AGS ANNUAL SEMINAR WILL RETURN IN 1997

This year for the first time the AGS Board opted for several reasons to defer the annual seminar usually held in August. We hope readers will be pleased to know that Board members are already hard at work planning an event for 1997. Kelly Barnhill has accepted the challenging but rewarding job of chairing the event and a scheduled date and speaker are being defined. We expect to have specific information in the November quarterly and it will of course also be highlighted in the monthly Newsletter.

KELLY BARNHILL AND JOHN C. MILLER JOIN AGS BOARD

We are pleased that Kelly and John have consented to join the Board of Directors of AGS for the remainder of this year, replacing Lee Kinard and Dr. Jay Shurley, both of whom had moved from Austin recently. Kelly has already agreed to chair the '97 Seminar as mentioned, and we look forward to working with both of them in the months ahead.

TSGS ANNUAL CONFERENCE IN TYLER IN NOVEMBER

The Texas State Genealogical Society represents to the state of Texas what AGS accomplishes on the local scene: serving the genealogical needs of the represented areas in whichever ways they can. AGS is a societal member of TSGS and many of us are individual members. TSGS is a vigorous organization, accomplishing many things beyond the scope of AGS such as computer BBS data accessing, and particularly these past two years, issuance of Texas First Families certificates to qualified descendants of citizens of the Republic of Texas who apply.

TSGS is holding their annual conference in Tyler, Texas on November 1-2, 1996, with a very interesting program of activities. The program for this conference is reproduced on Page 154.

KENEDY, TEXAS, CLASS OF 1928

One of the pleasures of the editor's job is that, every now and then, we are given material which in some unique way associates with genealogy or at least family history. In the March issue we mentioned the Ramsey-Brieger family bible. This time, it happens to be a small handbook of English composition undoubtedly used by the Kenedy, Texas senior class of 1928 with class information written within the covers. The written material is reproduced on pages 157 and 158. If anyone can relate to that time and place or those people, please let us hear from you.

If anyone else has anything out-of-the-ordinary like these items, please let us know. By the way, we haven't heard from anyone about the bible but that doesn't detract from its interest.

AGS AND THE AUSTIN PUBLIC LIBRARIES

The Austin Public Library has operated the North Loop branch library at 2210 Hancock for a number of years. Immediately to the east of the library is a movie theater building no longer in use. The City has been able to acquire this property and expects to renovate the building into a branch library facility perhaps twice the size of a usual branch building. Because of all this, it may be possible to include some genealogical resources and space into the format of the expansion. This would be a great achievement, and AGS, represented by Board member Bill Nash, is staying in touch with the library planners on this.

MORE TRAVIS COUNTY 1850 CENSUS DATA

We deferred including any more Travis County 1850 Census data in the June quarterly because of the sizeable contributions received for our annual members' issue, but we're picking up again this time, presenting Families #87 through #148. The section begins on page 162. Significantly, Barbara Goudreau has included four full pages of updated information on families already listed, all volunteered by members and readers. Here is where the project really begins to pay off. Barbara and Jerry Goudreau have done an enormous amount of work already, adding what they find from the 1860 Census, their Travis County cemetery files and other sources. But they would readily admit that it represents only a few points on the families genealogy curves, and the added information they are very happy to receive will be included in these issues for all to benefit from. Thanks to all of you and thanks again to Barbara and Jerry.

REPRINTS

In the June members' listings we erroneously reduced the submissions by Lorrie Henderson and Peter Maxson. They are in AGS as family members and are each entitled to four full pages. We apologise and are reprinting their data full size starting on page 142..

AGS Welcomes Wendy Clark

Everyone in our Society is pleased to know that a new Supervisor of the Genealogy Collection at the Texas State Library has been selected. She is Wendy Clark, a Pennsylvanian by birth and a Virginian for most of her life. For the many of us with family roots back East, that in itself is very good news.

Wendy was born in Bedford County in south central Pennsylvania. When she was four, the family moved to Winchester, Virginia, where she grew up and which she accordingly considers "home." She became exposed to and enamored of library work in the Handley Library, the Virginia Regional Library for the Winchester area. This facility does have good genealogical resources and she received an excellent indoctrination in the field.

In 1987 Wendy departed the Handley to begin work for Virginia's state library in Richmond, formally titled "The Library of Virginia." Her initial assignment was as a library assistant; she was shortly promoted to Archivist, working primarily in Public Services. In 1993 she took leave to complete work on an MLIS degree at the University of South Carolina. In 1994 she co-authored with two others a "Guide to Business Records in the Library of Virginia." Her most recent position has been Branch Manager of the Roanoke County, Virginia, Public Library, from which location she comes to Austin.

Wendy is single and looks forward to enjoying the good life that Austin and Texas affords. She is an attractive and charming person, obviously knows her profession well, and looks forward with much enthusiasm to her position here. Well, we're glad you're here. A very warm welcome, Wendy.

- *...Run on the west side of Linville Creek by May 1774, Rockingham County, Virginia. South of Brock's Gap...deed dated 18 August 1773." Latter Day Saints, International Genealogical Index, Maryland, as of 1992.
- Re: "Bärin" and "Schellmannin": These are German feminine forms of Bär and Schellman, respectively. See Scharf, op cit, p. 526 regarding stones removed from the original site of the German Reformed Church cemetery which was dug up and the stones removed, "preparatory to the erection of a chapel, the inscriptions of the following stones were obtained:[includes apparent grandparents of Anna Maria "Bärin", George and Mary/Magdalena Kimball Baer, Sr]....Another marks the grave of Anna Maria Bärin...daughter of Henry and Elizabeth...most of these [stones] were in the German language".
- Elizabetha/Elizabeth Schellmannin/Shellman Baer/Bear and Isaac Wisong are the 3rd great-grandparents of Patricia Faller, 2561 Fairview Road, Madisonville, Tennessee 37354 Her Ancestor Chart documents this relationship. A copy of this chart was sent to the compiler by Leona Bair Kenney. Ms. Faller has furnished much valuable information leading to the extending of our knowledge of Bair ancestry back to German emigration.
- *See LDS-IGI Maryland as of 1992, page 624. Anna Maria was not listed in the cited "Records of the Evangelical Reformed Church of Fredrick Maryland 1746-1800", translated by William J. Hinke & E. W. Reinecke, published by Family Life Publications of Silver Spring, Maryland. This fact was due to her birth in 1802, outside the time frame of the records in the book. The time, place, and names match well enough that it can probably safely be assumed that this child belongs in this family. The name "Anna Maria Kimbole Baer" suggests that she was named after her grandmother, referred to above. It was also a common practice for subsequent children to be given the name of one who previously died.
- Additional Source: "Archives of Maryland - Muster Rolls and other records of service of Maryland Troops in the American Revolution 1775-1783", Volume 2; Baltimore; Maryland Historical Society, 1900. The names of Henry and his brother John are both listed, and confirmed by other information from DAR records described in Volume 16, No. 4, and Volume 10, No. 2, The Bear Family Newsletter. Putting this information together, it appears that both John (Family Group Sheet No. 240) served on the ship Defence, although not necessarily simultaneously. In addition, Henry was a Private (implying Army), and John is listed as part of the ship's company, described as a Yeoman in one roster, and as a Coxswain in another. Page 38: "When word reached Frederick that the French General, Marquis de Lafayette, was planning to visit the United States in 1824, a committee of citizens invited him to come to Frederick because many local men had served under his command during the revolution. Lafayette accepted the invitation, and when he approached Frederick on December 24, 1824, he was met by Frederick-tonsians on the Monocacy Bridge, just outside of town. Among those present to greet him were members of the committee, Mayor Baer, several members of congress, and Revolutionary War hero Lawrence Everhart, who had rescued the wounded Lafayette during the Battle of Brandywine....."

Book Reviews

Carl Hirdler, 1854-1936, and his Family by Phoebe Greene Simpson, 1421 Elm Brook Drive, Austin TX 78758-2245. 8 ½ x 11", 90 pp; Soft cover, single side, spiral bound. Contents, Author's Note, Photographs and Exhibits. Privately published by author.

AGS Member Phoebe Greene Simpson has been doing commendable service lately to her family and to genealogy in general. In the March 1996 issue we reviewed her publication of a collection of letters written mainly by her great-uncle, John Owens Greene in 1853-63. This achievement alone would have taken most people a year or more. She has now completed a life story of her maternal grandfather, Carl Hirdler, which we are now reviewing. Busy she has been, yes, but not hasty; both documents have had careful and loving attention and are an excellent testimony to the lives and times of these Greene/Hirdler family members.

We identify Phoebe as the author of this publication; it more nearly is an autobiography which Carl Hirdler himself prepared. As mentioned in the Author's Note, Phoebe's mother, Eva Hirdler Greene, in 1926 persuaded her father to write down his memoirs, and the bulk of the volume is taken up by that account. There is also a transcription by Phoebe's mother of an account by Maria Regina Margareta Wagenknecht (her mother, Phoebe's grandmother) of her life, likewise obtained in 1926. In addition, newspaper articles, obituaries, a number of family and location photos and an excellent descendants' chart of Carl Hirdler, fill out the details of a very interesting life and career.

Carl credits himself with being born in 1854 in Peilau, Province of Silesia, Township of Reichenbach, District of Breslau (then Austria). The opening couple of pages discuss the Klasse system of social structure then existing about as well as this reviewer has seen it done. Details of his early life, emigration voyage in 1860 to New York, and arrival in 1861 in Milwaukee with his family, are included. In 1862 the family moved to the sawmills of White Lake, Michigan where, in September 1865 Carl lost his right arm in a mill accident, discussed in almost clinical detail as he relates the story. Carl survived somehow, and acquired a handsome gloved artificial arm.

His eventual long-term career was as a salesman, traveling the rails all over the Midwest, selling nuts and bolts, hardware, coal and seemingly doing pretty well. On October 26, 1876 he married Mary Wagenknecht. They had five children, four girls and one boy. His story is filled with details of everything from railroad wrecks to sales records. Every paragraph is interesting and immensely readable. Carl apparently resurrected all these many intricate details from a seemingly incredible memory and all the descendant Hirdlers are the beneficiaries. The family chart indicates that Mary died in 1928; Carl survived her eight years, dying in 1936.

Phoebe has assembled in these 90 pages a genealogical gem which should delight not only countless family members but anyone else who reads it. We congratulate her on her excellent work and thoughtfulness in assembling this material in this manner. Phoebe and George Simpson have donated the review copy to the Texas State Library where all can enjoy it in turn.

Confederate Veterans at Rest; Archeological and Bioarcheological Investigations at the Texas State Cemetery, Travis County, Texas, Reports of Investigations No. 107, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, 4200 Smith School Road, Austin, Texas 78744, 512-389-4800. Douglas K. Boyd, Principal Investigator and six associates. 8 1/2 x 11", 343 pp; Soft cover, single side, bound. Table of Contents, Figures, Tables, Abstract, References, Appendices.

This commentary is intended to describe the above publication rather than review it. Those of us who live in the Austin area are at least minimally aware of the Texas State Cemetery, located between Comal, Navasota, Seventh and Eleventh Streets. It was established in 1851 and according to the report it is the only official state cemetery in any of the 50 United States. It has become the final resting place for over 3000 important Texans and spouses, including Stephen F. Austin, many governors and outstanding citizens, and General Albert Sidney Johnston and veterans and heroes of the Confederate States of America.

Interest in the cemetery languished for decades but improvements were made in 1910-15 and the early 1930's. Any of us passing the Cemetery along Seventh Street during the past several months has been aware of considerable construction and renovation activity on the site. This activity was initiated by a state interagency effort coordinated by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. It was started in 1995 as a state project "to promote the cemetery as a historical site, to increase public access to and visitation of the cemetery, and to foster public awareness of the many important historical figures who are buried there." It is a commendable undertaking in which all Texans can share pride of accomplishment.

The impetus for the above-referenced report was the realization that implementation of the renovation would require the moving of 57 burials of Confederate veterans and spouses within the cemetery to allow for landscaping and other objectives. It is to TP&W's eternal credit that from the first they handled this task with utmost respect for the remains and their descendants. Most of the deceased veterans had been residents of the Confederate Veterans' Home in Austin. An extended effort was made to determine and contact next-of-kin for all 57 but was successful for only 11 from which permission for moving was obtained. As for the remainder, the Department requested the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Sons of Confederate Veterans to represent them as next-of-kin. A number of other interested organizations, including the Austin Genealogical Society, were also consulted about the project.

This particular report, as the title indicates, covers principally the archeological and bioarcheological aspects of the movings and in that sense offers little information of a genealogical nature beyond the names and birth and death dates (and causes) of the 51 Confederate veterans and 6 spouses whose remains were moved. Since it is a scientific study, there are graphic descriptions of the findings in each of the 57 re-burials, including such details as pathology, coffin hardware and extraneous objects. Of some genealogical interest is the information that there had also been burials of Federal soldiers in the northeast part of the cemetery during the Reconstruction era. No current remains were found, and it has been determined from examination of various records that 62 burials in the National Cemetery on Paso Hondo Street in San Antonio had been moved there from Austin, possibly between 1880 and 1900. These records are being maintained at the Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery. The report presumes that no Federal troop burials remain in the State Cemetery.

AGS is grateful to Parks and Wildlife for sending us a copy of this report and are handing it along to the Texas State Library. No additional copies are currently on hand, but they should be available in P&W's new Visitor's Center here in Austin when it opens next year.

Travis County, Texas Pioneer Families as compiled from the Travis County, Texas 1850 Federal Census

Starting with the September 1995 issue of AGSQ, we have been presenting successive portions of the family listings in the Travis County, Texas Federal Census for year 1850, and we continue in this issue, presenting Families 87 through 148 starting on page 162. This sustained chore is being accomplished by AGS members Barbara and Jerry Goudreau, who have already contributed heavily to Travis County and Texas genealogy in many ways. Until it is concluded, we will, as space permits, carry successive portions of that compilation in each issue. In order that readers might be able to achieve backward continuity as they look at each issue, we will list the families contained in each of the previous issues.. This may be helpful since quite a bit of additional information on various families is being sent by readers to Barbara which in turn will be included in each issue (see pages 158-161 for this issue's updates). Numbers of Families by issue are as follows:

September 1995
Families #1 thru #16

November 1995
Families #17 thru #56

March 1996
Families #57 thru #86

June 1996
No Families Carried

September 1996 (this issue)
Families #87 thru #148

A Reminiscence of Kenedy, Texas High School, Class of 1928

The Editor has been given a copy of a Handbook of Composition (English) which was copyrighted in 1926 and which has some interesting information written in the covers and flyleaf. From the written information therein we surmise that it belonged to Loren Fore who was in the 1928 Kenedy, Texas High School and that it was likely a textbook or workbook used in an English Composition class at least during that school year. Because it may have some meaning and/or information to a reader or two, we reproduce on the next two pages the parts of the book which contained any personal writing. As you may note, the information includes names of senior class members, officers, sponsors, and, naturally, football team members and results of, presumably, the fall 1927 games. Kenedy is located between San Antonio and Corpus Christi.

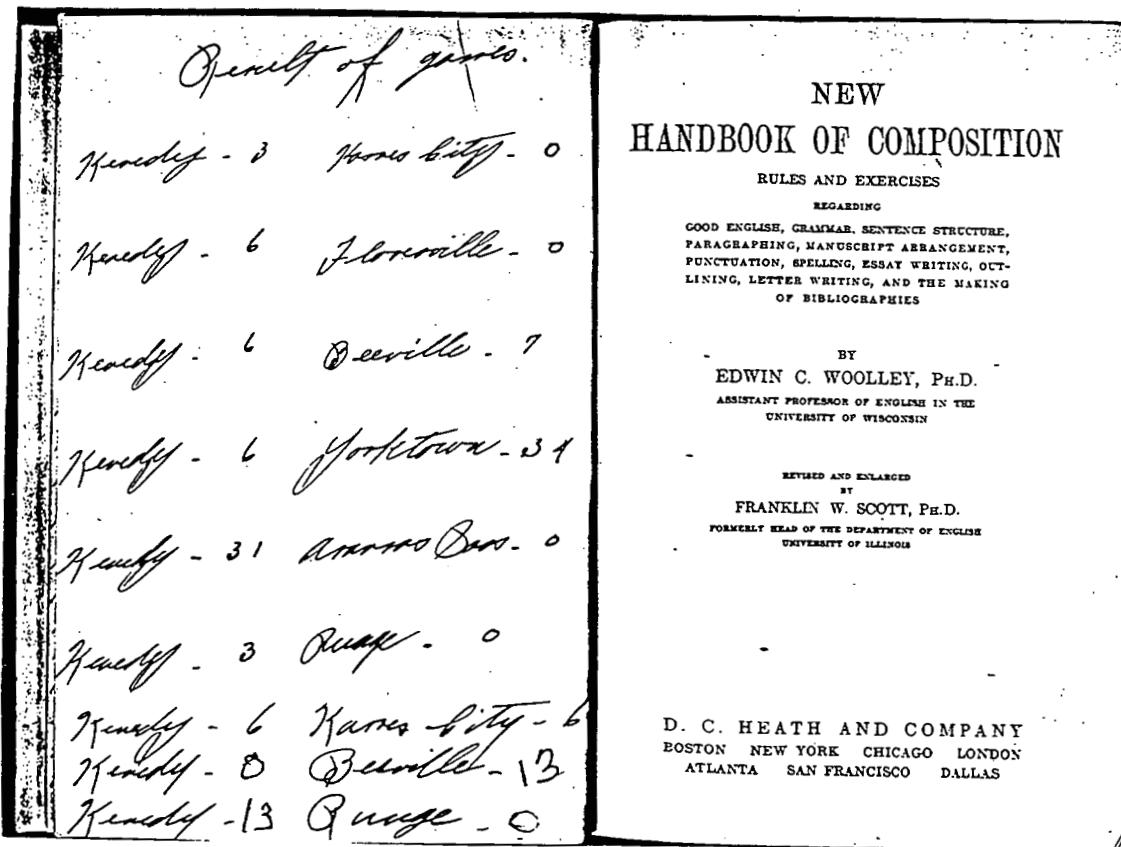

This may not be such a great find genealogically, but, having just attended his high school class 55th anniversary reunion (gee, this would be Mr. Fore's 68th), your Editor feels a bit nostalgic about these things. If anyone has any close association with the Kenedy Class of '28 and would like to see or have the book, please call us at 512-345-4409.

Family # 18 HIGHSMITH, Torica,

Should be Teressa Highsmith. She was Teressa Turner married Samuel Highsmith in Lincoln Co. Mo. Sept. 4, 1826. Nancy believes the Turner, Duty, Highsmith and Cottle families are connected. Added information from Audrey Rothers from McDade, Texas. She was very generous with her knowledge of Bastrop CO. TX records. Some of her information was sent to her from Mrs. Diane Cousins. She also sent information from the Frontier Times. It gave me a good insight on the family. Teressa was a Williams, raised by the Turner family. (Winslow Turner, Sr.'s stepdaughter). She went by the name of Turner. Her husband, Samuel Highsmith served in many civic, military and political duties. Died January 11, 1849. Large article published in Frontier Times, April 1940. He is buried in San Antonio. Exact place unknown, But probably near Market Plaza in an unmarked grave.

1st. son in 1850 Travis Co. census, Malkijah Benjamin (Kige) born in Brazoria Co. Tx., May 17, 1827. At 17 years of age, he entered his Father's Ranger Company. He married Evaline Coupee in Bastrop Co. Tx. in 1851. He died May 4, 1893.

Jul. 31, 1867. Later moved to Hutto, Tx. He died there, March 19, 1930. AS a Ranger he took part in the capture of Sam Bass. Note: Samuel Highsmith had his picture taken in Santa Anna's uniform, that he found in the bushes with his saddle, near Gonzales. ladened with silver. Highsmith melted the silver into spoons. This picture appears on cover of the "FRONTIER TIMES". 3rd. son, Edwin (Cormnodore or Com) Born about 1845 in Tx. No other information.

Family # 19: Meeks, John.

Information sent in by A.G.S. member Mildred Barker, 12629 Picket Rope Ln., Austin, TX 78727. Note: Correction on Amanda Meeks husbands name. It should be W.R. Reding. Amanda Meek and husband, W.R. Reding are buried in Bastrop Co. Tx. Amanda Meeks Reding was Mrs. Barker's great grandmother. Both are buried in Bastrop Co. Tx. W.R. Reding was the County Jailer in Bastrop Co. Tx in the 1880 Census. Amanda Meeks Reding died 7 June 1930. Her husband died in Austin at the St. Charles hotel on East Pecan Street on 21 Aug. 1882. Obit. appeared in the Bastrop and Austin papers. Their daughter Scottie Love Reding Smith, died Jan. 21, 1901, is buried in the J.J. Manor cemetery. Their daughter, Mary Isabelle Reding Downs, is Mrs. Barker's grandmother. She died Oct. 2, 1950 and is buried in J.J. Manor cemetery.

After 1 July, dues are $7.50 for the balance of the year, but you will only receive the publications produced after the date you join.

DUES FOR EXISTING MEMBERS ARE PAYABLE on or before JANUARY FIRST of each year for the ensuing year. If dues are not received by 1 February, the name must be dropped from the mailing list. If membership is reinstated later and Quarterlies and Newsletters have to be mailed individually, postage must be charged. (Back Quarterlies are supplied only IF available--very few extras are printed). Send payment to AGS Treasurer, P.O. Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507.

MISSING COPIES: If your Quarterly does not reach you by the 10th of April, July, October or December, notify the Society at Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507. (Note: Exchange Quarterly Chairmen should use the TEXAS STATE LIBRARY address on the inside front cover). Members who fail to give AGS sufficient advance notice of address changes and whose Quarterly is returned by the Post Office will be responsible for the postal fee for returned copies and for remailing the copy at individual rather than bulk mailing rates.

MEETINGS of the general membership begin at 7:30 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month except August and December. Members are encouraged to come as early as 6:30 to socialize with each other. MEETING PLACE: Eaton Hall, Covenant Presbyterian Church, 3003 Northland Dr. (Take Northland (FM 2222) exit off Loop 1 (Mopac). BOOK REVIEW POLICY: Books on appropriate subjects related to genealogy will be reviewed, but CANNOT be reviewed in AGSQ on the basis of advertising alone. If a review copy is received by the Review Editor at 2202 W. 10th. St., Austin TX 78703 by the first of February, May, August or October, it will be reviewed in the next Quarterly, space permitting. It will then be placed in the Genealogy Collection, Texas State Library, available to all patrons.

CHECK RETURN POLICY: Members and other payees must pay AGS the cost of any returned check (currently $5.00) over and above the charge their bank may impose.

AGS QUARTERLY is issued about the middle of March, June, September and November. Contributions are welcome, subject to editing for style/size. Contributor is completely responsible for accuracy and any copyright infringement. AGS assumes no responsibility for content of submitted material. See inside front cover for address.

ANCESTOR LISTING PAGES (June issue of Quarterly) must reach the Editor at 4500 Hyridge Drive, Austin TX 78759-8054 by the TENTH OF MAY. They must be BLACK and LEGIBLE, whether typed, handwritten, computer-printed or in superior calligraphy. Months must be SPELLED or abbreviated, not in figures. DATES SHOULD BE SHOWN in accepted genealogical style, that is, DAY, MONTH, YEAR. Allow space for binding at inner margins of facing pages; i.e., your first page will be a left-hand page. Carefully check horizontal pages (reading in the 11-inch direction). Otherwise, the Editor has to position some pages upside down to prevent loss of data in the stapling-punching process. NO 8½x14 sheets, please!

You may submit Lineage or Family Group charts, Ahnentafels, narratives, cemetery inscriptions, Bible records, census data, queries, or a combination of material, just so it is not under copyright. BE SURE to proofread your material for accuracy and clarity so we will not publish faulty or incorrect data. Put name and address of submitter on each page in legible form (not blind embossed). Consult a recent June Quarterly for suggestions. Remember that reproductions are dimmer than originals so try to provide good quality originals.

REMEMBER: $15 membership secures two facing pages.
$17 membership allows you four pages.

DEADLINES for everything in the Quarterly except book reviews: 10th of February, May, August and October. Material sent addressed only to AGS Box Number may not reach Editor in time.
