

Texas Orphan Train Riders

Names of train riders have been identified from multiple sources: locally compiled lists from Burleson, Fannin, Grayson, Grimes and Red River Counties; the National Orphan Train Complex 2000 and 2014 lists for Texas; newspaper articles; 1967 El Campo Reunion list; articles from the collection of Mary Delaney Prazak Maresh, train rider; two church histories: Holy Cross Parish, East Bernard and St Mary's Church, High Hill; and information and stories from descendants and family members. Some riders have been identified because of strong secondary evidence in census records, but not in strict adherence to Genealogical Proof Standard.

Children's names are listed alphabetically by the surnames they most commonly used in adulthood, and before marriage for women. For many children sent by New York Foundling Home, the surname is the same as that of foster/adoptive parents. For many sent by Children's Aid Society, the listing is by birth surname. Other surnames used are cross-referenced to main listings. The child's name is followed by names of adoptive parents when that relationship is implied. Note that most riders were not adopted formally under Texas law. Adoption was usually an informal arrangement. Often the new parents signed a contract with the sending agency, in which the parents agreed to care for and educate the child. Before adoption laws changed in Texas in 1931, a legal adoption was a conveyance- a transfer of guardianship to the adoptive parents. Those few records are found in deed books in the Texas counties where adoption occurred.

Galveston Orphan's Home took in train riders, who apparently came from Nova Scotia. [See Kate Cantrell] An article by Texas State Historical Association on Gladney Center, formerly the children's home for Texas Children's Aid Society, says that this home also received train riders. A Fort Worth Star Telegram article dated 2/01/1913 refers to children who were sent from 11 other Texas cities to the home and then placed with families. These children may have traveled by train, but they do not fit the description of orphan train riders who were sent across state lines. I am unable to locate any other records to verify the assertion in the TSHA article.

Please submit any corrections or additions to Linda Fulmer at fulmerlinda53@gmail.com. Thanks to those who have helped compile this list. They are Dawna Alsabrook, Ellie Nall Bay, Beverly Blinka, Vanessa Burzinsky, Janis Hrcir, Teela Hurt, Alison Moore, and Angelina Kretzschmar who has done countless hours of research on the riders who went to Czech and German families.

This list contains about 840 names, but Children's Aid Society has confirmed that they sent 1327 children to Texas. The number from New York Foundling Home is unavailable. The list is far from complete, and I hope we can continue to discover and identify names.

The family story is that George was born at Bellevue Hospital and abandoned soon after at New York Foundling Hospital. The Sisters named him, and the names of his birth parents are unknown.

The sisters estimated his birth date to be 10/06/1917. He was listed in 1920 US census, taken 1/5/1920, living at NYFH age 2 years, 2 months. At age 7 or earlier he was sent to Texas to a Polish family, names unknown. [Could have been Grimes or Washington County] The family consisted of a couple with two other children, a girl and a boy. George grew up speaking Polish. At some point his foster mother died and he was sent back to New York on a train. He recalled seeing Spanish moss hanging on trees, which is common in central and south Texas.

He was not living at NYFH at the time of the 1925 NY census. He registered for WWII draft in 1940, age 23, in Sullivan Co., NY.

Just before his death, he found out that the Polish couple had not been his birth parents.

Meason, George Lahn; Rev John and Josephine Meason

He was born George Lahn 3/23/1914 in Brooklyn, NY to Julius/Jack Lahn and Ida Krug Lahn. He had 4 siblings.

On April 16, 1915 he and his 4 siblings, Anna, Caroline, Elizabeth, and Julius, were placed with Orphan Asylum Society of Brooklyn. Their baby brother Jacob/Jack was born 12/01/1915. In May 1916 Ida died.

Sometime before 1918 the 5 older children were placed with Children's Home Bureau of NY, an agency that situated children in local foster homes. Jacob was placed in New York Nursery and Child's Hospital.

In April 1918, the 5 older children were placed again with Orphan Asylum Society of Brooklyn. The record stated: "Mother deceased. Father unable to assume care of children. No relatives can assist." Then in November 1919 they were "discharged" to Children's Aid Society of NY.

Jacob had also been placed with CAS and stayed in NY. His father Julius eventually returned for him.

CAS made the decision to send the older children by train to Texas. Anna, Caroline, and Elizabeth left early in March 1920 and were sent to the Whitewright area. Julius was ill, and the CAS staff also kept George behind in NY so the two could travel together. Three weeks later the two brothers left on 3/20/1920 and arrived in north Texas on 4/01/1920. CAS used MKT train lines, which ran south from St. Louis, MO into Texas. The train stopped first in Whitewright to leave George, and the CAS staff had to pull George away from Julius. He rode the train on to Sulphur Springs, TX.

George was taken in by Rev. John and Josephine Meason, who adopted him a year later. In 1930 Dallas Co TX census George was age 16, born NY, living with Frank Meason, age 79 and shown as adopted grandson. John and Josie lived with Frank, shown as son and daughter-in-law.

The Measons later moved to Odessa, so George grew up away from his siblings. The other 4 stayed in the same area, were aware of where the others lived, and occasionally saw each other. For a time, Anna and Elizabeth both lived in the home of the Archeys.

George's first work was in a CCC Camp in Arkansas. He married Audie Reba Henderson on 8/13/1937 in Bailey, Fannin Co. He served in the U.S. Navy in WWII. He and Audie later lived in Odessa.

He was president of the Orphan Train Heritage Society of America for several years and was instrumental in hosting reunions for Texas riders.

George died 2/07/2007 in Odessa, TX.

Moster, Frank

In 1920 Cooke Co TX census he is listed as age 3 2/12, son, born NY and living with Leo and Theresa Moster.

He was born Frank Peccaro in NY about November 1916. He died in Salerno in military service in WWII.

See note for Stephen Moster.

Moster, Stephen; Leo and Theresa Moster

In 1920 Cooke Co TX census he is listed as age 5, son, born NY and living with Leo and Theresa Moster.

According to Find a Grave obituary for Stephen, he was born Stephen Joseph Peccaro on 9/2/1914 in Mt Kisco, Westchester Co, NY to Pasquale and Catherine [Lumbellotti] Peccaro. He was the third of 4 children. The oldest Anthony was born sometime between 1907 -1909 in Italy. So the Peccaros immigrated sometime after his birth. Their second child Theresa Marie was born in NY around 1912. The youngest Frank was also born in NY about November 1916.

In 1919 both Pasquale and Catherine died in a flu epidemic, and the children were sent to an orphanage in NY, probably one affiliated with CAS. The obituary states that the 4 children were sent on a train to Texas in 1920, and 2014 NOTC list shows that they came on a 1918 train.

They were sent to Gainesville, TX and taken in by two couples. Leo and Theresa [Streng] Moster took in the two younger children, Frank and Steven. They were already living with the Mosters in January 1920, ages 3 and 5. The Mosters subsequently had other children.

Steven and Theresa Marie, the older children, were taken in by Joe and Margaret/Maggie [Truebenbach] Sickling and were apparently their only children. [Unable to locate the Sickings in 1920 census]

The 4 siblings were reunited as teenagers when Steven and Frank Moster went to live with Joe and Maggie Sicking, joining Anton and Theresa Marie. In 1940 Cooke Co TX census Joe and Maggie were both age 59, "Tony" age 30, "Thresa" age 23 [possibly 28] , Steve Moster age 25 and Frank Moster age 22.

The 3 brothers were all in service in WWII, and Frank died in Salerno, Italy, the homeland of his parents.

Steven married Mary Wiedemann on 1/15/1946. [Children]

Munchrath, Bertha; Anton Munchrath Jr and Barbara Munchrath

German, matching the birthplace of Barbara and a few others on the same census page. Anton was born in Iowa. So it seems likely that Anton was a local child who had been adopted. Anton and Barbara had been married to each other for 12 years, so he was not Barbara's son from a previous relationship.

He had 6 siblings, and his father had been unable to care for them after his mother died. He had been living in Jefferson County Orphan Home in Watertown, but in 1926 he and two of his brothers, Leo and Gerald, boarded a train for Texas.

They arrived 4/1/1926 into Clarksville station. Alton was age 9. He was first placed with his brother Leo in the Rodgers family. Then he went to live with Dr. Moore's family in Detroit Texas, and his brothers lived 20-30 miles away. They stayed in contact.

Finally he went to live with Ben and Ollie Nailling of Manchester, Red River Co TX. In 1930 Red River Co census he is listed as age 12, adopted son, born NY. Ben was age 48 and Ollie age 46, and they owned a store in Mansfield.

He enlisted for military service in May 1944 in Texas.

He married Novella Richardson.

He eventually found 3 additional brothers [one had died], besides his 6 known siblings. In 1984 Lee Nailling and Leo Rodgers of Texas reunited with Ross Clement of Florida and George Gildard of Syracuse, NY- four brothers together for the first time in 57 years.
