COMMENTS

THIS IS A COMBINED ISSUE!

The Board of Directors has authorized the publication of the third and fourth quarter issues of this Quarterly in the current year be combined and published as a single issue, identified as Numbers 3 and 4. This journal is the result of that combination.

This action is one of several which the Board has adopted as a temporary economy measure. Several months ago it became apparent that a shortfall might occur in the Treasury unless expenditures were reduced for the rest of the year. As is the case in so many organizations, this shortfall partially results from continuing increases in publication and mailing costs disproportionate to the increases in membership dues which were imposed last year. We are also finding increasing difficulty in deriving meaningful profit from our annual Seminar. At its outset in the early 60's the Seminar was virtually the only one to be found in the entire central Texas area and we did make a moderate profit each time. As interest in genealogy has proliferated (and that is very good), many new genealogical societies have emerged in this area (and that is also very good). Many of these now also sponsor seminars and workshops, usually on some given Saturday, so that finding a convenient open Saturday is far more difficult than formerly; this also affects attendance. Add to that the normal increases in site and speaker costs.

In addition to the educational and informative benefits provided by the Seminars, the AGS provides its membership with the monthly news letter and this Quarterly, frequent workshops for beginning genealogists in cooperation with the State Library staff, and ten monthly meetings usually with programs on genealogy. In addition, as a courtesy, we handle and coordinate with the State Library staff a growing number of genealogy requests from out-of-town. And, finally, we use all our extra

The Austin Genealogical Society was chartered in 1960 to cooperate with and help others interested in genealogical research. The Society's governing body is its Board of Directors of 20 members, half elected by the membership each year for two-year terms in alternating years. The Board selects from its membership the operating officers who serve one-year terms commencing each January. Society membership is open to anyone upon application and payment of stipulated dues.

The Society is a not-for-profit organization, with income mainly derived from yearly membership dues and seminar/workshop fees. The Society publishes a monthly Newsletter and a Quarterly journal. A specific purpose of the Society as mandated in its by-laws is the purchase of books and other genealogical materials for the Texas State Library, Genealogical Collection, located in the Lorenzo de Zavala State Archives Building in Austin. All Society proceeds in excess of operating expenses are devoted to this purpose. As a Texas State institution the Library's in-house funding is directed toward acquisition of Texas material and matter of broad genealogical interest. This state is somewhat unique in that the forebears of many current residents immigrated or moved to Texas from the United States during the time it was a Republic and there is considerable interest in the Austin area in genealogy pertaining to other states. Since the Library's internal acquisition capability is limited as mentioned above, much of what the AGS contributes to the Library pertains to genealogy from other states, thus enhancing the Library's usefulness to the widest possible group of users.

Further information concerning the Society may be found on the inside back cover of this publication.

funds, other than our operating, publication and mailing costs, to purchase a variety of genealogical materials for the State Library for new acquisitions (see box, bottom of previous page).

So we feel we are fulfilling a need, and must continue to do so. With all these factors in mind as well as the long-term health of the Society, the Board in 1998 will implement a new and broader membership policy. It is presented in more detail on Page 136. To be sure, it means increased membership dues for us all, but please remember---this is not like Congress legislating themselves a pay raise. Our added dues will benefit all members by a.) better assistance and acquisitions capabilities for the State Library, b.) better capability to continue our Seminars in a timely fashion, c.) assurance that the Newsletter and this Quarterly can be sent to you as we intend; that is, monthly and quarterly, respectively, and d.) continued monthly programs. Board members will work as hard as or harder than even without a cent increase in their paychecks!

OTHER ITEMS1998 SEMINAR

Plans are firming for the next AGS Seminar scheduled for Saturday, 25 April, 1998. Mentioning other details at this time would be a bit premature, but Kelly Barnhill has agreed to chair the event again and we are all happy about that. She handled the last one so very well and we know the next seminar will be as good or better. For now, break out those new next-year calendars and redline 25 April.

A SINCERE THANK-YOU TO JUANITA DODGEN

Juanita Dodgen, who has been and continues to be one of the real dynamos who keep the AGS humming, has elected to resign from the Board of Directors. For the many years of service to the Society which she has contributed as a Board member, we all fervently thank her, and wish there were ways rather than words by which we can express that feeling. The loss would be devastating if she hadn't agreed in leaving the Board, to assume the Hospitality Chair for the Society. This means the membership at large will see more of her as the Board loses her; her tremendous personality and vivacity should be there at every meeting, making everyone, particularly guests and visitors, feel welcome and at home. Thanks, Juanita, for all you've done and will do for the Society.

1998-1999 BOARD SLATE NOMINATED

At the September membership meeting the following members were proposed by the Nominating Committee for 1998-1999 positions on the AGS Board: Beryl Bergschneider, Leanna Bergschneider, Norma S. Hart*, Marilyn Maniscalco Henley*, Glenda Knipstein, Jean Shroyer*, Robert Tull, Jean Halden Walker*, Sue White*, and Wilena Young. The Board election occurs at the October regular meeting.

AUSTIN MEDICAL ARCHIVES

The Texas Medical Assn. Library at 401 West 15th St., Austin 78776, (512)-370-1300, has a number of medical and physician resource records and books, going back into the 1800's. There is a daily fee of $5 for use of the library facilities. The librarians are very courteous and helpful. Anyone with Texas ancestors with medical connections may find helpful information from this source. Lorrie Henderson has used this facility and found it quite useful for information on her physician great-grandfather.

AUDITED REPUBLIC CLAIMS

On page 123 is reproduced a reduced-size copy of a flyer from the Texas State Library and Archives Commission concerning on-line access to the Audited Republic Claims. AGS was attempting to index these military claims of the Republic of Texas when the Library, with its better resources, took over the project. We are happy this happened, and the on-line access works quite well. Be sure to check this resource if your lineage extends back to the Texas Revolution period.

The Editor

TAMARA ANN BALDWIN

1953-1997

With deep regret we record the death of Tamara Ann Baldwin, immediate past president of the Austin Genealogical Society on Sunday, 15 June 1997. She was interred in Citizens Cemetery in Clarendon, Texas.

Tamara was a native Texan, born on 25 July 1953 in Memphis, Hall County, Texas to Nellie Jon and Dan C. Baldwin, who survive her. Following graduation from Abilene High School she received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Telecommunications from Texas Tech University in 1967. In 1977 she moved to Austin.

Her talents and interests led to employment at Electronic Data Systems, IBM and Measurement Incorporated. She devoted much time to working at Live Oak Theater and was for some time manager of the Chromatics, an Austin band. She was also an active member of the Austin Music Commission. Along with other community projects she delivered Meals on Wheels for many years.

Along with her wide range of other interests, Tamara joined Austin Genealogical Society a number of years ago. From the start she was active and participative, particularly in the annual Seminar. She was elected to the Board of Directors in 1994 and was immediately elected to the office of President, serving for two years, 1994 and 1995.

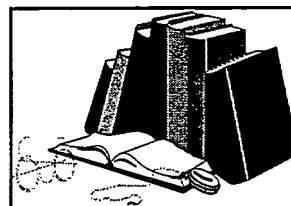

Tamara enhanced the Society with her insight, understanding and a wealth of youthful enthusiasm. She bore the affliction of terminal cancer for many months with calmness and dignity. She will be missed from the Society for these and countless other admirable qualities.

The Board of Directors of AGS extends heartfelt sympathy to her bereaved family.

Correction to second Query in previous issue (Vol. XXXVIII, No. 2, June 1997):

The Editor unintentionally omitted a line in this Query and it is repeated in its entirety below. Mr. Richard D. Jones, who submitted the Query, recently joined AGS and in so doing had submitted additional information for the annual members' issue, but it failed to be included. In other words, we doubly fouled Mr. Jones by way of welcoming him. We reproduce his letter of 28 June and accompanying photo on the following two pages and sincerely apologize for the omissions. -----Ed.

Lorrie Foster Henderson
Corresponding Secretary
P.O. Box 1507 Austin, Texas

Dear Lorrie Foster Henderson,

Thank you so much for answering my letter! Yes, I did receive the AGS Newsletter and the June AGS quarterly, thanks to you. Will be looking forward to the September issue as well!

I am enclosing a correction for the "Happy Hunting Ground", column printed in the June AGS quarterly in the format you are using. Hope this helps!

Also please find enclosed Group Sheets of Joseph P. Jones and family. Would like to hear from any descendent of this family who might know Uncles, Aunts or any extended history of these Jones's. Joseph is a third great uncle and older brother of Enoch Madison Jones, my great great grandfather. Joseph is found many times in the 19 volumes of the "Papers Concerning ROBERTSON'S COLONY In Texas." Believed to have come to Texas in 1833 because of the cold weather in Edgar County, Illinois and his ill wife. The father of these Jones's passed away in 1829, Edgar County, Illinois but the mother made it to Texas in about 1835. The father Thomas Jones was born in South Carolina, as well as his wife Elizabeth. Elizabeth died about 1853 either in Panola or Rusk county, Texas. She also is found in the "Robertson Papers", along with Enoch's family. We do not know her maiden name. The Jones community in N.E. Milam county is named after Joseph P. Jones, as "Jones Prairie." Joseph P. Jones is named as one of the dead in a mass grave in Western Navarro county after the Battle Creek fight in October of 1838 with the Arkansas buffalo hunting Kickapoo Indians. I believe also that Enoch Madison Jones was in this surveyor group of twenty-four men but was listed as P. M. Jones in the report. According to the Historical Recollections of Robertson County Texas with Biographical & Genealogical Notes on the Pioneers & Their Families; by: Richard Denny Parker, Edited By: Nona Clement Parker, Salado, Texas, The Anson Jones Press, MCMLV, pages number 23 & 24. The second paragraph page number 24 list the survivors as; Love, Henderson, P. M. Jones, Lane, Burton, Jackson, and Violet. Also the twenty-four men who had left Old Franklin were: #1 William F. Henderson, #2 William M. Love, #3 Joseph P. Jones, #4 Euclid M. Cox, #5 Thomas Barton, #6 Samuel Allen, #7 Ingraham. #8 J. Hard, #9 David, #10 Asa T. Mitchell, #11 William Tremier, #12 J. Bulloch. #13 Spikes, #14 N. Baker, #15 A. Houston, #16 P. M. Jones, #17 Walter P. Lane, #18 William Smith, # 19 Violet, #20 Dana Clark, #21 J. Neal, #22 Burton, and #23 Jackson. Although James Jones is left off this list he is given in other reference and should be the 24th man. This James Jones may be the same James Jones found in the 1810 census, Christian County,

Using the Online Index to Audited Republic Claims

What Are the Audited Republic Claims?

The Audited Republic Claims series includes claims for payment, reimbursement, or restitution submitted by citizens to the Republic of Texas government from 1835 through 1846. The records include supporting documents such as vouchers, financial accounts, military records, receipts, notes, or letters.

Because the actual Republic Claims are extremely fragile, access to the records is restricted to high-quality microfilmed copies of the files. The Online Index provides an alphabetical list of indexed names with corresponding microfilm Reel and Frame numbers where the indexed name appears in one or more Claims files. The microfilm reels are available through Interlibrary Loan and in the Genealogy Collection of the Texas State Library and Archives Commission.

How Do I Use the Online Index?

To access the online index, you'll need a computer with internet access and a web browser such as Netscape or Internet Explorer.

1. Point your browser to <http://www.tsl.state.tx.us/lobby/rc> to access the alphabetical index. An extensive user Guide to the Collection is also available at this site.

2. In the top frame of the page, click on any letter, A through Z, to view the index entries for that letter in the lower frame. For instance, if you're looking for all references to George Allen, you only need to look in the A-index.

3. Although the first part of the index may appear in the lower frame right away, wait until the letter index is completely transferred to your computer before beginning any search, or else you may not find all the listings you need.

4. Most internet browsers offer a FIND command which you can use to search for a specific index entry; you can also scroll through the list to search for specific entries.

a. If you use the FIND command, click your mouse on the lower frame to "select" it. This will tell your browser to search the Index frame, instead of the small Table of Contents frame on the top of your screen.

b. Remember to check for variant spellings for your search name, such as Alisberry, Allsbery, Allsbury, Alsbury, and Aylesbury.

What Information is in the Index?

Below is an example of a typical index entry:

Allen, George

Au--Allen, George	214	Reel:001	Fr: 0791-0796
Au--Allen, George	1063	Reel:002	Fr: 0007-0014
Au--Allen, George	1865	Reel:002	Fr: 0015-0018
Au--Allen, George	1951	Reel:002	Fr: 0019-0021
Au--Allen, George	4045	Reel:002	Fr: 0022-0024
Au--Griffith, Horatio	498	Reel:038	Fr: 0361-0361
Au--Read, Martha A.	7047	Reel:086	Fr: 0625-0625
Au--Roberts & Allen	3415	Reel:088	Fr: 0321-0321

Each index entry consists of an index term (which appears flush with the left margin of your screen) followed below by one or more file names, featuring an "Au--" prefix. The listed file names represent all the Claims files in which that index term is mentioned.

In the example above, George Allen has five "Au--Allen, George" entries, meaning that he has five Claims in his own name. In addition, George Allen's name appears in some capacity on another three Claims, the Horatio Griffith Voucher No.498, the Martha A. Read Voucher No.7047, and the Roberts & Allen Voucher No.3415.

The number to the immediate right of each file name is the voucher number. "Reel" refers to the specific reel of microfilm where that claim file may be viewed; "Fr:" refers to the range of frame numbers where that index term may be found. When a range encompasses more than two frames of microfilm, the index term will definitely appear on the first and last frames of the range, and possibly appear on one or more of the frames in between.

How Do I View a Specific Claim?

Once you've determined which particular reels of microfilm contain the Claims files you wish to view, you can contact your local library to arrange an Interlibrary Loan. Up to six reels may be borrowed at a time. Specific regulations for Interlibrary Loan vary by individual library, so call or visit your local library for details.

When requesting film, provide the reel numbers you wish to borrow and be sure to specify the Audited Republic Claims series, OCLC#37449683.

In Austin, you may also view the microfilm in the Genealogy Collection of the Texas State Library, located just east of Capitol at 1201 Brazos Street. The Genealogy Collection is open Tuesday through Saturday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., but closed on Sundays and Mondays.

Book Reviews

RUGELEYS IN AMERICA, Volume II: English & American Ancestors compiled by Helen H. Rugeley, Austin, Texas; published by Rugeley Family Association; privately printed. Hardbound with title on dustcover, 9"x 11.25"; 144pp.; 14-page full-name index (Rugeley names in separate section); bibliography, glossary, various tables.

For those of us who strive valiantly to assemble and hopefully publish what genealogical information we acquire, this book is an object lesson in the art and science. Helen Rugeley was immediate preceding Editor of this Quarterly and surrendered this position so as to devote more time to assembling family genealogy, particularly that of her late husband's family. She had played this publication like a literary great organ; she plays the Rugeley family saga like the eminent genealogist she demonstrably is.

As she mentions in the Preface (aptly sub-titled "'Must-read' Information"), she was elected editor of the Rugeley Family Association Newsletter when it was formed in 1988. This chore devolved two years ago into an assignment to compile and publish Rugeleys in America, including an expense-paid visit to England to research and assemble Rugeley data on-site. This she has accomplished admirably; traceable roots of the Rugeley family extend back to Geoffrey de Rugeley during the reign of King Henry II (1154-1189). The genealogy continues through twenty-one generations to children of at least three contemporaneous generation XX Henry Rugeleys, one of whom was the immigrant ancestor of Rugeleys in America.

Much Rugeley genealogy was included in Volume I of Rugeleys in America which is not part of this review. An additional source was a 1957 publication on the family entitled Twenty-one Sons for Texas by Arda (Talbot) Allen, a family friend. And there are other sources, well documented in a lengthy bibliography. Parenthetically, the bibliography is arranged alphabetically by book titles, rather than by writers, which is normal literary style. This was Helen's decision, and it does permit easy location by title, since references in the text are by names, not authors. All in all, it would seem that Volume II is the ultimate capstone to this project; anything more would seem only a bit more mortar 'teen the building stones.

There are many genealogical gems in the book, beginning on the first fly-leaf with a unique, helpful two-way ahnentafel, which reads down from Henry Rugeley (1) to Geoffrey de Rugeley (524288); alongside the numbers are, in reverse order by generations, roman numerals from Geoffrey (I) to Henry (XX). There are a few albeit handy charts and tables, including British county abbreviations, a table of regnal years of British monarchs (quite useful when one becomes involved in genealogical time-frames), and descriptions of some of the Rugeley estate holdings. In between is a wealth of genealogical detail: dates, deeds, letters, journals and so on. The convenient Glossary is also handy to have since Helen quotes much material verbatim, in the formal/colloquial English of the many centuries covered therein.

The book is well formatted, with necessarily small but quite legible fonts. Throughout the enormous amount of text material this reviewer found no typos (after all, what did you expect?) or other gremlins. It is fittingly dedicated to Dr. and Mrs. William RUGELEY Livesay, founders and sustainers of the Rugeley Family Association. Helen can feel justifiably proud of this notable accomplishment. Our thanks go out to the RUGELEYs Family Association and to Helen RUGELEY for furnishing a review copy which readers in turn may see at the Texas State Library.

A companion volume which Helen has also assembled is somewhat whimsically entitled RUGELEYS PAPERS; Blue-Blooded Brits in Reduced Circumstances. She found a collection of some 244 RUGELEYs family papers deposited in Bedford County Record Office in England during her sojourn there. Out of that collection she selected, painstakingly copied, and herein reproduced 97 letters from a sub-category Letters on Family and Business Matters. These letters were written by Henry and William RUGELEYs to and from their father and others during and immediately following their emigration to America. Their contents, the quaintness of language, the frankness of expression, the details of circumstance all bring that time of history to life in a way that no currently-assembled genealogy or history book can provide. Helen provides a number of helpful annotations throughout. The whole is interesting and informative reading for anyone, over and above whether they may be genealogist or family member.

THE DESCENDANTS OF CHENEY BOYCE, "ANCIENT PLANTER," AND OF RICHARD CRAVEN, FOR SEVEN GENERATIONS by John Anderson Brayton, 326 Garland, Memphis, TN 38014; printed by Cain Lithographer's, Inc., Jackson, MS; © 1996; $40 ppd. (NC residents add 6%); order from author. Hardbound, gold-embossed cover, 6 ½" x 9"; 486 pp.; 78-page full-name index; bibliography.

This book is the latest in an impressive list of previous works by the author (there are 17 identified Previous Publications in a list on the last page, all relating to genealogy or family history.) A reading of the book certainly supports the idea that the author is no neophyte in the field. There is a no-nonsense attitude throughout. Following an informative Introduction and Acknowledgments and four pages of Abbreviations, he plunges in Chapter One directly into the matter of Cheney Boyce, born 1586, who came to Virginia in 1617.

Quoting from the Foreword by Lyndon H. Hart, "Cheney Boyce and Richard Craven are both 'Ancient Planters,' and as such, were founders of the Virginia Colony." (Anyone with Middle Atlantic roots is familiar with the planter class; even the lofty Encyclopedia Britannica identifies it as dominating every aspect of 17th century Virginia and Maryland economic and political life. Fehrenbach in Lone Star refers repeatedly to members of Austin's colony as "planters", having emigrated from the southern Atlantic states.) Brayton deals with these two individuals' genealogies for the next seven generations.

The bulk of the book deals with the Boyce line. In Chapter Six, page 309, the author picks up Richard Craven, "who evidently was established in Charles City Co., VA, by 1622." Brayton copies verbatim the Minutes of the Council and General Court of Colonial Virginia to describe an incident in 1622 wherein a William Killdale threatened to or did shoot Cravens' dog; whereupon Cravens took after Killdale with a large stick. A neighbor was bitten, and finally reparations had to be made by various parties. Apparently even Virginia planter dogs were dogs.

There are four appendices, dealing in some detail with certain descendants: children of Mrs. Joyce (--) Boyce-Tye-Cogan; Dr. John Cogan and John Cogan, Jr.; three unplaced families (Gee, Tatom, Scott); and three Drury Gees. As the author traces genealogy he quotes extensively from extant archival records and other sources, and subjects each piece of material to seemingly extensive analysis and comparison. Of particular note and valuable assistance to researchers is the Name Index. Each person listed is identified with his/her generational number and under both maiden and married names. Significant to the time and location, there is also a separate Slave Index, not unexpectedly listing only first names.

The book is nicely formatted and arranged. As mentioned in the Foreword, the text font is Times Roman Legal 12-point, which provides easy readability (contrasted to the parsimonious 10-point used in this review.) A minor criticism could be made about the selection of a Courier font for the numerous footnotes; this makes them appear typewritten and gives the book a less-professional appearance than it deserves. Of additional interest is the copyright page notation that it was bound at Parchman State Prison, Parchman, Mississippi. This is certainly a constructive activity for the incarcerated and one hopes such activity can be expanded.

Although not for general reading, Brayton's book will prove invaluable to those involved with the Boyce and Craven lines out of Virginia. We sincerely thank him for contributing the review volume to AGS and the Texas State Library where it will be available henceforth for general perusal.

Generations of some Texas Moravians: Pavlicek, Morris, Sramek and Horak researched and compiled by Marilyn C. "Mickie" McGehearty Hrcir, written and published by Charles L. "Chuck" Hrcir, 7007 Bent Oak Circle, Austin, TX 78749; privately printed, © 1997. Soft-bound, 8 ½" x 11"; 133 pages printed single-sided; acknowledgments, Table of Contents, maps, pictures, list of sources.

In a well-written Foreword, Chuck Hrcir sets forth the circumstances leading to the publication of this volume; he and Mickie had spent years accumulating and publishing genealogical and family history information on the Hrcir and Gallia (his mother's) lines. As is always true, one acquires thereby much incidental information on ancestral and collateral lines associated with one's own line. This had happened to Mickie, and since they were winding down their genealogical work and there was no convenient repository in Texas for Czech genealogy, they decided to organize and publish their accumulations on the four subject families as a capstone to their years of effort. This publication is the result.

This reviewer cannot deny bias; Chuck is his cousin, once removed, and Sramek is our maternal grandmother's line. Trying to be mindful of this, it is nevertheless hard not to commend Chuck and Mickie for this accumulation; it is at least equal to their previous works. The bulk of the text material is in the form of generational family charts of each of the four families, carrying back to Johana Pavlicek, b. Mar. 1851, Palkovice, Moravia, now Czech Republic; Ferdinand Morris, b. Je. 1841, Chlebovice, Moravia, CR; Ignac Sramek, b. May 1816, Ticha, Moravia, CR; and Frank Horak, b. Jy 1815, Holesov, Moravia, CR. Since Ferdinand Morris married Johana Pavlicek a single family chart covers both lines.

There are helpful explanatory notes included in various places in the genealogies which help to flesh them out, but a separate text section to cover anecdotal and incidental family history material is not present; this book is valuable particularly for its genealogical information. However, there are numerous family pictures (marriage, family groups, Czech landscapes, etc.), all carefully labelled. The pictures are xerigraphically reproduced but are of excellent quality nevertheless. There are reproductions of several naturalization forms and land survey maps of areas of Fayette and Lavaca Counties, Texas where the families generally settled. Mickie is to be commended for careful and detailed annotations on these maps, locating family properties. One missing feature which is always helpful for at least casual perusal is a name index; however, since the family coverage is relatively narrow this is not a glaring defect.

Chuck and Mickie are to be thanked for their years of work and love in providing into permanent record the trails, troubles and travels of these and other Moravian families who did much to enhance the cultural fabric of their state and chosen nation. The book is not for sale but inquiries may be directed to their address. The review copy is being donated by the authors to the Texas State Library where it may be enjoyed by all.

A Beaver Married a Bair; Some Ancestors, Collaterals, and Most of the Descendants of Reverend Jacob Bair (Physician) and Sarah Beaver, of Seneca County, Ohio by the Compiler, Leora Mae Foster Henderson, 5722 Highland Hills Drive, Austin, TX 78759; privately printed; not for sale. Soft cover, spiral-bound, 8 1/2" x 11"; 417 pp, acid-free paper; introduction, 25-page full name index, pictures, newspaper articles.

This book is an obviously loving compilation of family genealogy by AGS member Lorrie Henderson, whose frequent submissions of charming anecdotes of family happenings have graced these pages from time to time. As she notes in the introduction, this is not a slick, finished, commercially printed volume; it is being printed informally for private distribution. Anyone further interested should contact Lorrie at her home address.

The book is a compendium of pedigree charts, family charts and group sheets, documents, pictures, letters and memorabilia covering the family of Rev. Jacob Bair, b. Jan 1790, Rockingham Co., VA, and Sarah Beaver (Beever), also b. Jan. 1790, VA. Thus the intriguing title; yes, a Beaver did marry a Bair, with, in this case, most happy results, including Lorrie herself. The Bair line is traced back to Georg Bair, b. 1728, Germany. Most of the content deals with the family's Midwest genealogy, particularly in Ohio and Iowa.

Many of the pages are direct reproductions of the charts themselves, often with information in handwriting, befitting the informality Lorrie alludes to. This is not a drawback; no pages were found where information was not readable, although occasionally dim. There is a wide variety of pictures; some are family portraits, others are scenic. The reproductions do not all come out clearly, but all are at least sufficient to enhance the book. The pictures are in all cases sufficiently captioned for understanding. Copies of numerous newspaper articles are included, particularly obituaries. These are often helpful genealogically, filling in data gaps not clear in the sterile charts.

There is a minimum of text material. Where present, it is interspersed between the genealogical charts, pictures, and other material so as to provide some running commentary where felt necessary. Informational material is included on some of the family group sheets. The introduction includes a thorough description of the compiling strategy, quite helpful to less-than-seasoned genealogists.

It would be a hard-bitten Bair or Beaver not to take delight in what Lorrie has assembled of what must have been (and no doubt continues) a heartwarming Midwestern family and a growingly nostalgic period of time. Others can certainly share in that delight. The review copy will be available at the Texas State Library through Lorrie's generosity.

Tips on Locating Materials on Your Family

Most of us are in situations where we find ourselves living far away from our families' origins. While long-distance research is challenging, it is not impossible as many members of the Austin Genealogical Society will attest. Locating census records from other states can be easily accomplished but locating other materials can be time-consuming. I have compiled some tips and suggestions that I hope will make long-distance research easier and more enjoyable.

Locating Published Books

A series that we find useful in the Genealogy Collection for locating books on family history is Genealogical and Local History Books in Print. This series will tell you if a county or family history is still in print and where the book may be ordered. There is a new set of volumes in the series called "US Sources and Resources." We have ordered these new books and should have them available before fall. Until, then, please come take a look at the books that are currently available in the series.

Genealogies in the Library of Congress is another series of books in our collection. This series is arranged alphabetically by surname and contains listings for over 20,000 published family histories. The listings contain complete citations including author, title and publishing information. These books are, of course, in the collection of the Library of Congress but many will also be owned by major genealogical research libraries.

A Complement to Genealogies in the Library of Congress, published in 1981, is a bibliography of books not found in the Library of Congress collection. Forty-five libraries throughout the country were surveyed to locate titles not available from the Library of Congress. These libraries include the Allen County Library in Indiana, New York Public Library, and the Historical Society of Pennsylvania.

The Daughters of the American Revolution, based in Washington, DC, published a two-volume library catalog in 1982 which lists the family histories and genealogies in their collection. DAR members may contact a Chapter regent to obtain copies from specific books or may visit the research library without charge. While non-members may use the library, they will have to pay a research fee. No photocopying services are available by mail to non-members. We have the two-volume Library Catalog in our collection.

The Family History Library catalog of the Church of the Latter Day Saints (Mormon) is the largest bibliographical finding aid available for family history research. The entries give you detailed descriptions of the sources available for rental through the family history libraries. The microfiche version, last updated in 1992, is arranged by subject, surname, author/title and locality. The Genealogy Collection has the 1992 microfiche catalog in its collection. A CD-ROM version, last updated in 1994, is available at the local family history library.

The American Genealogical Lending Library is a commercial firm that rents everything from census film to microfilm/microfiche editions of published family histories. We have the current editions of their catalog on microfiche and would be happy to explain their rental fees to you on your next visit to the Genealogy Collection.

The internet is another valuable source for locating books. Many library collections, including that of the Texas State Library, have made their catalog of published materials available on the internet. Once you locate the homepage of a particular library, you will be able to look at their catalog.

Obtaining books on interlibrary loan

Most libraries of any size are able to offer interlibrary loan services. Interlibrary loan allows libraries to borrow materials that they do not have in their collection from libraries that do own the item. To request materials on interlibrary loan, you must be a registered patron of the library.

In the case of the Texas State Library, you must register to use our interlibrary loan services. To register, please bring a form of identification with your correct address to a staff member. Registration is available from 8 until 5 P.M. Monday through Friday. We do not issue library cards but the staff will enter you in our computer database of registered patrons. Once you are registered, you may then request materials through interlibrary loan by completing a form which asks you for the author, title and publication information of a book. Be as specific as you can in completing the form. Interlibrary loan forms are available in the Genealogy and Reference/Documents Collections.

Unfortunately, just because a library owns a particular book does not mean that they are willing to loan it out. Different libraries have different service philosophies. Historical and archival libraries by their very nature are more interested in the preservation of materials rather than in the sharing of their collections.

Tips for Success with Interlibrary Loan

* If you are willing to pay a fee to obtain the book on interlibrary loan, please note that on your initial loan request form. Please note a maximum dollar amount you are willing to pay.

* If you think the book might be indexed and know the name(s) you are looking for, ask for photocopies of entries relating to that name. State the maximum dollar amount you are willing to pay for the copies.

OCTOBER 12, 1997 • PARADE MAGAZINE

I just read that the family name "Li" is now the most common surname on the planet. There are something like 87 million Chinese people named Li. Does that mean that a long time ago there was a guy named Li who was responsible for all this?

—Sandy L., Los Angeles, Calif.

Maybe, but the ramifications are even broader than that. Have you ever considered the likelihood that, with time, your given name will identify you more easily than your surname will? That is, suppose that no new last names are being created. If so, last names can only die out and grow smaller in number. And if so, the remaining last names will grow larger and larger in number, thus resulting in less and less distinction. Eventually, they may even seem generic. So, as Smith and Jones and Li and Wang (the second most common surname) conquer the planet, they will be outnumbered by first names in all their beautiful variety, which is expanding daily.

Membership and Dues Restructuring beginning with year starting 1-1-1998 Austin Genealogical Society

After careful deliberation the Board of Directors of Austin Genealogical Society at their regular meeting on 23 September 1997 voted to restructure the membership categories and annual dues for the organization. This action is taken in order that the Society may continue to operate in a firm fiscal condition and to provide the Austin-Travis County-Central Texas Area assistance in a number of ways in promoting the profession of genealogy. It will also assure that the Society, as charged in its by-laws, can continue to support the Texas State Library, Genealogy Collection, by on-going purchase of genealogical materials and aids for that organization.

In addition, the Society provides a Quarterly journal and monthly (10/yr) newsletter to members and a number of exchanges with societies throughout the country. It holds regular monthly meetings with programs to whom the general public is welcomed 10 months per year, holds regular one-day seminars conducted by a noted genealogist, and sponsors frequent workshops for novice genealogists in cooperation with the State Library staff.

The membership structure beginning 1 January 1998 will be as follows:

Individual membership:	$20.00 per year
(Entitles publications plus 2 Quarterly pages in June Quarterly)
Family membership:	$30.00 per year
(Entitles publications plus 4 Quarterly pages in June Quarterly)
Half-year membership:	$10.00
(Entitles only publications mailed after joining)
Patron of AGS:	$100.00 per year
Life membership (under 65)	$500.00
Life membership (over 65)	$300.00

Commencing with 1998, all members will receive membership cards. Affiliation with a genealogical organization is now required by some county record offices and other facilities for permission to access or order vital statistic materials.

Travis County, Texas Pioneer Families Updates on Previously Listed Families

Since the last Travis County 1850 Census listing appeared in the March, 1997 issue, Barbara Goudreau has received supplemental information from three persons. She has requested that their letters be copied in full so as to minimize any interpretive errors. They are accordingly copied below, with our thanks to the writers:

1.) The following letter from Wilena Young, 2707 Little John Lane, Austin 78704, refers to FAMILY #122, WILLIAM GLASSCOCK, on Page 176, Volume XXXVII, #3, September 1996:

May 24, 1997

Dear Barbara;

New information: 2nd. marriage of Sarah Finney Coleman Glas(s)cock and her death date.

Sarah F. Glas(s)cock to William Houghton, 16 April 1825, Madison Co. AL.

Sarah F. Barker d. Feb. 1860 Travis Co. TX (by this time she was the widow of her 3rd. husband, Leman Barker). Source: 1860 Mortality Schedule for Travis County.

The following is submitted for clarification for the 2nd paragraph, page 176 AGS Quarterly, Vol. XXXVII, # 3, September 1996.

It was Salina A. Glas(s)cock, the widow of William D. Glas(s)cock, who married Wiley B. Nichols and appears on the 1860 census of Travis Co. TX in family # 878.

Thanks!
Wilena

2.) The following letter from Ruth Coleman, 307 Briarwood Trail, Austin 78746, adds information about FAMILY #241, R. (RICHARD) LLOYD, Farmer, on Page 35, Volume XXXVIII, #1, March 1997:

Reference: March Issue of the Austin Genealogical Society Quarterly
p. 35 - Travis Co. 1850 Census Records

Family #241 Lloyd, R (Richard) Farmer

Parthenia Mathany, wife of Richard Lloyd was the second child of William (Uncle Billy) Barton of Barton Springs fame and his second wife Stacy Pryor. She was born about 1816 in Alabama (probably in Marengo Co.)

Wilford Barton (spelled Willifred in Uncle Billy's will) was their youngest child.

(I guess Wilifred was a "floater" because he managed to get counted again in 1850 Bastrop Co. census in the household of John Harvey and his wife Senia Barton (Wilifred's first cousin) who was the daughter of William's younger brother Elisha W. Barton.

The Lloyd family moved up around Marble Falls and some are buried in a cemetery there.

Uncle Billy Barton's will names "my sons Wayne, William and Willifred; . . . to my daughters Parthenia, wife of Richard Lloyd, to my daughters Eliza and Aliff" . . .

(I believe "Aliff" was a misspelling of Olive?)

3.) The following letter from Emma Gene (Seale) Gentry, 3311 Clearview Drive, Austin TX 78703 furnishes a number of details concerning FAMILY #89, JAMES P. McKINNEY and FAMILY #90, THOMAS T. McKINNEY on Pages 162-3, Volume XXXVII, #3, September 1996 (Ed. note: Mrs. Gentry's letter below denotes the second family as that of THOMAS F. McKINNEY):

Dear Barbara,

I just received my latest AGS Quarterly and I want to thank you for the great work you're doing in assembling data on Travis Co. Pioneer Families. Don't we wish someone would do that for each county where we had ancestors! I know lots of people are going to benefit from your work.

One of the families mentioned in this edition of the Quarterly is that of James P. and Thomas F. McKinney. Many years ago I did research for someone else on the McKinney family and one bit of data I learned then has always remained in my memory. It is found in a file on Thomas F. McKinney at the Texas State Archives. In this file, among many other things, is a brown envelope marked "Fannin's Family as Known by the Thomas F. McKinney's". In this envelope is a letter stating that Reynolds Lowry was born in November 1876 at the McKinney home on Onion Creek... whither they had removed from Galveston in 1853. Thomas F. McKinney was a personal friend of James W. Fannin who fell at Goliad on March 27, 1836. McKinney had promised Fannin to look after his family if need be. . . Pink ("Pinckney") Fannin, a daughter lived with the McKinneys in Galveston and they educated her at a private school in VA. She died in 1848 at age 18 and is buried in Galveston. Minerva Fannin was Pink's sister. She was a posthumous child and was born an idiot owing to her mother's distraught condition as a result of Goliad. Minerva came to Austin with the McKinneys and lived with them until 1859. (Note by E.G. Gentry: she is still in their household on the 1860 census). She was age 24 in 1859, big, strong, and unmanageable. She was admitted to the State Asylum as a private patient. McKinney turned over to the State his ward's lands amounting to $20,000, mostly situated in Karnes Co., TX. There is a great deal of other family information on the McKinneys and their relatives to be found in the collections of the Texas State Archives.

The M. Fannin found in Thomas F. McKinney's household on the 1860 census is of course Minerva Fannin. The J.P. McKinney family also found on the 1860 census is that of James Prather McKinney, a brother of Thomas F. McKinney. Hope this bit of historical trivia will help someone. Keep up the good work!

sincerely,

Emma Gene (Seale) Gentry

Travis County, Texas Pioneer Families

as compiled from the Travis County, Texas 1850 Federal Census

by Barbara and Jerry Goudreau

Starting with the September 1995 issue of AGSQ, we have been presenting successive portions of the family listings in the Travis County, Texas Federal Census for year 1850, and we continue in this issue, presenting Families 245 through 282 starting on page 140. This sustained chore is being accomplished by AGS members Barbara and Jerry Goudreau, who have already contributed heavily to Travis County and Texas genealogy in many ways. Until it is concluded, we will, as space permits, carry successive portions of that compilation in each issue (there were 423 families listed in all, so we are about three-fourths finished.) In order that readers might be able to achieve backward continuity as they look at each issue, we list below the families contained in each of the previous issues.. This may be helpful since quite a bit of additional information on various families is being sent by readers to Barbara which in turn will be included in each issue (see page 137 for this issue's updates). Numbers of Families by issue are as follows:

September 1995	Families #1 thru #16
November 1995	Families #17 thru #56
March 1996	Families #57 thru #86
June 1996	No Families Carried
September 1996	Families #87 thru #148
November 1996	Families #149 thru #199
March 1997	Families #150 thru #244
October 1997 (this issue)	Families #245 thru #282

The Goudreaus and the Editor urge readers to submit to Barbara by mail, any extending or clarifying information. As all this is collected and finally assembled we believe the package will contain probably the most extensive genealogical information available in one collection for the 1850-1860 time period in Travis County, Texas. We sincerely thank everyone who has submitted added information on these families.

 Accidentally shot: the news reached this city after dark of the accidental shootin in the face of Mr. Frank Glasscock, at the Browning Place 3 miles northeast of the city. We could get no particulars only that Mr. Glasscock shot himself accidentally and was dangerously wounded. Dr. McLaughlin was called.

Daily Democrat Stateman Jan. 11, 1878

Mr. Frank Glasscock Dead... The stateman yesterday mentioned the accidntal shooting of Mr. Glasscock at his home 2 miles from this city and now is called upon to announce his death, which occurred in less then a half hour after the shooting. Mr. Glasscock was in the act of starting out hunting at the time of the accident, having his shot gun in his hand and a game bag thrown accross his shoulder. In passing out the door it is presumed that the game bag caught on the door knob and in some way the deceased was thrown down, the hammer of the gun striking the floor and dischargeing it. The shot entered the temple and passed through the head and when parties entered Mr. Glasscock was lying unconscious on the floor. A distressed wife and little child survive Mr. Glasscock to mourn sudden and untimely death. The funeral will take place today at 10:30 from St. David's church.

The Austin Genealogical Society

GENERAL INFORMATION

PURPOSE: Austin Genealogical Society was organized in 1960 as a not-for-profit corporation chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect and preserve genealogical and historical information about the people of Texas, particularly pertaining to the City of Austin and to Travis and surrounding counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research; and to publish public and private records of genealogical interest. In addition, the AGS supports the Genealogical Collection, Texas State Library by donations of books and other genealogical material. Gifts and bequests to AGS are tax-deductible to the full extent permitted by law.

MEMBERSHIP is open to all upon payment of annual dues. Classes: Individual: $20; Family (two in the same household): $30.00; Patron of AGS: $100.00; Lifetime: $500.00 ($300 if over 65). All classes entitle one copy of each Quarterly and monthly Newsletter, as well as two pages apiece (a total of four pages for Family or higher whether one or two people submit listings) in the Ancestor Listing issue (June). After 1 July, dues are $10.00 for the balance of the year, but you will only receive the publications produced after the date you join.

DUES FOR EXISTING MEMBERS ARE PAYABLE on or before JANUARY FIRST of each year for the ensuing year. If dues are not received by 1 February, the name must be dropped from the mailing list. If membership is reinstated later and Quarterlies and Newsletters have to be mailed individually, postage must be charged. (Back Quarterlies are supplied only IF available—very few extras are printed). Send payment to AGS Treasurer, P.O. Box 1507, Austin TX 78767-1507.

MEETINGS of the general membership begin at 7:30 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month except August and December. Members are encouraged to come as early as 6:30 to socialize with each other. MEETING PLACE: Highland Park Baptist Church, 5206 Balcones Dr.. Take Northland (FM 2222) exit off Loop 1 (Mopac). Go west one block to Balcones Dr, then left 1 ½ blks. The Church and parking lot are on right. VISITORS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME. The Board of Directors meets at 6:15 in a separate room.

BOOK REVIEW POLICY: Books on appropriate subjects related to genealogy will be reviewed, but CANNOT be reviewed in AGSQ on the basis of advertising alone. If a review copy is received by the Review Editor at 2202 W. 10th. St., Austin TX 78703 by the first of February, May, August or October, it will be reviewed in the next Quarterly, space permitting. It will then be placed in the Genealogy Collection, Texas State Library, available to all patrons.

CHECK RETURN POLICY: Members and other payees must pay AGS the cost of any returned check (currently $5.00) over and above the charge their bank may impose.

AGS QUARTERLY is issued about the middle of March, June, September and November. Contributions are welcome, subject to editing for style/size. Contributor is completely responsible for accuracy and any copyright infringement. AGS assumes no responsibility for content of submitted material. See inside front cover for address.

ANCESTOR LISTING PAGES (June issue of Quarterly) must reach the Editor at 4500 Hyridge Drive, Austin TX 78759-8054 by the TENTH OF MAY. They must be BLACK and LEGIBLE, whether typed, hand-written, computer-printed or in superior calligraphy. Months must be SPELLED or abbreviated, not in figures. DATES SHOULD BE SHOWN in accepted genealogical style, that is, DAY, MONTH, YEAR. Allow space for binding at inner margins of facing pages; i.e., your first page will be a left-hand page. Carefully check horizontal pages (reading in the 11-inch direction). Otherwise, the Editor has to position some pages upside down to prevent loss of data in the stapling-punching process. NO 82x14 sheets, please!

You may submit Lineage or Family Group charts, Ahnentafels, narratives, cemetery inscriptions, Bible records, census data, queries, or a combination of material, just so it is not under copyright. BE SURE to proofread your material for accuracy and clarity so we will not publish faulty or incorrect data. Put name and address of submitter on each page in legible form (not blind embossed). Consult a recent June Quarterly for suggestions. Remember that reproductions are dimmer than originals so try to provide good quality originals.

REMEMBER: Individual membership secures two facing pages.
Family or higher membership allows you four pages.

DEADLINES for everything in the Quarterly except book reviews: 10th of February, May, August and October. Material sent addressed only to AGS Box Number may not reach Editor in time.
