Honoring our ancestors' lives and stories

Dear Readers,

Have you read any good history books lately? E-mail me at alanasuzy@earthlink.net if you have a new favorite novel or non-fiction about any state history – not only Texas. Putting our ancestors in historical context is an important part of our research, and I've always loved to read historical novels to get a taste of what life was like for our grandmas and grandpas. I need to know more about West Virginia, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri and Arkansas. Got any suggestions for me?

And don't forget that the June issue is all yours – all your stories and pedigrees, no matter where your people called home.

When you prepare your charts and stories for the June issue, please set your margins to one-inch on the sides and at the top and bottom. Our font style in the AGS Quarterly is 12-point Times New Roman for the body and 18-point bold Lucida Sans for the title. If you want to use all caps or italics or underlining, PLEASE DON'T. I mean, please don't. If you must, you may put your important names in small caps, bolded, with no italics and no underlining. I love to receive your contributions by e-mail, but I know many of you prefer to hand them to me or mail them. That's fine, too.

My June contribution will be my proofs for Daughters of the Republic of Texas membership – my Daddy's line back to his great-great grandmother Charlotte Terrell Huling. I ignored Marcus Huling in my proofs because I thought he was just an opportunist looking for free land. Well. Weren't they all? So I've learned to love the old guy, and I cherish the photograph of him one of my Daddy's cousins gave me recently.

The deadline for submitting your stories and charts is mid-May. But, as you see, I run a little late on these issues, so if you get your submissions to me by June 1, everything will be fine.

For a Texas Historical Marker application for the VonBoeckmann-Keeble House (1909) at 4401 Ave. H in Austin's Hyde Park Historic District, need to locate descendants of earlier owners Enno and Clara Cassens (1924-29) and J. Lee and Alma Johnston (1929-42). The Cassens had daughters Loreina Cassens Koepsell and Ruth. Johnston family members included teachers Edith and Marjorie Johnston and Jordan L. Johnston and his wife Maggie. Any help would be appreciated.

What was JEMIMA P. TEMPLETON's maiden name? Where and when were she and ROBERT TEMPLETON married? Census records indicate she was born in South Carolina. Who were her parents?

In 1860, MRS. JUMIAH TEMPLETON and all of the children were living in Hot Springs County, Arkansas. By 1867, she and most of the children had moved to Lamar County, Texas.

In that year, she married IRA COLBERT. By the census of 1870, she and IRA COLBERT had had a daughter: THEODOSIA (possibly THEODORICA) TEXAS COLBERT. In the census of 1880, JEMIMA COLBERT and THEODOSIA TEXAS COLBERT were still living in Lamar County, Texas (IRA COLBERT had passed away on Dec. 1, 1877). Jemima is shown on the 1900 census living with her son THOMAS MARTIN TEMPLETON in Coleman County, Texas. But what became of her youngest child THEODOSIA TEXAS COLBERT? No further records on her have been located.

JANIS TEMPLETON TRAYLER PO Box 66066, Austin, TX 78766

ROBERT TEMPLETON was born 1823 in SC. In 1845, he is listed in the state census of Mississippi in Tippah County as a single man. In 1850, he is listed in the federal census with a wife, JEMIMA P. (age 22, born in SC) and two children, BARBARA A.P. (age 2, born in MS) and BENJAMIN F. (age 1, born in MS). Robert and Jemima had other children: GEORGE W. (born ca. 1850 in MS), LEVI Y. (born 16 June 1852 in MS), THOMAS M. (born 18 July 1853 in MS), MARY (born ca 1854 in TN or MS), and SUSAN CORDELIA (born 24 Sept. 1855 in TN or MS). The last record we have of ROBERT TEMPLETON in Tippah County, MS is an 1856 Tippah County (Crunk's District) Personal Property Assessment Roll which recorded those individuals paying taxes on personal property and/or poll tax.

ROBERT TEMPLETON vanishes until the census of 1880 when he shows up on the federal census for Henry County, Missouri, with a wife (SARAH, age 32, born in IN) and 5 children all born in Missouri: BETTIE (age 10), REBECA F. (age 9), THEORA W. (son, age 7), MARIAH M. (age 5), and JOHN W., (age 2). Records indicate he married SARAH ELIZABETH ESTELL in Springfield (Sangamon Co., IL) in May 1866.

Question: Where was Robert Templeton at the time of the 1860 federal census and where was he at the time of the 1870 federal census? Where and when did he die?

FELKER from South Carolina/Mississippi. The children of WILLIAM and FRANCES EMMALINE FELKER were THOMAS W., ELIZA PENELOPE and MARY J. (MOLLY). Molly was born in 1843 in South Carolina. In 1860 she lived with mother and brother in Calhoun Co., Mississippi. By 1870 she has left the home. Family story is that she moved north, maybe Chicago, and married a MCHALE and MORRISON. All leads and clues are welcome.

Grandson of the Alamo

Copied by Kay Dunlap Boyd, AGS, Austin

Almarion Dickenson Griffith died June 13, 1938, and was buried in Austin Memorial Park Cemetery on June 14. According to interment records maintained by the cemetery, the undertaker was T.B. Weed, his physician was C.M. Darnall, and the cause of death was cerebral arteriosclerosis. This article is from an Austin newspaper.

Griffith service set for Tuesday Pioneer was son of Baby of Alamo

Final tributes for Almarion Dickenson Griffith, 85, son of "the baby of the Alamo" will be paid by friends in funeral services Tuesday at 10 a.m. from the Thurlow B. Weed Funeral home with Dr. M.E. Sadler of the Central Christian Church officiating.

Pallbearers will be Ed Nitschke, R.G. Seiders, Wilfred Gustafson, Paul Griffith, George Griffith Jr. of Coleman and Charles Ramsdell Jr. Burial will be in Austin Memorial Park.

Mr.. Griffith is survived by his widow; three daughters, Mrs. Charles W. Ramsdell Sr. and Mrs. Ed Nitschke Jr. of Austin and Mrs. J. M. Allison of Santa Anna; one son, George M. Griffith of Colema; and the following grandchildren: Mrs. Wilfred Gustafson, Miss Veronica Griffith, Paul Griffith and Charles Ramsdell Jr. of Coleman, Dr. Mary Ramsdell Dye of Plainview and Mary Edna McKallip of Houston.

Mr. Griffith's mother, Angelina Dickenson, was carried as a baby by her mother, wife of Lieut. Almarion Dickenson, from the Alamo during the siege of that fortress and Dr. Ramsdell, University of Texas historian, believes that the two, mother and child, were the only persons who escaped.

Mr. Griffith had been an Austin resident for 30 years and had been ill for several months. He died Monday in a local hospital.

Born in Montgomery County, May 13, 1853, Mr. Griffith was a farmer for many years and was the organizer of one of the first fruit growers cooperative associations formed in Texas. He resided in Austin at 3103 Robinson Avenue.

Mr. Griffith was the grandson and namesake of Lieut. Dickenson, who was among the heroes of the Alamo. His son-in-law, Dr. Ramsdell, is inclined to discount the story that a man named Ross took advantage of William B. Travis' offer to permit any man unwilling to remain in the fortress to make his escape. The tradition that Travis drew a line in the dust and issued his challenge to his men, go or stay with him in certain death, is more glorious legend than substantiated truth. the historian has indicated in his writings.

But it us well established that Lieut. Dickenson's wife and child escaped, and the child, known in history as the "baby of the Alamo," settled in Montgomery County after her marriage.

Naturally, the "baby of the Alamo" had no actual memory of the historic event in which she was a tiny figure but the story of the Alamo is also the story of the Dickenson family and one that Mr. Griffith loved to relate to youngsters of the new generation.

His birthday two years ago was the occasion for a family party and a picture for which he posed with his own great-granddaughter, Wilfreda Gustafson, who was born March 2.

Mr. Griffith was a member of the Masonic lodge and of the Christian church.

Note: Sallie Ramsdell died in 1981 and Dr. Ramsdell in 1953, with burial in Section 1 #614 of Austin Memorial Park; Ed Nitschke died May 20, 1965, and his wife Jessie died in 1946.

THE FAMILY THAT SURVIVED THE ALAMO

By Kay Dunlap Boyd, AGS, Austin

I began gathering this information when I found the obituary of the Grandson of the Alamo. Later I discovered an essay in the files of the Austin History Center written by a boy who attended high school when I did. When I read it, I realized I also knew the subject of his story, another student in our school. And he was a descendant of Susanna Dickinson. This was really fascinating because in school he was plain Dick. Although the life of the Babe of the Alamo was not well documented, she left behind many family members to tell her story.

Henry Pfluger Sr.

By Julia Klattenhoff Mellenbruch, great-great granddaughter

It was 1849. Henricus was facing a dilemma. His entire life of 46 years had been spent in Altenhasungen. It was a beautiful area of Hesse with its fertile farm land and rolling hills. He had become a successful farmer and had provided his family with an attractive fachwerke house with barn attached, like all the rest in the village. His roots were deep here. His father and grandfather had also grown up in this village. Life was pleasant. Then misfortunes began to fall. His wife Catherine Liese died and he lost his left eye due to smallpox. With six young children to care for, he married Anna Cristina Kleinschmidt and he now had another son. Then financial reverses brought on by the war in 1848 caused him to consider a way to provide better opportunities for his growing family.

He turned to John Liese, brother of Catherine, who had gone to Texas in the 1830's and had fought in the Texas Revolution. John now had a farm near Austin, Texas, and Texas had recently become a state in the United States. He had been reading that many Germans were immigrating to America. He decided that his oldest sons, Conrad (19) and George (14), would go first to the home of their uncle John Liese. They left by sail ship early in 1849 and landed at Port Indianola on Matagorda Bay.

The rest of the family: Henricus (46), Anna Cristina (29), Catherine Elizabeth (17), Marie (12), Ludwig (9), William (7), and Henry (almost 2) followed in the fall of 1849 and after 13 weeks at sea arrived at Galveston in January, 1850.

It was an arduous trip by sea. They came by a large multi-sailed ship, which carried several families, forced into very tight quarters. Each family was assigned a schedule for the preparation of meals to last several days at a time. Fortunately, they all survived. The trip from Galveston to Austin was even more arduous. Henricus hired an ox-drawn wagon to carry the family possessions, while most of the family members walked. It took two weeks to travel to Austin. They were being introduced to the pioneer life which they would endure in Texas.

Henricus now became Henry. He brought with him the family Bible and $1600 in gold, which he carried in a bag under his clothes. (The bag and Bible have survived and are often displayed at family reunions.)

John Liese helped Henry purchase a small farm, near the city of Austin. Another son John was born in 1851. The family began to break apart. Catherine Elizabeth met William Bohls, who lived with his father on a nearby farm. They were married in August, 1852. She took her brother William to live with them on the farm which William Bohls had purchased in Bastrop County. They later purchased a farm on the present Immanuel Road and donated the first five acres to build Immanuel Lutheran Church and cemetery.

The bill of sale for Henry's home in Germany to George Gerhold, his sister's husband, was recorded in 1851, and Henry purchased the farm near Austin. In 1853, Henry sold his land near Austin and purchased the Liese grant located about five miles from the present site of Pflugerville in the forks of Wilbarger Creek known as Brushy Knob. According to records of land grants given to veterans of the Texas Revolution, this grant of 960 acres was received by John Liese from the Secretary of War on December 19, 1837 for service from January 1 to December 18, 1837. (Warrant 1106 for 960 acres. Patent 9, Volume 3, Abstract 496. General Land Office File, Travis (B) County 18.") John Liese returned to Germany. Through the years some of Henry's descendents have visited the Gerhold descendents, who still live in the Pfleuger home, as it is known in Altenhasungen.

The family moved to the Liese grant, built a traditional Texas log house of five rooms with a small porch. A smoke house and barn were added to the compound. Wooden pins were used for nails. The porch and smoke house had wooden floors, while the other rooms had dirt floors. Thus Texas pioneer life began in earnest for the Pfluger family.

The country at this time was an extensive prairie covered with sage grass about four feet high. Buffaloes were roaming and would often cause great excitement when they entered the pens with the milk cows. Crops raised included corn, wheat, rye, beans and sweet potatoes for the table and flax for clothing. Sugar cane was grown and the juice was extracted for molasses. The juice was pressed out with homemade wooden rollers, which were operated by horse power. The juice was cooked in iron wash pots.

Henry was suffering from arthritis, which limited his ability to do heavy work. The family continued to grow. Charley was born in 1853, August in 1855 and Elizabeth in 1861. Conrad and George had moved with the family, but Conrad married Anna Elizabeth Wuthrich in 1856 and purchased the land, which is now the Gatlinberg edition on Immanuel Road. Marie married Frederick Franz Schmidt in 1861 and they established their home in the Richland community.

On January 22, 1861, Henry purchased a Negro girl by the name of Martha for $950. (Book P, P. 900, Travis County Court House Records). A few years later he was offered $1500 for Martha, which he declined, as Martha was not for sale. According to Martha's son, in an oral interview recorded during the 1930's, the Pflugers never mistreated his mother. She was freed after the Civil War, married and left the Pfluger household. Her son said in his interview that he continued to work with August. Martha kept in close contact with Anna Cristina and was visiting her the day she died.

George ventured out on his own, married Dorothea Sternberg in 1872, and purchased a farm where the present city of Pflugerville is located. Ludwig and William served in the Civil War in Captain James A. Thompson's Cavalry Company, Haupt's Regiment, Confederate States Army, furnishing their own horses and equipment. The muzzle loader used by William is still in the possession of his family. Conrad and George hauled supplies for the Confederacy.

Henry, Jr. married Wilhelmine Henze in December, 1867. Henry, Sr. had died on November 8, 1867 and was buried on the farm. On April 7, 1880, in a deed recorded in Vol. 50, page 545, Travis County Court House, Mrs. Henry Pfluger, Sr., set aside one acre of land on the Liese grant, near Wilbarger Creek for a cemetery. Anna Cristina died on December 4, 1897 and is buried here with Henry. Other members of the family are also buried in this cemetery, including their son Henry. A historical marker was placed at the cemetery in 1975, which reads

"PFLUGER CEMETERY. Henry Pfluger, born in Germany in 1803, brought his large family to Texas in 1850. When he died in 1867, he was buried on this tract of land near his home. In 1880, his wife Cristina (1820-97), who is also buried here, set aside the one-acre site as a family cemetery. Their eldest son, Henry (1847-1904), and his descendents have maintained the cemetery, which holds 18 graves. The last burial here was in 1917. The nearby town of Pflugerville was named for this pioneer family. Pfluger descendents, today numbering over 2,000, still gather for their summer reunions started in 1934."

When the MKT (a.k.a. Katy) railroad planned its route through George's ranch, in 1904, his son Albert platted the town of Pflugerville, and George deeded the right-of-way for the railroad. Louis Bohls (Catherine Elizabeth and William's son) was operating a grocery store a mile east of the town. A post office was installed in his store in 1893 with Louis as postmaster. It was named Pflugerville. So the town had a name before it existed.

All of Henry's children married and had children, except August, who died at age 24, as the result of a kick from his horse. William married Franziska Sternberg in 1872. In 1873, Ludwig married Fredericka Plattow and George married Louise Lange, (Dorothea having died the previous year, leaving five small children). John married Wilhelmine Sakowitz in 1875 and Elizabeth married August Braker in 1878. All remained in the Central Texas area except Charley who had married Mary Bernhard in 1876 and had moved with his family to west Texas, settling first in Kimble County and later moved to Eden, where he died in 1934. Many of his descendents still live today in Concho and nearby counties.

At the annual Pfluger Reunion on July 4 in Pflugerville, the descendents are able to strengthen their bonds as members of the larger Pfluger family. They recognize those family members who died in the past year and express their gratitude to Henry and his children for the sacrifices and hardships which they endured in those early days.

In facing his dilemma, Henry's vision in 1849 has brought bountiful opportunities to his numerous descendents.

The Hutto Connection

By Richard S. Robertson, Austin Genealogical Society

The little town of Hutto northeast of Austin is getting quite a bit of attention these days. As Austin creeps in all directions, the small adjoining communities seem to grow. There are plans for malls, housing, hotels, convention centers, office buildings, sports fields etc. And over the last few years Hutto has grown to a population of between 8,000 and 9,000 and no sign of slowing down. Now with the development of Texas Highway 130 everyone seems to be clambering to get in on the boom. Farm lands are being purchased or condemned for right-of-way and real estate speculators are hovering over the area like a squadron of helicopters.

For years the high school mascot has been the hippopotamus, which, according to legend, was in honor of an escaped hippo from a circus train in 1915. And in 2003, former mayor Mike Fowler persuaded the Texas Legislature to name Hutto the "Hippo Capitol of Texas". His energy and zeal in promoting Hutto with the Hippo has attracted a lot of outside attention and some

Henrietta - The Hutto Hippo

"over-promoting" accusations by some of the townspeople. Dozens of 30-inch hippos have been dressed up and put on display to attract tourism and industry to the community. A Hippo on every corner or not, the town is sure to grow.

After reading a recent Austin American Statesman article regarding the grandiose plans for Hutto, I reflected that our family had some Hutto connections that go back in time. One connection goes back to the 2001 trip our Senior Church Group, called the Adventures, took to Taylor and then around Hutto where Red Olander, a member of our group, showed us the farm where he grew up and still shares ownership with his sister. He told us the population of Hutto was around 500 when he was a youngster there. Another connection goes back to the fifties when we traveled between Temple, our home, and Austin via Granger and Hutto, because of the construction of the interstate. However, the one that goes way back is our connection in 1878, two years after James Emory Hutto sold fifty acres of land to the Texas Land Co. of New York for a townsite, reserving five acres of that tract as a gift for the International and Great Northern Railroad right of way through town.

My wife Marian's grandfather, A.H.P. McCurdy, was licensed as a Presbyterian Minister in October 1878 and signed the minutes of the organization of the Hutto Presbyterian Church on December 28, 1878. He was ordained in April 1880 and officially became the pastor of both the Hutto and Round Rock Presbyterian Churches. The McElroy family was one of the families in the new congregation. They had a daughter named Margaret Hall McElroy. Apparently, A.H.P. and Maggie, as Margaret was called, became interested in more than just church because they were married on May 24, 1881. Marian's Uncle Bob was born the following April, 1882. A.H.P.'s full name was Andrew Howlett Porter McCurdy and he apparently was called "Alphabet McCurdy" by some of his fellow preachers and friends. From Round Rock and Hutto the family went to Lockhart, the place of his birth, and "Alphabet" served the Lockhart and Luling churches from 1883 to 1886. He became the pastor of the Cuero church in 1886 and served there until 1898. In 1891 Maggie died, leaving A.H.P. and three children, Robert, Lucy, and Horace. The children went to Lockhart to live with A.H.P.'s sister and her husband.

AHP & Maggie McCurdy with children, Horace, Robert, and Lucy

On March 27, 1894 A.H.P. married Mary Ianthe Anderson and the three children returned to live with their father and step-mother. The first child of this 2nd marriage was John Anderson McCurdy who was born February 6, 1895. John Anderson McCurdy was Marian's father.

The little Presbyterian Church in Hutto saw hard times in the mid-thirties and was disbanded. With all of the present development, and projected population figures for 2030 exceeding 60,000, there may be a reincarnation of this church once started by grandfather McCurdy.

Gray Golden: Charter member of AGS

By Kay Dunlap Boyd

Jessie Gray was born October 23, 1903, at Seagoville, Texas. On July 29, 1928, she married Joe Bob Golden. Thus, she became Gray Golden. Gray Golden passed away in Alice, Texas, on Jan. 15, 1990, at the age of 86. She and her husband are buried in the Austin Memorial Park Cemetery in Austin, Texas.

Gray Golden was a charter member of Austin Genealogical Society and the president of the society in 1977 and 1978. She was also a lifetime member of AGS.

She dedicated much of her adult life to genealogy, teaching genealogy for Lifetime Learning Institute in Austin and doing research for writers and others in genealogy and history. Gray Golden was instrumental in organizing the genealogical section in the Texas State Library and became its first supervisor. She headed the genealogy department for the last five of the 18 years she worked at the library. She retired in 1970.

She was a member of Daughters of the American Revolution, Daughters of the Republic of Texas, Texas State Genealogical Society, as well as many other organizations.

Gray Golden graduated from West Texas University with a degree in history and did graduate work at North Texas University. She was a librarian and principal before her marriage.

She became interested in genealogy research while traveling with her husband, saying it was cheaper than shopping while following him through the musty courthouses. She believed that "genealogy is the chance to discover one's link to history. It is the history of our family rather than a country." A bronze plaque in the genealogy collection of the Texas State Library says this:

Gray Golden

Mrs. J. B. "Gray" Golden, was President of the Texas Genealogy Society and a charter member of the Austin Genealogy Society.

A long-time employee of the State Library, Mrs. Golden was instrumental in establishing the genealogy collection of the State Library and was its director for several years.

Gray Golden's love of people and books inspired increased interest in genealogy in Texas. Her learning, her dedicated teaching and her generous help to others are a part of our heritage.

This plaque placed here by friends from

Daughters of the Republic of Texas, Daughters of the American Revolution, Sons of the American Revolution, Austin Genealogical Society, Texas State Genealogical Society and Texas State Library

AGS set up the Gray Golden Memorial Fund to honor Jessie Gray Golden, Austin's Great Lady of Genealogy. Anyone is invited to make a contribution either monetary or in the form of a publication to the Genealogy Collection of the Texas State Library.

I worked at the Texas State Library for about 10 years before I started my family. Gray Golden was the head of the genealogy department during these years. Mrs. Golden was a kind, grandmotherly lady who had a great influence on me and guided me through the beginning of my genealogy research. I spent every lunch hour reading microfilm. I still have the edition of fairy tales that she gave me as a baby gift when my daughter was born. *

Preservationist and historian Karen Riles featured at AGS May 24 meeting

Historian Karen Rile's presentation at our May 24 meeting, titled "I Love History, But I Didn't Always: Using Archives to Make Family History Relevant," will offer suggestions on how to help make history important in family history research.

Names and dates may be meaningless to family members if there is no attempt to place this information in a historic context, and learning how events in history affected one's community, family and personal life can inspire an interest in family history as well as history in general.

For the past five years, Karen has documented the history of African Americans in Austin and Travis County as the City of Austin's Neighborhood Liaison for African American outreach at the Austin History Center.

Karen identifies and collects significant materials reflecting the history of blacks in this area to be added to the archive, collecting nearly 14,000 historic items documenting the lives of individuals, organizations, institutions, events and communities of Travis County and Austin. Conducting oral histories with community members who can recall the history of the area from their personal experience is another important aspect of her duties.

Karen also calls preservation her avocation. In 1994, she was appointed to the Caldwell County Historical Commission and currently serves as chair of Lockhart's history museum. She is a former board member of the Texas Oral Historian Association and volunteers her expertise as a preservationist locally and nationally to ensure that the contributions of African Americans are duly recognized and recorded.

Index to naturalization records to 1906 in Travis County, Texas

Recorded by Kay Dunlap Boyd, Austin

This index began in the November 2002 issue, which ran names Juan Aballos through Alfred Boles. In 2003, the March issue ran names Carl O. Bollman through Phillipp Doppenschitt, June's names ran from Ramon Dorado to Hugo Erzkus, September's from Faustina Escobar to Marcallino Gamez and November's from H.P.M. Gammel to Gustav Hebbe. The March 2004 issue names were from Otto Hebbe to Frederick Hutz and no names ran in the June 2004 Quarterly. September 2004 featured the naturalization records of Carl Hyltin to August Josefson, and in December 2004 names ran from C.A. Josefsson to P.J. Lewgren. Between 4,000 and 5,000 names are on this complete index, which was entered from a microfilm copy of the WPA Index at the Austin Public Library's Austin History Center. The microfilm is available at Austin History Center and through LDS Family History Centers. Complete recorded paper copies are on file at Austin History Center and at Texas State Library Genealogy Collection. The entire file has been entered electronically and is being loaded in parts at the Austin Genealogical Society Web site, www.AustinTxGenSoc.org.

The microfilm record contains this statement:

"Complete Index to Naturalization Records of Travis County, prepared by the State Wide Records Project of the WPA, sponsored by the Department of Justice through the Naturalization and Immigration division of the Federal Government. It took several months to compile this record by a staff of workers under the direction of Mr. E.C. Duke, District Supervisor (without cost to Travis County). This is a complete record of naturalization proceedings in the Probate, County and District Court of Travis County; at the time the County was organized, either of the three courts handled naturalization matters. Since 1906, all such matters have been handled by the U.S. District Courts. The preparation of this record was in line with a general program over the entire Country, and the copy of the record was given the District Clerk's Office for the cooperation it gave the Staff that worked here on the project.

"Requests for information in regard to Naturalization Records have been numerous recently, due to Social Security Laws, Old Age Assistance Benefits and war conditions requiring the establishment of citizenship."

The Austin Genealogical Society General Information

PURPOSE Austin Genealogical Society was organized in 1960 as a not-for-profit corporation chartered by the State of Texas. Its purposes are to collect and preserve genealogical and historical information about the people of Texas, particularly pertaining to the City of Austin and to Travis and surrounding counties; to instruct and assist members in genealogical research, and to publish public and private records of genealogical interest. In addition, the AGS supports the Texas State Library's Genealogical Collection and Austin Public Library's Austin History Center by donations of books and other genealogical material. Gifts and bequests to AGS are tax-deductible to the full extent permitted by law.

MEMBERSHIP is open to all upon payment of annual dues. Classes: Individual: $20; Family (two in the same household): $30; Patron of AGS: $100; Lifetime: $500 ($300 if over age 65). All classes entitle one copy of each issue of the Quarterly and the monthly Newsletter, as well as two pages apiece (a total of four pages for Family or higher whether one or two people submit listings) in the Ancestor Listing issue, the June Quarterly. After July 1, dues are $10 for the balance of the year, but you will receive only the publications produced after the date you join. Membership includes a copy the annual Membership Handbook, which is published each spring.

DUES FOR EXISTING MEMBERS are payable on or before January 1 of each year for the ensuing year. If dues are not received by February 1, the name must be dropped from the mailing list. If membership is reinstated later and Quarterlies and Newsletters have to be mailed individually, postage must be charged. (Back Quarterlies are supplied only if available). Send dues payments to AGS Treasurer, P.O. Box 10010, Austin, Texas 78766-1010.

MEETINGS of the general membership begin at 7:15 p.m. on the fourth Tuesday of each month except August and December. Members are encouraged to come as early as 6:30 p.m. to socialize with each other. Meeting Place: Highland Park Baptist Church, 5206 Balcones Dr. Take Northland (RR 2222) exit off Loop 1 (Mopac). Go west one block to Balcones Dr., then left 1½ blocks. The church and parking lot are on right. Visitors are always welcome. The Board of Directors meets at 6 p.m.

BOOK REVIEW POLICY Books on subjects of interest to genealogists will be reviewed, but cannot be reviewed in AGS Quarterly on the basis of advertising alone. Send review copies to Quarterly Editor at 3310 Hancock Dr., Austin, Texas 78731. Reviewed books are donated to the Texas State Library's Genealogy Collection.

CHECK RETURN POLICY Members and other payees must pay AGS the cost of any returned check (currently $5) over and above the charge their bank may impose.

AGS QUARTERLY is issued about the middle of March, June, September and November. Contributions are welcome, subject to editing for style and length. Contributor is completely responsible for accuracy and any copyright infringement. AGS assumes no responsibility for content of submitted material. Some Quarterly articles are posted to our Website at www.AustinTxGenSoc.org.

ANCESTOR LISTING PAGES for the June issue of the Quarterly must reach the Editor at 3310 Hancock Dr., Austin, Texas 78731, or alanasuzy@earthlink.net by May 20, preferably by electronic means, either in an e-mail or as an attachment to an e-mail. When an electronic version is not possible, typing, handwriting or printing must be black and legible. Months must be spelled or abbreviated, not in figures. Show dates in accepted genealogical style: day, month. Leave 1-inch margins at both sides and at top and bottom, and hand-number pages on the back of each page. Carefully check horizontal pages (reading in the 11-inch direction) so that one-inch margins are on top, bottom and both sides so no information is lost in stapling. No 8½ x14 sheets, please. You may submit lineage or family group charts, ahnentafels, narratives, memoirs, letters, cemetery inscriptions, Bible records, census data, queries or a combination of material, just so it is not under copyright. Proofread your material for accuracy and clarity so we will not publish faulty or incorrect data. Consult a recent June AGS Quarterly for suggestions.

Remember, individual membership secures two facing pages, and family or higher membership allows you four pages.

AGS QUARTERLY DEADLINES: 20th of February, May, August and October. Send material to AGS Quarterly, Alana Moehring Mallard, editor, 3310 Hancock Dr., Austin, Texas 78731 or alanasuzy@earthlink.net or call 512-453-1117.
