afternoon, the reunion group made a tour of the Duck River, Joshuatown, and Hamburg Cove Cemeteries, as well as the Brockway's Ferry area, where John continued to point out historical landmarks and read from early history. Early Brockways once had a shipyard here, and for many years, operated a ferry across the Connecticut River.

On Monday, we had time for a trip to the Lyme Library and last glimpses of the yellow forsythia in bloom everywhere as we drove to Hartford for our departure after a week of memorable discovery and camaraderie as we shared in the joy of family history. Besides the memories, the many pictures and documents to process and organize will keep me busy for some time!

This year I have also learned of the "Wolston Brockway Information Exchange," a newsletter printed by Walter Brockway of Miami, FL, which makes it possible to share information and family history. In addition, Stephen Brockway of Council Bluffs, IA is serving as the archivist for the family, compiling computer files for all data that is sent to him. Since he is a Mormon and a very dedicated, competent person, we are assured of excellent record-keeping.

In the following sections and pages, I am going to tell you what I know--plus what I think--about certain persons and families that make up my ancestry. I will also mention some searchers for some of the same people--either deceased or currently "into the ancestral chase".

The last page of this entry will be my current Ahnentafel Chart, as best I can put it together for a publication such as this.

I wrote a few pages last year on the HUNT branch of my ancestry, and will start this with some HUNT-related comments.

I still need help in resolving the connection between my THOMAS HUNT, of Little Creek; Franklin Co. NC and the older HUNT line of WILLIAM HUNT(T) of Isle of Wight Co. VA. There was another THOMAS HUNT in the GRANVILLE/FRANKLIN CO. NC area at the same time as my ancestor, who lived "up the river", meaning (I think) the TARR River. The time of all these Hunts was the mid-1700's. My Thomas was born about 1720--I don't know where--and died about 1791 in Franklin Co. NC.

If anyone is doing any research on the HARPER lines of Gibson Co. TN, I would appreciate a call. The only thing I know about my grandmother is her name and the date she married my grandfather. Her name was LOLLIE F. HARPER, and she married JAMES GRANVILLE HUNT on 26 NOV 1891, in Gibson Co. TN. There are no Hunts left to ask of this, and there were many Harpers in the area in the late 1800's.

One of my later ancestors was a GAY. NANCY GAY, daughter of JOHN GAY of Franklin Co. NC, married ELLERY HARDY HUNT in NC, Jan. 1803. They then moved on to Sumner/Wilson Co. TN, then to Gibson Co. TN. There were many GAYs in the early VA Tidewater counties, and later in the Bertie/Edgecombe/Granville/Franklin/Nash Co. NC area. I would like to establish the ancestry of my JOHN GAY, born about 1753 in NC, and died about Dec 1808 in Franklin Co. NC. His son, also JOHN GAY, was also a Gibson Co. TN settler, moving along with the HUNT (and other) families into Middle TN, then West TN. The second John Gay's descendants moved on to Graham/Olney Texas, I think, along with some of the HUNT lineage.

Incidentally, some of my common TN HUNT line moved to Hallsville and Gladewater TX--brothers of those who moved to Olney.

The early families moved quite often in groups. I believe that several of my lines moved from VA to NC to TN, almost in lock-step with each other. Another of my lines is the TAYLOR one. One of my ancestors was MILES CHRISTOPHER TAYLOR, born AUG 1827, in TN. It is possible he was even born in Gibson Co. TN, but it is more likely he was born in Sumner/Wilson/Robertson Co TN. I think his family moved with the HUNT/GAY/THOMAS/MASSEY/WEBB/BABB groups as they migrated on the westward march. It is believed by some of my cousins that one of my early relatives married a SARAH TAYLOR, daughter of a LABAN TAYLOR of Franklin Co. NC, which could be an earlier part of my Taylor line.

Again, back in old NC, the Revolutionary War was helped by my BOOTH ancestry. The records show GEORGE CONWAY BOOTH(E) as a patriot, and dweller of WARREN Co. NC in later years. His son SAMUEL BOOTH, was born in NC about 1797, but he moved on to Wilson Co. TN, and died in Gibson Co. TN--I don't know when. I would like to know of some other BOOTH(E) searchers, and I'd bet there are some. I know a lot of the later year ones moved to TX, even to Round Rock and Taylor, etc.

Samuel Booth married a woman named SARAH LOUISA GRAVES, who, I think, was born about 1811, in Wilson Co. TN. She died in Jan 1860, in my old Gibson Co. TN area. Are there any GRAVES searchers out there who might have some connections back to early Middle TN? This is the only GRAVES contact I have made so far.

Samuel Booth had a daughter named SARAH LOUISA, who married my near-in MAYFIELD ancestor, JOHN NICHOLAS MAYFIELD. His letters back home to his young wife during the Civil War are currently being featured in the Mid-West TN Genealogical Society Quarterly Publication. Anyway, he is the descendant of JAMES MAYFIELD (1st), who was born about 1725, location unknown, and died in APR 1780, DAVIDSON Co. NC/TN. There have been several articles in books on old southern families that have included the James Mayfield line, but most of us would like to get some very early information.

James Mayfield (1st) had a son named ISAAC MAYFIELD, and ISAAC's son was ELIAS MAYFIELD. Elias married JANE (JENNY) FLEMING, the daughter of RALPH FLEMING and HANNAH BOYD. Ralph Fleming married Hannah about 13 APR 1791, in Davidson Co. NC/TN, and died about 1821 in Williamson Co. TN. His last name has been spelled FLEMMON, but I believe the correct way is FLEMING. HANNAH BOYD died before 1803.

Backing up a bit, to my TAYLOR line--MILES TAYLOR married MARTHA ANN MEREDITH in 1858, in Gibson Co. TN. Martha Ann's father was RILEY MEREDITH, son of FREDERICK MEREDITH and MARY FULTON. It has been told to me by Mr. Ralph Walker of Mansfield, TX, that Frederick was born about 1770 in NC, and married Mary Fulton about 1800, Anderson Co. TN, and he died about 1826 in Wayne Co. TN. Any MEREDITH info. around?

Again, according to Mr. Walker, MARY FULTON's line goes back to the old country (Ireland). Samuel FULTON, Sr., we think, was born in Londonderry IRELAND about 1700 and died about 1760 in LANCASTER Co. PA. Mary's subsequent lineage was Samuel Fulton, Jr. (Lancaster Co. PA, 1725-?) and JOHN FULTON, born about 1747, died 18 Feb 1788, in Pulaski Co. VA. Ralph Walker and I would like very much to talk to other MEREDITH and FULTON seekers.

There are other family names listed on the Ahnentafel page that I haven't talked about here. If you see some common interest there, please get in touch. I KNOW there were any number of old VA/NC HUNT families who migrated on to TX, many of them via TN, but also a lot from GA. The same is true for GAY.

My ALLEN line I am currently working out with "cousins" in TN. I am interested in the ALLENS who have originated in Gibson Co. There also some FITZGERALD lines mixed in with them, as well!

Editor's Note: Apparently the Henegars place the month before the day in their dates, but one cannot be sure when people use figures instead of words for months. This is especially dangerous in Mrs. Henegar's narrative, as she has no day higher than 11, which could be a month or a day. Most printed forms use day - month - year. AGS Quarterly prefers the three-letter abbreviations for months.

Lois Catherine SPRACHER HENEGAR 8520 Brookfield Dr. Austin TX 78758

Last year, my first year of retirement, gave me time to create a book of genealogy on my family. This was from many notes and records that my mother had enthusiastically preserved. I am sorry that I did not have time or take time to get more involved while she lived, so that I could ask more questions.

The page to the right is my ancestor chart; I have more names in my Mother's family; ie:

Sarah Dickens' mother was Mary Wiles Washington, b 1804 in Washington County, Ga. (her mother's name was also Sarah) Newton B Lynn's parents were William Newton Lynn b 8-6-1784 in Warren County, Ga.; his mother was Mary West b 8-11-1786 in Washington County, Ga.

William N. Lynn was a Jr.; his dad came to America in about 1761 from Ireland and lived near Redstone Creek, Pa. Two other brothers came too; Andrew and James.

Lynn descendents other than Godwin; are Lockhart, Campbell, Phillips, Bradley. From the Godwin line, other than on my chart; Foreman, Turner, Trout, Evans, Solomon, Scrivner, Roberts, Dunn. Next generation names are Hamor. Caves, Rogers, Poston, Pippin, Rickman, Blankenship, Woody, Thorn, Spough, Shipp, McNellis, Crist, Robbins, Jenkins, Rudd, Potashnick, Tallant, Garrett, Hurst, Pemberton. *Next group Taylor, Henegar, Cline, White, Furr, Morris, Myers, Parnell, Lee, Warren, King, Riley, Walker, Jones, Butler, Morrow, Stallcup, Akin, Jeter, Saylor, Foust.

Spracher descendents are Bevill, Walker, Tuberville, Smith, Atchley, Brendle; next generation, Covington, Kizer, Strahan, Saner, Crow, Bradford, Sanks, Watson, Deal, Tomberlin, Harmer Freeman, McQuiddy, Short, Bean, Cline and Henegar. Some of those shown above after the * would be Spracher descendents. The Lynns and Godwins came to north Texas from Alabama, the last residence there was in Butler County. They were farmers in Collin County, many are buried at the Princeton Cemetery.

The Sprachers came to Texas from Tazewell County, Virginia, Burkes Garden area in about 1875, we think. My Grandpa's family were in a wagon train of about 50 wagons; coming to Texas for farm work advertised by circulars about available work after the slaves were freed. Many Baughs, Ritters, and Sprachers are buried in the cemetery in Burkes Garden, A very beautiful place. The Sprachers settled in Red River County, Tx where my father was born. I grew up in Choctaw County Oklahoma.

Genealogy Research is a disease and I think I have a severe case, if anyone has information to share. Would be happy to discuss the names and what information I have about them.

Thanks to our society staff for the great job they all do for us, we DO appreciate you all.

AUSTIN GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY
Ancestor Listing

Harold "Hal" E. HENEGAR 8520 Brookfield Drive, Austin TX 78758

George Washington Henegar's father was Hiram, 1802-1836

Ten years ago my ancestral families' descendents began an annual REUNION, in Alabama where my grandfather was born. The second year Lois and I attended the occasion, WOW! We located my grand parents marriage licence in Fort Payne, Alabama, courthouse of the county of DeKalb. My interest was aroused as to who was in my past and why my grandfather left Alabama and came to Bell County Texas, where my father was born.

This reunion is held in the City Park at the town of Henager the third weekend of July. We have had some people from many states attend. We have met many fine family members and have made many friends of our family members. Before the reunions one cousin had already begun compiling records about all the family; we have a lovely book about seven generations of the Henegar clans.

Since this book was published in 1986 more information has been learned. We have learned that Hiram has at least two other brothers, one named Moses; and some of his descendents have attended the reunions.

A very interesting fact is that my Grandmother Henegar was a Driskill. Colonel Driskill who was founder and builder of our famous Driskill Hotel, here in Austin, was her Uncle.

My mother's family lived near Waco, near Leroy where she and several of the children were born. Her dad, Peter German was a blacksmith. The family moved to Choctaw County, Oklahoma between 1910 and 1914. That is where I was brought up.

My grandpa Henegar moved his family to Indian Territory after 1904 but before 1907. They also settled in Choctaw County. Grandpa was a farmer, taught school in early years and sold Watkins products in latter years.

Lois and I attended Betty Kaiser's class last spring about the process and possibilities of family research. That was a great experience, made new friends and learned that we have much more work to do on our family records.

We have a copy of "The Henegar Heritage" book which we want to give to the Society, to be placed in the state library.

We do appreciate the efforts of all who keep the society up to date and all the good programs provided. The workers in each area do a great job. Thanks.

Moved to Mannheim, Germany then to Canterbury, England with other Huguenot refugees, Ar. New Amsterdam 26 Apr 1660 in "Gilded Otter" with his wife and three children and his daughter Maria and her husband Antoni CRISPELL. Two of his children and Maria and her child (1819) were among those taken hostage by the Indians after the Esopus Massacre of 7 Jun 1663. The Indians hoped to exchange them for some of their chiefs who had been sold into slavery in Curacao by Peter Stuyvesant. While rescuing the hostages the settlers first noticed the area that would latter become New Paltz.

Hugh FREER Sr. and Louis BEVIER Sr. were among the twelve patentees of New Paltz. After learning from earlier mistakes they purchased land from the Indians for a price including a mare and stallion, 40 kettles, 60 blankets, 100 needles and much more while allowing the Indians free access for hunting and fishing so were allowed to live in peace. The stone houses built by the Freers, Beviers and other French Huguenot settlers of New Paltz may still be visited during the summer months.

Johnson, Thomas B. Harris who married Nancy Swenney and James M. Harris who married Fanny Quick. It seems that Sater Harris got into quite a lot of trouble with the law, he apparantly killed a deputys son and a lot of other problems so we have been told.

Barbara L. Goudreau - (512) 454-7088

PURPOSE: Austin Genealogical Society was organized in 1960 as a non-profit corporation chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect and preserve genealogical and historical information about the people of Texas, particularly pertaining to the City of Austin and to Travis and surrounding counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records of genealogical interest. Gifts and bequests to AGS are tax-deductible.

MEMBERSHIP is open to all upon payment of annual dues: $12 per individual, or family membership at $14 for two in same household, entitling them to one copy of each Quarterly and Newsletter, as well as two pages apiece (a total of four pages for $14 whether one or two persons submit listings) in the Ancestor Listing Issue (June).

DUES ARE PAYABLE on or before JANUARY FIRST for the ensuing year. If dues are not received by February First, the name must be dropped from mailing list. If membership is reinstated later and quarterlies & newsletters have to be mailed individually, postage must be charged. (Back quarterlies supplied IF available - very few extras are printed. Send payments to AGS Treasurer, Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507.

MISSING COPIES. If your Quarterly does not reach you by the 10th of April, July, October or December, notify the Society at Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507 (but Exchange Quarterly Chairmen should use TEXAS STATE LIBRARY address given on inside front cover). Members who fail to give AGS sufficient advance notice of address changes will be responsible for the postal fee for returned copies and for re mailing the copy at individual rather than bulk mailing rates.

MEETINGS of the general membership begin at 7:30 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month except August and December. HOWEVER, members are encouraged to come at 6:30 to socialize with each other. The Board of Directors meets at 6:30 in a separate room. MEETING PLACE: Room 12, First Baptist Church, 901 Trinity. Enter on the east side - Neches Street. Free parking in the lot south of the church, 9th & Trinity. VISITORS ARE WELCOME.

AGS QUARTERLY is issued about the middle of March, June, September and November. Contributions are welcome, subject to editing to conform to our style. Contributor is responsible for accuracy and any copyright infringement. Send directly to Editor.

BOOK REVIEW POLICY. Books cannot be reviewed in AGSQ on the basis of advertising alone. If a Review Copy is received by the Editor at 2202 W. 10, Austin TX 78703 by the First of February, May, August or October, it will be reviewed in the next Quarterly (provided it is on an appropriate subject). It will then be placed in the Genealogy Collection of Texas State Library, available to all patrons.

ANCESTOR LISTING PAGES must reach Editor at above address by the TENTH OF MAY. They must be BLACK and LEGIBLE, whether typed, hand-printed, computer printout, or in superior calligraphy. Months must be SPELLED or abbreviated, NOT figures. Preferred form for dates: day, month, year. Allow space for binding at inner margins of facing pages; i.e., your first page will be a left-hand page. Carefully check horizontal pages (reading in the 11-inch direction). Otherwise, the Editor has to position some upside down to prevent loss of data in the punching-stapling process. NO 8½x14 sheets!

You may submit Lineage or Family Group charts, Ahnentafel, narratives, cemetery inscriptions, Bible records, census data, queries, or a combination of forms, just so it is not under copyright. Be sure to proofread your material for accuracy and clarity so we won't be guilty of disseminating faulty data. Put name & address on each page in legible form (NOT blind embossed). Consult a recent issue of AGSQ for suggestions.

REMEMBER: $12 membership entitles you to two facing pages in Ancestor Issue; $14 membership (one person or two) gives you four facing pages.

DEADLINES for everything except book reviews : 10th of February, May, August and October. Material sent to AGS P.O. box may or may not reach Editor in time.
