Entree

This is the issue of Quarterly each year in which members of AGS have an opportunity to let our readers know what we are working on and especially the names we are dealing with. There is no genealogist who is not faced with a number of information gaps. We give our members a chance to publicize their information, including the dead ends (appropriate term), not only to brag a little if they want, but also as a quest for someone out there who just might have at least a bit of what they are seeking. As I've said before, this journal has an extensive mailing list and finds its way into many societies and libraries around the country. Maybe it's like playing the Texas Lottery but I am hoping there will be some lucky hits this year.

We have over 60 pages of genealogy contributed by 23 of our members, starting on Page 46. To those members who sent information in, I extend many thanks for your time and effort. I also appreciate the excellent overall quality of the material--it took a minimum of editing to make it printer-ready and that's always a boon for an editor.

The AGS Board of Directors regrets that Helen Rugeley has found it necessary to resign from the Board. Helen was editor of these pages for many years preceding me, and remained as our Book Review Editor. There is probably no one who has contributed more in countless ways to genealogy and to AGS through the years and we will miss her expertise, her broad knowledge of genealogy, particularly in the central Texas area, and her superb command of the English language.

But we're not losing her completely. Helen has graciously agreed to continue reviewing books for the Quarterly, something she has a unique and most enjoyable knack for doing. I am very happy about this. Thank you, Helen, not only for what you have already done but for what you will continue to do.

The AGS Annual Seminar approaches. It is scheduled for Saturday, 14 August 1993 at the Terrace, 200 Academy Drive, Austin, starting at 8:00 a.m. Mr Curt B. Witcher of the Allen County Public Library, Fort Wayne IN is our lecturer. Members will be mailed a flyer and application this month. For your convenience, an application form is located on Page 110, along with further information.

The contribution form for the Gray Golden Memorial Fund will be included in the September issue of the Quarterly; if you need a form, please refer back to the March issue.

FOR SALE:

EMIGRATION LISTS

The speaker for this year's AGS Seminar (August 14) will be Curt B. Witcher of the Allen County Public Library in Ft. Wayne, Indiana. One of Mr. Witcher's topics is "Immigration and Passenger Lists." This is a topic of great interest to most researchers in this country.

Some of the overlooked records in this area are the emigration lists from Copenhagen, Denmark and from Hamburg, Germany. These records list the people leaving these ports for other destinations, very often the United States. The Copenhagen records are accessed in the Locality Catalog microfiche under DENMARK-KOBENHAVEN-KOBENHAVN-Emigration and Immigration. This record of emigrants (Regester over udvandrerne) covers the years 1869-1911. The description of the record states: "Alphabetical lists of emigrants who emigrated from a port in Denmark (direct) and from ports of other countries as England and Germany (indirect)." A researcher should look at this record for emigrating Scandinavians in particular, but also for Germans.

There are 17 rolls of microfilm for the New York passenger lists for 1870. There is one roll of direct and one roll of indirect for Copenhagen emigrants in 1870. This record could save you some time in searching for your immigrant when you know the year of entry into the United States, but not the exact date.

The Hamburg passenger lists (Auswanderlisten) cover the years 1850-1934. These records are accessed in the Locality Catalog microfiche under HAMBURG-HAMBURG-Emigration and Immigration. The direct list names people who left Hamburg and went directly to their destination. The indirect records are of emigrants who stopped in European or British ports before sailing to their destination. In 1870 the direct and the indirect records are each on one roll of microfilm.

When you look at the Locality Catalog microfiche to find the film numbers for these records, be sure to check other items under "Emigration and Immigration", such as passport applications.

Book Review

MoSGA 4-GENERATION CHARTS,
Vols. II through V

published by Missouri State Genealogical Association, Box 833, Columbia MO 65205-0833; $12 each volume; 200 pages each; 11 x 8½"; paperbound.

Missouri State Genealogical Association has one of the most impressive lists of publications produced by a genealogical society that this reviewer has ever seen. Its annual journal (four issues per volume) dates back to 1981; also offered are small records pertaining to 19 counties, plus an Index to French and Spanish Land Grants Recorded in Registers of Land Titles in Missouri; and two editions of Current Missouri Counties' Genealogical Resources.

The four volumes sent to be reviewed, MoSGA 4-Generation Charts, were published 1982 through 1991, and their covers (although of different pastel colored stock) bear the same attractive design. The MoSGA logo consists of an outline map of Missouri inside a circle containing the association's full name. Outside the circle are compass points aimed at the directions N, E, S, and W. Below that is the slogan "IN THE CENTER," referring to the state and perhaps their association as well.

Volume IV is spiral-bound and lacks an introductory page. Each volume contains 200 four-generation charts expertly and uniformly typed on the association's own charts bearing its logo in the first column. (There is one exception: MoSGA must have lost the services of its expert typist, for the fifth volume does contain some charts not filled in by that typewriter, as well as some that were hand-printed but on the whole quite legible.)

The name and address of the submitter appear at the lower left of each chart, the charts being arranged according to the membership number of the person who contributed it. There are 15 ancestors per chart, which read in the 11-inch direction of the pages (landscape).

A very legible surname index precedes the charts and is keyed to page numbers. Many names have only one entry; Smith has an average of 15 entries.

Since Missouri was a point of departure for so many pioneers going north and west, this collection of ancestor charts should be fertile ground for research. Among the early settlers in this area (sometimes called "the Mother of the West") were the French, fur trappers and traders (e.g., Daniel Boone), farmers, stock men, miners, and so on. Browsing through these attractive charts should be rewarding for many ancestor hunters who will find them in the Genealogy Collection at Texas State Library in Austin.

ANCESTOR LISTINGS

AGS members

The following pages contain the pedigree sheets, family charts, and other genealogical information contributed by AGS members, as is customary in the June issue of this Quarterly. The information presented is reproduced as received, with no editing except for sizing adjustments where necessary. The Editor is pleased to present this material, knowing that it represents untold hours of effort--studying, searching, traveling, querying. No doubt every genealogical tool known has been used in one way or another. We extend thanks to every member who contributed, and sincerely hope that there will be many helpful information exchanges resulting from these contributions.

Names of those members contributing are as follows:

OBITUARY

Joseph G. Wheat

News has been received of the death of Dr. Joseph G. Wheat at Minneapolis, Minn., on January 20, 1916, where he, together with Mrs. Wheat had been for some time visiting with their son, Dr. Fred C. Wheat and their daughter Mrs. B. H. Foster.

Dr. and Mrs. Wheat, together with several members of the family made their home in Mount Vernon, from the year 1896 until about two years ago, when the family home was sold to Mrs. Miller.

Before coming to Mount Vernon, Dr. Wheat had been engaged in the active practice of his profession as a physician and surgeon in other parts of the state for about thirty-five years. For about eleven years prior to their removal to Mount Vernon, the family lived at Inwood, Lyon County, where Dr. Wheat not only practiced medicine, but was the owner of a drug store as well. For in addition to being a physician and surgeon, he was a pharmacist and was interested in the drug business during the greater part of his life.

Dr. Wheat was a veteran of the Civil War, and has a very creditable war record. He enlisted first in the 4th Ohio Cavalry, with which he served for six months. Being taken ill and hope of his recovery despaired of, he was discharged and sent home to die, but within a few months recovered sufficiently to re-enlist, which he did in the 104th Illinois Infantry as a drummer boy. He selected this service because he had not yet fully recovered his health and his work as a musician would not subject him to the exposures of guard duty. He soon rose to the position of chief musician of the regiment, which position he continued to hold until the close of the war. In spite, however, of the fact that his duties did not require him to see active service in battle, whenever occasion offered, he secured a musket and took part in the active fighting, and was engaged in several important battles and skirmishes, including Shiloh, Chattanooga Mountain and Atlanta. He was wounded while engaging in a skirmish at Fort Henry by a gun shot wound through the leg which caused him to be sent home on a three months furlough. He later rejoined his regiment and along with his regiment was finally captured and confined for six months in Libby Prison, from which he was finally released in an almost starved condition.

Dr. Wheat was always interested in every work that looked toward the bettering of the moral and religious character of the community in which he lived. He was not only always found on the right side of every moral question but was unfaltering in his devotion to duty and had the courage of his convictions.

Joseph G. Wheat was born in Jay County, Indiana, August 29, 1840. He was married to Mary Eleanor McCoy August 3, 1865 at Tonica, LaSalle County, Ill. There were born of this marriage [sic] nine children, three daughters and six sons, all of whom, together with Mrs. Wheat survive him. The names of the children are as follows: Eva M. Foster, St. Paul, Minn.; Laura E. Foster, Mount Vernon, Iowa; Dr. Fred C. Wheat, Minneapolis, Minn.; Benjamin P. Wheat, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.; Albert J. Wheat, Humboldt, Iowa; George Guy Wheat, Cambridge, Mass.; LeRoy H. Wheat, Sioux City, Iowa; John R. Wheat, Berkley, Cal.; and Bessie E. Shaw, Des Moines, Iowa.

Until the death of Dr. Wheat, the family record was remarkable for continuity. On August 3, 1915, Dr. and Mrs. Wheat celebrated their golden wedding in Minneapolis, surrounded by many of their children and other descendants. In addition to raising a death [sic; some misprint here], there were four daughters-in-law, three sons-in-law, nineteen grandchildren, five great grandchildren, and the husband of one grandchild and the wife of another, making a family circle of forty-four without a death until the passing away of Dr. Wheat.

Mrs. W. H. Foster is the only member of the family at present living in Mount Vernon, although four of the Wheat boys in the family are alumni of Cornell College, Fred C., and Benjamin P. Wheat graduating with the class of 1904, Albert J. and G. G. with the class of 1??? [unreadable], in addition to ? [unreadable]. ???y H., John R., and Bessie Shaw were at one time students in the college, where they will be well remembered.

Dr. Joseph Gillit Wheat was my Great-grandfather.

The following is a transcript of a front page article in the April 2, 1919 Mount Vernon Record, Mount Vernon, Iowa.

MARRIED

Bair-Foster

The W. H. Bair and W. H. Foster families, two well known and highly respected families were closely united by the marriage of Miss Mae Rosetta Bair and Floyd Percy Foster, Wednesday, March 26, at 5 o'clock in the town residence of the bride's parents, 615 North Seventh Street. Dr. W. C. Keeler officiated using the ring service. The whole affair was a very pretty home wedding.

The ceremony was performed beneath an artistic arch which spanned the doorway between the dining and the living rooms, the lattice work being entwined with sprays of arborvita with beautiful, large deep pink rosebuds distributed effectively here and there, an appropriate white wedding bell being suspended from the center.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Laura Waters of Marengo, accompanied by Fred Foster at the piano and Miss Eleanor Current in a violin obligato, sang "I Love you Truly", and "Fairest in His Garden, God Gave Me You." Miss Waters then played the Wedding March as the wedding party descended the stairs which had been decorated with pink and white ribbons with a ribbon gateway presided over by the groom's sister, Miss Ruth, who opened the gateway through which Miss Waneta Keve and Fred Foster, brother of the groom, first passed, stepping aside to let the bride and groom followed by Dr. Keeler pass to the appointed place for the ceremony.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white georgette and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses; the bride's maid wore a dainty white voile and she also carried American Beauty roses.

After congratulations, the company of thirty four were served, from one large and six small tables on which the color, scheme of green and white and pink was continued, to a delicious five course dinner by the Misses Lucia Fordyce and Edna Windenberg as caterers, assisted by the Misses Elva Fordyce, Ruth Bair and Julia Field as waitresses.

The display of numerous well-chosen gifts indicated the high favor in which the young couple are held by their friends and relatives. After dinner the company lingered putting in the time with the newly married young couple until they started for the 10:20 car for Cedar Rapids, returning the next evening.

Mrs. Foster left her junior year in college to take up this program for the rest of her life. She has majored in Domestic Science while in Cornell and with her training in school, in her home, in church activities where she has assumed definite responsibilities, and her excellent health and fine spirit, she is fitted to become an ideal helpmate for her young husband.

Mr. Foster was a graduate of High School two years ago and has been serving in the navy since early in 1917, in which service he ranked well. He passed through some of the most notable activities of our navy during the present war. He has been known as an industrious, trustworthy, ambitious young man of clean habits.

The young couple have already taken up their work on the W. H. Bair farm south of town, which Mr. Foster has rented. Their at home card give April 10 as the date after which they will receive their friends.

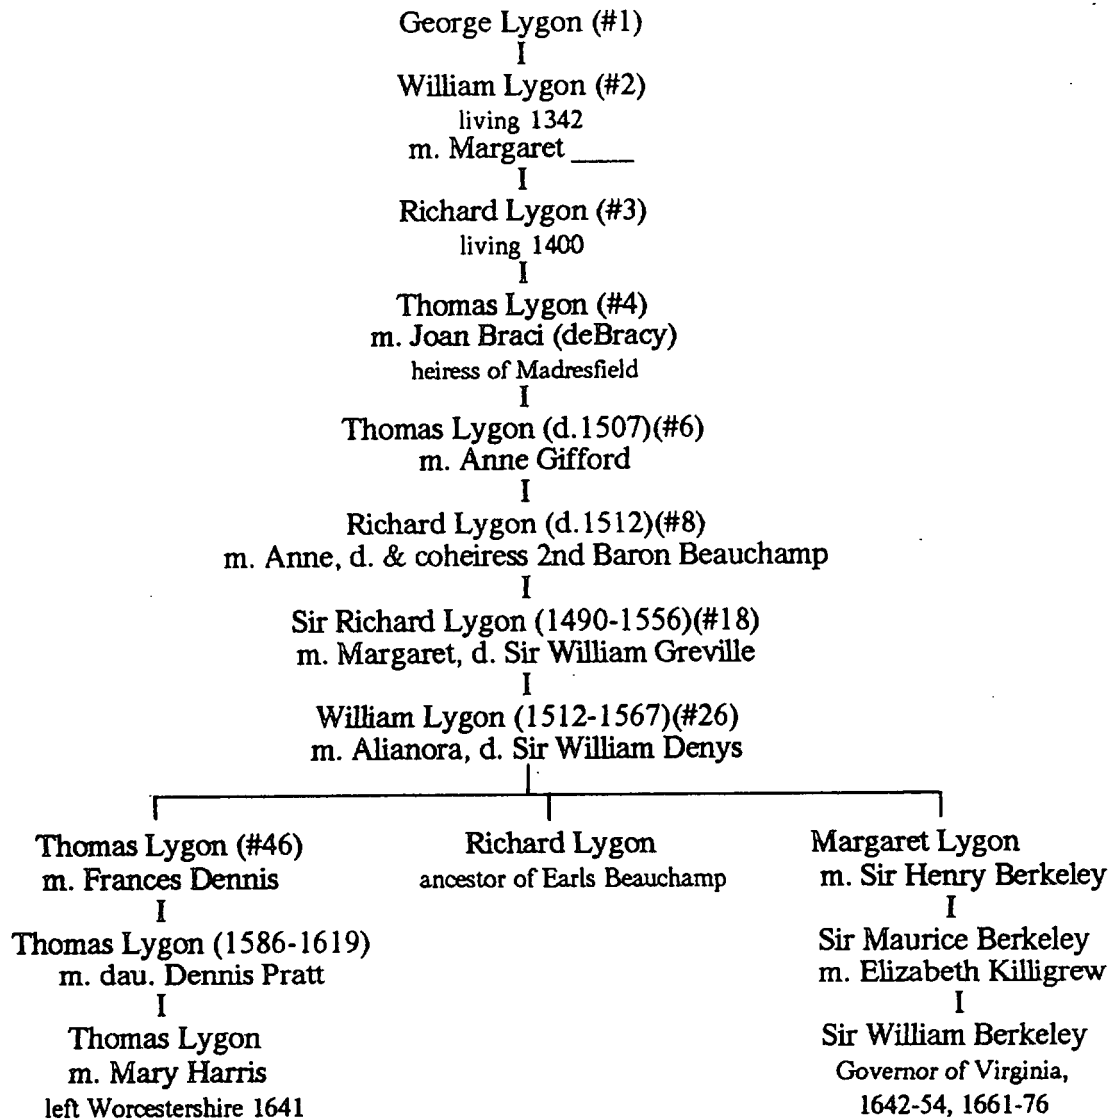

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Lindsey of Cedar Falls; Mr. and Mrs. E. Heuer of Cedar Rapids; Mrs. E. H. Hudnutt of Grinnell; Mr. and Mrs. Toland of Ruthven; Mrs. N. L. Waters and daughter of Marengo, and Miss Ruth Bair of Oskaloosa.

This transcription was made from a microfilm copy of the original on file at the Cole Library of Cornell College and Mount Vernon, Iowa, photocopied in September, 1992.

THE LYGONS, EARLS BEAUCHAMP

The Earldom of Beauchamp and Viscounty of Elmley were created in 1815 and became extinct in 1979. The Beauchamp (pronounced Beechum) title was taken from the 14th century barony and ancient family from whom both American and British branches descend. The family seat, Madresfield Court at Great Malvern, Worcestershire, was built on land owned by the Ligon family and their de Bracy ancestors since at least 1252. The parents and siblings of the last Earl were known to writer Evelyn Waugh, and he is said to have used them as models for the Marchmain/Flyte family in his novel Brideshead Revisited.

History of Early Czech Settlement Remembered

Neusser, a small community of the early 1890's located almost equal distance between Georgetown and Granger, was named after one of its early pioneers, Johann Neusser. Johann was born December 19, 1845 at Seitendorf, a German settlement in Moravia, Czechoslovakia, presently Czech Republic. The Village was renamed Zivotice in 1945 after Germany lost W.W.II. Johann arrived in America from Moravia on or about December 20, 1871, via the port of New York.

Making his way to Fayette County, Texas, he settled in the Moravian community of Ammansville possibly in 1872. Southern Fayette County was a favorite place for the immigrants of Bohemia, Silesia and Moravia. Earlier Czechs and Moravians had established communities at Dubina, Bluff (now called Hostyn), Praha, Navidad and Ammansville. Johann settled in this community and there he met Johanna Janak. The couple was married on November 24, 1874, in Praha, Texas.

Johanna Janak, the daughter of Josef and Teresie Honus Janak of Horni Sklenov, Czechoslovakia, was born on March 26, 1853 in Horni Sklenov. After the death of her husband on March 26, 1862. Teresie Janak emigrated to America and settled in Dubina, Texas, in 1871. Teresie came to America with her six children, Teresie, Johanna, Marianne, Jan, Ondrej, and Josef, and Teresie's aunt Marianne Honus.

Johann's occupation in Ammansville is recorded as blacksmith. He was proficient in both Czech and German languages. Upon his arrival in this community, he quickly taught himself the English language.

While in Ammansville, family life began when Louis, their first child, was born. However, he died as an infant. Their next child, a daughter Johanna, was born May 19, 1876, followed by John R. (November 9, 1877) and Mary (May 30, 1879), the last child to be born in Ammansville.

Hearing of the good land suitable for farming in Central Texas, Johann and his brothers-in-law, Jan David, Ondrej Janak and Jan Janak, traveled on horseback to Williamson County in 1879. Their party explored the land north of the San Gabriel River. Liking what they saw, they returned to Ammansville and in 1881, Johann Neusser and his family made the move to this new land, where they purchased a farm of 49 acres from J.M. Barnett on the Yankee Branch.

Soon thereafter, joining Johann and his brothers-in-law on this fertile land were others from Fayette County. The Bartos, Zurovec, Grossman, Ulbreck, Pecka, Jurecka, and Mikulencek families were the first to arrive and many others followed in later years. Johann and Johanna's family also grew in number with the birth of Aloisia (February 1882), Adolph (December 1884), Frank (October 1886), Emilie (August 1888), Joseph (November 1890), Bertha (June 1892) and Anton (July 1895).

In 1885, Johann purchased 160 acres from his brother-in-law, Ondrej Janak, which was part of the Booker Queen Survey. The farm was located some 7.6 miles east of Georgetown, Texas. A short distance to the west and crossing Queens Hill, was the old Double File Indian Trail, which crossed the Central Texas plains from Mexico to East Texas. It is upon this farmland that the early, but short lived, community of Neusser would come to be.

In 1890, the Georgetown and Granger Railroad Company, began laying tracks from Georgetown to Granger. The Company purchased the right of way on the north property line of the Neusser's farm. Also an astute businessman, Johann quickly foresaw the possibilities, as the northwest corner of his property was at the junction of a road that led to Georgetown some 7.6 miles to the west in one direction (current day Texas FM 971) and then turning northward towards Walburg, along the east side of Jan Martinka's farm, (currently County Road 156). About a mile from where the road turned northward another road intersected, leading to Granger to the east.

These primitive roads were highly traveled to reach Excelsior Mill, a flour mill approximately 3 miles to the west, located on the east bank of the San Gabriel River. This mill was built and operated by James "Jim" Francis Towns in 1870, one of the better known and busier mills in the county.

With the encouragement of the railroad representatives, a general store and saloon/dance hall were built and placed into operation. A well was dug to provide water. This business was managed by Joseph Klimicek, Johann's son-in-law. The place soon became a center of activity and gathering place for area residents. Railroad work crews were also regular customers. With music being provided by the talented Moravians, dances were frequently held at the hall.

In the spring of 1892, a townsite was laid out by the surveyors Messrs. Hal Montgomery, Ben Sherod and J.L. Rucker. The townsite was initially referred to as Keliehor, on the Georgetown and Granger Railroad. William Keliehor was a neighbor of Neusser and owned a substantial piece of property adjoining the north property line of the Neusser farm. Speculation is that since Mr. Keliehor had owned substantial property in the area since 1884, or perhaps he made the initial contact with the surveyors, the initial township project bore his name.

A town plot has not been located to show the exact location. It is assumed, however, that the surveyed townsite was on the Neusser property as Johann began to sell town lots that according to the deed transactions were surveyed lots. The first two lots were sold to Mrs. Johanna Aschen in September 1892, followed by a sale to Friederich Zahn.

The railroad representative also suggested that the residents apply for a post office from the U.S. Post Office Department as an enhancement for the railroad to build a depot for the community. A postal permit was obtained and, on December 30, 1892, Neusser, Texas became part of the U.S. Postal Department.

At the time of the application, there were 75 people served by this new postal service. Making the application in behalf of the community was Edward Aschen, who was appointed first postmaster, which he held until May 16, 1893. He was followed by Joseph Klimicek who held the postmastership until April 27, 1894.

The post office operations and the depot dream, however were short-lived. The town of Granger, to the east, was growing and prospering rapidly with the Georgetown and Granger rail line intersecting the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad north-south line. The depot was built, instead, at Granger.

Mr. August Zahn served as the last appointed postmaster of Neusser when it was discontinued on May 21, 1894. With this disappointment, the community as envisioned by Johann Neusser and his friends, did not materialize. The building housing the general store and post office was subsequently sold and, is believed move to Theon and still in existence.

Though the post office operations were discontinued, the area continued to be known as Neusser(ville), later spelled Naizer(ville), and continued to prosper with farming and cattle raising. A custom which became prevalent among these early settlers was the formation of beef clubs. Once a month, a neighbor would furnish a head of beef which would be butchered and meat shared among the club members. Johann's farm served as the beef club headquarters for the community.

These Moravian pioneers loved the soil and were quick to turn the prairie grass to a blanket of cotton. With cotton being the principal agricultural product, in the 1920's a cotton gin was built two miles east of Neusser(ville) by the Mazoch brothers. It served the surrounding community until the 1960's. Another gin located at Townsville, about 3 miles west on the Georgetown road, also served the area cotton farmers.

Johann continued to be a driving force in this new settlement of Williamson County. Fluent in German, Czech and English languages, he was called upon to serve as interpreter and counselor for the increasing Moravian population in the area. Frequent trips to Georgetown, the county seat, on horseback or buggy were not uncommon as he served as interpreter in land transactions, citizenship declaration, or in a civil court for the newly arriving Moravians.

Though the farm and blacksmith operations were his base of economic support, Johann raised cattle, traded horses, and bought and sold farm land. Each of his sons, John, Frank, Adolph, and son-in-law Frank Dobecka bought their farms from his inventory of farms. Anton and Joe were not yet old enough to own and operate their own farms and instead helped their father with the family farm.

Johann was a gifted craftsman, who besides being a blacksmith and carpenter, could also make saddles and ropes. Being a self-taught veterinarian, he was called upon by his neighbors to attend to their livestock.

Johann was a prime mover in establishing Sts. Cyril and Methodius Catholic Church in Granger. A charter member, he served on the building committee when the church was constructed in 1891. He and Jan Martinka, his neighbor, made the trip to Austin to secure the deed for the land that W.H. Walton, an Austin lawyer, gave the newly formed parish for one dollar.

Being a skilled carpenter and a blacksmith, he was of great service making the bolts needed for the building joist and the long chains to hold the three candle chandeliers which were to hang in the sanctuary. Mr. Martinka handcrafted the church foundation stones from the stones excavated by the railroad company from the railroad bed on Neusser's farm and hauled them by wagon to the church site.

The Catholic children of the Neusser community either went by buggy or walked to Granger to attend the parochial school when it was built in 1899. Johann and Johanna Neusser had six sons and five daughters. The first son, Louis died as an infant. John R. married Anna Marcella Bartosh; Frank married Agnes Stuchly; Adolph married Mary Cervenka; Josef was single; Anton married Sophie Spann; Johanna married Josef Klimicek; Aloisa married John F. Bohac; Bertha married Alois Kopecky; and the youngest, Emilie, remained single. All the children are deceased.

In 1910, Johann bought a house in Granger, where he, Johanna, and daughter Millie moved. Joe and Anton remained on the farm. During this period, Johann devoted most of his energies to real estate dealings. Johann died on November 8, 1914 and is buried in the Calvary Cemetery a few miles to the east of Neusserville.

Joe died in 1921 and Anton married and bought his own farm east of Granger. The Neusser farm was then rented to the Pavlacek family. In addition to farming Mr. Pavlacek operated a molasses press. Neighbors from miles around would plant an acre or two of can sugar and bring it to Mr. Pavlacek's for pressing and cooking of the molasses.

Johanna died on May 6, 1937. The Neusser farm was retained in the estate until it was sold in 1942 to Mr. Jordan Milton Whitley. To this day it is still in the ownership of the Whitley family. Regretfully, the townsite that Johann Neusser dreamed of is a pasture today. The only remnants of this short-lived community is the water well that has since been filled, and a few sheets of scattered rusted sheet metal that may have been used for the roof on one of the buildings.

Palouse, Wash. March, 1921

We remember when only 6 years of age of leaving Germany in the spring of 1856 for the U.S. and crossing the Atlantic Ocean. We were only 40 days coming over and could see water and sky and some sharks appeared to us like a herd of cattle. However, felt at home with our parents and 2 brothers and 4 sisters. We landed first at New York and then took the train for Hartsville, Ind., and if my memory serves me right arrived there in June and stayed with Uncle Mench about a year. Then Father rented a farm near Hope, Ind. only about 6 miles west of Hartsville. This was in 1858. While living on farm near the timber, principally beech trees, the wild pigeons came in flocks by the thousands and brother Jacob built some traps and caught some and in taking them out took hold of their tails and, of course, the feathers pulled out and they flew away, to his sorrow. Soon after this Jacob and sister Carrie hired out to earn money.

In those days our chances were pretty slim for going to school. As we lived 2 or 3 miles away and was very muddy in winter time. And only a few months of school a year. So did not learn to read till we were about 12 years of age.

We then got started to attend Sunday school at Hope, Ind. and kept in practice what little we learned in country school. We joined the Moravian Church at 16 years at Hope and a few years later were converted in M.E. Church in town. (In) 1871 my principles and ideas were about getting property. Not to want it only by honest dealings (?). At this time we started out to do for ourself. Hired out at $15.00 and $18.00 per month for a few summers and then attended Hartsville College, and we had only a little education and of course have never graduated yet. But after attending a few terms tried for a School License and then for a school in the country 2 miles west of Hope and cleared it. The same one I used to attend, and taught it for 5 months at $35.00 per month. This was in 1874 and 1875.

The same spring attended the State Normal at Terrehaute, Ind.. During this time we had an excursion to Green Castle, Ind. and return for only 0.35 cents and had a very pleasant time. In those days could go for a term for about $50.00. The same fall went back and had an excursion to Paris, Ill. at same low rate.

By the end of the year and term ran out of money. During the fall term had a week of bilious fever. 1876-1st of Jan. came to brother Jacob at Green Castle, Ind. 6 miles out and spent the winter cutting wood and in 1st of March both of us came to Iowa, by Mich. City, and drove out to Pretty Prairie that night. Going up hill a long ways till I thought we would soon be up to the moon. It was cool night. This was Mar. 7th. Thomas McBride took us to his house and kept us for several weeks. Here we again tried for a spring term of school, and taught at the Pretty Prairie for a few months at $25.00 and paid about $2.50 board a week. While here joined the United Brethern Church as preaching was held every few weeks at school house also a Sunday school was held every summer.

In the Summer and Fall hired out at $1.00 per day. During August one day we heard a great roaring like clouds passing over but it was my 1st experience seeing grasshoppers coming and lighting all over the country. They did some damage to corn that fall. But in the spring they got very numerous, and strange they soon left that part of the country. Land could be bought from 5.00 to 10.00 per acre in Crawford and Shelby Co.. We were satisfied it was a good bargain at those prices, but had no money to buy with.

So the latter part of Nov. was persuaded by Morris Chambers to go with him to Cal.. We only had $50.00 but go or bust. We were 9 days in going. While going through Utah Desert the train stopped at some small stations and we got out and some of our party shot Jack Rabbits and took them in the car and cooked and eat them. We had a fine time going.

We landed at Santa Clara, Cal.. Dead broke Dec. 1st. But Mr. Chambers folks took care of me for a few weeks and then I started out to hunt work and found a few days at $1.00 per day.

Jan. 15, 1877 we started out again, leaving town and in the evening arrived at the foothills and there was a vineyard and fine grapes and of course got to eat all we cared for free. Then went on into the timber a few miles and asked to stop overnight and the folks said could if I would sleep in the hay mow. It seemed awful to me a tenderfoot among strangers. The next day traveled about 40 miles over the mts. among timber. At night stopped in a little boarding house. And two other young men for the three of us they charged 0.75 cents. The next morning went on about 2 miles and hired out and only got to work a few days and came back afoot all of the 50 miles to Santa Clara. And this time hired out to a dairyman at $10.00 per month and of course I felt beaten, but what better could be done. So only stayed a few weeks.

And a man came to me and offered $1.25 per day about six miles on a mountain cutting wood. So I walked out there 22 of Feb. 1877. Boarded myself at $1.50 per week. While out there one Sunday walked 2 miles to hear a Catholic priest. He spoke on forgiveness. Another Sunday walked out 8 miles to a small town and heard a part of the sermon about the Highway of Holiness. May 26 on my birthday a friend came after me while I was reading my Bible under a live oak tree. I heard a noise and looked to see and a rattlesnake was coming towards me and we jumped up and got a little pole and killed the poor brute and cut off its rattles and sent them home to Hope, Ind.. This was on Sunday and I went out with the friend to help harvest at $1.00 per day and stayed out about 30 days in Santa Clara Valley.

This was a drought year in that part of Cal.

This letter was written by Charles Gleiser, my father's uncle. Only the spelling has been corrected.

DISCOVERY AND SHARING THROUGH FAMILY HISTORY

by Ghita Brockway Carter
4705 Fawnwood Cove
Austin, TX 78735

With more freedom and time to pursue my genealogy interests since retirement, I have been rewarded with unexpected discoveries through contacts with relatives whom I have sought out and cultivated through correspondence and visits.

Last year in Wills Point, Texas, I went to see Lula, a second cousin now in her 80's. She recalled going on the train as a child to visit our grandmother Brockway in Terrell. Once when a circus was in town there, the children were frightened one night by scratching at the window and squealed when they discovered an escaped monkey looking in at them. Lula's sister Maxine also came over to join in this visit; the sisters said that our grandmother was a good cook and mentioned especially her cinnamon rolls and cornbread. Maxine told me of a letter that my dad had written her many years ago and which she had saved and treasured ever since; it had even miraculously survived a fire. Later, when she mailed these yellowed sheets of paper from 1940 to me, I was able to read my dad's personal words to her. Maxine also recalled how good my parents were to her widowed mother and her family in the 1930's and how much she always loved them. Since then, I have continued to correspond with this newly-found cousin and share pictures of early relatives we have in common.

After a busy morning there, my husband and I had a second visit set up for the afternoon, also in Wills Point, with another cousin on my mother's side of the family. From her mother, Mildred had inherited trunks from both our grandmother Emma McLemee and great-grandmother Lucy Phillips. For this occasion, Mildred had spread out a vast array of pictures, large and small, and numerous other mementoes for me to view. She had invited over also her brother, his wife, and her father so it was pretty overwhelming to try to ask questions, take notes, identify photos, take pictures, etc. One snapshot which I had never seen was of my dad and mother with me as an infant in early 1931; in the scene also was my dad's horse which gives an idea of what he considered a part of the family! Another picture treasure was a charming photo of my mother and Mildred's mother as young girls about 1915 as they shyly posed in their white eyelet dresses and black stockings. I was able to see and copy many other pictures as well: grandmother Emma as a girl and with Tom McLemee and her young family, and great-great grandmother Rebecca Emmeline Jones with her third husband, Burrell Brumley. It was a memorable afternoon and an opportunity to renew family contacts through sharing our heritage.

After many letters and much patience in pursuing other third cousins with whom I share a common great-grandfather, William Brockway, a breakthrough finally came when my sister happened to be near Frankston, Texas and made the first impromptu visit. Later, my husband and I came through the small town to see Roland Richie and his wife and to view for the first time the Brockway family Bible which I did not know existed. It was awesome to see entries for marriages, births, and deaths from 1854-1950 inscribed in its pages. Much copying and many pictures followed as we documented this treasure. On a second visit to Roland, his sister Charlotte came from Baton Rouge and my sister Ruthanne joined in for a gala marathon of sharing, talking, laughing and eating. I was able to tell Charlotte that her name "Charlotte Augusta" came from the two sisters of William Brockway that he left behind in St. Johnsbury, VT over 150 years ago, names that have continued to be passed down to present generations in their family.

Some years back when we drove to Van, TX for a McLemee family reunion, I met Tim and learned to my amazement that he had a picture of our first McLemee ancestor. Later in the day we went to Tim's house and got to see and take pictures of this unexpected "find," an actual photograph of Mitchell Gordon McLemee (McNamee) who was shot to death on his porch by a neighbor in the early 1880's. Continuing research in this family line, we planned a trip to Arkansas in 1991 to include visiting Mary Jo McLemee, the widow of a maternal uncle. She knew my grandparents well so I had numerous questions as well as information to share with her. Later at the Ft. Smith Genealogical Library and the Sebastian Co. Courthouse, I searched for more clues about this first McNamee (later to become McLemee) ancestor from Ireland who came to the U.S. about 1850 and from Ft. Smith to Van Zandt Co. in the 1870's.

Another lucrative source for information is networking with other relatives who are genealogy buffs. In 1991 I finally met cousin Pat Byrd from San Diego when we went to a Brockway reunion in Old Lyme, Ct. We exchange new research, pictures, family stories and documents; and I especially enjoy Pat's infectious enthusiasm for genealogy. From Odessa, TX Jane McBride has shared a wealth of her research on the Phillips family. My sister Ruthanne Brockway has visited relatives in her Dallas-Ft. Worth area and passes on stories, pictures, and even recipes.

And so the search continues for clues to many puzzling questions about the past! Discovery through research can provide many answers but meeting and sharing with relatives can be "the heart and soul" of family history and may well yield dividends not to be found in libraries or courthouses.

QUEST.1

W. M. Meriwether, 3002 West Terrace Drive

Recently, my wife and I visited Shreveport on our first genealogical quest, looking for anything we could find on my two lines, both of which center in Northwestern La. Though pretty green, we weren't completely in the dark. There is a family book on the Meriwether line, which has lots of detail on the earlier ancestors but is vague on some recent ones. For example, it gives only the names of my paternal great and great great grandparents; nothing else. I have dug up a possible clue in an early MS census, but no proof yet. On the maternal line, Foster, there are a couple of cousins who have given me good data from family memoirs and steered me to their donations to the archives in the library of LSU-Shreveport. All in all, it seemed time to get over there and dig before everybody now living is gone.

Lo, in the vertical file of the Shreve Memorial Library, was a pedigree chart tracing my paternal grandmother's "unknown" McNutt line back to the mid 1400's in Middlesex. Not much detail, but lots of name clues, with all the relationships shown. Later, I found a way to make a phone call to an elderly lady, related by marriage, who could give me a little information and, more importantly, addresses for a couple of even-older ladies in New Orleans. If there are family papers or information around somewhere, the 90-year old aunt should know. Even if deaf.

In LSU, a really sharp and most helpful archivist worked herself to death on my account. She had worlds of data in the Foster/Bogan file, and let me heat up the Xerox on documents while she worked her magic with a copy camera on a number of family photos.

The court house was full of files of deeds, marriage licenses, successions, tax rolls, and the like; and we did our thing there. There was supposed to have been a portrait of a long-dead prominent Foster hanging in the Police Jury (= Country Commissioner) room, but no one there knew anything about it. Would you believe that when I mentioned this to the LSU archivist, she found the missing portrait in her back room, and let me photograph it.

Between the two libraries, I found data showing where every single one of the interesting Fosters was buried. All of the earlier ones were in a full-and-almost abandoned down-town cemetery. I found the locations of all of the graves, with full inscriptions, but we were advised not to go in. The neighborhood has disintegrated to the point that no one is safe. We drove around the block, and could probably see the tall monument, but did not choose to press our luck. Another day, a return trip with a hired escort of off-duty police, maybe. But in another part of town, a wide-open cemetery holds all of the more recent Fosters. In still another part of town, we found the graves of my Meriwether grandparents and some additional relatives we hadn't been looking for. I found the old Line Avenue School where I endured the first two elementary grades back in the early 1920's. I found my maternal grandmother's old two-story house in which she lived out her widowhood, making a living from boarders and baking angel food cakes for society parties. Also, the house my family lived in before Dad moved us to the Rio Grande Valley. My paternal grandfather's house is totally gone, victim to the new I-49 freeway to south LA. Curraghmuir, home of my maternal great great grandfather, is now the site of the LSU Medical Center; and across the street is a parking lot, once the home of my maternal grandfolks in better times when you could get serious money for your cotton.

As we left town, home-bound, I decided to drop south to a country crossroads called Keatchie, "near" which were buried some pre-Civil War Fosters and some related Hollingsworths. We did find a private cemetery that held some of both, but no names I knew. Then, by real luck, a young man named David left his lunch pail to dig up a man who knew how to find the "Hollingsworth" cemetery. He knew, for sure. He got in our car, took us 10 miles into the backwoods, walked me in the rain through a pasture and into a woods. There, inside a beautiful wrought-iron fence, were 40 old graves, very hard to see or photograph for the ivy and brambles. In that don't-go-in cemetery in Shreveport were the graves of my Foster GG grandparents; here were the graves and markers of his folks - my Foster GGG grand- parents, and even both Hollingsworth parents of my Foster GGG grandmother, making them GGGG grandparents. And that's grand luck on any rainy day quest.

All in all, about two inches of documents to analyze, 5 rolls of film, about 25 minutes of video, a new line pushed back 13 generations, some new possibilities discovered in New Orleans, and a fun week to remember in case I ever get old. It may be hard to top this trip, but I know of an another family graveyard hidden in peaceful woods in rural Georgia which is calling louder every day; it's sure to have some missing links in it somewhere. And, there's a historical marker on the site of an old house on Jamestown Island in Virginia. There is even a tale that the entire city of Charlottesville, VA, is built where one of my oldies had a little plantation. It's enough to keep a country boy busy for a little while until something better shows up.

I would love to hear from anyone who is researching any of the following family names: SPRUCE, McCARTY, KRAMER, SWAIM, and HUNTER.

When I told my children I was working on our family history, they asked that I also write about what I remember of my childhood. The following paragraph is about my family home:

AUSTIN PAST.....the 1940's

We spent hours swinging from grape vines, playing Tarzan in the dark woods surrounding our house, daring each other to climb higher and higher in the tall trees. Occasionally we played "war", choosing up sides with neighbor friends, gathering arsenals of rocks, building hideouts by piling brush into thick stacks. We would lay ambush behind the brush or high in the trees and hurl our rocks at one another. Amazingly no one was badly hurt although there were a few black eyes, knots on the head and one broken arm. Other times we built tall stone castles, then hid inside and smoked grape vines, knowing we were in for a severe paddling if we were caught. Our tongues burning from the acrid smoke, we felt grown up and tough.

There was an especially huge spreading oak tree in our backyard that held a magnificent tree house made from plywood off an old packing crate. Secret missions headquartered there, delicious lemonade and cookies were enjoyed high in the air, and sad or angry kids hid there for comfort and solitude. A rope ladder could be pulled up, making it almost impossible for intruders to interfere and we could see what was going on for blocks around us.

Another large oak in the front yard had a thick limb that reached out like a fat arm. One afternoon my Daddy came home with an old wooden horse he bought from a dismantled Merry-go-Round. He painted that horse brilliant white with a bright green saddle, a sleek bridle trimmed with gold, and clear blue eyes, then hung it from that thick branch. We rode it for hours and hours every day, singing and laughing and shooting our six shooters.

Our house sat at the top of a hill. When it snowed, which was rare in Austin, we would make slides out of old cardboard boxes and sail fast down that scary hill. I remember my daddy putting my little brother on his rocking horse and pushing them down the hill. They disappeared into a deep snow pile at the bottom, but my brother came up laughing, wanting to do it again. That hill was also the perfect place for dare-devil bicycle tricks and daring races, often ending in skinned knees but nothing more serious than that.

Drive, Austin, TX 78757

We looked forward to football season because we could make our spending money by selling parking places in front of our house. My brothers, sister and I would guard the street diligently then allow parking beginning 10 minutes before kickoff. We made good money. Then we would sit in the front yard and listen to the announcer and the crowds and wonder what was happening. It was very exciting. If the weather was hot we also sold lemonade. Those were very productive afternoons. (All games were played in the afternoon). Later at night we would enjoy the soft light provided by the tall, intricate "Moonlight Tower" and catch fireflies or tell ghost stories.

It's hard to believe it today, but those thick woods, that huge oak tree in the backyard, that large oak in the front with the fat arm, that high hill we could slide down, that front yard that provided spending money and ghost stories - they are now the LBJ Library complex and it's grounds!

We lived on the corner of 23rd and Oldham in a house with a big porch and large tree-covered yard surrounded on three sides by thick woods. My father taught Art at the University of Texas and the Art Department was housed in flimsy wooden buildings, hastily erected during World War II. We were surrounded by interesting, creative neighbors like Roy Bedicheck and J. Frank Dobie; though I failed to realize their importance, we kids loved to hear their stories.

I wish my childhood home were still there so I could show my kids and grandkids where we spent so many happy hours, but I am thankful that many of the magnificent trees were saved. They are reminders of a smaller, quieter, simpler Austin, where children played in the woods for hours with no fear of violence, fathers walked to work and came home for lunch, tree houses and grape vines were favorite toys, and neighbors were friends.

VICTOR EDWARD WESTERGARD
by Vicki Francis Powers

Victor Edward Westergard, my grandfather on my mother's side, was born to Aage Westergard and Helga Maria Anderson on June 10, 1910 in Billings, Montana, where it sometimes gets about fifty or sixty degrees below zero. They lived on a homestead on the land the government gave his father for being in the Spanish-American War as a volunteer. Before a person could get title to the land, he had to stay for 3 years.

Victor's father came to America in 1891 From Denmark, and his mother came in 1900 from Sweden. They met in Hutto, Texas, and married in Austin.

When the Danish immigrants came over, they wanted to farm land on the Gulf Coast, but the ranchers wouldn't sell the land to them. A committee of immigrants then went to Austin, and a bill was passed raising the taxes, which caused the ranchers to break up their ranches, since they didn't want to pay the increase in taxes. Victor's father was one of the original settlers who started the community in Danevang, [Texas] near El Campo. There is now a historical marker in Danevang that claims the Danes settled there.

Victor said his father was "quite a pioneer." One time he took a wagon to Danevang and his mule cut his leg. Victor's father had the mule stand in a stream for about 12 hours and the cut was healed.

Victor's family then moved to Taylor, Texas when he was almost seven years old. [Later] One of Victor's jobs was as a paper boy. First he had to deliver papers to doctors' and lawyers' offices. Then he did a residential area where he delivered about 250 papers. Victor made $2.50 a week.

Victor graduated from Taylor High School in 1928. When one of his friends left for Port Arthur, Victor took over the job he had in an ice cream factory working from 6 p.m. until 6 a.m. In the evenings Victor answered the telephone and then delivered ice cream in town to drugstores. Later he'd get calls from out of town places like Bastrop and Elgin that needed ice cream. Victor would then take the ice cream to the station and pack it on the train.

For one year Victor went to College in Lubbock at Texas Technological School. There he got 21 meals for $5.00. Every other day though Victor would eat a half-loaf of bread and a bucket of buttermilk, because then buttermilk was considered nutritious. Christmas Eve night in 1928 Victor walked 17 miles to get home. He tried hitchhiking but nobody picked him up...

In the fall of 1930 Victor went to the office of Brown and Root to find a job. When he went into the office, the secretary said they had no jobs available. But Victor said he wanted to hear that from Brown himself, so he sat there waiting from 8:45 until 5:00 for Brown. During all that time, Victor never left; he just got out of his chair to stretch a couple of times. When Victor finally saw Brown, Brown said he had to do something-- "You're the most patient boy I've met." So Brown offered him a job in Fort Stockton, and Victor hitchhiked out there. The job was to break rocks with a sledgehammer and then he ran a water truck...

Then in 1931 Victor got a call from Washington, D. C., with a probable job in the House of Representatives. They said if he could get there before December 31 he could have the job. Victor hitchhiked to Washington, D. C., for nine days.

When former President Coolidge died, Victor was put in charge of the Members' Family Gallery and wasn't supposed to let anyone in without a ticket to the memorial services. Then later he had the same job when Roosevelt was President. Victor felt rather proud when he had this job...

GENERAL INFORMATION

PURPOSE: Austin Genealogical Society was organized in 1960 as a not-for-profit corporation chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect and preserve genealogical and historical information about the people of Texas, particularly pertaining to the City of Austin and to Travis and surrounding counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records of genealogical interest. In addition, the AGS supports the Genealogical Collection, Texas State Library by donations of books and other genealogical material. Gifts and bequests to AGS are tax-deductible.

MEMBERSHIP is open to all upon payment of annual dues; $15 per individual, or family membership at $17 for two in the same household, entitling them to one copy of each Quarterly and monthly Newsletter, as well as two pages apiece (a total of four pages for $17 whether one or two people submit listings) in the Ancestor Listing issue (June). After 1 July, dues are $7.50 for the balance of the year, but you will only receive the publications produced after the date you join.

DUES FOR EXISTING MEMBERS ARE PAYABLE on or before JANUARY FIRST of each year for the ensuing year. If dues are not received by 1 February, the name must be dropped from the mailing list. If membership is reinstated later and Quarterlies and Newsletters have to be mailed individually, postage must be charged. (Back quarterlies supplied only IF available--very few extras are printed.) Send payment to AGS Treasurer, P.O. Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507.

MISSING COPIES: If your Quarterly does not reach you by the 10th of April, July, October or December, notify the Society at Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507. (Note: Exchange Quarterly Chairmen should use the TEXAS STATE LIBRARY address given on the inside front cover.) Members who fail to give AGS sufficient advance notice of address changes and whose Quarterly is returned by the Post Office will be responsible for the postal fee for returned copies and for re mailing the copy at individual rather than bulk mailing rates.

MEETINGS of the general membership begin at 7:30 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month except August and December. Members are encouraged to come as early as 6:30 to socialize with each other. MEETING PLACE: Eaton Hall, Covenant Presbyterian Church, 3003 Northland Dr. Take Northland (FM 2222) exit off Loop 1 (Mopac). Church is on SE corner of intersection and entry to parking lot is off of Northland. VISITORS ARE WELCOME. The Board of Directors meets at 6:15 in a separate room.

AGS QUARTERLY is issued about the middle of March, June, September and November. Contributions are welcome, subject to editing to conform to our style. Contributor is responsible for accuracy and any copyright infringement. Send directly to the Editor (see inside front cover).

BOOK REVIEW POLICY: Books on appropriate subjects related to genealogy will be reviewed, but CANNOT be reviewed in AGSQ on the basis of advertising alone. If a review copy is received by the Review Editor at 2202 W. 10th St., Austin TX 78703 by the First of February, May, August or October, it will be reviewed in the next Quarterly. It will then be placed in the Genealogy Collection, Texas State Library, available to all patrons.

CHECK RETURN POLICY: Members and other payers must pay AGS cost for any returned check (currently $5.00).

ANCESTOR LISTING PAGES (June issue) must reach the Editor at 4500 Hyridge Dr., Austin TX 78759-8054 by the TENTH OF MAY. They must be BLACK and LEGIBLE, whether typed, hand- printed, computer printout, or in superior calligraphy. Months must be SPELLED or abbreviated, not in figures. DATES SHOULD BE SHOWN in accepted genealogical style, that is, DAY, MONTH, YEAR. Allow space for binding at inner margins of facing pages; i.e., your first page will be a left-hand page. Carefully check horizontal pages (reading in the 11-inch direction). Otherwise, the Editor has to position some pages upside down to prevent loss of data in the stapling-punching process. NO 8 1/2x14 sheets, please!

You may submit Lineage or Family Group charts, Ahnentafels, narratives, cemetery inscriptions, Bible records, census data, queries, or a combination of material, just so it is not under copyright. BE SURE to proofread your material for accuracy and clarity so we will not be guilty of disseminating faulty or incorrect data. Put name and address of submitter on each page in legible form (NOT blind embossed). Consult a recent June issue of AGSQ for suggestions.

REMEMBER: $15 membership entitles you to two facing pages in Ancestor Issue.
$17 membership (one person or two) allows you four pages.

DEADLINES for everything except book reviews: 10th of February, May, August and October. Material sent addressed only to AGS box number may not reach Editor in time.
