ALL OUR BEST TO YOU, LEE

Over the past dozen or so years there has been no one who has done more for AGS and who has been more of an inspiration to the rest of us than has Lee Kinard. He has served the Society in numberless ways and might yet be our President if he hadn't finally out-argued the annual nominating committee; most recently he has been the Society treasurer.

So it is with mixed feelings we bid Lee farewell, for he has moved to the Houston area in a professional reassignment. There is no way he can be readily replaced; his knowledge of AGS and its history was as vast as was his dedication to its success. Lee has at least one important event remaining in Austin; he will return this summer to be married. The Editor joins the entire Board of Directors and no doubt the membership at large in offering Lee congratulations, best wishes for every success in life, and a cordial hope that there may be many occasions when we may be able to see him again.

We are in turn happy that Board member Bob Tull has agreed to fill Lee's unexpired term as Treasurer. We conned Bob into accepting Board membership last fall by the usual "Not much to do your first year, you know." We know that Bob (who is on the Astronomy faculty at UTA) can keep dollars and black holes separate. Thanks for accepting, and good luck.

HALBERT'S UNDER CEASE AND DESIST ORDER

We note from the March/April issue of the National Genealogical Society Newsletter that Halbert's Inc. of Bath, Ohio, a mail order firm that markets surname products, has agreed to the provisions of a cease and desist order issued by the United States Postal Service in November 1995. This order augments previous cease and desist orders issued in 1985 and 1988. Among other provisions included in the order is a required disclaimer on any surname advertising as follows: "No direct genealogical connection to your family or ancestry is implied or intended."

HISTORIC PATENTS FROM THE BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT (BLM)

From the same publication we note that the BLM has made available CD-ROMs which include land patents, survey plats and cadastral survey field notes for the following ten states: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Ohio and Wisconsin. We understand each state is on one CD and the purchase price is $15. You may contact the Bureau of Land Management, 411 Briarwood Drive, Jackson, Mississippi 39206, phone 601-977-5400, for order information.

GOTCHA!

On page 3 of the last (March 1996) issue of the Quarterly we reprinted an item having to do with identifying babies born out of wedlock. Our information was that it came from the 11/95 issue of the "WAGS Newsletter." We recently received a very gracious letter from Dessie Little Simmons, Editor of the Bulletin of the Watauga Association of Genealogists—Upper East Tennessee (WAGS). She kindly informed us that, nothing wrong with the item, but it was not from their publication. This abashed Editor apologizes to Dessie and all the fine folk in the Johnson City, Tennessee area for any misrepresentation, for it was unintended. In turn, we must inquire generally: is there another WAGS or is the original attribution incorrect?

In her letter, Dessie mentions Miller cousins around the DFW area and many Young relatives in Ft. Worth and Pleasanton. If this rings a bell I'm sure she would be glad to hear from you: Dessie Little Simmons, P.O. Box 117, Johnson City TN 37605-0117.

FIRST FAMILIES OF TEXAS CERTIFICATES

She also commented favorably on the First Families of Texas Certificates being issued by the Texas State Genealogical Society. It turns out Tennessee already has had similar certificates. Well, now.

A reminder: the Texas program runs through the end of the year. For details: Wanda L. Donaldson, 3219 Meadow Oaks Drive, Temple TX 76502, 817-778-2073.

NO AGS 1996 SEMINAR

As mentioned in the last issue, there will be no AGS seminar this August as we have had in previous years. The member who protests most vociferously automatically becomes chair of the next seminar, prospectively next spring.

Other seminars in the area:

☉July 13—Luling. The Genealogical and Historical Society of Caldwell Co. will hold their 14th annual seminar at the Luling First United Methodist Church with Sharon DeBartolo Carmack. Pre-register for $25 to the Society at 215 S. Pecan Ave., Luling TX 78648 or 210-875-9466.

☉September 6-8—Lubbock. The German-Texan Heritage Society Annual Meeting is at the Lubbock Holiday Inn Civic Center September 6-8. Pre-register for $45 to GTHS, P.O. Box 684171, Austin TX 78768-4171.

☉July 21-26—Plano. The Institute of Genealogical Studies (formerly Genealogical Institute of Texas) will hold a week-long school at the Harvey Hotel, Plano. This school conducts eight simultaneous courses presented by well-known genealogists. Tuition is $325 per course. Contact IGS, P.O. Box 25556, Dallas TX 75225-5556, 214-341-5166 evenings.

THIS IS THE ANNUAL MEMBERS' ANCESTRAL LISTING ISSUE

The AGS membership has responded handsomely to our requests for submissions to this, our annual ancestral listing issue, resulting in the largest single issue in the Editor's experience. Thirty-three of you sent in material and it all looks very good. We thank everyone who has responded so well. The magnitude of the material was such that we had to enforce the size and formatting policies and requirements as set forth in the inside back cover of each issue. Much of the material was immaculately prepared, testifying to the increasing sophistication of the publication tools in our members' hands. You will even find that there were several web-site and E-mail locations included—another first for our Quarterly. We have included a separate submitter's index on Page 47 so that the pages sent in by each person may be correctly identified. Thank you again, and happy browsing.

By the way, there is a very lovely short poem by our gifted Lorrie Henderson to close out the issue on page 138. Don't overlook it.

The Editor

Book Reviews

The Five Thomas Harrises of Isle of Wight County, Virginia, ©1995 by John Anderson Brayton, 1001 S. Marshall St., Suite 53, Winston-Salem, NC 27101. 6x9"; 190 pp.; Bristolboard binding. Introduction, Appendix, Previous Publications, Bibliography, 3 Indices: Name, Locality, and Slave. Price $20 postpaid (NC residents add $1.20 for sales tax). Order from author at address above.

Most genealogists are familiar with the frustration involved in trying to identify each bearer of the same name in a given locality. It is doubly difficult when most of the given names are of the garden variety, with no handed-down Jehoshaphat or Malachi among the Thomases, Georges and Johns to show that you're on the right track.

Until recently, Harris researchers have accepted the works of John Bennett Boddie (Historical Southern Families, Virginia Historical Genealogies, et cetera) from the 1950s and formed some misconceptions that led them to realms of glory. John Brayton has painstakingly re-examined Boddie's sources and discovered many more, which has resulted in the present enlightened and fascinating volume. He also generously reminds his readers that the esteemed Mr. Boddie did not have access to some sources that are available now.

The author has made it easy for those who may be scanning the book for only certain names: in the quoted documents the names of those related to the Harrises are printed in all capital letters. Also, the use of different typefaces for the various formats admirably facilitates locating a particular item such as introductory or explanatory narrative; a quoted will, deed, or land grant; lists of children; footnotes; abbreviations of frequently quoted sources and phrases; as well as the use of roman, bold and italic type. For the computer-conversant reader, Mr. Brayton has revealed his technical methodology in the Introduction.

Your reviewer is well aware that some of us glance at the verbatim quoted matter, spot the first quaintly-spelled word, and then skip over to the larger body typeface. Experience teaches that if we take the trouble to read the passage aloud, we will soon be snickering, then giggling hysterically, and persevering until we decipher the words which had first appeared to be incomprehensible. [HINT: Some of the words are Latin legalese, others are merely spelled phonetically.]

We get a peek at John Brayton's sense of humor at the end of the Introduction when he tantalizes us by mentioning (without explaining) an incident involving dousing his files with Tilex, and another pertaining to a note he found in a book which resulted in nearly 20 years of research.

Little can be said here about the body of this book. The "plot" consists of steps taken to further the research: interesting and educational for Harris descendants and for non-Harrises as well.

Suffice it to say, the five synonymous men are yclept [I've been studying my new Oxford English Dictionary!] respectively: Thomas Harris, 1688; Thomas Harris, 1672; Thomas Harris, Jr.; Thomas Harris, 1729; and Thomas Harris of Surry County, Virginia.

For tips on how to find your ancestors on the eastern seaboard in pre-Revolutionary times, don't miss the opportunity to explore this book. It will be placed in the Genealogy Collection of Texas State Library in the near future, with thanks to the author for his gift.

John Owens Greene of the Oregon Territory, Letters 1853-1863, edited 1996 by Phoebe Greene Simpson, 1421 Elm Brook Drive, Austin TX 78758-2245. 8½ x 11"; 58 pp, single side, spiral bound. Includes Preface, illustration and reproductions. Privately published by editor.

As genealogists, we treasure the written/printed record; not one of us will deny the keen thrill experienced when we discover any written or printed record pertaining to or originated by a family ancestor, even a distant relative. Moreover, the explosion of the computer age all around us portends a decreasing availability of certainly the more personal of such records in the days and years ahead. Electronic files are very dispassionate.

AGS member Phoebe Greene Simpson has taken a step more of us should consider doing. In her family's possession has been a collection of letters hand-written by her great uncle, John Owens Greene in the period from 1853 to 1863, principally to his brother, Dr. Peter Thomas Greene, Phoebe's great grandfather. The two had traveled to the California gold fields from Indiana in 1850. Dr. Greene shortly returned to Indiana while John Owens continued to Oregon Territory. Phoebe has selected eight letters written by John Owens (seven from Oregon; one from New Albany IN), plus two others written to him by his father, Edmund Greene, for inclusion in this volume. She has reproduced the actual letters, the originals of which appear to be in excellent condition and quite readable. But with gracious consideration for the reader, she furnishes printed transcriptions preceding each letter. A portrait of Edmund's three sons (including brother Jacob Wesley) is included, as is a family tree of the Edmund Greene family. A clipping from the New Albany Tribune dated Tuesday, March 27, 1930 (Fifty Years Ago in New Albany) furnishes what was already then a backward glance to 1880 and some of Greene's experiences; the article was authored by his daughter Alice.

The letters, of course, are the centerpiece of this volume. They are written, as personal letters would be, in an informal manner, but they are neither trite nor crude; Mr. Greene's intelligence and good judgment are always apparent. Yes, the second letter, dated Oct. 20, 1853 from Jacksonville, Oregon Territory, comments with some acerbity about matrimony: "I could marry here but I will be sawed into boot jacks if I like to go in for life among strangers who have come here for no other reason but to marry the first chance." In the same letter he mentions corresponding with a Miss Dorcas (back in Indiana?) and considered marriage, but in his next letter a month later, "You are to let marrying go to the devil." He was busy panning gold.

Certainly gold was important and was mentioned. Phoebe includes a copy of a gold bullion deposit memorandum from the Philadelphia Mint to Jno. O. Greene for $1,146.58 in receipt of 61.56 ounces of gold. Mr. Greene's letters mention much more, though---commodity prices, the weather, acquaintances, and so on. It must have been an adventuresome time now also gone with the wind, but these letters can waft us back to those days even better than a well-written novel.

Phoebe is due high compliments on a very excellent job of editing her material into a manageable and meaningful record, and our sincere thanks for providing for her family's posterity (and ours) by archiving this valuable resource. May we all be inspired to follow her example in handling our own genealogical information. The review copy of "Greene" is being placed in the Genealogy Collection, Texas State Library, through Phoebe's kind generosity.

Life of an American Pioneer Woman

The following letter is copied from a letter belonging to Bashie Kincaid of Rose Hill, VA.

This letter was written by Elizabeth (Crockett) Evans the daughter of Robert E. Crockett and granddaughter of Major Andrew Crockett of Wythe County, VA & Brentwood, Williamson County, TN and Major George Gibson.

She was born in 1825 and died in 1905 in Bosque County, TX. Her marriage occurred March 7, 1848 in Claiborne County, TN where her first three children were born. The other children were born in Livingston County, MO, Carroll County, AK and on the Red River 25 miles south of Tishomingo, OK.

This is an example of the life of a pioneer woman during this time in our history. It shows how women had to take charge and be assertive to survive. They had to have true grit to overcome the many hardships they endured. Throughout our American history people have been forced out of or drawn to new locations and opportunities.

Dear Brothers,

After my respects to you and all my relations, I have not heard a word from you since the close of the war when I received a letter from Brother James (Crockett) while he was a prisoner of war. I wrote to Sister Sarah after the war and received no answer. I have heard that Father died about the close of the war. How it may be I do not know. Jim Evans Walter's Son, was out in the Chocktaw Nation to see Walter's Doctor, J. P. Evans son, who wrote that James said Father was dead. The boys was winding up the estate and wanted to know where I lived. I will now give you a small detail of my travels. We had a good farm in Carroll County, Arkansas. I stayed on the farm with my children, suffering severely by being robbed by the enemy of almost everything, but intended to try to tuff it out. Evans slipped through the mountains in last of November, before the surrender, with salt and cotton and went back with a Southern command in December. Then the Missouri Militia came into Arkansas and burned houses and nearly everything I had.

I bought a cart, put my children into it. Bob drove and I started south. I got near the Arkansas River and put Bob and Dan to cutting cord wood at a steam mill near Dover and wintered balance of winter. When grass rose I started to Texas where I understood Evans and Niggars was making a crop. I went on high waters and it was the last of May getting near Washington, Hempstead County where I sent word to Evans my oxen had given out. He brought a team and carried us on to Texas, where we were all taken sick in a few days. My son James died, which was about the 10th of July, 1864 and in about ten days my only daughter died. As soon as the balance got so we could travel, we started to the west. We moved up into the Chickasaw Nation and lived there five years, expecting the country to be sectionalized, which will be done. So we moved up to this country this spring. We have a good crop. This is the finest country here in the Cherokee Nation west of the Mississippi. Whether we will stay here or not, I do not know but we will not move for a short time so you may write to this place. My oldest son Robert is up in the Cherokee Nation on Priars Creek, Cherokee Nation on the Baxter Springs road from Fort Gibson. Daniel, my second son is with us. Crockett Shelby is my next son, about ten years and my next is Jefferson, about seven years and my youngest is a son and is about three years old and has no name. My family you see is now all boys. I am in good health and so is Evan and the children. Uncle Andrew died in about seventy miles of this place. James and his son-in-law Josephus Crockett lives there. I suppose Aunt Ann is still living. They live in Sebastian County, Arkansas. Fort Smith is their post office. Bob Crockett and Louiza lives in Washington County, Arkansas, Cain Hill post office. Write to sure give all the news, good and bad. Let me hear all. Keep nothing back. Our land still lies in Arkansas. We will send Bob with a power of attorney in a short time to Carroll County, Arkansas to see about the land. It is a valuable track of land. What are you heirs going to do about our Grandfathers estate? Evan says he is going to see into it for me. He would be glad to hear what you are going to do? If there is anything coming to me write immediately. Is my Mother well? How is Sister Sarah? How is all my Brother's? When you write, direct your letter to North Fork Station, care of Doctor Patterson. Direct to Captain N.A. Evans. So I must close by sending my love to you all and my respects to all enquiring friends..
God bless you all,

Elizabeth J. (Crockett) Evans

REFLECTIONS OF MY EARLY YEARS

By: Ralph L. Tschirhart

Submitted by: Anna Louise Tschirhart Hans and Harold B. Hans, Sr.

This was handwritten by my father, Ralph L. Tschirhart (1908-1993) in an old ledger which is in the possession of Teresa Tschirhart Hackebell, his granddaughter. Teresa had given him the ledger and asked him to record memories of his early years. In 1993, Eloise Bippert, a friend of the family, typed the following unedited notes.

My mother was Cecilia Huesser. She was lucky she received a grammar school education. She could write real good in German and English. She was a devout person, hard working. She always sang or whistled when she worked. She worked a long time for Mr. & Mrs. L.M. Tondre for $8.00 a month, seven days a week. She also worked as a house maid for the Howards in Del Rio, Texas. Her mother was also a devoted person. She received daily Communion as long as she was able to go to church. My mother had a big garden and all kinds of fruit trees and lots of flowers. We had fresh lettuce almost all the year round. The biggest pleasure my mother had was doing something for her family. She milked the cow and made a pound of butter almost every day. I would churn it sometimes. I carried the stove wood into the house, and a Mexican would chop it and the same Mexican would spade the garden. When we killed (pig) in the wintertime we had fresh sausage, bacon, kutla, head cheese, liver sausage, and pickled pigs feet. Ah! how good we ate all the time! She cooked a soup every day my father wanted a bowl of soup before dinner every day. And we had meat every day at dinner and supper, except on Friday. We usually had beans, noodles, and prunes or peaches and sometimes we had cheese enchiladas.

My mother was always happy, she loved to work, and she would do anything for us. She would cook me pancakes at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

Her mother became senile in her later years and she stayed at our house and my mother took care of her for eleven years, missing one nite (sic) when my father was in the hospital; then my wife stayed with her. When my Grandma died my mother was so glad that she had been able to take care of her.

I never will forget the sermon Father Lenzen had at her (my mother's) burial. He said if he could canonize a saint this would be the person he would canonize. It was a wonderful feeling, she was a great person. (She died of breast cancer).

My father was Ed. A. Tschirhart. He was a blacksmith, and a hard working one. He was born on his daddy's farm east of Castroville and had had 2 years of school. They had to work on the farm and as he was the oldest, he had to stay home most of the time. When he was eighteen years old he left home and went to Quihi to learn the blacksmith and wheelwright trade from an old German. His name was Shrader. He borrowed $81.00 from his father to pay for his room and board. It was $9.00 a month and he never spent a nickel outside of his room and board. He stayed at Henry Leosburg family and never went no other place but to the blacksmith shop for nine months. He learned to temper steel, read well, and was an excellent horse shoer. Also build (sic) new wheels for buggies and wagons. He always had a helper in the shop and when the canal was build (sic) he would shoe 18 to 20 horses and mules in 1 day. Fitted and put 4 shoes on a horse for $1.00 a head. But he made money in those days because he build (sic) a new house for his bride, and bought 100 acres of land in the first few years of his blacksmith work.

In the evening he would come home and lay on the front porch too tired to eat but in a little while he would come in and eat his supper by kerosene lights, of course. After 25 years at his work, he retired and went back to his first love, farming, which he did for several years. His shop was next to the saloon and when he was finished shoeing a horse or some other work, they would get what was called a growler, which was a little tin bucket of beer. It cost 15 cents and the bucket was passed around and I got a swallow once in a while, and it was so good.

He died when he was 68 years old. If he had the medicine we have today, he could have lived a long time yet. He died with Uric Acid.(Kidney failure). I have a trace of it but Zylloprim tablets take care of it.

Grandpa and Grandma Tschirhart had 5 boys and one girl, and their farm was 3 1/2 miles east of Castroville on Highway 90. He sold it to Emil Mechler and retired in Castroville. I was the oldest grandchild and Grandpa would come and get me in his little wagon and we would go fishing up at Paul Haby's place.

Grandpa died with a stroke. I was at his bedside when he died. He turned black and blue and was dead. He drank a lot, mostly whiskey.

Grandma (Ahr) Tschirhart was a good old soul. She worked hard and had a hard life, but like all the old people they stuck it out. When they lived in Castroville, Dad would hitch up the buggy and we would visit with them once or twice a week.

Grandpa Huesser was a grand old man. He came to Castroville in 1854 and was brew master for Mr. Keiffer. The brewery was in the basement of the building where the antique shop is, it was also the Wernette saloon and the L.M. Tondre store.

Later he had a saloon with Mr. Kilhorn as a partner, shortly though, he bought out Mr. Kilhorn and he had the saloon where the bank is now. First it was a frame building and in 1906 he build (sic) the store building where the bank is now.

He never drank water, he said water was only to wash your feet in. He drank 20 to 30 glasses (small glasses) of beer every day. He had an old tom cat that went to the saloon with him every day and at nite (sic) he would go ahead of Grandpa and meow ahead of him. The walks in those days were mostly brush and they had trails through them.

Grandpa Huesser lived to be 88 years old. He never was sick one day in his life. He went and took a dip in the river every morning before daylight.

He took a nap every day after dinner and at two o'clock he would get up and drink one cup of coffee and eat one piece of preserve bread. So one day when Grandma had his coffee ready, he did not come; she went and looked and he had died in his sleep.

Grandma Huesser (Schwendemann) was a pious and good woman. She had 1 child before she married Grandpa Huesser. She was married to Mr. Bilhartz and he died soon after this first child (Pauline) was born. So she married Grandpa Huesser. They had 5 girls and 3 boys. The girls names were Mary, Adline (she was my Godmother and lived to be 104 years old), Melanie, Cecilia and Helen. The 3 boys were Joe, Fritz and Eugene. Pauline Bilhartz married a Mr. Torres and they had a saloon across the street from Judge Roy Bean's Jersey Lily. Once in a while Grandpa would give his children a little money. When he gave his children $100.00, Pauline would get $50.00.

I went to Alsace (France) and found our Huesser relatives in Wittlesheim where he came from.

Our home was where Connie now lives. We had the whole half a block. We had a big barn, cow pen, hog pen, chicken house, rabbit hutch, garden, fruit trees and a flower bed. Half of the block was planted in hay in the summer and oats for the cows in winter. I was the oldest and Nedla is 3 years younger than I and Helen is 10 years younger than I.

We grew up and went to school every day and walked. No cars or bicycles. We went home at noon for dinner and going and coming to and from school the boys walked on one side of the street and the girls on the other. We had to go to Mass every morning. When we started school we could not speak English. We had first reader in English and first reader in German. We learned the German a lot easier than the English. We didn't learn the pronunciation of the V and the th_till later in life. We did not distinguish the difference between the a and the o. After school we would play. Hilmer Mangold and I were the best of friends, so were Nedla and Madeline (Hilly's sister).

We had cows and horses and mules on the streets. They kept the grass and weeds down in the street. My Dad fixed us a little wagon with shafts and he made a harness for a big goat we had and we would hitch the goat to the little wagon and haul rock, manure or anything. We had fun.

Many evenings, Hilmer and I would go with his Grandma to her garden at the river where Wiley Mangold and Kilhorn now live. She had a big garden and we would pump water from a shallow well for the garden.

In the winter time I always set traps. I caught skunks, possums, coons and bobcats. Our school would stink in the winter, never got rid of the skunk smell. We made a little money from the pelts.

In the spring we always fixed us a ball diamond on a vacant lot. We made our own balls and bats. On our playground at the school we had a six foot solid fence between the boys and girls. No playing together.

Sister Pierre was one of our teachers and she broke one of those yard sticks on me every other day. They didn't hurt, broke easy. Sister Marcella was our best teacher. She would have been a General if she were a man. She had discipline and when she cracked you with a pomegranate switch across your bare calf you had a red mark. But we learned under her. I still remember her every nite (sic) in my prayers.

We enjoyed our neighborhood. All the kids to play with. We played marbles, spin tops, hide and seek, all such dumb games, but we thought it was great.

In the summer we were in the river all the time. We had a big swing on a cypress tree just above the dam.. It would take you half across the river. We also had a spring board. That was our biggest enjoyment in the summer. Swimming and more swimming. The river was clean, we would dive way down and get a cool drink. The swimming hole above the dam was enjoyed by many people from all around, Hondo, Devine, D'Hanis and all the small communities would come to swim and play.

We went 9 years to the parochial school, and 2 years to the public school. We never had a library. At the public school we had two books, Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn. But we learned reading, writing and arithmetic. Never to (sic) good at spelling.

Our teachers at the public school were Miss Octavia Davis, Mrs. Sonny Haass, and Josephine Brucks. In the winter on Friday nites (sic) we would take the three teachers and go coon hunting from DeMontels up to Rio Medina. It was fun.

Later when we were out of school we would go to dances and surprise parties on the farms. Sweep out an old barn and go to fiddling. We always had a good dance on Sunday nites (sic). Wernettes Garden and Electric Park dance hall. We didn't go in blue jeans. We wore white shirts and ties, and the girls were all dressed nice, we respected each other.

Jimmy Klein was the good orchestra. Jimmy played 2 clarinets at one time. He was great. We danced waltzes, one step, trots, Charleston, and later when we were older we danced the old time dances. Waltzes, 2 steps, schotish (sic), put your little foot and others.

Grandpa Droitcourt played the fiddle, Aunt Alice the piano, and Paul Tschirhart the flute. No microphone, and you could hear them, real nice music. We really enjoyed dancing with all the nice ladies. My wife was a good dancer, well most all could dance well, because we learned young. The Brieden girls were light as a feather. Alice and I won the waltz contest at the Wernettes garden. Carrie and Laura were really good dancers. Mother and I really could dance the schotish (sic), we liked to dance it. I had several girl friends before I found Mother.

We had good teachers in our school. We learned the Baltimore catechism and I believe the world would be better today if we lived as we learned.

At Christmas time dad would get a cedar tree. Mother put a few candles, candy, fruit and a few trimmings, and sometimes a few gifts on it. I never will forget when I received a 20 cent can of paint for my bicycle. But we always had good eats every day of the year. Homemade bread, butter, cheese, bacon, sausage, blood sausage, head cheese, and all the good things that are no good so they tell us. That is all B.S., what goes in does not hurt, only what goes out.

Every Monday morning was wash day. Hot water was made and everything scrubbed on a wash board and all the wash and rinse water was poured to the fig (trees) and on the grass.

Friday all the good clothes was ironed. I remember one Sunday I used 3 ironed white shirts. When Tragasser opened the Electric Park Dance hall, I was the coat checker. 10 cents each. There were so many people I had hats and coats all over the room and checked out perfect. It was the best dance hall almost anywhere. Always had a big crowd.

Lots of bootleg beer and whiskey. I guess that's why so many came to Castroville, we had at one time 56 bootleggers wide open. Beer was 10 cents a bottle and whiskey was $1.00 a flask. Cheaper by the gallon. I watched Joe (Sport) Tschirhart and Uncle Rudolph make whiskey. It came out of the still white as water and about 180 proof. They put it in cleaned oak kegs to pour in the added water to bring it down to 90 or 100 proof. Everybody made beer at home. One of our favorite places to go was Ma Kempfs place. We would get a head of lettuce and a loaf of limburger cheese and go and get some beers and eat, sing and be merry.

Sport Tschirhart had one of the biggest joints in Castroville. Beer, wine and whiskey and poker games. I remember one day he had two poker tables going and the revenue agents were making raids. Henry Haller told all the bootleggers that Mr. Stevens was in town, so Sport told his brother, August, to go hitch up the hearse and stand in front of the house, so he did, and when Mr. Stevens drove by, he took off his hat, he thought there was a funeral with all the cars and the hearse around the house. By the way, one of the Newton boys was in a poker game. (The Newton boys were the last famous bank robbers).

When I opened the little grocery and the fruit stand, we would pack 1 can of Blue Ribbon malt, 1 Fleishmanns yeast, 1 pound of beer caps and 5 pounds of sugar. That was on a Monday morning. This batch would make from 80 to 100 bottles of beer. The cost of this batch was about $1.60 to $1.75.

We were married in 1929 on April 23, in LaCoste, Texas. We went to Dallas and Fort Worth for about 6 or 7 days. I had a model T touring car, but Alvin, my wife's brother, let us have his coupe. We left with 14 boots in the tires and 2 new tires in the trunk. We made the trip and never had a flat. We stayed in the new Plaza Hotel the first nite (sic) in room 342. We went to the Aztec Theater that evening and I don't remember the film, but I do remember a colored guy sitting under a railroad, and him singing "The Lonesome Road."

We paid $5.00 a month rent at Aunt Melanie's house. The little house in the back, it is still there. We had a hard time. The depression hit that year, but we made it. I remember the first month or so mother cooked some cabbage. When I walked in I said, "What in the hell do I smell?" She said, "I'm cooking cabbage." I said, "Goodby, I'm going to get me a hamburger." (Cost them days was 10 cents). She always tried to cook what I liked, she would ask my mother what I liked, but she never cooked any more cabbage.

We barely made a living but we managed, and when mother had to go to the hospital, we had $20.00 put away, but my father helped us and paid the hospital bills. I paid him 5% interest as long as he lived. He would rather have the interest than for me to pay him off when I was making some money. When he died I owed him $2,750.00, so I paid my sisters.

My dad was good to me and I was good to him. I would take him to Del Rio, but mostly to Eagle Pass to the races and rodeo. Eagle Pass had the best rodeo I ever saw. They had real big Brahma bulls and my dad really enjoyed those trips. Once I took him and Albert Hoog to Hot Springs to the races for a week. He didn't bet, but loved to see horses run. I rented a little house. Couldn't get a motel and we ate good. Albert Hoog would do the cooking. I think I paid $40.00 for the house for a week.

Going back to the rodeo, I think the best bull rider that ever lived was a young boy from Copperas Cove, he was the clown also, and was the only rider that could ride those big bulls. When he clowned he would run behind those big bulls, catch them by the tail and stick his feet in the ground and turn 3 flips before hitting on his feet, but only one year could he perform. He went to war and had his leg shot off and never could compete again.

NO REST WITH A RATTLER

by Ruth Hardt Koehler

Almost every spring, there are articles in the papers about rattlesnake roundups. The weather is turning warm and the snakes are beginning to come out of their dens into the warm sunshine. It has also become a way of making money with the selling of snake skins for boots, billfolds, belts, and other items. When I read these stories, an event in my memory again becomes vivid and I wonder why anyone takes the chance of being bitten!

It was a time of my life that I will never forget. Having just had my third birthday on February 27, 1924, it is probably one of my most impressive memories. We lived on the ranch at Yancey, in Medina County, Texas, and my mother's Frick family from San Antonio always loved visiting in the country; it was always one of our favorite times. The Frick family was a family of love, laughter and joyful living in spite of life's many hardships.

On the weekend of May 29, 1927, we had a houseful of guests and all the beds were occupied; so my parents, Anton and Laura Frick Hardt, along with my nineteen month old baby brother, Calvin, whom my father nicknamed "Pete", slept on a pallet on the screened back porch.

About 3:30 in the morning of May 30th, my mother was awakened with a severe pain above her eye. For a few minutes, she said, she sat up in bed and pressed her hand against her forehead thinking she could suppress the pain. But as the burning sensation continued, she got up and in the dark went into the kitchen and bathed her forehead with cold water thinking this might ease the pain. When this gave no relief, she got some matches and took them to my father who was lying on the pallet. Thinking it could probably be a scorpion, she told him they had better look for fear it might sting the baby. He took the match, reached over and lit it on the floor and as he did so he saw a diamondback rattlesnake slowly crawling away between the two pillows just beneath his arm.

Immediately upon seeing it he screamed, "It's a rattlesnake". He struck at it with a hammer which was lying nearby but it crawled through a crack in the floor and as it crawled away it rattled.

By the time my mother reached the front bed room, she felt as if she was going to faint; so she immediately lay down and my father who had been a nurse in World War I sucked the wound which he continued doing for about fifteen minutes. About ten or fifteen minutes after the bite her head began to swell and in a few seconds it was so swollen that she could not see. About fifty minutes after she was bitten, Dr. W. H. Smith of Hondo, Texas, which is thirteen miles from where we lived, arrived to administer the anti-venom serum, after which he lanced the bite from fang to fang. By this time she started vomiting blood and also hemorrhaging from her kidneys. I can vividly remember sneaking into the adjoining bedroom and peeping around the corner of the door to see the doctor as he worked. A loving aunt gently pulled me away.

Then she was taken to the Mechler Hospital in Hondo where they gave her a second anti-venom serum injection. She continued hemorrhaging for about six hours and her pulse was so weak that the doctor gave her glucose. She was strengthened immediately. In the middle of the afternoon the doctor left, finally having a little hope for her to recover. And she did! Had it not been that the two drugstores in Hondo had each received their first vials of anti-venom serum, she probably would not have survived. She got both vials!

The day after the bite, I remember watching my father, grandfather and uncles as they tore up boards and were successful in finding the snake. It had four rattles and a button.

But I remember more vividly the day that my mother came home from the hospital. They had not prepared me for the shock I felt when I saw her--she was home so she should have been normal. Instead, I saw a mother whose head was still swollen as large as a bucket and colored every color you can imagine--purple, red, green, yellow, etcetera. I fainted!

A week after she had been bitten, we went to San Antonio and stayed with her sisters for three weeks while she further recuperated. Here, due to her unusual case, Colonel Martin Lalor Crimmins<sup>1</sup> who had helped develop the anti-venom serum<sup>2</sup> came to visit her on several occasions and had her write down everything just the way it happened so he could report it to Washington. He later asked her permission to publish her story from coast to coast in the hopes of saving lives. It was a real thrill for us as children to see this handsome six-foot man arrive in his snappy military uniform and driven by a chauffeur.

Col. Crimmins was born on April 4, 1876, in New York City, the son of John D. and Lily Lalor Crimmins. He was an army officer, traveler, herpetologist, and military historian.<sup>3</sup> During his military career he had seen many soldiers die from rattlesnake bites. Prior to enlisting in The Rough Riders, Col. Crimmins was within four months of completing his studies at the University of Virginia and becoming a fullfledged Doctor of Medicine. While stationed in San Antonio in 1920, he was determined to find an antidote after watching a small child die from a bite. In 1924, he and a New York doctor began importing a serum developed in Brazil which worked. But in 1925 the federal government halted importation of the serum, explaining "It hasn't yet been sufficiently demonstrated." Having been bitten several times himself, it seemed that these absorptions of venom had made him partially immune. He resolved to make his blood an anti-venom serum. However, the army doctors would have nothing to do with the idea. Fortunately, Dr. Dudley Jackson of San Antonio consented to participate in the experiment. By receiving injections of snake venom smaller than lethal doses, he experienced the expected painful reactions until the fourth day when there was a marked lack of effect of the poison. Three months after the experiment, a three year old boy was bitten by a rattler and Col. Crimmins offered his blood. After the boy failed to respond to other treatment, it was accepted. The next day, the boy sat up in bed and played with his toys. He later fully recovered. Col. Crimmins' theory was proved.<sup>4</sup>

In 1953, Col. Crimmins received the Walter Reed Award "in recognition of courageous service to mankind." Col. Crimmins had allowed himself to be inoculated with snake venom until he could give blood transfusions to snake bite victims and later help to develop the anti-venom serum. Col. Crimmins died in San Antonio at Brook Army Hospital on 05 February 1955.<sup>5</sup>

Many years later, the Castro Colonies Heritage Association published the Medina County History.<sup>6</sup> In it, David W. Mechler wrote of the Mechler Hospital, "Mrs. Anton Hardt of Yancey was bitten by a rattlesnake on the forehead while sleeping. Her face was quite swollen and discolored and there was great fear for her life. Mrs. Mechler, realizing the seriousness of it pleaded with Dr. Smith not to let Mrs. Hardt die since she was the mother of small children. Dr. Smith, with tears in his eyes, promised that he was doing everything he knew to pull her through. Mrs. Hardt did recover and was later released from the hospital." She suffered no after effects in subsequent years, nor did she ever forget the excellent medical care she received.

My mother, Laura Josephine Rose Frick Hardt, born on 29 April 1893 lived to the age of 90, dying on 04 September 1983 and is buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Hondo, Texas, next to the grave of my father, Anton John Hardt, born 10 December 1892, who died on 13 June 1980. A city girl from San Antonio, she had given up a career in 1920 as a supervisor for Southwestern Bell Telephone to marry and move to the country and live with the man she loved. It was only after my father's death that she told me that her sisters said she would never make it in the country. She became an excellent cook and ranch wife, but most of all a remarkable woman.

In addition to my mother's snake bite, my grandfather Henry George Hardt, my father Anton John Hardt, and my brother Richard Wilburn Hardt, were all bitten by rattlesnakes on this same ranch.

Considering rattlesnakes from the lighter side, my husband and I were very amused by a recent editorial in the Hondo Anvil Herald, my very excellent hometown newspaper. If you haven't heard of it before, maybe you'll be as entertained as we were.

One of the funniest snake stories ever written has been making the rounds of Texas newspapers, and I dare you to read this one and keep a straight face all the way through. If it doesn't give you a laugh, maybe you'd better find out if you are suffering from a serious case of depression, as it is one of the best little humorous essays I have read.

It has been borrowed by so many different editors, that I won't try to say where I found it, but if you have already seen it, read it again and see if it has changed since the last time you saw it.

The patient was explaining why he was in the hospital. He said his wife had brought a bunch of pot plants and hanging baskets into the house to keep them from freezing, and it happened that a little green snake had hidden himself in one of those plants.

When the snake warmed up, it came slithering out of the plant and went under the sofa. The fellow's wife saw it and let out a great scream.

He happened to be taking a bath at the time, but he leaped out of the tub, and ran naked to see what his wife was screaming about.

His wife told him a snake was under the sofa, so he got down on the floor to look for it, and here came his dog and cold-nosed him. Well, he thought it was the snake and he fainted.

His wife thought he had had a heart attack and called an ambulance. The attendants rushed in and loaded him on the stretcher and started carrying him out.

About that time the snake came slithering out from under the sofa and the ambulance men saw it and dropped the stretcher and broke the fellow's leg and that's why he was in the hospital.

Well, with her husband in the hospital with a broken leg and a snake under her couch, the wife went next door to enlist the aid of a neighbor who had the reputation of being an outdoorsman, having camped out with the Cub Scouts last summer.

His wife was at the grocery store and he volunteered to corral the snake.

Armed with a rolled-up newspaper, he took a few swishes under the couch and declared that the snake had probably left the premises.

"Thank goodness," sighed the woman, plopping down on the couch. As her hand dropped between the cushions, it brushed a small scaly skin, which she immediately realized was the snake.

Screaming, she fainted dead away on the sofa as the snake slithered quickly back to the floor and underneath the couch.

Realizing that something needed to be done, the great hunter drew upon his meager first aid skills and remembered a demonstration of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation he had seen.

So he pushed the woman's head back into the proper position and just as he started the first breath, in ran his wife with a sackful of groceries after hearing her neighbor's scream.

Seeing her husband mouth-to-mouth with the neighbor woman on the sofa, she immediately slammed the sack-full of canned goods across the top of his head.

The crash and scattering cans brought the fainted woman up with a start.

When she saw the man laying on the floor, and his wife bending over him, she was sure he had been bitten by the snake, so she ran to the kitchen and brought out a small bottle of whiskey which she began to pour down the fellow's throat.

His wife, beginning to regret hitting him with the sack, was subdued but did manage to wrestle the bottle away from the well-meaning neighbor, sloshing some on both of them in the process.

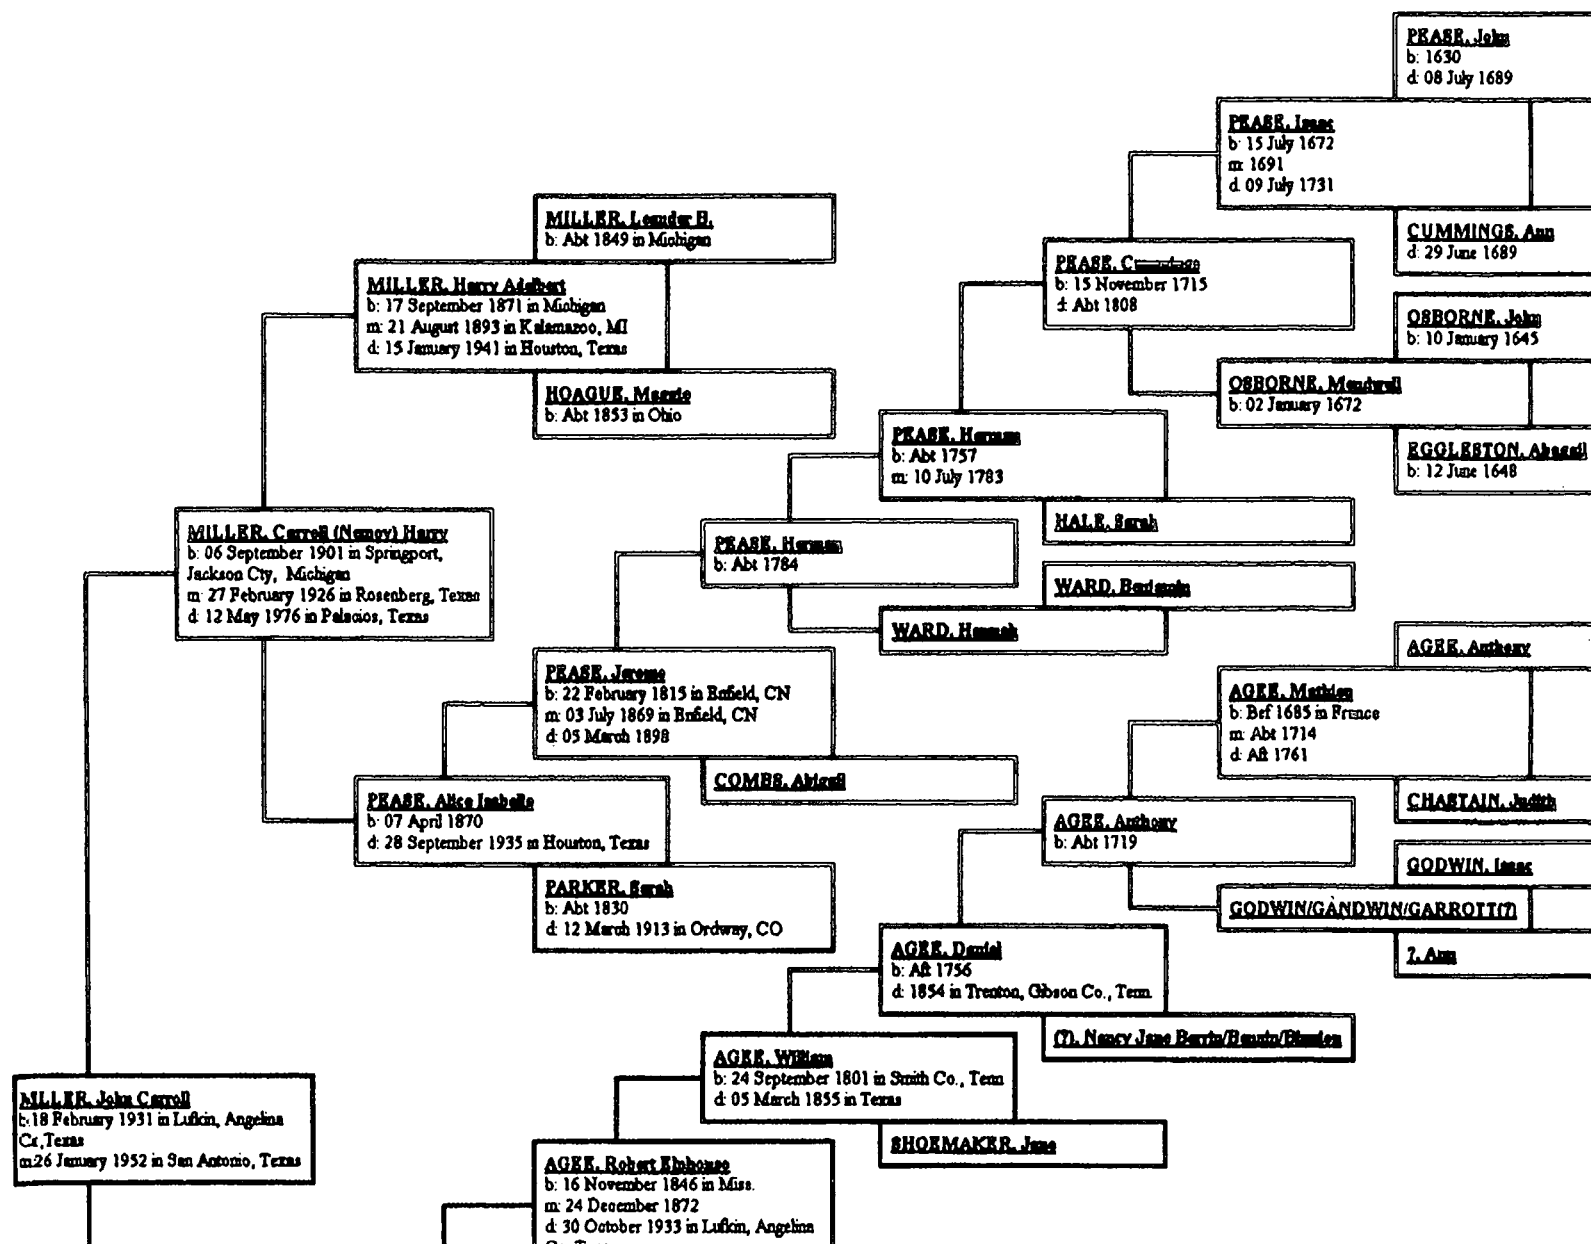

About that time, two policemen, summoned by a neighbor who had heard the screams and all the other commotion, walked in. After a sniff of the whiskey aroma from the man and both women, the officers listened politely as the two women, talking at the same time, explained about how a snake caused it all.

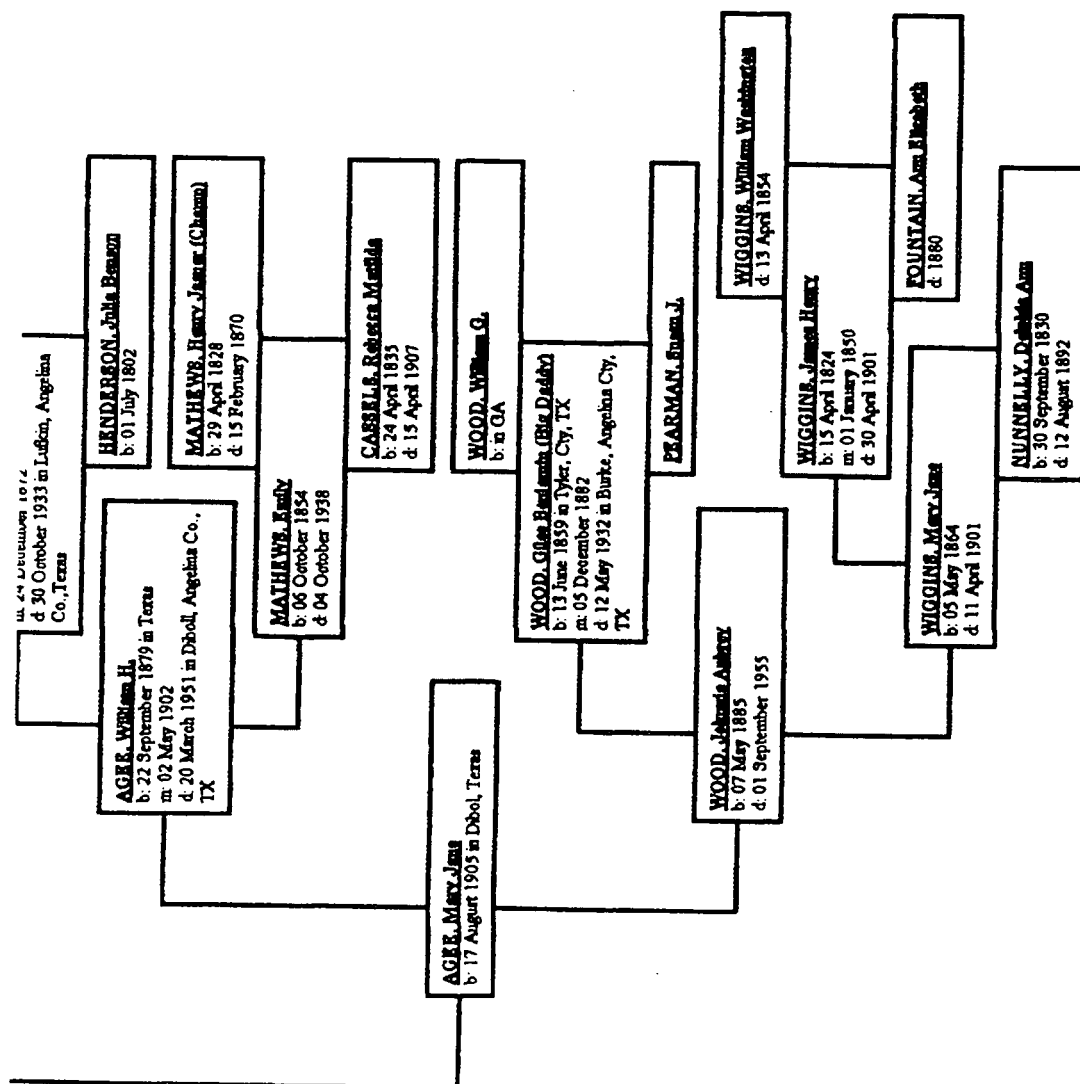

The policemen left with a summoned ambulance containing the unconscious husband and his sobbing wife, leaving the first woman completely unbalanced with a very small and scared snake hiding under the sofa.

A SURPRISING TRIP TO WENDELSTEIN, GERMANY

In October, 1995, we had two weeks to visit Poland and Germany in search of records of my Hirdler-Mihm and Wagenknecht-Schmidt families. Although they were all of German ancestry, the places they had lived were now in Poland and the former East-Germany as well as the former West-Germany.

Armed with my Family Group Sheets printed in both German and Polish, postcards from the 1930s showing scenes of the places they had lived, and Grandpa Hirdler's recollections of life in Peilau before emigrating, George and I started out with great expectations.

Wrong! Without an interpreter in Poland, or in the former East Germany, there was no way at all to get any information or ask any questions! Only the hotel clerks spoke any English and that was very limited. I was showing my postcard of Herrmann's Bleach Factory at the hotel in Zary, Poland (formerly Sorau, Schlesien) when a guest there, an older local man, looked at the picture and said he remembered the place, but it was no more. That was the extent of any assistance in genealogical research.

Our center of operations in Poland was in Wroclaw. Dr. Carl Benjamin Hirdler, the one who brought his family to America in 1860, had lived in the village of Peilau (now renamed Pilawa). Our first stop was at the town of Dzierzoniów (formerly Reichenbach). This was the village two miles from Peilau where the shoemaker, Kirkoff, gave C. B. a chance to repair shoes. We bought a city map at the tourist office and found the road to Pilawa. Except, now there were three Pilawas on the map: Pilawa Dolan, Pilawa Dln. and Pilawa Grn. I had no idea what the abbreviations meant, or why there were three locations, none of which were located on the river Oder (Odra in Poland). According to Grandpa Hirdler, his mother (an illegal Baptist) was baptized in the Oder shortly before he was born.

We drove there, found an old church and walked through the cemetery, but only Polish names were on the headstones. In fact, that was the case at every cemetery we checked. We had the distinct impression that Germans were still 'persona non grata' in Poland. Nothing was ever said, but you had that feeling. In visiting Auschwitz, for instance, they were most careful to never refer to their captors as Germans, they only referred to them as Nazis. However, I do believe that any headstones with German names would have been removed long ago, so we quit that search.

Next, we visited two towns near Zielona Góra: Sagan (now Zagan) and Sorau in der Nieder Lausitz (now Zary). Incidentally, one guide book that I read about Poland informed that it was illegal to bring into Poland maps with the German names of the cities! At any rate, the towns were interesting, but we didn't find any clues to our ancestors. August Wagenknecht had his Bleach factory there, and it was there that he went into debt and had to make a quick exit to avoid debtor's prison. My records show that Grandma Hirdler's siblings, Babette Helena, Frederick Carl, August and William C. were all born in Sagan, near Sorau, which was in Schlesien at that time.

I have a beautiful photo of Marie Wagenknecht and her mother Helena Schmidt Wagenknecht that was taken by the photographer Ernst Köppe, in Sorau N/L, possibly in April 1866. Marie was 14 years old and dressed for her confirmation. Unfortunately, we were in Sorau on a Saturday afternoon, and no chance to return during business hours, even if we could find the studio and even if we could talk to anyone.

So far, we were batting zero. Well, we had better information about our next stop in Mühlhausen, Thuringia, in the former East Germany. We had tried to visit this town when we were in Germany, in 1987, but it wasn't possible. Our friends Ted and Gisela Olpp did go there for us trying to find Church records.

We spent two days in Mühlhausen with the same results as before: we couldn't find anyone to consult. According to the family history, my great-grandmother Martha Marie Mihm was born and married in the same house at #18, St. George Place, "a stone house built in the 11th Century". Neither the Olpps or George and I could find any St. George Place or a St. George church. We visited a number of churches there, and also the remains of the old city walls and towers. It's a very interesting town but the mystery remains regarding the marriage of Martha Mihm to a man from Peilau. Even driving, we found it's a considerable distance between the two towns. How did they meet? When did they remove to Peilau? They were married on January 10, 1851 and the first child was born on February 22, 1852 in Peilau. Well, another little mystery to solve.

The last town to visit was Wendelstein in Bavaria. When I showed my post card of Wendelstein to Gisela Olpp, she said right away, that's near Nürnberg (Nuremberg to us). We drove through the entire town and didn't see the building on the card. There was a street going North, so we drove it to the end, and still nothing. Back to the main street and found a street going South. It curved along, and around one bend, there was our building! It was exactly like the picture I had. We went inside and at the counter, I showed a woman my postcard and the Family group sheet in German. She didn't speak any English, but was impressed with the card printed in the 1930s. She called another worker who did speak English. When I told her that my grandmother was born in Wendelstein and I was looking for records, she began making phone calls immediately. The people in this town in the former West Germany just couldn't do enough to help us. What a contrast with the other towns we had visited!.

The postcard had been erroneously labeled "the Church where Uncle Will was christened". Actually, the building was formerly the Rathaus (City Hall). This young lady made an appointment at the church for us that afternoon. We visited more cemeteries in the meantime, but no Wagenknechts. The St. George Church was only a few blocks away, and there we met Herr Goddard and Gertrude Weber. The really strange thing was that Frau Weber lived in the neighboring town of Rednitzhembach, and never came to Wendelstein on Monday. However, on this particular day, she was here to play the organ for a funeral. Apparently she was the local authority on the family lines, so we were fortunate to see her. They were both excited about the old pictures and the old memo written in Wendelstein in 1852. Herr Goddard produced the Church records and we looked for April 1852. It was all right there-the record of her baptism on April 4, 1852. I asked Frau Weber if that was customary to baptize so soon; in grandma's case, the day after she was born. She said sometimes they even baptized the very day the child was born. This was because, in their religion, if the child died before being baptized, it would go straight to Hell.

Next we checked the Church Record and it was full of surprises. Her mother's name was Helena Johanna Friedericke Schmidt and the father was Johann August Wagenknecht from Deutschmachen in the Sagan region. They were NOT married. Helena was the youngest daughter of Johann Friederick Schmidt, a pappendeckel macher. In different handwriting was a note that Helena and August were subsequently married in December, 1853 in Sorau, Silesia. At the same time, we checked the records for March 22, 1828 for the baptism of Helena Schmidt, but there was no entry.

Frau Weber translated the paper I had brought, and we had another surprise. The paper was a prayer for Grandma's life and well being and was signed by the midwife Marie Regina Margareтта Felsner. In other words, Grandma was named after the midwife and godmother. Frau Weber already knew about Frau Felsner and told us that she lived at house #6 and was the wife of George Felsner, a bricklayer.

This answered another question that had always bothered me, and that was that my Grandma, Marie Regina Margareтта Wagenknecht was born in Wendelstein, Bavaria, yet her four brothers and sisters were all born in Sagan, near Sorau, Silesia. Now it made sense, Helena lived in Wendelstein, but after Grandma was born, she moved to Sagan, married August Wagenknecht and lived there until coming to America in 1867.

Another question that bothered me was that when August sued Helena for divorce in St. Louis MO in 1873 (yes, that's another great story), he stated that they were married on the 27th day of December, 1853. This didn't quite agree with the fact that my Grandma was born on April the 3rd, 1852. Now we know the true story. Was my great grandfather August Wagenknecht a rascal? I think so.

On 1900 Census for Travis Co., TX was living with D. H. Armstrong family. She said she had three children, one living. From the early census records I can't tell if Albert and Robert are one and the same or different children. If they are the same, perhaps she is counting Caroline Coleman as her child. Her obituary is full of errors.

A family reunion for all the relatives of EZEKIEL SMITH (1781-1854) and his wife, SUSANNA DINGESS (1774-1848), is being planned to coincide with the dedication of a State Historical Marker to be placed in Riverside Cemetery in 1996, in Seguin, Texas. This cemetery contains about 2000 graves of some of the early settlers of Texas. The "old SMITH portion" is the burial site of EZEKIEL and SUSANNA as well as their sons, PARIS, PETER, FRENCH, CHARLES and their wives; their daughter, GERTRUDE, married WILLIAM ANDERSON DINGESS and remained in West Virginia.

Among those present to greet him were members of the committee, Mayor Baer, several members of congress, and Revolutionary War hero Lawrence Everhart, who had rescued the wounded Lafayette during the Battle of Brandywine....."

George Baer, Jr was a 4th great-uncle of Lorie Foster Henderson. His father, Georg B&R/George Baer, was born in Germany, and was the earliest known person of our Bair family to immigrate to America, possibly in 1732 on the "Dragon".

*...Run on the west side of Linville Creek by May 1774, Rockingham County, Virginia. South of Brock's Gap...deed dated 18 August 1773." Latter Day Saints, International Genealogical Index, Maryland, as of 1992.

**Re: "Bärin" and "Schellmannin": These are German feminine forms of Bär and Schellman, respectively. See Scharf, op cit, p. 526 regarding stones removed from the original site of the German Reformed Church cemetery which was dug up and the stones removed, "preparatory to the erection of a chapel, the inscriptions of the following stones were obtained: ....[includes apparent grandparents of Anna Maria "Bärin", George and Mary/Magdalenä Kimball Baer, Sr.]...Another marks the grave of Anna Maria Bärin...daughter of Henry and Elizabeth...most of these [stones] were in the German language."

***Elizabetha/Elizabeth Schellannin/Shellman Baer/Bear and Isaac Wison are the 3rd great-grandparents of Patricia Faller, 2561 Fairview Road, Madisonville, Tennessee 37354 Her Ancestor Chart documents this relationship. A copy of this chart was sent to the compiler by Leona Bair Kenney. Ms. Faller has furnished much valuable information leading to the extending of our knowledge of Bair ancestry back to German emigration.

****See LDS-IGI Maryland as of 1992, page 624. Anna Maria was not listed in the cited "Records of the Evangelical Reformed Church of Fredrick Maryland 1746-1800", translated by William J. Hinke & E. W. Reinecke, published by Family Life Publications of Silver Spring, Maryland. This fact was due to her birth in 1802, outside the time frame of the records in the book. The time, place, and names match well enough that it can probably safely be assumed that this child belongs in this family. The name "Anna Maria Kimbole Baer" suggests that she was named after her grandmother, referred to above. It was also a common practice for subsequent children to be given the name of one who previously died.

Additional Source: "Archives of Maryland - Muster Rolls and other records of service of Maryland Troops in the American Revolution 1775-1783", Volume 2; Baltimore; Maryland Historical Society, 1900. The names of Henry and his brother John are both listed, and confirmed by other information from DAR records described in Volume 16, No. 4, and Volume 10, No. 2, The Bear Family Newsletter. Putting this information together, it appears that both John (Family Group Sheet No. 240) served on the ship Defence, although not necessarily simultaneously. In addition, Henry was a Private (implying Army), and John is listed as part of the ship's company, described as a Yeoman in one roster, and as a Coxswain in another. John Robert Donnom Stewart was born 23 Nov 1831 at the family farm on Crooked Creek, between Charlotte and Wadesboro. This location was only a few miles from where his great grandfather, Matthew Stewart, settled when he came from Scotland in 1747. The area later became a part of Union County when that county was formed in 1842 from part of Mecklenburg and Anson Counties.

John D. had seven brothers and sisters, but he was the only one to survive to adulthood; he was orphaned at sixteen years of age. His uncle, Eli Stewart, helped John D. find a position as clerk in Charlotte. In 1853, John D. went into mercantile business for himself and, over the next 30 years, became one of central North Carolina's leading merchants and an administrator of charitable causes.

John D. was known as "The little man", being of very slight physique. "Of his personal qualities, he transmitted to his children in varying degree intelligence, perceptiveness, a love of music, honesty, interest in education and, yes, acquitiveness."

This information is excerpted from a memoir written by John D. Stewart, M.D., a grandson.

CONTINUUM

Time is a melody,
 Played note by note;
 Some sweet,
 Some sour,
 Some played off key,
 Some fancy free.

It is a series of "now", "now", "now".

You can live in the past,
The present,
Or what is yet to be.
But if you live in only one,
You hear
Only one note,
Not the melody.

The Austin Genealogical Society

GENERAL INFORMATION

PURPOSE: Austin Genealogical Society was organized in 1960 as a not-for-profit corporation chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect and preserve genealogical and historical information about the people of Texas, particularly pertaining to the City of Austin and to Travis and surrounding counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records of genealogical interest. In addition, the AGS supports the Genealogical Collection, Texas State Library by donations of books and other genealogical material. Gifts and bequests to AGS are tax-deductible to the full extent permitted by law.

MEMBERSHIP is open to all upon payment of annual dues: $15 per individual, or family membership of $17 for two in the same household, entitling them to one copy of each Quarterly and monthly Newsletter, as well as two pages apiece (a total of four pages for $17 whether one or two people submit listings) in the Ancestor Listing issue (June). After 1 July, dues are $7.50 for the balance of the year, but you will only receive the publications produced after the date you join.

DUES FOR EXISTING MEMBERS ARE PAYABLE on or before JANUARY FIRST of each year for the ensuing year. If dues are not received by 1 February, the name must be dropped from the mailing list. If membership is reinstated later and Quarterlies and Newsletters have to be mailed individually, postage must be charged. (Back Quarterlies are supplied only IF available--very few extras are printed). Send payment to AGS Treasurer, P.O. Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507.

MISSING COPIES: If your Quarterly does not reach you by the 10th of April, July, October or December, notify the Society at Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507. (Note: Exchange Quarterly Chairs should use the TEXAS STATE LIBRARY address on the inside front cover). Members who fail to give AGS sufficient advance notice of address changes and whose Quarterly is returned by the Post Office will be responsible for the postal fee for returned copies and for remailing the copy at individual rather than bulk mailing rates.

MEETINGS of the general membership begin at 7:30 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month except August and December. Members are encouraged to come as early as 6:30 to socialize with each other. MEETING PLACE: Eaton Hall, Covenant Presbyterian Church, 3003 Northland Dr. (Take Northland (FM 2222) exit off Loop 1 (Mopac). The Church is on SE corner of intersection and entry to parking lot is off Northland. VISITORS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME. The Board of Directors meets at 6:15 in a separate room.

BOOK REVIEW POLICY: Books on appropriate subjects related to genealogy will be reviewed, but CANNOT be reviewed in AGSQ on the basis of advertising alone. If a review copy is received by the Review Editor at 2202 W. 10th. St., Austin TX 78703 by the first of February, May, August or October, it will be reviewed in the next Quarterly, space permitting. It will then be placed in the Genealogy Collection, Texas State Library, available to all patrons.

CHECK RETURN POLICY: Members and other payees must pay AGS the cost of any returned check (currently $5.00) over and above the charge their bank may impose.

AGS QUARTERLY is issued about the middle of March, June, September and November. Contributions are welcome, subject to editing for style/size. Contributor is completely responsible for accuracy and any copyright infringement. AGS assumes no responsibility for content of submitted material. See inside front cover for address.

ANCESTOR LISTING PAGES (June issue of Quarterly) must reach the Editor at 4500 Hyridge Drive, Austin TX 78759-8054 by the TENTH OF MAY. They must be BLACK and LEGIBLE, whether typed, handwritten, computer-printed or in superior calligraphy. Months must be SPELLED or abbreviated, not in figures. DATES SHOULD BE SHOWN in accepted genealogical style, that is, DAY, MONTH, YEAR. Allow space for binding at inner margins of facing pages; i.e., your first page will be a left-hand page. Carefully check horizontal pages (reading in the 11-inch direction). Otherwise, the Editor has to position some pages upside down to prevent loss of data in the stapling-punching process. NO 8½x14 sheets, please!

You may submit Lineage or Family Group charts, Ahnentafels, narratives, cemetery inscriptions, Bible records, census data, queries, or a combination of material, just so it is not under copyright. BE SURE to proofread your material for accuracy and clarity so we will not publish faulty or incorrect data. Put name and address of submitter on each page in legible form (not blind embossed). Consult a recent June Quarterly for suggestions. Remember that reproductions are dimmer than originals so try to provide good quality originals.

REMEMBER: $15 membership secures two facing pages.
$17 membership allows you four pages.

DEADLINES for everything in the Quarterly except book reviews: 10th of February, May, August and October. Material sent addressed only to AGS Box Number may not reach Editor in time.
